Dear Sir:

You are informed that before you could be permitted to change your place of residence to Tacoma, Washington, you must submit an application on the attached forms. Kindly execute these forms and return them to this office immediately.

Upon receipt of your application, we will communicate with the District Director of this Service at Seattle, Washington to ascertain whether or not your change in place of residence will meet with his approval. In the event he applies in the affirmative, your transfer to Tacoma will be approved, and you will be furnished travel authorization.

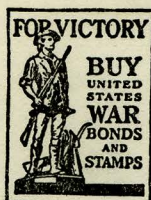

You are not to depart from Twin Falls until such time as you have been notified by this office that your application has been approved and have been furnished the necessary travel authorization.

Very truly yours,

TRENT DOSER, Acting
District Director
Spokane District
