JUDGE NAMES DATES FOR TWO HEARINGS

U.S. District Judge J. Foster Symes yesterday approved employment of Sam Menin...

Trial of three Japanese-American hibakus on charge of treason was postponed from July 10 to July 24...

On The Other Hand

"When a public official wants to avoid concrete action," comments the PM newspaper, he orders a survey."

Negro problem in New York's Harlem has been, and continues to be acute, despite all that Mayor La Guardia is attempting to do to prevent them.

Since the Great Metropolis' magistracy of Italian descent recently dug into the Japanese-American relocation question by discouraging them to resettle in the New York area...

Regarding elimination of racial and color discrimination from municipal and state laws...

We agree with the judge that merit, and not race, should determine job placements, promotions and scope of work in civil service.

Never quite in the same manner has a single phase of a war been accepted as much as the June 6 D-Day marking the invasion of Europe.

Military significance of the offensive aside for the moment, its meaning to thousands of American people in their homes is an overwhelming one...

The thought may be a little steep, but the idea is there.

Official Suggests Six-Point Program

New York City—Prohibition of any housing project from discrimination on the basis of race, creed or color.

This was one of the six-point program of action suggested by Judge Justice Wise Poller of the Domestic Relations Court.

Other measures suggested by the judge include: elimination of all vestiges of Jim Crowism from city and state jobs.

While in this country we hear periodically about the Tokyo government's protest regarding treatment of segregants at Tule Lake...

In answer to the Japanese government's charge of maltreatment, an investigating commission discovered last week that actually in some cases the Negroes, the Phillippines...

The thought may be a little steep, but the idea is there.
