News Briefs Of Relocatees

Arlington, Calif.— Mr. Kuchi Muramoto from Poston is relocating on a farm near Arlington, and plans to later take over a 54 acre orange grove under the sponsorship of a Caucasian.

Hollywood.— Motion picture producer Edward Small seeks to find his former cook, S. Doi, through the District Relocation Officer in Los Angeles. Anyone knowing Mr. Doi's address is asked to write Earl L. Kelley, District Relocation Officer, WRA, 1031 S. Broadway, Los Angeles 15. Incidentally Mr. Small recently hired Mrs. Tomi Ikehawa from Rivers as a dressmaker in his motion picture studio.

West Los Angeles.— The swank floor nursery belonging to Mr. Robert K. Goka is located on fashionable Wilshire Blvd. It fronts that busy highway for almost a full block, with glass greenhouses and showrooms behind which the public can see the plants and accessories.

Los Angeles.— Mr. Ben Takeda has one for Ripley; he got a hotel room in Washington in two minutes, and a house in Los Angeles in two hours after the street, who said he was leaving for Colorado, and Ben could rent his house. So barring unforeseen fortune, Ben has a good home and is going to River to bring his parents, Mr.

Army Reiterates It Controls Japanese Return to Coast

SAN FRANCISCO.— The Army reiterated this week that its Western Defense Command has the sole responsibility of determining which persons of Japanese ancestry may or may not be permitted to return to Pacific Coast states.

Major General H. C. Pratt, head of the Western Defense Command, issued a statement to clarify this jurisdiction because, he said, of an apparent "erroneous impression" some of the public has received. He emphasized that the WRA has no authority in the matter.

"As commanding general of Western Defense Command," he said, "... I have the responsibility of determining which individuals of Japanese ancestry may or may not be permitted to return to the designated exclusion zone of the Western Defense Command."

"In making this determination, I am governed solely by military considerations, and by none other, for there exists no legal authority for anyone to restrict their homes."

General Pratt continued: "The formation of this authority was a result of the recognition on the part of our government of its obligation to alleviate the hardships imposed upon many thousands of our citizens merely because of the accident of birth."

WRA Has No Authority
The WRA has no authority or responsibility, whatever, in determining which individuals will be allowed to return to the exclusion zone of the Western Defense Command, he does this agency attempt to exercise this authority or assume this responsibility.

"It is repeated with authority and this responsibility is that of the commanding general, Western Defense Command."

ILWU States Reasons for Trial Recommendations

SAN FRANCISCO.— Reasons given by a trial committee for recommending expulsion of two members of the CIO International Longshoremen and Warehousemen's Union and suspension of three other members, were made public by Richard Lynden, president of Warehousemen's Local No. 6 of the union.

The five men are accused of having violated the union's constitution by persuading the Stockton membership to prevent J. Yamamoto, a returned Japanese evacuee, from working under the union's jurisdiction.

The trial committee's report declares that Alva Bone, whose expulsion along with that of O. A. Schmidt the committee recommends, has "admitted that on May 17 he issued an anonymous statement to the press," in which he declared that "the Japanese are anti-union as a race, and that the Stockton warehousemen will not work with them until they prove they are no longer anti-union."

In the case of C. V. Sheehy, whose suspension for six months the committee recommends, it was declared that "Sheehy showed an extremely bad attitude," and during the trial "he

Palo Alto Nisei Raise Book Fund to Be Used By War Hero's Alma Mater

PALO ALTO, Calif.— Palo Alto Senior High School has received recently $239 raised by Japanese Americans to set up a Memorial Book Fund in honor of Fred Yamamoto, a graduate of this school, who was killed during the rescue of the "lost battalion" in the Vosges Mountains.

The fund was contributed by 42 Nisei through two Palo Alto brothers, Toshio and Hideo Furukawa, both of whom now are living in eastern cities. The largest gift was from a soldier who met Mr. Yamamoto in the Heart Mountain relocation center from which the latter enlisted.

Fred Yamamoto's ambition for an education was handicapped by the necessity of working. This gift is to be used for books dealing with international unity and good citizenship in the United States.

The Nisei who set up the fund did not feel that the study of the Japanese American problem was particularly necessary. As one of them wrote: "We feel that the problem of good citizenship and unity is not simply understanding one group of people, but all."
