1. Under authority of Executive Order No. 9066, 19 February 1942, and delegation of authority thereunder by the Secretary of War, and pursuant to a determination that the present action is dictated by military necessity, you are prohibited, effective immediately, from being in, remaining in or entering the West Coast exclusion zone, as at present designated and established by Proclamations and Orders of this headquarters, or such other exclusion areas or zones which, for reasons of military necessity, may be designated and established by subsequent Proclamations or Orders of this headquarters. This prohibition shall continue in force until revoked by competent authority.

2. You are hereby notified that, if you desire, you may have a hearing on the question whether your exclusion shall be continued, such hearing to be before a Board of Officers appointed for this purpose. At such hearing you may appear before the Board and you will be afforded an opportunity to present evidence in your own behalf and to answer questions or make a statement.

3. Should you desire a hearing by the said Board, please so indicate by letter to the Commanding General, Western Defense Command, Presidio of San Francisco, California, attention: Civil Affairs Division. You will then be notified of the time and place of hearing and will be furnished such information and papers as are appropriate.

4. Failure to comply with paragraph 1 hereof will subject you to the criminal penalties provided by Public Law 503, 77th Congress, approved 21 March 1942, entitled "An Act to Provide a Penalty for Violation of Restrictions or Orders with Respect to Persons Entering, Remaining in, Leaving or Committing any Act in Military Areas or Zones."

By command of Major General PRATT:
