VALLEY SLAUGHTERS FIREMEN, 29---8

The pennant-hungry Valley team again became victorious by slaughtering the Firemen 29-8, last Saturday on Fld. 30.

The Firemen drew first blood in the initial inning, scoring four runs on three hits aided by a trio of walks. In the last half of the first, the Valley team came right back with five runs on three hits aided by four errors. After the first, the Valley team was never headed, scoring in every inning but the fourth.

T. Okida and A. Kubata of Valley each hit a homer into the left field, in the third and fourth. The batteries were: T. Imamura and T. Miyata; Valley; M. Ito and K. Yamaguchi, Firemen.

GOLDEN BEARS vs DYNAMITERS

The Golden Bears, National League pacer, were nearly upset by the hard hitting Dynamiters, but managed to pull out in the sixth by scoring seven runs, at Fld. 43, July 11.

In the fourth inning, Yamada of the Dynamiters scored a homer with bases loaded, which advanced them, 5-2. The Golden Bears scored seven runs, on the error filled inning.

Batteries: Dynamiters, R. Uchi-miya, J. Uchimiya and Yamashiro; Golden Bears, Kawasaki, Mori and Mochizuki.
