

442ND LEADER WILL ATTEND UTAH CONFAB

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Sept. 1.—Colonel Charles W. Pence, commanding officer of the 442nd Regimental Combat Team from its activation until he was wounded during the rescue of the Lost Texas Battalion, will attend the Tenth Biennial National JACL Convention to pay his personal tribute and that of the Army to the Nisei soldiers of World War II, according to word from Washington, D. C., received by Shigeki Ushio, convention chairman.

Colonel Pence will address the general meeting for both booster and official delegates which will be held Tuesday evening, September 7.

This will be the first time since he was with the 442nd that he will address a group of Japanese Americans, according to the Army, although he did participate as an honorary pallbearer at the Arlington services on June 4th when the first Nisei war dead were returned for burial at the National Cemetery.

Colonel Pence, a regular Army man, was placed in command of the entire 442nd Regimental Combat Team when it was activated in Camp Shelby, Mississippi, under special War Department orders on February 1, 1943. He trained the volunteers and led them into combat in both Italy and in France. He was wounded during the rescue of the now famous Lost Texas Battalion in the Vosges Mountains of northeastern France, October 30, 1944, and was evacuated to a field hospital. He was relieved of his command at that time. He is now stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia.

Five of the seven Presidential Distinguished Unit Citations awarded to the 442nd were won while he was their commanding officer.

"We are honored by having Colonel Pence with us during convention," Ushio stated. "It will give us an opportunity to honor the officer who so ably trained and led the 442nd during its most glorious period."

Nisei Among 120,000 Signing Up For Peacetime Draft in State

Local Nisei youths will be among the estimated 120,000 men in the 18 through 25 age bracket who will be registered in Washington State for the peacetime draft.

Registration opened last Monday when the 25-year-olds, men born after August 30 in 1922, swamped the registration places in Seattle. Seattle men will register at the Field Artillery Armory, 4th Ave. N. and Harrison St.; at 224 Clark Hall on the University of Washington campus, and at Selective Service offices in Room 407, 2nd and Cherry Buildings.

Only Americans in the draft age bracket not required to register are men already in uniform and on active duty and foreign diplomats. Men who were registered in the earlier draft should have their former draft board number with them when they register, Mrs. Dorothy E. Conner, Coordinator of Local Board Group A, emphasized.

Veterans should bring their service and discharge papers to facilitate registering. Once registered, they will come under jurisdiction of one of the five draft boards in Seattle or two in King County. The registration dates for other men in the draft age bracket are as follows:

- Sept. 1—Men born in 1923. Sept. 2-3—Born in 1924. Sept. 4 or 7—Born in 1925. Sept. 8-9—Born in 1926.

- Sept. 10-11—Born in 1927. Sept. 13-14—Born in 1928. Sept. 15-16—Born in 1929. Sept. 17-18—Born in 1930 (if born before Sept. 19).

After September 19, all youths shall register on their 18th birthday, or within five days of it. However, the 18-year-olds will not be eligible for the draft until 19.

The first draft call under the new selective service law is expected to be announced next Monday. The first draftees may be in uniform some time in November, selective service officials announced. A second call for men to report in December is expected later in September.

Most veterans, divinity students, ministers, married men, farmers, men with dependents, will be deferred from the draft but must be registered. Col. Charles M. Toyne, state director of selective service, emphasized.

Sweet Corn!

Lend an ear to pretty Marcia Brunk, of Chicago, while she tells you about the joys of the sweet corn season! Marcia says a corn boil is more fun than a picnic—and if you're ambitious you can combine the two and add some fried chicken for good measure. Slurp, slurp!—and don't forget to take along plenty of paper napkins! With Marcia on hand to demonstrate the proper method, eating sweet corn is ornamental as well as lots of fun!

GAY BON ODORI IN HEART OF SAN FRANCISCO ENDS BUSSEI GOLDEN JUBILEE

(Special to Northwest Times)

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Sept. 1 (By wire)—A huge, gay bon odori in the heart of San Francisco last Sunday night closed the second Bussei conference held here in conjunction with the Buddhist Golden Jubilee.

Highlights of the parley which began Friday and ended Sunday were the coronation ball and the oratorical contest.

Pacific Northwest, despite its small number of delegates, had its happiest moments in the two large events.

In the coronation ball, Seattle's good-looking Marian Kono was crowned "Miss Bussei," and in the oratorical contest, Tacoma's Tets Tamaki was voted a strong second place winner.

Some of the Pacific Northwest delegates left for home immediately after the bon odori. The majority remained and departed for Los Angeles and other points on an extended vacation.

The pleasant but difficult job of selecting the winner was undertaken by Supervisor George Christopher, Edward Howden of the Council for Civic Unity, photographers Bill Nakahara, Kameo Kido and Tom Okada, Joe Grant Masaoka of the JACL and Robert Muraoka of Hawaii.

Miss Kono was crowned queen during the coronation ball Saturday night in the Fairmont Hotel terrace room. She received a Granat Bros. golden trophy and a Bulova wrist watch donated by Muto Jewelers. The court of honor received smaller gold trophies and gifts.

The Seattle lassie was crowned by Mrs. Yaeko Sakai Hanyu, 1940 Bussei queen of the Golden Gate International Exposition.

Miss Kono's court included Alice Mori of Oakland, Bay District; Janet Otakagi of San Jose, Coast; Mary Mikawa of Lodi, Northern California; Iyoko Sasaki of Redkey, Central Calif.; Keko Ogawa of Los Angeles, Southern Calif.; Meggie Hatada of Chicago, Eastern; and Kay Oshikata of Hawaii.

Five Will Judge JACL Oratorical

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Sept. 1.—Five judges have been appointed for the national JACL oratorical contest which will be held in conjunction with the Tenth Biennial National JACL Convention, according to Tom Hoshiyama, chairman of the speech contest.

Two of the judges are speech instructors at the University of Utah, another is an attorney, and two are delegates to the National JACL Convention.

The two speech instructors are Dr. Laverne C. Bane and Professor George A. Adamson. Dr. Bane was formerly coach of the Utah debate team and Professor Adamson is the present coach. During the war, Dr. Bane served as head of the adult education program at the Topaz Utah Relocation Center.

The attorney is Judge Nephi Jensen, former city judge as well as assistant city attorney.

The two delegates are Tom Hayaishi, chairman of the Eastern District Council and Miss Mari Sabusawa, president of the Chicago chapter. Miss Sabusawa was the Southern California District JACL oratorical champion in 1941 and Hayaishi is one of the more prominent Nisei speakers in the Metropolitan area.

Five and possibly six contestants, representing most of the JACL district councils, will compete for the Perpetual National JACL Traveling Trophy which was won in the Portland Convention in 1940 by Miss Michi Sato of Ogden, Utah. Individual awards, including the $200 Pvt. Ben Frank Masaoka Memorial Scholarship, will be the prizes.

D. C. Aide to Familiarize Issei With Work of National JACL

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Sept. 1—In order that the Issei may hear a personal and intimate account of the work of the Washington Office, Thomas T. Takeshita has been invited to address the ADC meeting which will be held in conjunction with the Tenth Biennial National Convention in Salt Lake City, according to Hito Okada, national chairman of the ADC.

Takeshita has been writing up the Japanese press releases for the last two years for Washington Office of the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee. During that period, he worked in close association with Mike Masao-ka, national legislative director, as the ADC succeeded in obtaining the passage of evacuation claims and suspension of deportation legislation as well as successfully participating in the Oyama and Takahashi cases before the United States Supreme Court.

His off-the-record half hour report in Japanese should prove to be one of the highlights of the ADC meeting to which all parts of the country have been invited.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Sept. 1—Impressive memorial services for the Nisei war dead will be conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Utah as a feature of the Tenth Biennial National JACL Convention, Shigeki Ushio, convention chairman, announced this morning.

The ceremonies will be a part of the general meeting for both official and booster delegates that will be a part of the general meeting that will be held Tuesday evening, September 7.

