"Interned Japs Must be Better Guarded, Disciplined, Congress Told"

Washington-- "Two California Representatives told Congress today that stronger safeguards and greater discipline must be established at Japanese relocation centers of the West. Fepresentative Leland Ford demanded a Congressional investigation of reports that 'political debts are being paid off in appointment of those now running a socialistic experiment at the Manzanar camp. .. He declared a serious Wash., blunder was made when the Army did not continue control of the Japan-D. C. ese evacuees... 'The unsuccessful and unsatisfactory operation of Manzanar occurred after the Army turned the camp over to civil authorities, Ford said ... I also suggest that the other 36,000 Japanese who are roaming at large throughout the United States should be looked after, closely watched, and probably handled in the same manner as they were handled on the Pacific coast. ... "-- San Francisco Examiner, December 11; p. 6.

"...Japanese Camp Groups Split, Some Jailed"

Manzanar (AP) -- "The War Relocation Authority disclosed today that soldiers are still maintaining order in this Japanese camp.... " A two-point program was announced after conferences between military authorities and officials of the center and E. R. Fryer, who came from Calif. Washington. "One: Immediate segregation of known Axis sympathizers and other unruly elements ... Two: The relocation program for Japanese-American citizens known to be loyal to the United States was stepped up to allow these people to relocate in gainful work outside the stratogic military zone of the Pacific Coast ... ## "Brief Filed Against Jap Exclusion"

"As the first step toward sending the Army's 'Japanese exclusion act' to the United States Supreme Court in Washington, a brief was filed in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals here yesterday in behalf of Fred Toyosaburo Korematsu, 23, who refused to obey Lieutenant Calif. General DeWitt's order to get out of the prohibited zone in San Leandro.

.." The brief describes the law under which the Japs were ordered out of this area, as "'a statutory monstrosity,' which 'entails involuntary servitude' for 73,000 Nipponese in 'violation of the thirteenth amendment' to the Federal constitution..."—San Francisco Chronicle, December 11, p. 9.

"Mavericks by Frank M. King"

In this column, a protest is voiced against "coddling" the evacuees by giving them the "best of milk,... the best meat and the best Calif. of every thing else" while our soldiers taken as prisoners by the Japanese are starved. Mr. King also advocates postponement of the education of the evacuees.—Western Livestock Journal (Los Angeles), December 1, p. 5.
