CHICAGO, Ill., June 26—Memorial services for Private Eso Masuda were held at the Chicago Buddhist Church last June 20. He was killed on November 6, 1944, during the rescue of the Lost Battalion in the Vosges Forest.

Pvt. Masuda, whose home was in Artesia, Calif., was evacuated to the Santa Anita Assembly Center and later to Jerome Relocation Center where he was among the first Nisei volunteers for the 442nd. He and four Nisei volunteered on February 22, 1943. One of his four buddies, Susumu Okura of Wilmington, California, was also killed overseas. The surviving three, Sam Ozaki, Ted Yasunaga and Harry Oda are all in Chicago, as are the members of Pvt. Masuda's family, Mr. and Mrs. Eichi Masuda, his sisters Mrs. Hideko Ogawa and Kay Masuda and his brother Shoji, also a vet.

With Attorney Thomas Masuda serving as chairman, the services began with a color ceremony conducted by the Nisei Boy Scouts Troop No. 515 and the Oakland-Kenwood Post of The American Legion.

Representatives from the community organizations participated in the incense offering before the flag draped casket surrounded by many beautiful floral pieces: Taisuke Takahashi, Mutual Aid Society; Koichi Masunaka, Japanese Church of Christ; Wiley Higuchi, Chicago JACL; Jack Yasutake, Chicago Resettlers Committee; Tsuchizo Yamaguchi, Chicago Buddhist Church; Mrs. Riki Oya, Buddhist Women's Organization; Tad Kimura, Chicago Sanga; Donald Nariki, Boy Scout Troop No. 515; Ryoichi Fujii, the congregation.

Ozaki told the life history of the deceased G.I., while Ogawa expressed thanks on behalf of the family.

Booklet Depicting Services Planned

The Nisei Veterans Committee and the Nisei War Memorial Committee will jointly put out a special booklet depicting the first memorial services held last June 19 in the First Methodist church and at Nisei Vets Memorial plot at Washelli cemetery, it was announced today.

The two groups wish everyone who took pictures of the proceedings would hand in his prints as soon as possible to Frank Hattori in care of the Nisei War Memorial Committee, 318 Sixth Ave. S., Seattle. No prints, however, will be returned.

A thousand copies of the booklet will be printed, according to present plans.

He who sows, even with tears, the precious seed of faith, hope, and love, shall doubtless come again, bringing his sheaves with him, because it is the very nature of that seed to yield a joyful harvest. —Cecil.

Mrs. Oyama's Body Found in River

(Special to Northwest Times)
PORTLAND, Ore., June 26—The body of Mrs. Izumi Oyama, 47, wife of Iwao Oyama, editor of the Oregon Nippo, was discovered about 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, raising Vanport City's official flood death toll to nine.

The body, according to the Oregon Journal, floated to the surface of the murky, debris-laden waters near the intersection of Island Ave. and Cottonwood St. It was found by a cruising telephone company crew. The national guard took charge of the body.

Funeral services for Mrs. Oyama will be held at 2 p.m. next Tuesday, June 29, in the Nichiren Buddhist temple, 1137 N. Benton Ave.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Oyama is survived by a daughter, Minnie, who is in nurse's training at Providence hospital, and a son, Albert, who is a student at the University of Oregon.

To the Public:

A controversy has arisen over the selection of the music played by the organist at the close of the Nisei War Memorial service of Saturday, June 19, 1948, at the First Methodist church.

