On The Other Hand—

By Roy M. Takano

ULTIMATE SOLUTION
A group of unrelated items gleaned from newspapers, magazines and books, sometimes can illustrate facts of the daily, unceasing struggle toward an ultimate solution of the American social problem.

The suggestion by Rep. Johnson of Oklahoma that Congress ought to authorize the sterilization of alien Japanese cannot be civil communitarian; except to suggest that unwittingly, or otherwise, a member of our own Federal legislative body is echoing an essential of the very type of cruelty reportedly practiced by some of the totalitarian powers.

Acting under the suggestion from the Anti-Defamation League, the New York University has agreed "to eliminate from its application for admission forms all questions relating to race, creed or nationality." The A. D. L. is urging other colleges to do likewise.

Negro author, Richard Wright's current autobiography of the first 18 years of his repressed, rebellious life; perhaps echoes something of the experience of many Japanese-Americans when he says: "I used to mull over the strange absence of real kindness in Negroes, how unstable was our temperance, how lacking in genuine passion we were, how void of

EXPLAIN NEED FOR INCREASED BUDGET

Salt Lake City—Total income of $20,103.73 and total expense of $27,107.52. This was indicated in the 1944 annual report of the National JACL to the members released last week. The estimated budget for the current year is $29,865, with the income estimated at $28,100, leaving a deficit of over $1,700. To cover this deficit, the League is asking for increased memberships and donations.

The League anticipates a critical year of services which it can render to returnees to the West Coast.

McWilliams Criticizes State Education Plan

Lashing at the discriminatory practice of preventing enrollment of Negro students in Missouri's colleges, Author Carey McWilliams writes in the current issue of The Nation: "The embarrassment is only enhanced by the curious betwixt-and-between educational authorities have been admitting nisei students.

great hope, how timid our joy, how bare our traditions, how hollow our memories, how lacking we were in those intangible sentiments that bind man to man, and how shallow was even our despair!"

Educator Lashes At Pressures On Colleges

"University of Colorado has been subjected to pressure about equal treatment for nisei and Negroes and other groups," declared Dr. R. G. Gustavson, retiring president of the university.

Higher education in Colorado "never will amount to anything" unless the University of Colorado and the colleges remain free of outside influences and pressures, he said last week.

GAY CROWD EXPECTED AT EASTER DANCE

Yoshinobu At Iwo Jima

Chicago—"We're mighty proud of him being with the marines on Iwo Jima," said Mrs. James Yoshinobu, a niece, of 3949 Lake Park Ave., whose husband, Sgt. James Yoshinobu, is one of the first nisei soldiers to work with marines in the Pacific. He is an interpreter.

Mrs. Yoshinobu said she and her children, Tomiko, 14, a freshman at Hyde Park High School; Rei, 12; Seiji, 8, and Sumio, 5, all students at the Oakwood Grammar School, and Etsuko, 2, follow the news of the bloody fighting on Iwo Jima with intense interest.

Sgt. Yoshinobu, 41, is a veteran of World War I.

"Minority groups should always be allowed to speak," said. "The majority group should remember that it may be the minority of tomorrow."

BUSSEIS ELECT CABINET STAFF

Jim Yanari was selected to head the Denver YBA at the semi-annual election of officers held after the regular YBA service last Sunday evening, March 4. ## San Diego, Here! Come Back! He Says

Poston, Ariz.—Returning to Poston, happy over the warm welcome from former friends in San Diego, which he visited with four other Unit II residents, Rev. Kenji Kikuchi reports not one single incident of discrimination or display of ill-will during the ten-day trip.

BUYERS SCARCE

Portland, Ore.—The first Japanese-American to sell vegetables at the local city farmers' wholesale produce market, which is resuming an injunction sought by Attorney Elmer Yamanaga, Dr. George Ochiuku and Kiyoshi Shizukawa.

PRESIDENT'S ORDER BACKS EXCLUSION

Los Angeles—Brig. Gen. William H. Wilbur, chief of staff of the Western Defense Command, explained last week in At. S. Judge Gordon M. Hall's court that the exclusion of certain Japanese from California defense zones is executed under direct orders of the President, as issued through the War Department.

The testimony was given by the general while he was being cross-examined as witness for the government, which is resisting an injunction sought by Attorney Elmer Yamanaga, Dr. George Ochiuku and Kiyoshi Shizukawa.

Other growers reported brisk demand for crops, but S. Tsubota was treated more as a curiosity than a dealer. He returned readily to his large Columbia River farm with most of the produce still on his truck.
