Rocky Shimpo DENVER, COLORADO VOLUME 12-NUMBER 101

Two Legion Posts Are Reinstated. Sacramento, Calif.-Judge Advocate John A. Sinclair of San Francisco ruled Aug. 27 that the action of the 1942 executive committee in suspending the charters of two Japanese American Legion posts was illegal and would have been ruled so had the Japanese protested.

ON THE OTHER HAND. By Roy M. Takano. The other day, soldiers bound for reemployment to the Pacific and Mountain, Wyo., to Los Angeles, passed each other in the Los Angeles Post. The happy moment returned showed signs of embarrassment; and some of the soldiers, irritation.

LET THE QUESTION GO. The other day, soldiers bound for reemployment to the Pacific and Mountain, Wyo., to Los Angeles, passed each other in the Los Angeles Post. The happy moment returned showed signs of embarrassment; and some of the soldiers, irritation.

They were irritated because the Japanese American were being permitted to return to their homes. Thousands of soldiers are being discharged to return home. Some are returning to their home states. All returned. But they, the soldiers at the Union Station, were bound for the tedious occupational duty, in Japan, probably.

About time somebody got a break. One of the soldiers observed. Then, he asked rhetorically, "What do you have to do to get home—become a Jap?"

Let the question go. Let them go without the returning becoming ruffled. Forty thousand more returns have yet to figure out where they would go.
