CANADA'S ISSUES

Canada today is just getting under way with the segregation program among her 25,000 evacuees under a theory somewhat at variance with the well-remembered questionnaire method used here.

Meanwhile, Canada faces a national election June 11. The Cooperative Commonwealth Federation members of the House of Commons number but 10 among a total of 245 members.

As the draft issue of some months ago revealed, the Dominion does have its minority problem, relevant to the French Canadians, who at that time rallied the cooperation they for a respectably solid and influential, but a minority, position in the Canadian economic, social and political life.

Oka Resigns From Hollywood Legion Post

Hollywood, Cal.—Harley M. Oka, Japanese American war veteran registered April 19 from Hollywood's World War II post of the American Legion.

Politics Action to Cheap

In the editorial, "Canada Threatens Its Nisei Citizens," the Christian Century on April 11 declared that cheap politics and brutal racism lies at the bottom of Canada's policy of making niseis stay east of the Rockies or choose repatriation.