According to Ushio, the VFW was invited to participate in the memorial services because of all the old-time national veterans organizations, it was the first to support the JACL-ADC legislative program. The Utah VFW led the legislative program that resulted in the repeal of the Utah alien land law in 1947 and carried the fight for evacuation claims and naturalization legislation to the national encampment last year in Cleveland.

The Salt Lake City Atomic Post No. 4355 will conduct the presentation of colors and the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Dr. Don C. James, a member of the State Veterans Legislative Council and past commander of the Utah Department of the VFW, will officiate at the services. He will be assisted by Les Broberg, chaplain.

Harry Clarke, featured local radio soloist, will sing "Sleep, Soldier Boy" and "My Buddy."

Glen E. Thompson, present state quartermaster-adjutant and immediate past departmental commander, will deliver a special eulogy to the Nisei soldier dead. Then, on behalf of the national VFW, he will place a wreath on the specially constructed altar.

bf Is Clipped but Counterpunches

William S. Ross, who managed Carl Arakaki, the promising young Nisei lightweight who scored three kayos in four fights since turning pro, didn't like our manner of asking "Has Arakaki Quit Seattle?"—and why.

In no uncertain terms, Mr. Ross fired several devastating blows at us in a lengthy letter. The stiffest punch, however, was his accusing us of insinuating that he has mistreated the Nisei pugilist.

Two sentences in our Aug. 25 yarn bothered him considerably and forced him to pound out a 550-plus word letter powered with left-handed jabs and hooks.

They are:
" . . . THE NORTHWEST TIMES learned from another informant that the Nisei has been disappointed because a preliminary fighter's pay doesn't even amount to 'peanuts.'"

AND
" . . . In the meantime, the fellows in the know at ringside felt a great loss in Arakaki who, if carefully brought up, could have put Seattle on fistie map."

Mr. Ross should know that any young, promising fighter who earns but half a century per fight away from "home," is easily discouraged and disappointed. It's difficult, Mr. Ross will agree, to live good and decently on fifty bucks a month, or even two weeks.

And Mr. Ross also should know—and admit—that any fighter, even the famous Joe Louis, has to be brought up carefully in order to reach fistie glory, fame and money.

If there is any implication in those two sentences that the Nisei battler was mistreated by Mr. Ross, then heaven help us.

TIMES' STARS TO MEET BEST IN ROSE CITY

Seattle's Northwest Times table tennis champions of 1948 will invade Portland next week to meet that city's best Nisei players, it was decided this week.

The intercity table tennis matches will be played in Portland on either Saturday, Sept. 11, or Sunday, Sept. 12, or both days.

The local championship team—Mas Muramoto, Sab Tsuloi and Nobu Suyama—will add Ed Horituchi on its traveling squad.

Portland's three-man outfit consists of Albert Oyama, Sol Ikeda and Tsugio Ikeda. A fourth man will be chosen soon, it was understood.

3 Girls Sought By SNGBO Head

Miye Ishikawa, president of the SNGBO (Seattle Nisei Girls' Bowling Organization), today announced that there are openings for three more girl bowlers for the fall season.

Interested players are asked to contact her at SENECA 2438 during the day or PROSPECT 8072 in the evening.

Your Army and Your Air Force need young men with an instinct for leadership. . . Don't delay. . . see your recruiting representative today.

The "A" club championship will be decided when Frank Hattori returns from his trip to California. Hattori will bump against defending champion Sumio Nagamatsu.

SEATTLE, HERE WE COME

By auto, by train and by airplane if a certain individual can manage to sneak out $5.81 from his kid's piegie bank, fifteen plus Spokane golf bugs will travel to Seattle for the purpose of joining in with the Seattle teesters in the Labor Day Tournament being sponsored jointly by the North Coast Importing Company and the Kashiwagi Clothiers.

Invasion plans were almost shelved when reports seeping over from Seattle revealed that the Board of Strategy of the Seattle forces were in possession of secret documents exposing Spokane's "secret weapon," the so-called double handicap and that a militant minority were threatening reprisals.

A hurried conference with Agent X by long distance telephone disclosed that the Coast City forces in general were in favor of mixing it up with Spokane's contingent and that all this "double handicap" talk was just tommy rot.

