(This issue of the DAILY PRESS REVIEW includes a digest of the most important news items, articles and editorials appearing in newspapers and periodicals reaching the San Francisco Regional Office in the last 24 hours. If you wish to refer to any clippings, please telephone Miss Elinor Bauman, Head of the Documents Section, Branch 300, Room 362.)

"Principals Get Data on Jap Camp Needs"

Utah "Dr. John C. Carlisle, superintendent of the Japanese-American relocation service at the Central Utah relocation project at Topaz, discussed education problems at the center Wednesday afternoon when he addressed the Salt Lake Principals' association..."--The Salt Lake Tribune (Salt Lake City), November 26, p. 23. #2169

"Sensible Use of Japanese Labor"

Wash. "Authorization by the federal government for employment of American-born Japanese on railroad maintenance work in eastern Washington is a sensible decision. This is a type of labor in which a great many Japanese who have been interned in concentration centers could be used to advantage, especially now that there is a shortage of man power in the nation..." Spokesman Review (Spokane), November 26, p. 4. #2170

"Club Group Sees Relocation Area"

Idaho In a talk before the Twin Falls Lions Club, Philip Schafer, assistant director of the Minidoka Relocation Project, told the group "that the ultimate object of the movement is relocation of residents of Japanese ancestry, rather than permanent internment..."--Twin Falls Times-News, November 26, p. 8. #2171

"Activities of Heart Mountain Wyoming"

Utah Salt Lake City--"Delegates from all 10 war relocation centers and from 'free zone' chapters (met) here last week for an emergency conference of the Japanese American Citizens league which has been termed the 'only real outlet those in the relocation centers have to the outside world." The general topic of discussion was problems in reference to the resettlement program.--The Cody Enterprise, November 25, p. 2. #2172

"Urges Japanese Help on Farms"

Idaho Pocatello (AP)--"Dr. Harrison C. Dale, president of the University of Idaho, today advocated 'much wider use of Japanese' workers as a means of solving the farm labor shortage..."--Spokesman-Review (Spokane), November 28, p. 8. #2173
