LEADER PRESSES FEPIC LEGISLATION

Washington—House Minority Leader Martin, R. Mass., predicted last week that the controversial FEPIC bill, bottled up in the committee and since early in 1944, would be passed by the House in February.

CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION SUPPORTING COURT CHALLENGE OF RENUNCIATION OF CITIZENSHIP BY JAPANESE AMERICANS

New York City—"All citizens interested in advancing American liberty" were urged recently to consider issues requiring "immediate action" in a program adopted by the 25th Annual National Conference of the American Civil Liberties Union held in New York City recently.

ON THE OTHER HAND

By Ray M. Takano
SPIRIT OF THE GREETING
In the year 1945, the American people are trying conscientiously to resume their normal lives, minus the war, and the excitement of the war years. War years in this country are not the readily visible ones as can be seen today in the war-ravaged cities of Europe and Asia.

URGENT COMPENSATION FOR EVACUEES WHO SUFFERED ANY DAMAGES TO PROPERTY

Washington—Secretary of Interior Harold Ickes told a press conference Dec. 28 Americans of Japanese descent who were confined in concentration camps "are entitled to receive compensation for any damages inflicted on their property in California elsewhere during the evacuees' absence."
