PUT OWN HOUSE IN ORDER, IS PLEA

San Francisco—While world leaders are preparing to incorporate a "bill of rights" into a world charter in San Francisco, a plea was made here yesterday that the United States puts its own house in order in the way of guaranteeing the rights of minority people.

The plea was directed specifically at proposed National and State Fair Employment Practices Acts, guarantee-

Pastor Returns Home

Washington, D. C.—Our Causing friends will welcome us to Seattle to open the Japanese Methodist Church for returns," Rev. Thomas Machida declared yesterday. "I believe the pastor should return first and tell the people in the centers that there is no danger on the outside."

He arrived with his wife, a translator here for the WRA. Rev. Machida and his family is returning to Seattle where he was pastor of the Japanese church until evacuation in 1942.

ing equal right of employment to all people, regardless of race, creed, color or land of origin.

It was made by Anna Arnold Hedgesman, executive secretary for the National Council for a Permanent Fair Employment Practice. Rev. J. D. Lipper, who was confidential assistant to the late Wendell Willkie.

"There are 750,000 colored people of the world who are not directly represented at the San Francisco Conference," Miss Lipper declared.
