

Dear Joe & Fowren, 5/10/44
It was good to hear from you again & I enjoyed your letter very much.

The other day, I went to the post office to get the package which you sent. Gosh, the post man said it was heavy but I thought my muscles would hold out. Gosh I was half way home when I discovered the load was getting heavier & heavier.

I nearly collapsed when I got home. Gosh, the nut is super & just like you say, you buy nothing but the best.
See, I nearly died when I discovered that I had carried 30 lbs of sugar home & it made me disgusted, baby.
I am still aching from carrying the thing. I wish I knew what the surprise was.
Thanks a lot for everything.

I guess I better be signing off for the time.

P.S. Be sure you write again as you say you will. All the letters we send as they come. (I wonder)

P.S. I can play Smokey Guts in your eyes perfect. I want to learn "Chipsody in Blue Next."
