"S.L. Housing Lack Forces WRA to Halt Jap Influx"

"The war relocation authority...has now frozen all permits to the Pacific coast evacuees which would enable them to come to Salt Lake City for purposes of job-seeking and settlement. The reason given for the permit freezing...is that Salt Lake City is too over-populated at present, and cannot accommodate properly those already in the city, according to spokesmen of the Japanese-American Citizens' league ... The JACL is now ready to send a staff of men from its Salt Lake national headquarters to the middle west to look into work opportunities for the evacuees there."--Salt Lake Tribune, November 25, p. 12. #2150

"Sewing Project Opens at Heart Mountain

Heart Mountain -- "Completing 1,560 aprons as their first assignment, a sewing project employing 26 skilled tailors and fashion designers is Wyo. working under the direction of Glen Hartman, head of agriculture and industries... "-- The Billings Gazette, November 22, p. 19.

"Items from Topaz"

Maxim Schapiro, noted Russian pianist, spent three days visiting at Topaz.

The hospital is making arrangements to maintain a blood reservoir.

Latest figures on employment show that 21 persons left for various types of positions in Salt Lake City, one took domestic work in Delta, and 19 sugar beet workers returned to Topaz from various parts of Utah.

About 10 tons of tin cans have been collected. The maintenance division hopes to improvise a baler so that the cans may be sent to war industries.

"The coffee ration ... will not affect the residents as the City is Utah not consuming the ration quota..."

Births at Topaz: A boy and a girl.

"Dr. Harry Smith, professor at the Utah State Agricultural College at Logan, spoke on Nov. 16 before a group of about 100 persons interested in livestock raising..."

Topaz joined in the nation's festivities on Thanksgiving with a turkey dinner.

Irvin Hull, head of the Project Reports Division, who is leaving Topaz, was given a farewell party by the Times staff. .
