Tentative plans being formulated include a flag ceremony and program, a kiddies' and departmental parade, children's "undo kai" (field day), sports-- both men and women, sumo and dance.

An all day hobby show will be another of the main attractions. The location will be chosen later. Hobbyists are asked to display their artistry.

Moving Reporter by Suyo Sako

Little Hugo Tanikawa, 4; son of our managing editor, gets the credit for being the youngest bookworm at Merced Assembly Center.

Hugo goes to the library every day and reads books and magazines. He is a distinguished individual as he sits on the bench which has a sign reading "Librarians Only." ORCHIDS FOR POLICE DEPT.

Down in Ward H a policeman, while patrolling that section, found a man of circumstances attempting to roll a cigarette; but being blind, he nearly started a fire. If his rolling of cigarettes were permitted to continue, this sightless individual would endanger others so the police officer warned him to be more careful. Without his smoke, the blind fellow was very lonesome so he started to play on his musical pipe. However, one day he accidentally dropped and broke it.

Seeing this lonesome man with tears in his eyes, the entire police force came to his rescue. Everyone on the police force chipped in dimes and nickels with which they purchased two cartons of cigarettes. Today, he is a happy individual and so is the entire Police Department.

A RIPE TOMATO?

Hearing that the first tomato plant bearing a ripe tomato was located in Ward A, your reporter made a mad dash toward the place. Upon reaching the destination, disappointment and embarrassment greeted him as a great big, red tomato was nailed on to the small plant.

The Japanese certainly have a great sense of humor....plus rumor!

PLEASE RETURN

Dr. T. Fujimoto requests the breezer hat with initials, T. F., which he lost while making a call, be returned.

If anyone has it, please return it as we are short of doctors and cannot afford to have him get a sun stroke.

Issei Barred

Who Issei may hold an appointed or elected position in the Center's self-governing body. This, in effect, is the latest order issued by the WCCA office in San Francisco.

The elections held last Wednesday were held void since Issei were allowed to vote. According to the bulletin, no Issei may even serve as a committee chairman.

Official notices

Latest bulletin on the eligibility of a person who holds a ward representative post states that the candidate does not need to know Japanese.

An interpreter will be assigned to convey official messages to Issei.

FORBIDDEN BOOKS

All books written in Japanese except approved Japanese religious books are considered contraband.

Residents are asked to turn all unauthorized literature over to the interior police.

GRADUATION

Socials, one for the high school students and one for elementary will follow the exercises. A dance on July 4 will also honor the graduates.

Mary Suzuki is general chairman for the graduates' activities. Assisting her are Gladys Ishida, survey; Fred Arimoto, program; Mayme Kishi and George Yoshida, music; Joe Shiro, general arrangement.

Violet Kuminoto, flowers and clothes; Shizue Asai, grammar school social; June Suzuki, high school social; Kanami Sanui, dance; George Yoshida, finance; Isao Kuge, publicity; Agnes Yamamoto, invitations.

Elementary graduates number 119 with 55 schools represented; 135 high school students with 30 and 21 junior college and university graduates with 11 schools.

"Anata-wa muzai desu kare" This was the Japanese statement read to parking law violator, Alfred Stronk, by clerk, Kaji. Judge Dwight Darrow demanded "yes" or "no" to this Japanese question. The defendant, scratching his head, slowly answered "no" which to his surprise was an admittance of guilt.

Glancing around the courtroom, eight thirsty looking attendants touched the judge's heart. Lamenting the fact, Judge Darrow ordered the law broker to purchase each of them a bottle of coca-cola. Stronk reluctantly followed the order.

Leroy Stroder, who was arrested for the same charge, appeared eight minutes late for his hearing. Because of tardiness, contempt of court was charged against him. Appearing for a fair jury trial at a later date, the case was postponed.

IN APPRECIATION

Unable to thank their many friends individually, Mrs. K. Kimura and family express their deepest gratitude to those who were so kind to them during their hour of bereavement.

THANKS

Mr. N. Tanji and family extend their heartfelt thanks for the expressions of sympathy shown them in their hour of sorrow.

Beyond Our Barracks

Let's look in on our fellow friends from other centers to see what's going on.

"Anita Funita" is the theme of Santa Anita's July Fourth Celebration.

Pencilmaker has already attained the goal we have set for ourselves—increasing the paper to six pages semi-weekly. The razor blade rationing seems to have hit the Santa Anita's—a board growing contest will go on for one week and a half.

"Something for the Issel" is planned for Pomona's Fourth of July celebration. It's a four-hour show with half of it "shibui" (Japanese drama).

How to save our shoes—Tulare has started a rubber saving plan and urges residents to wear wooden clogs and sandals—not a bad idea, is it?

