Everytime we see the newsreel of the battle-front and the people who are caught in the midst of it....that clamps our mouth which wants to "monku" about the kind of food we are having now. Our last meal reminded us of the menu in some of the wealthier families in Paris which we read in the magazines. It was practically all potatoes disguised into soups, main dish, desserts, etc.

From the latest words from friends outside, they all seem to have trouble getting meats. At least we see pieces of it in our slops for which we guess we should be thankful to our hog project. If we were to relocate on a farm somewhere, perhaps one of the first things to do will be to get a pig, chicks and cow, and grow vegetables. In this way we can safeguard ourselves against too many meatless days.

Being in this office from the very beginning, I have sent off practically all my editors and co-workers to a better future in far off states. This time I had to say good-bye to one of my dearest friends and partner in this business who has gone to find a future in Detroit. During our two years together in this office, most of the time just us two, I can say on my part that there was not one moment when I had to cope with moods or temper...Go to a girl who can work so harmoniously, but...the staff's best wishes goes with you...this week, I also lost another worker but this one for just one week. Kenneth has gone to look around in San Diego and I hope to have a first hand story of his in this

FIREMEN DEFEAT DELANO IN HARDBALL TILT, 9-5

In the third encounter with the Delano nine this season, the champion Firemen again won the game 9-5 at the Yankee Stadium Sunday afternoon.

With H. Itami on the mound, the Camp I ball players started out like the game was to be theirs for a change with a lead of 2-0 in first 3 innings. One of these runs was made by H. Itami, pitcher, who blasted a homer over the head of the right fielder.

In the fourth, the Firemen closed in by 1 point when F. Tanaka made a run on a hit.

The 5th inning turned the table when J. Moriooka made a spectacular 4 bagger to the center field bringing in 3 runs. Delano scored 1 run by Nishijima on fielder's choice.

The 7th and 8th saw the Firemen mugging the ball out of the tired Delano chucker for another 5 runs to take the game.

In the final inning, with 2 men on base, G. Nishijima, pinch-hitter for Ikemiya connected, enabling 2 runs to come in. But the game ended when he was caught at second for the third out.

Chucking for the day were: S. Nakakada, B. Mori, Firemen; H. Itami, Y. Arita, Delano.

On the receiving end were B. Inouye and O-bata.
