Dear Mr. Yamanaka:

This will acknowledge receipt your registered airmail letter dated September 3rd with enclosure of $40.00.

Enclose please find our committee's receipt, and this will make your remaining balance to $235.00.

After perusing your letter we realize the difficult time you may have had in continuing with your education. However, you must realize the tremendous amount of moneys that was spent by the group on your case. Therefore it shall be appreciated if you could find some way of paying your remaining balances on a small monthly basis.

If you have any relative you could rely upon, it would be much simpler and expedient to borrow this remaining balance and clear your record with the group. We ask you to do this as you are indebted not only to Mr. Collins, but to the other party plaintiffs that made it possible to have your citizenship restored.

Very truly yours,

T. Nakamura
