Poston Harvest Festival Planned Here

Tying in with the traditional Japanese Obon, the Poston Harvest Festival will be held here on Aug. 15 and 16. It will be a regular County Fair with judging of vegetables grown within the city. A free exhibit with displays by the various Federal Agencies will be held.

A motley of attractions such as clowns, acrobats, side-shows and others will be seen at the circus to be performed in the adobe mosquito shelter by the Girls' Clubs, with Sady Kitaoka as director.

Bazaar and exhibitions are being planned for the fair, but the complete program has not as yet been drafted. However, the leaders are discussing it with enthusiasm and enjoyment for all is anticipated.

Poultry Project

According to Fred Kobayashi, temp. chrmn, of the Poultry project, 34 workers have already cleared off 10 acres of an 80-acre site in the "northeastern section of midsection line 34" in preparing to receive a first shipment of 5000 fowls. Eventually they hope to raise 30,000 layers.

Tractors are clearing off the underbrush, which is being hauled off and burned, while the trees are being left to serve as shade for the chickens.

40-12'x18' brush roof range houses will be built on a fenced-off five acres to take care of the expected 5000 fowls. Water is to be supplied by the poultry project's own pump.

Visitor's Quarters Under Construction

In order to provide living quarters for visitors here, a new 20'x100' building is under construction directly to the east of the Post Office, at the entrance of Camp One.

Similar quarters are being planned for Camps Two and Three. The construction of the visitor's quarters is handled by the Del E. Webb Construction Company.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Bakersfield Defeated Orange County

Orange County suffered their first defeat in the American League as Bakersfield scored a 6-3 victory, July 23, on Fld. 30.

Behind Toyo Hisatomi's four-hit hurling, Bakersfield scored three runs in the second, on a walk, a single and two doubles. Two more runs came across in the fourth on three timely singles, to take a five run lead. O.C. scored one run in the fourth, and two in the fifth but from there on, Bakersfield held them scoreless.

Batteries: Orange County--F. Mizusawa, H. Nitta and J. Matsuda; Bakersfield--T. Hisatomi, and G. Tatsuno.

DELANO DEFEATS YANKEES TO TAKE LEAD

The Delano team swamped the Yankees 10-5 to take the lead in the hot American League race last Thursday night, on Fld. 26, as Bakersfield downed Orange County 6-3.

Delano started in the initial inning, scoring five runs on six hits, two of them home runs by the first two batters to face Sugiyama of the Yankees. The third homer of the game was hit in the sixth inning.

K. Yamaguchi held the Yankees to eight scattered hits to gain his seventh straight victory, while Dolano was blasting 14 hits off of Sugiyama.

Batteries: Delano--K. Yamaguchi and J. Katano; Yankees--E. Sugiyama and C. Shima.

GAMES SCHEDULED FOR JULY 26, SUN.

Orange County vs Polecats, Fld. 30.
