Dear brothers,

I got up at 10 to 9 and I was tired enough to stay in bed all day. That's because I went to the show last night and the night before. On Thursday night I saw a Gloria Jean picture and last night I saw Star Spangled Rhythm. Boy, star spangled rhythm sure was a hiller. Betty Hutton was the best of all. (rugged).

On Thanksgiving it didn't seem like we were having one but we did. Our dinner consisted of Turkey, sweet potatoes, Celery, beans, fruit salad, pumpkin pie, turkey soup, cranberry, and that was pretty good. Also dressing. Many of the furlough workers came back and out of these workers were: 2 Lemateu boys, Mr. Kawamura, Mr. Fukuda, Mr. Imoto, Mr. Odahara, George Odahara, Roy Matsumoto, Vic Yokota, Fred Nagai, and the Ishida family. Kenny didn't come back but went to Oregon and Takeshi came back but he's sick. Mr. Odahara brought back a lot of food & they gave me candy, eggs, (fresh), Turkey & other goods. Man is it good. Also Mr. Nakamaki came back. Most of these furlough workers got back in time for the turkey dinner. Swell huh. I didn't get sick on Turkey & I wish I could have had more. Tell me all about your Thanksgiving meal & etc. I've been planning to play tennis with Hiro but it just doesn't work because of the wind coming up now & then. They had a manga knight dance the other night in our mess hall and Jimmy took Hiro but all that time Hiro was wondering if Jimmy and Ricko had broken up.

Well school has been off my mind and I'm going to dread going back again. We had so many things to do on our vacation that it was killing me. What do you think of our drink?
What's been evaking?

I'm going to get that paper of sports section to you pretty soon so don't start pulling your hair out in a rage yet. I'm in quite a hurry that's why this with writing will have to see for now.

So long
Macako

I own the rape case & I think that's enough but I'll tell you if we need any more.

Have about some tobby pins!
These picture are corny but they will have to due.
