Dear Joe + Lor

I forgot to tell you in the other post card about the stuff I ordered from you. I guess you better cancel the whole thing because it is too much trouble for you. I guess the camera stuff should be canceled too. I can go to school without a notebook anyway so forget it.

Say, Amy's sister is going to come back to camp next month. Boy they sure are glad. Her sister told them to order anything from her because she's going to bring a whole trunk full of stuff back. Gee, I wish you guys were coming back again.

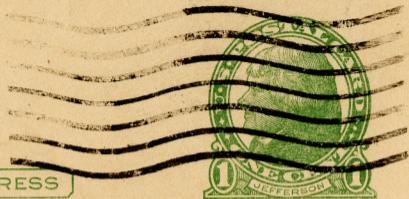

A lady died in the hospital last night and her husband is on furlough in Idaho or Montana & they happen to be the rich kids you know, the ones that lived in court or someplace.

Yesterday, Eric & Jimmy gave us a picture of their wedding. Man, you sure can tell that Jimmy is a happy guy. Another words, check the Casanova.

Did you guys get a picture from them yet? Its pretty good if you ask me. Well, so long & please write because I know gets worried.

P.S. Back of you don't work too much (wants to very soon)
