98 FOUND GUILTY OF NOT REPORTING FOR INDUCTION

Found guilty of charges of failure to report for induction, were 98 from Poston, by a ruling of Judge Dave W. Ling on three test cases which cover the issues of all the individual cases, said the June 5 Phoenix Gazette.

A motion to quash the indictments against the men was denied by Judge Ling prior to his entering judgment on the three test cases. The three defendants in the "typical" cases, Hidechi Takeguma, Yasuto Fujioaka, and Kinjo Tajii, are to be sentenced by Judge Ling on June 18 in the U.S. district court at Phoenix. It is almost certain, however, that the cases will be appealed to the U.S. circuit court of appeals and possibly to the U.S. supreme court.

All 98 cases have been consolidated into one the United States vs. Ben Yumen, and each defendant previously entered a plea of not guilty and waived trial by jury. The main issue in the motion to quash was whether selective service agencies have legal jurisdiction to order the induction of a man held in a relocation center. It was contended that selective

"SAGA OF A PEOPLE"

And a cup of steaming, green tea;
Driving to the beach and learning to roast hot dogs
Over a driftwood fire,
And eating them with seed-covered rice cakes;
Passing on to their children the ceremonious courtesies
That they had learned so long ago.

And so they lived out their lives
Guided by their sons and daughters
Through this strange new world,
Slowly changing their deep-rooted ways.

They have come to a new home
Living in a single room
Behind barbed wire--
They know that peace has been shattered throughout the world

By heavily laden bombs of terror and destruction;
By they who love the deeply tranquil soil
Are stunned, bewildered by it all,
By the cold wall which their American friends
Have built about them.

Now they are standing on the beloved soil
of their western mother,
Their wizened bodies huddled together
Against the bitter cold,
Rising they look toward the sea
Vainly striving through the mists of the past
To live again the dreams of their youth,
Thinking of a pleasant land

where cherry blossoms
Warmed their hearts in spring,
Where placid gold fish lazily swam in sunny ponds,
Where all was contented and peaceful;
They turn towards the red glow of the sinking sun,
Seeing through the distant hills, seeing over all the land
The rolling hills and valleys of their western mother.

Then they turn towards each other with eyes full Unashamedly,
Understandingly;
For deep in their almond brown eyes,
Deep in the innermost depths of their souls
There shall always glow a hope,
A hope that peace shall come one day;
A peace forging with understanding and friendship
The islands of their long-lost youth
And the far stretching land of their children's birth.

98 WERE FOUND GUILTY

service regulations have no bearing on these defendants, since they were classed as enemy aliens and had, in the majority of instances, already applied for expatriation to Japan after renouncing American citizenship.

A. L. Wirin, of Los Angeles, attorney for the defendants, submitted the motion to quash pursuant to a stipulation which provided that if the motion was denied certain typical cases would be selected and the remaining complaints be withheld from ruling pending the decision on the test cases and until legal issues were settled in an appellate court.

Affidavits were submitted by Fujioka, Tajii and Takeguma. Both Fujioka and Tajii testified that they had asked to renounce American citizenship and to return to Japan and that they had been placed on a "stop-list" prohibiting them from leaving Poston without a military guard. Takeguma stated he had not reported for induction because he had been deprived of his rights as an American citizen, and therefore, believed he was not subject to draft.

All 98 defendants in the case are at liberty on bail.

YBA NOTES

Today at 1:30 p.m., a regular council and cabinet meeting of the YBA will be held at Rec. 31.

Tomorrow the YBA service will be at the Blk. 13 church with Rev. Gyosei Nagafuji as the speaker.

442nd REGIMENT COMMEDED BY COMMANDING GENERAL

"The 442nd Infantry, with its fine combat record, arrived in the Italian theater on March 26, having just previously left a record of distinguished combat in France with the Sixth Army Group, United States Army. Arriving without organizational equipment, the regiment so rapidly equipped itself and conditioned its weapons that it was ready to enter the offensive on April 5 in a most effective manner against the German Gothic Line in the Lugerian Apennine Mountains.

"The performance by units and by individuals has been a magnificent example of speed, drive, and endurance in combat against an enemy entrenched in most difficult terrain and employing every known device of modern combat.

"The task assigned your regiment was a most difficult one which entailed repeated assaults against strongly prepared successive defensive positions: The endurance, stamina, and courage of the individuals of this regiment under these difficult conditions deserve the highest commendation. This has been accorded by the Army Group commander, General Mark W. Clark, by the Army Commander, Lieutenant General Lucian K. Truscott Jr., to which I add my sincere thanks and appreciation for your splendid service to the nation, the United States Army, and in particular to the 92nd Infantry Division. You as individuals should take great pride in your accomplishments as tried and true soldiers who had a great part in vanquishing the German foe on the Italian front. I am sure your performance will be great satisfaction to each of you for the rest of your lives.

"I am proud to have had you under my command and bid you Godspeed with the knowledge that wherever you serve as soldiers you will give a fine account of yourselves and merit the fine reputation that you have established while serving with this division.

"Good luck!"

NISEI DOMESTIC HELP
PREFERRED SAYS AD

In the classified ad section of the Omaha Evening World-Herald, April 24, 1945, appeared the following notice under Domestic Help wanted.

