WAR CASUALTIES AMONG NISEIS TOLD

The Office of War Information today released the names of these nisei war casualties:

PRISONERS OF WAR

First Lieut. James N. Yamazaki, son of Rev. Dr. John Miso Yamazaki, 6408 S. Dorchester Ave., Chicago.
Pfc. Teisuo Kashiwamura, son of Mrs. Tomo Kashiwamura, 2914 Panna Valley Rd., Honolulu.

WOUNDED IN EUROPE

Capt. Katsumi Nakadate, wife of Mrs. Mary Nakadate, 907 W. Chicago Ave., East Chicago.
T/4 Shigetaro Toyoshima, husband of Mrs. Kikue S. Toyoshima, 4501 Bruce St., Minneapolis, Minn.

Soldier-Actor In Movie About Saboteurs

When Movie Actor Lee Tracy was Capt. Tracy, U. S. A., he toured WRA country questionnaires to ascertain what had some sympathetic things to say about loyal niseis.

Now he is on inactive list in the Army and has finished the lurid movie version of Alan Hyde's "Betrayal From the East." Its subject matter is the alleged Japanese saboteuring plans on the West Coast before the war.

On The Other Hand—

By Roy M. Takano

MEANING OF THE SORROW

The public reaction to the historic drama accompanying the death of the late President Roosevelt last week once again demonstrated the unity of the American people. The press and the radio, of course, helped immeasurably to vivify the event in the minds and hearts of the morning people.

But root of this significance lies, perhaps, in the unfolding of a demonstrable tragic event against the background of war, well within the understandable scope of the most humble of American people. The press and the radio, of course, helped immeasurably to vivify the event in the minds and hearts of the morning people.

"We'll Go National," Campaigners Boast

Commenting on sleigh-ride fashion anti-leave campaign, engineered in Bellevue, Wash., last week by Arthur J. Ritchie and his pal, A. E. McCroskey, the Time Magazine editorial reports the aims of this pair.

As soon as "we're sold on the West Coast," Ritchie bubbled, "we'll go national." He is counting on the eventual return of the Pacific war veterans as "one man a missionary for this move."

POINT-BY-POINT REPLY MADE BY WRA TO EVACUEES' 21-POINT RECOMMENDATION Washington, D. C.—Point-by-point comments by the WRA on the 21-point recommendation made by the evacuee delegates at the recent Salt Lake City all-center conference indicated a generally encouraging support to the wishes of the evacuees; with reservations, where clearly, under their authorization, the WRA cannot accede to a recommendation.