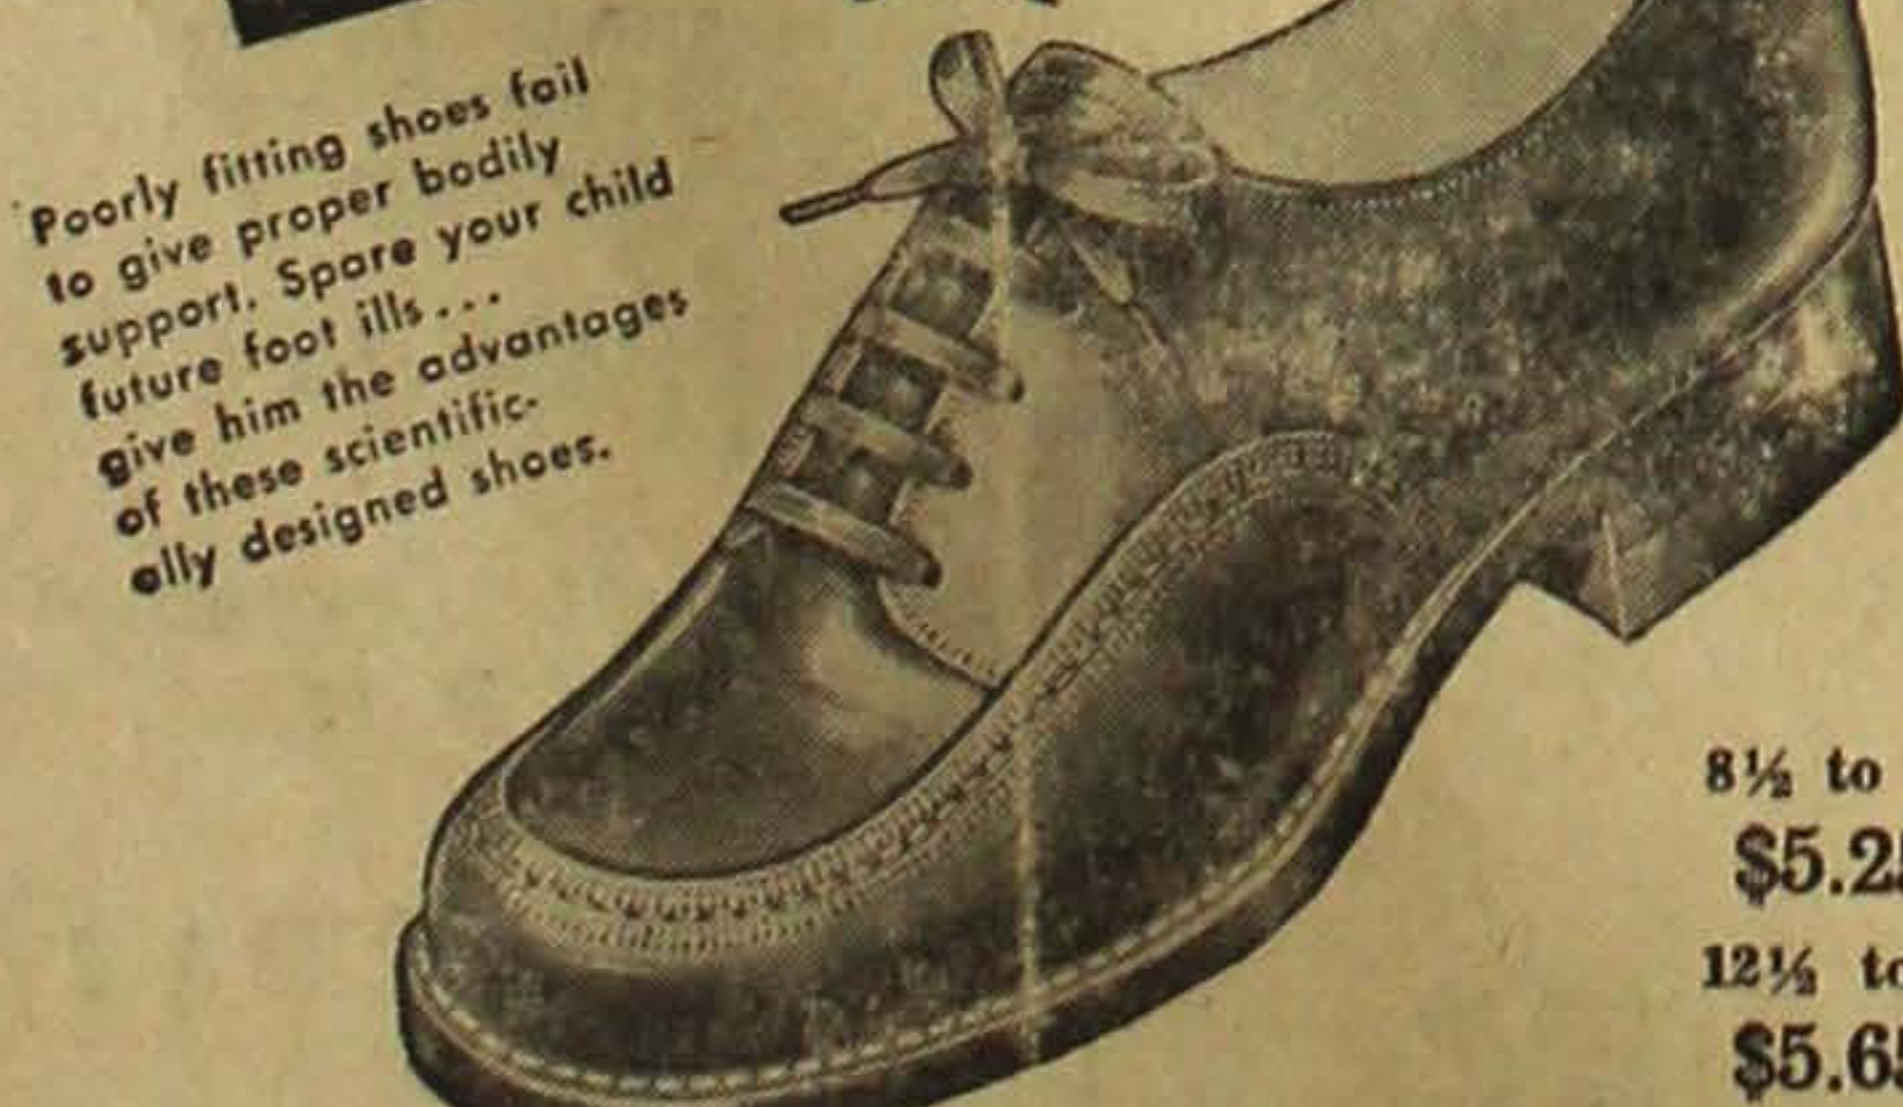

Public notice is hereby given that the only selections especially requested or known to the program committee were the playing of the Star Spangled Banner and the title of the vocal solo. All other pieces were selected by the organist as appropriate to the occasion. A well-meaning choice gave birth to unfortunate results. But it is not a matter which can be done over.

Therefore, the Nisei War Memorial Committee earnestly requests that further comment or controversy, public or private, be restrained in order to avoid spoiling the memory of this solemn occasion.

Spiritualism Comes to the Front

Amid the wild acclaim of a tumultuous convention, Thomas E. Dewey, New York's brilliant young governor, this week accepted the nomination as the Republican presidential candidate in Philadelphia.

The fact that Dewey restated the American people's ambition to move forward toward a strong and free America in a free world of free men, was nothing new.

Strikingly fresh insofar as Republican platforms are concerned, however, was Dewey's ringing emphasis on the role spiritualism must play in carrying out the ideals of our America.

"The unity we seek is more than material," he said. "It is more than a matter of things and measures. It is most of all spiritual. Our problem is not outside ourselves. Our problem is within ourselves. We have found the means to blow the world physically apart."

"We must learn to do better. The period that is drawing to a close has been one of scientific achievement. The era that is opening before us must be a period of human and spiritual achievement."

As Dewey sketched his theme, one couldn't help but recall and visualize the skinny, skeleton-like body of India's great leader, Mahatma Gandhi—Gandhi, the man who held steadfastly up to his untimely death to the principle of spiritual conquest over material power.

