TWELVE ENLISTED RESERVISTS TO LEAVE FOR ACTIVE DUTY AT DOUGLAS TONIGHT

Presidential Distinguished Unit Citation Awarded to Units of 442nd Infantry

The awarding of a Presidential Distinguished Unit citation to units of the 442nd Japanese American Combat Team was disclosed in a recent routine dispatch which reported that 1st Lieut. Edward J. Nilges, Fairview Village, Ohio, acting plans and operations officer for the unit, was promoted to the rank of captain. This report was the second on the awarding of a Presidential citation to a Japanese American unit of the U. S. Army. The 100th Infantry Battalion, now incorporated as part of the 442nd, was awarded a unit citation for action near Sassetta, Italy, in June, 1944.

The units of the 442nd were awarded the unit citation for action in the Alsace campaign for smashing the German main line of resistance in that sector. At least three battalions of the enemy were routed and this paved the way for the liberation of two strategic lines.

442ND'S "TANK KILLERS" IN FRENCH ALPS AWAIT MORE ACTION ON OFFENSE

Now biding their time pending the day they can take another swipe at the enemy, the anti-tank company of the 442nd Japanese American Infantry Regiment, that aided many Allied victories, could rest on its laurels, but as litter bearers, ammunition and supply carriers, and as front-line infantrymen in some parts of the Vosges Mountains.

After the Italian campaign, the company was attached to an airborne task force for invasion of Southern France. On D-Day, it was over the French coast in two teams of 18 and 26 gliders, and released. It held its position until relieved by seaborne divisions.

Every member wears the Combat Infantryman's Badge for exemplary conduct under enemy fire, and the Glider Badge.

Poston's boys in the anti-tank division are: Pfc. Yoshio Hamada, 28-11-D; Pfc. Hiroshi Takeda, 42-4-D; Sgt. Matsuo Kobayashi, 39-9-C; Pvt. Yoshio Shiotani, 37-3-B; S/Sgt. David K. TWO VISIT EL CENTRO TO FIND SYMPATHY TOWARD EVACUEES; HOUSING IS A PROBLEM IT IS STATED

Two recent visitors to El Centro, Calif., were Takeo Momita, 39-3-D, and Yoshiya Tsujimoto, 53-4-B, who on their return gave a report of their personal observation of that area. Momita departed for El Centro on Feb. 23 while Tsujimoto had left earlier.

Upon their arrival to El Centro, they had their first personal contact since evacuation with several friends, and found them to be understanding and sympathetic towards the evacuees. One of their friends, Rev. Hayden S. Sears, pastor of the Methodist Church, believed that by educating the public to be tolerant, he could do a great deal for returning Japanese. He suggested returning Japanese should attend churches regularly, and become Christians as this is the accepted religion of this nation.

Mr. Tsujimoto spoke before an El Centro High and Junior College class in sociology. He believes most of the Japanese will be accepted back into the community. He reported that several young boys was so enthusiastic over him that he was offered a permanent Sunday school class.

Mr. Momita, having contacted many people of the minority group on Broadway, which was considered a Japanese town of El Centro, believes that no opposition will come from the old-time residents as no one had expressed

BLACKBIRDS TRIMS DELANO TO CAPTURE "A" CROWN

Hundreds of frenzied spectators pitched their vocal cords to the maximum during the last few minutes of the crucial championship fray for the "A" league crown, as the Duke's southpaw one hand, push-shot artist, Noby Itami, found the range of the hoop to put a scare into the leading Blackbirds who finally ended the thriller 29-22 to clinch the title.

Delano was definitely not their former smooth clicking combo that routed the Ramblers, 47-24, in the semi-final tiff a week ago, while the Blackbirds operated on well planned plays that sent their players into the open on many occasions for two pointers.

The Blackbird defense clamped down hard on Delano's scoring threat Sats Yasumoto, high scoring forward, who was limited to a single charity toss, and towering pivot-man, Lloyd Nishijima, was good for only three counters.

Except for a brief moment in the first canto, the first round title-winners led until the final whistle. But, the last three minutes must have aged the Blackbirds at least ten years when guard Itami turned loose with three consecutive high arched swishers from the sidelines within two minutes. This change of events unnerved the Blackbirds for a wild moment while the crowd went berserk, but they were able to pull themselves together to protect their 29-22 lead until the finish.

SAINTS, B'HAWKS WIN SEMI-FINALS

* * * *

The undefeated Saints and Blackhawks of the National and American "B" leagues, resp., were still unscathed in the semi-finals tilts played on court 38 last Thursday night.

The Saints took a low-scoring victory over the Trojans, runner-ups in the American loop, by a 25-18 score. Yosh Nishimura paced the Saints with eight counters.

The second-place Beavers of the National league dropped a heart-breaker to the fast Blackhawk five by a single point, 31-30. The Beavers led by a safe margin until late in the final quarter when Horibe, Tajii, and Brother Horibe connected for double-deckers to creep up, 30-29. A foul on Horibe's last basket was good for a gratis toss which tied the score at 30-30. Only seconds remained when Horibe was again fouled to be awarded the all-important extra throw which trickled through the nets a second before the whistle.

The "B" title game was held last night, but the results were not available in time.

Lanky Danny Fukushima, flashy cagester who cavorted at the pivot-spot for the champion Bakersfield Oiler quintet, has lost none of his art of point-making, according to Camp Blanding's weekly paper, the Bayonet.

In a previous issue of the Chronicle, it was reported that Danny sparked his 64th Regiment team to a victory over the leading 61st outfit to tie them for the first berth. Latest reports show that the 64th bowled over their last two opponents in the IRTG tourney to still co-hold the first position with the 61st, sparked by Danny who netted 25 counters on these two occasions. The championship tilt for the tourney title has already been played, but the results are unknown.

Danny also plays a major role with the Blanding All-Post cagers who won the camp title from the Medical Detachment, 60-59, last month. The All-Post quintet includes many crack college hoopsters and are entered in the North Florida Open Tournament to vie with 15 outstanding quints of that sector.

Other names familiar to Poston cage circles which are included in the 64th Regiment roster are George and Ernie Mizuno, former mainstays of the strong Golden Bears, and George Tatsuno and George Nakamura, former team mates of Danny on the Bakersfield Oiler squad.

Today as we type out this column the sky is overcast and it looks like rain. Only yesterday we thought that summer had already come to Poston. A frosty morning with intense heat in the afternoon really gets us down.

With a close sample of what kind of summer we will have to spend, many are saying that they don't want to spend another summer in this desert heat. So we'd better pack up and exit from the gates of Poston pretty soon or the hot summer will catch up with us in no time. However, we don't care for the sultry heat either. Oh, but the California weather, there's where you get the best, if only the people living there were as nice as its weather!

Our days in the center are now numbered. This may be the reason why we get an idea to do something or make something, but set it aside saying, "Well, what's the use, we won't be here very long and it isn't wise to make our baggage any larger than it already is." Those who are now planning actual relocation have some incentive to plan for the outside world and their life remaining in the center may not be so dull. But to those on the stop list camp life is now quite meaningless, especially the young ones for all they can picture is another camp life under worse conditions. Scheduled to play the 318 boys for the league title last Wednesday night.
