Hi Joe + Joe,
- Talking to do but loaf but,
just the same I'm writing.
I hope you guys are writing as often as you can.

I got a cold + my nose gets stuck all the time. Last night I couldn't sleep until 6:00 P.M. because my nose kept on getting stuck!

This morning I haven't done a single thing except to make my bed and get the mail + read the papers. I got my grade in typing + I got scared. I thought I was on the flunking list but I passed. All the other kids nearly fainted because they thought that they would never pass.
+ the weather is much better but yet it feels good to have sun.

My gosh, just 2 more weeks and then school again gosh, am I scared. The hardest grade of all. Boy, I wish the vacation were more longer. So long, mas P.S. I just a line to say Hello!