Wear activities in Tanforan range from needlework to making sailboats and "gotas". Even if it's devoid of water, Tanforanites are proud of their lake.

"Bancho", a two-toothed serpent, is the mascot of El Jaconin, Stockton Center Paper.

MIDGET RACE AND SHADE

Have you ever seen a giant run? Well, if you haven't, keep your eyes on the Fourth of July 100 yard dash scheduled for the "200" Club. All participants are 200 lbs. or over.

The event will take place between the double-header baseball games at the ball park. Speedsters are George Fukuyama, 210; Ping Oda, 208; George Nakao, 205; and Jack Noda, 210.

health aid

"Will you have a luscious salt tablet today?" The mess hall attendants will be asking you this question as those tiny saline pills are being distributed to all mess halls.

"The pills, when taken in proper dosage will greatly relieve heat-exhaustion and strokes," the Health Department said.

Your Favorites?

Who is your favorite orchestra leader? What is your favorite record? This is what the Recreation Department would like to know in their effort to satisfy the Center dancers.

The department will attempt to buy the records the majority wants, so it's all up to you now.

When Joyce Kilmer wrote his immortal song, "Trees", he must have been thinking of just such a tree—a lone but a friendly tree, shading the home of Matsumura and sons (B-1-3).

Although it is only a very common species of the cotton tree variety, it is the largest tree found inside the Center. It measures some 25 feet in height; and at about 10 a.m. the sapling casts a welcome shadow to cover about 50 square feet upon the good berth.

In the line of vegetation, the tomato tops the list by a 19,000 count. The wild morning glory and "kiku" cuttings lead the flowery variety, while the virile Bermuda grass is always here.

baby boy born

Mr. and Mrs. Y. Tanaka of Walnut Grove in J Ward are proud parents of a baby boy, named Jun, born on Fri. June 26, at 11:34 a.m. The child, the fifth one, weighed seven pounds and four ounces. Attending physician was Dr. Fujimoto.

HOW THEY FELL...

Over 2,000 people gathered around the sumo pit to make the first sumo tournament a huge success. Iseki enthusiasts thronged the bleachers cheering their favorites. Technical criticisms on the art of sumo prevailed among the fans.

In the feature San Yaku matches (three highest ranking wrestlers from each team), the team of the Nishi (west) blanked the Higashi (east) squad, 3-0. Kimura (N) defeated Ojima (H), Uyemoto (H) dropped Goto (H) and Aoki (H) threw Inouye (H).

In the special event entry, Hanaisami was a victor over Isocarashi. Both are

After the second round of play, the Colusa Reds and the Sebastopol Giants held their National League leadership by the slimmest margin.

The Colusa lads downed the Cortez Cubs, 6-5, and the luckless Walnut Grove Braves dropped another close tussle by losing to Sebastopol, 9-8. The Yolo Phillies walked away with a surprise victory over the Livingston Dodgers by a 9-4 count.

Here's a plug where credit is due. Our recreation leader, George Kawaoka, has rendered his earnest efforts arranging schedules, planning diadems, getting equipment and trying to satisfy 70 team managers at the same time.

In a field where team competition is the essence of his work, complaints from dissatisfied team members prevail. Through these obstacles and starting with a limited amount of equipment, Kawaoka has various leagues under-fire today, which are receiving the same interest that all leagues do in the sporting world.

A big hand is accorded him from the Mercedian for his good job.

At a secretly planned outpost, the Noda-Woodside championship wrestling bout had its colors. It was a match in vain, as referee Harry Black became exhausted calling the numerous fouls. After conferring with the official timer, Kiyo Tomashi (Woodside's secretary), Black called the battle a draw.

Incidentally, the Truck Department turned out 100% strong cheering Noda in his critical moments as Woodside displayed a series of devastating rabbit punches and drop kicks.

7-7 DEADLOCK

The Turlock Senators and the Yolo Phillies battled to a 7-7 deadlock in the only American League tilt over the weekend. Umpire Takamatsu called the game a tie because of the limited time. S. Daikni and F. Nakatani tossed for Yolo, as H. Ito and J. Saisho opposed them.

sumo exports of the past. Also a special bout, Ojima won a two fall match from Nakano.

The Nishi team were victorious, 5-1, over the Higashi in the Class "L" battle. Nakano (N) conquered Yagi (H); Kojima (N) dropped Nakashima (H); Shimizu (N) drew with Kobuko (H); Arimoto (N) defeated Takoda (H) and Hirai (N) lost to Kayokata (H).

Hustling tusslers competed 85 strong to win individual honors in the "B" "C" and junior divisions.

Mr. Sakamoto was chairman for the event. Mr. Taniguchi acted as announced and Y. Shiro refereed. Fuku-nishiki arranged matches.