"MAID, Japanese American preferred, house work. Stay on place, private room, $28.50 per week. Write Box 6840, World-Herald."

If Japanese-Americans leave the relocation centers now while jobs and business opportunities are still open and sentiment is good, Prudence Ross, acting supervisor of the North Central Area, commented, they will not suffer greatly during the temporary dislocation of workers following the cessation of war contracts.

The ad in the Omaha Evening World-Herald is tude toward Japanese Americans in the Midwest once the ice has been broken. Some employers who have never known Japanese-Americans are hesitant to employ them at first, but once they have employed Japanese-Americans, they are almost always eager to employ others.

TWO W.R.A. FIELD AREAS
MERGED SINCE JUNE FIRST

To give better service and more complete information to eastbound evacuees, the Middle Atlantic Area and the New England Area merged June 1 into a single area, to be known as the East Coast Area, H. Rex Lee, relocation division chief, announced.

Robert Dolins, formerly assistant head, center liaison section, relocation division in the Washington office, will be relocation supervisor of the enlarged area.

The relocation chief announced that the Rochester, N. Y. office would close June 1. Territory formerly included in the Rochester district will be divided between the East Coast Area and the Great Lakes Area.

KENNY URGED TO INTERVENE
IN FRESNO COUNTY CASE

The American Civil Liberties Union called on attorney General Robert W. Kenny to file felony charges against Levi Multanen, Parlier rancher who drew a six months suspended sentence after admitting firing shots into the home of a returned Japanese American, according to the June 4 San Francisco Chronicle.

The Civil Liberties group action followed a sharp criticism by Secretary of the Interior Ickes of acts of terrorism against returning Japanese Americans in California.

Multanen was brought into the municipal court after admitting firing two shots into the home of Charles Iwasaki on May 22, while Iwasaki, his wife, and three children and a grandfather were inside.

ARMY TO GET "JAP
COURSE" FROM NISEI

WASHINGTON, June 2, (UP)--American troops being shifted from Europe to the Pacific will learn how to fight the Japanese from American soldiers of Japanese ancestry, it was revealed today.

Special teams of Nisei--Japanese Americans--will demonstrate Japanese uniforms, weapons and methods. These teams have been undergoing special training at a camp in Maryland in readiness for providing instructions to soldiers returning from Europe.

Teams consist of 15 members including two officers and 13 enlisted men, 11 of the latter being Nisei.

Retraining is incorporated in a comprehensive Army ground forces course covering eight weeks of work, divided into weekly units. Not all divisions will have the opportunity to go through the full course.

Others who will spend longer intervals in this country will receive additional training in company, battalion, regimental and divisional exercises, the so-called "combined training" in which the activities of various arms--infantry, artillery, armor, anti-aircraft and reconnaissance units--are coordinated.

The work is arranged in order of importance so that a unit which could get only four weeks of training would receive instruction in the most important matters.

Two pools are going in at Camp Hood, Tex., and another at Camp Roberts, Calif.

229 PANTHERS HONOR

All those who were present enjoyed the light refreshments in the 229 Blue Room.

DEDICATION TO OUR FATHERS:

"SAGA OF A PEOPLE"

(This poem was one of 6000 entries in the literary division and was one of 67 prize winners in this nationwide contest. Written by Ruth Tanaka, 307-3-B, junior in Parker Valley High School, this poem won fourth prize in Scholastic Magazine's contest this year.)

They have sprung from a race as old as Time,
Their backs are bent, their hands are wrinkled
and brown,
For they have toiled long years under a harsh master--Life;

Each passing year has left its mark
Upon their seamed and weathered faces
That show as other faces do,
A heart-deep yearning for a far-off land;
A land of frail houses, stunted trees, a sacred volcano

Sleeping under a blanket of snow.
Traces of half-forgotten customs.
A love for the life-giving sun, the freshening
rain, the deep brown soil,
Still lingers in their hearts.
Deep scars of pain and grief are etched on their worn faces
And yet their wise twinkling eyes
Have looked on life and found it good.

They have come to a fabulous land,
While still dreaming of long thoughts of youth;
They have sowed their seeds, weeded furrows,
Hoed a sun-parched land, watered and nursed it,
Harvested their plentiful crops, built a home
And borne their children.
Lest they forget the islands of their fathers,
They have brought their little treasures with them
A miniature chest of drawers, lacquered dragon-red;
Two dainty fans gay with dancing girls;
A bamboo screen with a tiny arched bridge
And fragile lilies reflected in still water;
Little dolls in bright kimonos of hand-painted silk;
Delicate tea cups set on a polished tray.

The seeds they sowed took root and sprouted,
Grew tall and straight with bursting pods,
Giving rich promise of fulfillment.
So grew their black-haired children
Straight and tall, drawing nourishment from the free soil

Of this, their native land.
Their lives were like a deep, peaceful river
Formed by the mingling of two streams,
The old familiar customs of their ancestors
Mixing with the new bewildering ones of their foster country

And slowly giving way before them:
Eating a breakfast of bacon and scrambled eggs
Instead of the hot soup and rice they had eaten
In the home of their fathers;
Raising a huge paper carp on Boys' Day; Awkwardly tying a silver star to the tip of the family Christmas tree;
Reluctantly going to a movie with the children,
Leaving behind a friendly game of Go
