Manganer

Dear Joe

I thank you very much for letter very often. I am glad that you have arrived safely to Chicago and could enter to a fine College. Mrs Nishikawa said "that is wonderful."

Joe, Are you surprised that mama doesn't cry the day you left Manganer? but we could not sleep first night, and every day I was thinking about you. But we feel much better now. Please take good care of yourself, and don't forget that you were relocated for education. You might find the chance to make money, but please remember your object and finish your education.

George Sakata left here to Ohio yesterday (Sunday) he took your January pay check with him, and I have sent your baggage and books. I could not send new blanket, because the Army bag was too full. If you still feel cold I shall send it by mail please answer.

I am sending letter which came from San Francisco, it doesn't sound well. Don't forget to answer it. Also I am sending your birth certificate you might need it please don't lose.

Joe did you send letter to Mr Baulton Mrs Ellis, Mrs Kitagawa, Rev Suzuki and Ichien? send post card to Takemura, Odahara, Kazuko Odahara is going to Chicago with Mr Sneltyer Mrs Odahara said, but I don't know sure.

Joe, did you buy shoe, glove, and hat? please buy things which are necessary.

Jae dont worry about money. Papa will send all his money ift you need.
again please take good care yourself.
Please regard to Mr Temple.

Do you think it is nice to send letter to Mr Temple from papa?

Shall I send paper flower or not?
I am going to present half dozen silk han dkerchiefs to Mr's Mrs Smeltzer how you think?

You will fine Telegram from Penn.
I thought you might need to answer San-Francisco.

Now I close letter. Please write us
when you have time.
yours mama
