VOLUME 12—NUMBER 1

OBSERVATIONS

GILDED DAYS
In the gilded, fancy evening of yesteryear, the rich and their escorts had a sumptuous banquet in the stately Mayflower hotel just outside of the downtown Los Angeles. The occasion was the installation of officers of the Citizens League.

It was over seven years ago, and we've forgotten who it was. The evening wore on and the dances band-waited skittishly for the permission to get on with their first number. But, no permission was forthcoming, and it was past 11 p.m.

DINERS PAST THE HOUR

The diners were past the hour, and we've forgotten who it was. The evening wore on and the dances band-waited skittishly for the permission to get on with their first number. But, no permission was forthcoming, and it was past 11 p.m.

THE MAYOR'S REPORT

The point is, Mr. Bowen in the pre-war days, had graciously given of his time and effort to become familiar with the problems of the nisei. Since the war, his attitude toward Japanese American tended to fall West Coast against evacuees. Hence, a variance in the articles from the subsequent development of his dissertation.

At last, the mayor finished his talk, and departed and the band was ready to follow him out. Union hours couldn't play after midnight. They were persued, finally, to play for a few more hours in some of the diners.

CHURCH BODY SUPPORTS ACTION

Los Angeles, Calif.—In view of the situation within our state of California, precipitated by the rescinding of the order of evacuation of American citizens and resident aliens of Japanese ancestry, General Secretary E. C. Farthing, of the American Church, wrote to Los Angeles Times last week, "We wish to record the federation as willing to support the War Department in its action."

He stated that citizens of California demand with calmness and "determined good will to the decision and to those evacuees who may return eventually to our state."

ONE SECTION PRINTED BEFORE HAN LIFTED

Editor's note: One section of the New Year's edition was printed before the lifting of the ban on the West Coast against evacuees. Hence, a variance in the articles from the subsequent development.

Japanese Americans with open arms, his Christmas message indicates a hopeful aspect of his administration in coping with the return of the evacuees.

Project Hospital Treats Nisei Patients

Forty American German prisoners of war were recently at the Poston Central Hospital, the Colorado River Center reveals.

"The amazement of the patients at being surrounded by Japanese doctors and nurses sides," a Poston report says, "and by Negro nurses, in spite of the armistice separating the two groups of Caucasians, was something to behold."
