

ALL BRANCHES OF NAVY BAR NISEIS, SAYS BARD

Four More Leave

Camp Shelby, Miss.—Four more top-ditch non-commissioned officers of the 171st Infantry Battalion Separate, Camp Shelby, Miss., have received word to report at the Infantry Officers Candidate School, Fort Benning, Ga. They are: T/Sgt. William K. Nakano and S/Sgt. Ed. Edward C. Mashara of Company "B," and S/Sgt. Harry I. Yanagimachi and S/Sgt. William U. Yoden of Companies "D" and "C" respectively.

On The Other Hand

By Roy M. Takano

Acting Secretary of Navy Ralph A. Bard is reported from New York Monday to have announced the current policy of the Navy regarding recruitment of niseis.

The answer is "no."

Reason? "Their admission," Mr. Bard is reported to have explained, "would create racial problems which cannot be handled adequately under war conditions."

What of the Negroes and the Filipinos in the Navy? What racial problems? The answer to the second question probably can be surmised.

No direct promise, or guarantee, was given at the time; but when the War Department early this year announced its program to reinstitute the selective service program for the niseis, thus lifting them out of the ignominious 4-C classification; at that time informal promise reportedly was given to the Japanese Americans that they may soon have freedom of choice in selecting the branch of service. But that was only an informal promise, or rather, an opinion expressed in response to niseis' inquiries regarding the subject.

Of course, the Navy may later upon its reuniting doors to the niseis; just as in the instance of the Army.

Swimming Men 'Frighten' Nazis

Camp Shelby, Miss.—T/Sgt. Victor Akimoto, along with S/Sgt. Thomas Murakami, and S/Sgt. Thomas T. Nibakido (all former members of the 1st Battalion, 442nd Central Postal Directory, were headed for a refreshing bath in a stream after many hours of pursuing retreating Germans in the hot sun when they unexpectedly encountered a German patrol. The sergeants were unarmed but the Germans proved more frightened for they too were without weapons and had their arms in the air. Promptly taking advantage of the situation the nisei triumphantly marched the four prisoners back to the company commander.

See How Tongue Taught Over Here

Dr. Gregg M. Sinclair, president of University of Hawaii, to Chicago, is a visitor here. Dr. Sinclair went to Boulder Tuesday to see at first hand how the Japanese language is handled at Colorado university.

"We have been teaching the Japanese language at Hawaii," said Dr. Sinclair, "but from all I hear, I believe the government may have a better method at Boulder that will cause us to change our method of study completely."
