Dear Mas,

I got your kind letter this morning. Thank you so much! We all are so glad to hear something about you. It seems a long time ago we have been at Lugelberg. But we didn't forget it at all! We often talked about these wonderful days and about you.

Thank you so much too for the nice photographs. They are good! So we have a picture from you at least. For these photographs I took from you at Lugelberg didn't come out good at all. So I can't send you one.

It is a long way your letter has made. A journey of a quarter of a year! I hope my answer will reach you more quickly. Perhaps you will be at home already. In this case I think my letter will be sent after.

I am glad to hear that you enjoyed the short holidays in Switzerland. It is a small country, but I think it is a fine one, and all the Swiss people like it very much.

I hope I may go to the United States in a few years and see you there. But First I have to study. This is rather a hard work, but a very interesting one. I like it.

I have been twice on duty, since we left Engelberg. The weather wasn't fine the first time: Fog and a lot of snow. But then was the finest weather you can wish a whole week. Just weather for aviators. So we had a lot of nice flights every day. Can you imagine a flight in the mountains around Engelberg? There we rushed through several times. Dived over ice and snow and rockets we hunted one after one, precipitated deep into the valley with big and wonderful velocity. I enjoy very much flying. It's one of the finest things I know.

Spring time has come now. It is rather warm and fine weather. I hope you having fine weather too so as you didn't have to suffer much while on guard (when you always should be in Italy already!)

I wish you to find kind people and a good job, when you return home.

We all would be very happy to hear from you. We wish you all the best and a good and happy return home. And when you would happen to come to Switzerland once again, we would be very glad to see you at Langgamm and to show you another nice party of our country.
Whenever you come you would be welcome at our home.

Yours sincerely
Klaus Wiedner.
