San Francisco Fog - Tear Gas Variety

'TOKYO ROSE' TREASON TRIAL DELAY LOOMS

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Oct. 16—Indications that the actual trial of Mrs. Iva Toguri D'Aquino on the "Tokyo Rose" treason charges will not begin for two months were noted this week with the report that eight government witnesses brought here from Japan may leave for home shortly.

Tom DeWolfe, special assistant to the U. S. attorney general and chief prosecution counsel, said that the witnesses, already in this country for a month, are becoming "disgruntled" at being away from home. Present plans are to fly the witnesses home on Oct. 24 and return them later when the trial hearings open.

Ennis Vouches For Japanese

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Oct. 16—Edward J. Ennis, former U. S. department of justice official and now special counsel for the JACL-ADC on evacuation claims, this week asked the government prosecutors on the Tokyo Rose treason trial to steer clear of any stand which would jeopardize the position of Japanese Americans in this country.

In his talk with U.S. Attorney Frank J. Hennessey, Ennis pointed out that during the war he was director of enemy alien control and could vouch for the excellent record of the alien Japanese in this country.

Japanese Third Of Hawaii

HONOLULU, T. H., Oct. 16—The present number of persons of Japanese ancestry in the Territory of Hawaii is 176,280 in a total population of 540,500, the territorial board of health revealed recently.

Persons of Japanese ancestry now constitute 32.61 per cent of the total population. The Caucasian group, largest in Hawaii, has 33.39 per cent or 180,480.

Of the Japanese, 144,640 or roughly 82 per cent are American-born. Following the Caucasian and the Japanese racial groups, the part Hawaiians with 70,110 is next, followed by Filipinos 53,640, Chinese 30,530, Hawaiians 10,650, Puerto Ricans 9,820, Koreans 7,320 and all others 1,670.

Educators Pounce On Red Units

TOKYO, Oct. 16—The education ministry has clamped down stringent set of school rules designed primarily to bar Communists from organizing Red cells in Japanese schools, reported the United Press this week.

Universities, colleges, normal schools and high schools throughout Japan were notified by ministry officials that "immediately students will not be allowed to maintain branches of 'any political party' within school compounds.

They also outlawed student strikes aimed against the faculties.

The order, according to local newspapers, was a sequel to last spring's widespread student strikes against the proposed increase in tuition fees which many sources said had the secret backing of the Japan Communist party.

The new law specified, however, that students are free to join any political party outside of school and in individual capacity.

Attorneys Back From Meeting

William Mambu and Toru Sakahara, local attorneys, and their wives returned Sunday morning from California where they attended the Northern California Western Nevada JACL district council meeting in Monterey and the lawyers' meeting in San Francisco.

The two Seattle attorneys met Mike Masaoka, national JACL legislative director, and Edward J. Ennis, JACL-ADC special counsel, to discuss matters relating to the filing of the evacuation claims papers.

Japanese Fight 'Vulgar' Comics

TOKYO, Oct. 16—A group of 30 Japanese comic strip writers and artists launched a campaign to purge "vulgar comic books from the children's world."

The spokesman for the group said some of the most popular Japanese comic strips were "feudalistic, indecent and advocated money-worship."

LEADER CITES GRAVE NEED TO HIT GOAL

Because their job is not yet complete, volunteer workers in the Seattle-King County Community Chest campaign for 1949 next week are continuing to solicit contributions in a determined effort to raise the $1,737,767 goal.

"When we undertook this campaign on behalf of 40 Red Feather services, we did so with the conviction that it is the best thing we do," L. A. Williams, general chairman of the fund-raising drive, declared. "Our job is not yet complete, and we will not quit. The campaign will end when everyone in King County has been given an opportunity to invest in the welfare and health of our community for all of the coming year.

"Until that opportunity has been provided—until we have called on everyone who wants to contribute—the campaign will go on. There is no question that we can do what is necessary. The money is here, the people appreciate what we are working for, and I feel sure that as we make the calls and tell the story, we can complete the job successfully."