In any case, Dewey's emphasizing the spiritual aspect in a troubled, materialistic world gives some hope of peace to the many millions who today live in fear of an atomic war which would snuff out all of modern civilization as we know it.

Do Profits Rook You?

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

Looking Ahead

PROFIT is a word that folks must utter today in whispers. In fact, it is a nasty word, the way most people use it. And this is a pity. Actually, the word has in it a great measure of progress and once meant the results of that which was "profitable," or usefully productive. But folks today have twisted their ideas on profit around so that the word indicates to them the ability of business to take advantage of somebody, especially the worker.

Our economic processes are interesting and exciting when you understand them. Without properly understanding the ways of money, trade, and commerce, an unthinking person can become a dupe for every ISM that Dr. Utopia has to offer. It is amazing to me that I find young people and a few old ones, too, so taken in by glamorous ideas that have no basis in fact. Some of these folks dream that profit is loot. They look at profit as lacking in morals and as the worst kind of sin.

Way To THE THING that is Progress directly responsible for human progress and human welfare is work. Work is human energy. Without work, and without the pay that people get for their human energy, progress would be at a standstill. But there is something else. The tools, the factories, the land, the buildings—all the things men use in drawing upon their human energy—these things are simply human energy stored up for use.

Payrolls and profits: these two items are vital to the well-run business enterprise. Nearly everybody understands already how important payrolls are to the welfare of our economic community. But not nearly so many people understand that profits also are necessary. In fact, it would be impossible to have good wages without correspondingly high profits. Then, a worker whose company makes a profit is well-blessed indeed.

