Dear Watson,

from somewhere in France

Hi-big brother! Can you imagine. I'm in France now. Gosh, sure been traveling around a lot. Saw some part of England, the channel, and quite a bit of France. Both scenery of country side in England, and France are picturesque. Just like you would see them in postcard. Rolling hills with farms all over. The brick, and concrete buildings are yellowish, and really pretty. Saw what war can do, and it's really a mess. The French wine ain't as good as I thought. The stuff they peddle around to us are just like water. I hear there's lots of peppy peppy, but haven't tried any. I won't say yet either. Boys are sure hard up. We all whistle at them when we see them. Way I'm going, I might see Frank pretty soon. Hope the damn war would end pretty soon. Well ole boy, wish me luck, cause I'll need them where I'm heading.

Your kid brother,
Mans