In a statement released early this week, Williams and William S. Street, president of the Community Chest, declared that "the Community Chest campaign is in danger of failing but we can succeed, because all the elements of success are present.

They added: "The thousands of volunteer solicitors have worked hard, and are continuing their efforts to reach the minimum goal. They need more time to complete the task—more time, and more cooperation from all of us, whose agents they are...

"The goal of $1,737,767 is an increase of 154 per cent over the amount raised last year. The amount includes USO, which again must have our support. If we were supporting the Chest on the same basis as the average of other cities of our size and class, our goal would be $2,154,000. The established figure is a basic minimum....

"Many people have not yet had an opportunity to contribute. As the volunteers continue during this week, they plan to reach everyone. To those who have not yet given, we say:

"This is a community crisis which threatens to undermine the benefits of our Community Chest which we have gained for a quarter century. Give willingly when the volunteer calls—give this once and enough for 40 services, enough for a full year. None of us would want to continue living in a community deprived of these services.

"To those who have already contributed, we urge: Consider again your fair share gift. At the present rate of giving, we will not make the goal.

"Search your heart. Thank God you live in America, and decide how much more you can give to preserve your American heritage. Take the initiative today. Offer an additional amount, or authorize an increase in your pledge, by writing the Community Chest, 1535 Summit Avenue, Seattle 22."

The honor of being the first district over the top in the campaign went to the Jackson Street community early last week. Residents in that area contributed 124 per cent of their allotted quota.

Red Feather Awards of Merit "for distinguished community service" in reaching or exceeding their quota have been presented by Williams to many firms and organizations. The awards are presented in recognition of outstanding achievement in the Community Chest campaign. In presenting the awards at the campaign report luncheons, Williams commented that the scores of recipients are setting the pace for the entire community. He added: "What these fine citizens are doing, we all can do, if we believe enough in our community and care enough for our children and our neighbors' children."

Youngsters Do Their Share

Contributions to the 1949 Community Chest drive in the Jackson St. area were not limited to the old people who have money to spare towards a worthy cause.

More than 100 youngsters belonging to the Sunday School classes in the local Buddhist temple saved their pennies nickels and dimes usually spent for sweet candy, to fill the Chest.

In all, the thoughtful Buddhist youngsters' contribution amounted to six dollars.

Five dollars will provide attentive care for a homeless child in a happy foster home for five days, will provide good care for two weeks in a day nursery for a baby whose mother must work and cannot pay the full cost of care, or will pay the cost of giving one week's home nursing care (three visits) to an acutely ill child whose parents could not otherwise get nursing service.

And there's the dollar to boot for candy or food to some unfortunate child.

Ontario Blaze Burns Cafe

ONTARIO, Ore., Oct. 15—A fire of unknown origin destroyed the interior of the popular East Side Cafe and lounge early Wednesday morning. Damage was estimated in excess of $12,000.

Since the restaurant and the lounge, owned by Don and Art Sugai and Mr. Fujita, are fully insured, the establishment is expected to be open for business within a month. Don Sugai, who is a professional wrestler, was on an exhibition tour when the fire struck the cafe.

Action Due on Reconsideration Of Decision on Intermarriages

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Oct. 16 (Rafu Shimpo Dispatch)—An action to have the State Supreme Court reconsider its recent 4 to 3 decision in favor of wiping out the 76-year old California law which had prohibited inter-racial marriage between the whites and members of Negro and Oriental races loomed as a strong possibility.

Los Angeles county attorney Harold W. Kennedy indicated late last week he would make the request for reconsideration after studying the 30,000-word opinion handed down by the high tribunal.

Kennedy said in view of public interest and the fact that the statute is nearly as old as the state, his office certainly will petition for a rehearing.

Meanwhile, Rosemond Rice, chief of the marriage license division, has announced no license would be issued to inter-racial applicants until specific instructions are received from the county counsel.

Asked whether he saw "Negroes and Orientals pouring in into his office with their white would-be-spouses," he merely said, "No."

