MESS CHANGE TO BE TRIED

A new system which may eliminate standing in line is to be inaugurated at the White Mess tomorrow morning, it was revealed today by heads of the Mess and Lodging division.

Each member of the family will take a card issued to them, instead of their white tags, to be punched at each meal.

Numbers stamped on each card denote a specific time at which the holders will be admitted to the mess hall.

The success of the plan depends on strict observance of the three shifts, ac-

Change Affects Three Districts

It's Azucar avenue now instead of Avenue A, Bay View instead of Avenue B and so on down the list of avenues for Dist. IV, V, VI.

The renaming of avenues after famous horses, suggested by Assistant Center Manager Gene W. Wilbur, was completed early this week by the Utility department.

The new names in alphabetical order are:

- A--Azucar avenue
- B--Bay View avenue
- C--Chalcedon avenue
- D--Discovery avenue
- E--Equipoise avenue
- F--Fairy Hill avenue
- G--Gillie avenue
- H--He Did avenue
- I--Indiantown avenue
- J--Jabot avenue
- K--Kayak avenue
- M--Man o' War avenue
- N--Nahili avenue

In addition to Seabiscuit avenue, there are three other well-used thoroughfares which have been named:

- Walk between showers and Grandstand -- Palicious lane.

Paul Robeson's rendition of "The Ballad for Americans," and Schubert's "Serenade," will be included in Sunday's Classic hour at the Grandstand.

Mrs. Kazuo Niede, concert violinist, played an excerpt from Bloch's "Three Pictures of Chassidic Life" and "Gipsy Airs" by Sarasate before an appreciative audience at last Sunday's program.

Mrs. Niede was accompanied by her sister, Mary Tawara, on the piano.

Barber Keeps in Trim Through Free Haircut Service

More than 200 heads have passed through the hands of Jim Miyamoto, who operates a free barber service at B-12 U-A-R.

He averages seven to eight haircuts a day, but sometimes gives as many as 15. His hours are 8 to 11 a.m. and 1:30 to 3 p.m.

It takes from 10 to 20 minutes to complete a job, depending on who's in the chair. Miyamoto has found that work proceeds more swiftly if it's an older man. The younger men are more concerned with their appearance.

Hair is being worn short.

er, though. The crowd out, while not wholly pleasing to the unaccustomed eye, has its virtues.

Miyamoto cuts hair for the simple reason that he likes to cut hair. He says he has to give at least three hair cuts daily to sleep.--by Miyuki Aoyama.

The child said, "Mama, I want to go back to America; I want to play with Patty."

The mother answered, "Child, we are in America; see the American flag!"

The women, as mothers and teachers, have the task of molding their children who are passing through an impressionable period in vastly changed surroundings.

So that teachers may develop clearer thinking habits and mothers may foster good behavior in their children, a get-together is held each Saturday, 9 a.m. in the Recreation hall.

Approximately 600 parents and teachers attended the first meeting and heard Dr. Ichihashi, noted Stanford educator, warn, "As individuals, we must watch our daily living habits, as children cannot distinguish good from bad, and learn to a great extent by observation of people about them."

One of the young men in charge of the 5-6 age group confided that a teacher must live his pupils' lives, to familiarize himself with a child's moods.

He finds that a sullen child did not have a candy bar before class. This youthful psychologist appoints him monitor to do a simple task. The child is then entitled to a "Baby Ruth."

This column is open to Center women, young and old, who have problems to air; subjects may range from yearlings to housecleaning. Let's have an inspection of our daily living as well as our barracks. Please bring written suggestions to the PACEMAKER.

The match was close from start to finish with Hashiguchi and Inouye playing fine offensive games. Minami's timely placement shots and good defensive play by Itaya were outstanding.

Oldster Helps Maintain Cleanliness

"I do it for the people's health and my own exercise," explained 68-year-old Keizo Takiguchi, B-3 U-S A-3, when questioned regarding his early morning activity.

Every morning at about 5 o'clock, Takiguchi is to be seen sweeping the street and the front of each unit between Barracks 2 and 12A in District III.

Some times neighbors wake up to find their gardens already watered by him.

Before the streets were sprinkled with calcium chloride, Takiguchi often watered the streets after sweeping.--by Mitsuyo Uyem.

FATHER'S DAY OBSERVED BY TWO CHURCH GROUPS

In one of the various church services held in the Center over the weekend, the Seventh Day Adventists heard Pastor A. Nozaki tell of the surety of following God's planned course.

The Young People heard the Rev. J. H. E. Yamazaki speak on "An Imperative Response." The choir's anthem for both services was "God So Loved the World."

The Buddhist honored their fathers in meditation. The Rev. N. Ishiura's sermon was on "Sin and Salvation." To the Young People's group, the Rev. T. Tsuruyama told a story based on the father theme.

There are three sets of twins working at the White mess as waitresses. The twins are Dorothy and Irene Umekubo, Yukiko and Fukuko Sato, and Setsuko and Hideko Okada.

The Sato twins never dress alike, but this, contrary to simplifying matters, makes things worse, reports Betty Kanameishi, since everyone then thinks that one Sato girl is changing clothes several times daily.

Democracy Is Not Acts of Few

The recent New York speech of Pearl S. Buck, Nobel prize winner and famous novelist, is one with which we concur heartily. She said, in part:

"I don't know a more difficult position than that in which Americans of Japanese blood find themselves today... Now when we are at war with Japan this burden is a hundred times heavier to bear than it has ever been. Japan is today our enemy. We cannot and will not see a world where the military fascist mind is the ruler. We are enemies to that mind. I know that the Japanese Americans of whom I speak are enemies, too, of that mind. They hate the Japanese mind that is waging this war of Japanese aggression, but even those Japanese who are the most loyal to our democratic cause and to the American government... must bear the added burden of doubt and suspicion. Ignorant persons... may wreak a childish vengeance upon these Japanese Americans...

"When such acts happen, I beg the Japanese Americans not to despair of democracy or of America. I ask it to be remembered that there are millions of other American citizens who believe in justice and fairness and equality, and that these are the true Americans."

Father Makes Fancy Baby Carriage

Have you seen a Puckish little character, wearing a derby, riding with a regal air about the stable area in a home-made baby buggy?

Well, he is eight-month-old Howard Akio Koseki, B-12A U-7 A-3. The unique carriage was made from an old washboard and scrap wood by his father, Francis.

It has a detachable awning, a safety belt and two miniature license plates bearing the Koseki I.D. number.

"Howard is always glad when I put the derby on his head, because he knows he's going for a ride," explains his mother, Mrs. Mary Koseki.--by Bob Kinoshita.