So, make room, Seattle, we'll be seeing you.

HANDICAPS

More on the subject of handicaps.

The fact that in the recent Northwest Open held at the Indian Canyon Golf Course in Spokane, 80% of the cups and prizes were copped by the Spokane golfers has entrenched in the minds of some of the invading participants that the handicaps of the Inland Empire Golf Club members were more than slightly padded.

Also being a participant in the tourney, we are of the opinion that familiarity with the course and not padded handicaps was the sole reason for the Spokane golfers' better luck in winning the prizes. Of course, it rained likell but the weather was more in favor of the invaders (apologies to the Seattle Chamber of Commerce) who are more than used to playing in the Seattle mist.

A single handicapper from Seattle might shoot in the hundreds at the Canyon but it is also likely that not many Spokane golfers will shoot much better than their handicaps at Jefferson or West Seattle.

THIS N THAT:

Kaz Maruyama and Sparky Kono will tangle this Sunday to play off their tie for the Joe Okamoto Memorial Trophy. . . Fred Ishikawa, old timer of oldtimers is indeed a brave man. . . ## EX-RESIDENT OF CITY WANTS TO COME HOME

Claiming that the plaintiff was forced to become a Japanese national under coercion, a suit was filed here last week in behalf of Kiyoshi Kawaguchi, former Seattle resident.

Known as the "kaifuku" case, this is the first litigation in which the plaintiff was admitted as a Japanese citizen after he had previously renounced it.

It was asserted that in the case of Kawaguchi, he had dropped his dual citizenship in favor of United States rights when he left for Japan. But under pressure, he was forced to regain his Japanese status in order to seek certain jobs or privileges granted only to Japanese nationals.

William Y. Mimbu, local attorney, and Minoru Yasui of Denver, are associated with the Los Angeles counselor in the Kawaguchi case.

In Los Angeles, the first legal case seeking restoration of U. S. citizenship to a stranger who served in the Japanese Navy during the war was filed in the Federal Court by Attorney A. L. Wirin in behalf of his client, Naruo Yamamoto, a 22-year-old former Gardena resident.

According to the complaint, Yamamoto was forced to serve under Japanese military conscription and was also under "pressure and coercion" at the time of his draft.

Wirin explained that there are a number of court decisions that one who serves in a foreign army does not lose his U. S. status if such action was the result of conscription or coercion.

Safety Measures Eliminate Bull Hazards

When it comes to handling bulls, every week is National Farm Safety Week at the Curtiss Candy Company farms in northern Illinois.

Special emphasis is placed upon the careful handling of bulls which still represent one of the greatest hazards in farm operations. For years, therefore, the Curtiss farms have worked to develop standard practices which have won completely eliminated the danger of casualties often experienced from those animals.

All outdoor bull pens on the Curtiss farms are constructed to allow a 2-foot open space between the fencing or railing and the ground. As shown in the top picture, this feature enables a man to roll out of the pen almost simultaneously should he be attacked. Too many farms still build fences which prevent escape from an enraged animal. The bull in the background behind the rolling man is Curtiss Candy Levis Heir, undefeated two-year-old Guernsey bull at 1946 shows.

The left bottom picture shows a special chain attachment hooked onto the ring in the bull's nose, passing up his face and thrown around his horns. Even though an individual is knocked down and the bull's head lowered for a charge, a man can readily grab the chain and gain immediate control of the animal from a prone position on the ground. The bull wearing the chain is Curtiss Candy Signal Ned, grand champion Brown Swiss bull wherever shown in 1947.

Another important safety feature is the self-opening door on the bull barn shown in the lower right picture, with Signal Ned making his exit. By means of this door, which is pivoted above the center and protected below with metal sheathing, the bull can enter and leave the quarters without the necessity of having his keeper operate the door for him. Besides this obvious safety feature of eliminating the possibility of contact between the animal and a person, it also saves the farmer the necessity of letting the bull in or out of his barn when the time might be entirely inconvenient for him owing to other duties elsewhere.

You will find it less easy to uproot faults, than to choke them off gaining virtues.—Ruskin.