How To WHY is that so? Only Prosper a business that makes healthy profits can offer steady, good-paying jobs to the community. Only a company that makes sufficient profit can buy modern tools and replace worn-out ones. What worker does not like to operate good machinery? Only a business that makes good profits can afford to plan and to expand its facilities. In other words, all workers who think right about it would want an employer to make good profits.

Many workers think that wages are paid out of profits. This is not so. Money for the work comes right out of sales and goes directly to payrolls, just as money for profit comes out of sales and goes to the use of tools. When profit is high, the chances are that wages also will be good. This is nearly always true unless taxes come in and take too large a chunk, or unless the company is so much in debt that profits cannot be used for new tools.

If I were an employee of a company or working in an industry, I would be very much concerned that my employer makes a profit. I would do all I could do to make a profit for him. Knowing that my chances of having a good job and of growing with the company would depend upon the success of the whole enterprise, I would work hard to keep my employer "out of the red." Then I would know that my efforts really are building a greater America.

THE LIFE FOR US

In our occasional moments of day-dreaming, we have often wished that we could lead the life of a top sports columnist. Think of taking trips here and there, taking in all the major sports events and sitting in the choice seats reserved for the press, with most the expenses going on the swindle sheet! We can think of no other method of earning a livelihood which better combines the elements of business and pleasure.

Take, for example, the present trip of Seattle's well-known Royal Brougham. First, he saw the crew races at Poughkeepsie, and was rewarded with a Washington clean sweep of the river, which gave Brougham the chance to really toot the Husky horn—at which occupation he has no peer in the Northwest. Next, he saw the Louis-Walcott fight from ringside; and incidentally, Mr. Brougham has seen most of Joe Louis's fights with his own optics, without of course laying out a single dime from his own pocket.

In addition, Seattle's favorite sportswriter is also attending the Republican convention, and while the latter event hardly qualifies as a sports attraction, there undoubtedly are and will be some interesting things going on. We envy the opportunity enjoyed by Mr. Brougham and others of the writing clan, to see a political convention in full swing—history in the making as it were. At this writing, the balloting has not yet taken place; perhaps by the time our readers see this, the Republican candidate for president will be known, perhaps not. Be that as it may, it appears that New York governor Thomas Dewey will have a clear lead in the initial voting. Whether he will be able to keep that lead and add sufficient votes to capture the nomination, remains to be seen as we go to press.

This is a great opportunity for us to go off on a limb and make our own "pick" for the Republican nominee, but since all we know is what we read in the papers, we'll just continue to read them for our information. And, incidentally, wish that like Mr. Brougham, we could personally see and hear with our own eyes and ears, the pomp and pageantry of a modern political convention.

AN EXPLANATION

We suppose we really should let sleeping dogs lie, but enough comment was aroused by a certain "snafu" during the church ceremonies of the recent Memorial Services, that we feel that an explanation is due to the public. We refer, of course, to the playing of "Kimigayo" by the church organist as incidental music during the service, which didn't sit too well with many people, for obvious reasons. Our feelings were likewise jarred by the episode, but we figured that it was an unintentional mistake—which, we understand, is the true explanation behind it all. It seems that the organist was given a book or "stack" of music to play, and unnoticed by anyone, the objectionable music was included in that selection. We understand that the organist played the selections right straight through, for which he could not be blamed, since he was playing unfamiliar music by sight. Certainly he would not have played the piece had he understood its connotation, and just as certainly, the Memorial Committee had no desire nor intention that it be played. The entire episode was "just one of those things" that happen even in the best-planned programs, and unfortunate though it was, we figure that the less "fuss" made at this late date, the better. One discordant note should not be allowed to spoil the inspiration and beauty of the services as a whole, of which this community may well be proud.

Front-running Calumet Comets, like the race horse Citation, are slowly pulling away from their nearest foes in the men's summer bowling league.

The Comets last Wednesday night in Main Bowl spanked the Alley Cats, 3-1, to boost their league lead to 7 games over second-place Hoot Owls. Tuk Tada and Louie LaGuire for the Comets, and Fred Takagi and Tak Asaba for the Cats were the 500-plus keggers.

In another match, the reinforced Bulldogs shellacked the Gutterballs, 3-1. Young Art Segimoto, the hottest kegging number to come in quite a while, led the Bulldog attack with a smashing 611 series. Segimoto's games consisted of 189, 207 and 215 games.

Pruney Tsuji, scoring 615, and George Tanagi with a natural 555 were chief responsible for the Hoot Owls' 3-1 triumph over the Cherry Pickers. The Pickers' Sab Tsuboi and Al Gallup turned in with 500-plus efforts.

