

Daisy Jodo.

WAR!!!

B'

How, the root of all evil has again descended upon ~~the~~ humanity. Crime, sabotage, hatred, death and all evil increases as the dreary war drags on.

Many tears are shed over the silent, stiff bodies of heroes - heroes from the battlefield, heroes from the homefront. Another hundred added to the obituary on the eleventh page as a squadron of enemy planes drop bundles of death over a quiet town.

Why is it that men war upon one another? Is it because of jealousy, greed, or is it ~~because~~ just the urge to kill within them?

Nevertheless, the three-lettered word can cause the greatest trouble on earth, whether it's a civil war, world war, or a common every day "war" waged between organizations.

Let us pray & hope that even the word "war" can be eliminated from

The Dictionary