

1635 Granville Ave.
Los Angeles 25, Calif.
January 27, 1946

Hi Joe!

Cash don't blow up! I didn't say I would write once a week! I just said shall we write once a week & then you did it but I didn't, haha! Oh well you know how it is! I'm going to school and don't have time to think of anything to write about! Lets forget it & !!!

Thanks a lot for the pictures! They are really swell & I hope that I can send you some some day, when I actually get a camera! That's probably never, heh!!!

Matsujiyama came over a couple of weeks ago & stayed to eat supper! At first it seemed like something swell to see him but he stayed $3\frac{1}{2}$ hrs. & that was just too long! Please take a hint and never visit anybody over 2 hrs. It has really something to cause people to get mad, ^{about}!!!

I've sent you some Yohan for your birthday. Hope you like it! I sent you a card, too! Hope it is something you'll enjoy!!

Stately I have been driving myself nuts by worrying for a certain test. Finally I took it last Monday & was I ever worried. If you flunked the test you would have to take Basic Math before graduating. The test was a math test & I know I'm weak in it, so I was really worried. Boy, I prayed so hard to god to let me pass the test & I really did pass it! Gosh, what a relief it was!! Before the test, I studied Poi's math book that he sent back with his junk!!! Gee, I'm so happy about the test!!! I guess I'm not as dumb as I really thought I was!!

Pap went through a stop signal
some time ago & he is going to court tomorrow to face the music! I don't think it's too bad, though. Just a fine!!
I can't think of anything to say so I'll close this letter now.

So Long

Mrs

P.S. I hope I can get in the writing mood like before but until I do get in the mood,
don't expect to hear from me!