The results follow:

Frisco Reporter Hails Yasui

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., June 26.—Chester Yasui, colorful Honolulu Nisei flyweight boxer, now en route to Boston with seven other Western regional tryout winners, appears to be a strong candidate for the Olympic team, according to Eddie Muller, local sports writer.

If he reaches the finals at Boston in the two-day finals which start Monday, Yasui will go on to London with the U. S. team as two lighters will make the squad in each weight.

Muller said Yasui is "a good boxer, powerful and a hefty belter for a little man. In my opinion, Yasui has a better chance of making the team than any of the others on the Western squad. Most flyweights are cagey and cute. Yasui has these attributes as well as the others already mentioned."

Hair beauty secrets... by Toni

This charming coiffure is perfect for the pear shaped face. The soft half halo effect of the bangs gives just the right balance—and what's more, it's easy to care for, easy to set yourself at home. The back hair should be shoulder length, and the bangs should be tapered to about 6 inches. To dress: top pin curls are waved into bangs (1) and the two identical side sections are brushed into rolls (2). Back curls are in 6 vertical rows, alternate left and right, and when brushed out, they are swirled up the back and anchored with combs. (3) Of course, a good natural looking permanent is a necessity to keep this hair-do attractive.

Little on Jazz And Bebop Music

By K.A.

Bebop, the new phase of the jazz idiom, has advanced considerably in recent years. Introduced by its two greatest exponents, Dizzy Gillespie and Charlie "Yardbird" Parker, it now exerts a tremendous influence on jazz and popular music of today.

Bebop has been praised in glowing terms, criticized in vehement terms. There seems to be no middle road of opinion on this new kind of jazz. The criticism that Bop is too monotonous, being composed of phrases that are repeated over and over, is well-founded when Bop is played by mediocre musically immature musicians. But men such as Fats Navarro, Tad Dameron, Leo Parker, Miles Davis, Howard McGhee, Ray Brown and Allan Eager all disciples of the Diz and the Bird, bring out Bebop at its best.

Some critics go as far as to say Bebop contributes to juvenile delinquency. True, some of the younger musicians try to emulate the Diz in appearance and mannerisms—beret, goatee, thick glasses—and go about muttering trite expressions such as "Hey! Daddy-o" but it scarcely goes further.

One of the shining lights of this phase is Leo Parker, sax bopist. Possessing a big, rich tone, Parker impresses with his baritone solos. Here is a rare phenomenon—an outstanding baritone sax soloist—who may perhaps, in the near future, be ranked on equal terms with the great Harry Carney.

Bebop is refreshing jazz. Its provocative phrases stimulate a thoughtful appreciation. It may be to some at first listening, an incomprehensible, subtle and complex phraseology, but Bop requires careful listening to be truly appreciated.

Scat singing is often associated with Bebop and in this connection some fine records have been made. Gillespie's Oopapada, Ella Fitzgerald's great waxing of Lady Be Good, and Anita O'Day's What Is This Thing Called Love? are discs that should be in the collection of every Bop-lover.

Having had the privilege of seeing the Diz in person, I marvelled at the reaction of the crowd to his music. The crowd that teemed around the bandstand was one of the most enthusiastic that I had ever seen. Gillespie's brilliant conception of Grooving High was the highlight.

The Diz and Bird were elected on Metronome magazine's annual All-Star band, a tribute to their great natural musicianship and an inspiration to all young aspirants of bop.

School Bus Proves It Can Take It

CARO, MICH.—A passenger car, traveling at high speed, rammed into a 48-passenger school bus from the rear while it was parked here for the night. The terrific impact forced the automobile under the bus, but fortunately the driver was thrown clear. Photos above show the car completely demolished, the Reo safety school bus only slightly damaged, not even a windowpane cracked.

no other washer is like the Westinghouse Laundromat

here's why

CLEANER WASHES. Laundromat's exclusive, patented washing action is an improvement over all known washing methods. It gets clothes clean safely. It triple rinses, spins them practically dry.

NO BOLTING TO THE FLOOR. Laundromat's Buoyant Power Suspension absorbs vibration, eliminates bolting. Easy to install, easy to move.

TRANSMISSION GUARANTEED FOR FIVE YEARS
The Heart of the Laundromat, Sealed-in-Steel, lubricated for life, guaranteed for five years after year of manufacture against manufacturing defects.