Kawakita Case 35th in U. S.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Oct. 16—The treason trial of Tomoya Kawakita which ended in a death sentence for the 27-year-old Nisei is the thirty-fifth such action against civilians on record in the United States.

It is the first time where a Japanese American went on trial for such a crime in the California courts.

AREA EXPECTS TO END PUSH BY OCT. 18

Demonstrating that its '49 Community Chest drive is still going strong, the Jackson St. Community Council yesterday (Friday) afternoon reported $3,786.78 collected in the area. The amount is 151.46 per cent of the area's quota for the campaign, said Mrs. Ruth Manca, council coordinator.

"We have only sixty-three more accounts to cover which is less than one per cent of our total accounts, and we should be finished by Monday, Oct. 18," Mrs. Manca added.

Three teams have completed their soliciting for the drive to date. They are headed by Arthur King of Chong Wa, Cecelia King of Mrs. David Luke.

Under Mrs. Manca in the council push are Lt. Gen. J. R. Adams of the Seattle Housing Authority, Col. R. A. Pomeroy, and Lt. Col. S. H. A. R. A. Pomeroy, Charles Hadd, Mrs. Luke, Nicanor Bocalvo, and Chong Wa liaison officer King.

The Junior Council Committee team, directed by Rutley, was headed by Hiro Hasegawa, captain. The team consisted of Hideo Kondo, Mrs. Mattie Mitchell, Tae Tsubota of Neighborhood House, Joe Shoji, Lily Mukai, Yosh Imanishi, Margaret Baba and Joe Candiotti.

To raise more funds toward the Chest, the Filipino community of Seattle and its vicinity sponsored a benefit dance last night (Friday) in the Finnish hall.

'Bon-Sai' Promises to Develop As Vital Export Item to U.S.

An ancient Japanese art promises to develop into an important item of export to the United States, Seattle florists and Northwest Airlines cargo experts revealed today.

Tiny dwarfed Japanese evergreens have been rushed from Tokyo to Seattle by air and are now under observation by Frank Rosala, Seattle florist, to determine whether the shipment of large numbers of the miniature trees will be practical.

Known in Japan as "Bon-sai", the dwarf trees have the status in their native land of fine work of art. Single trees are often handed down from generation to generation. Their prices may reach thousands of dollars and some are known to be 600 years old.

Since plant quarantine regulations in the early years of this century prevented their being brought into the United States in their own soil, importation of these trees has been almost non-existent. The rigors of steamship voyages are usually fatal to the delicate plants.

Only chance for successful handling of the trees, airline officials decided, would be to rush them from Japan to Seattle, a flight of only a few hours, and with the cooperation of federal officials, hurry them through plant quarantine processes.

As an experiment, two trees were shipped recently, a five-fingered pine and a cypress. Their condition since arrival has been pronounced satisfactory. Less than two feet high and planted in pots, the trees give the appearance of great age, with gnarled, windswept branches and twisted roots.

Patient Japanese raise dwarf trees by pruning the roots of a sapling and placing it in a pot. For years its branches are trimmed and trained into the positions desired by the artist. He will often spend five or six years achieving the sweep of a single branch.

Regularly, about every two years, the roots are again pruned, to restrict its growth. It is this attention that makes the dwarf trees so difficult to ship and transplant. Experts say that in order to control its growth, the trees must be kept barely alive.

American-made imitations of these dwarf trees are now in great popular demand as table and mantle pieces. This fact has enthused local businessmen with the possibilities of importing the growing trees. Seattle's proximity to the Orient by air, they believe, will make it the important distribution center for this unusual commodity.

Nothing can constitute good-breeding which has not good nature for its foundation.—Bulwer.

Cars for Everybody

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

MOST PEOPLE thought Henry Ford's ideas about putting wheels under every American were just a lot of bunko. They just couldn't see how anything like that could be done. Some of Ford's early partners failed to grasp the ideas, for they thought of automobiles as belonging to the rich. Ford's idea was to "harebrained" for them. They couldn't understand how anybody could possibly make a living selling cars to "poor" people.

But Henry Ford had the grain of an idea and the courage to see it through. America was a nation that encouraged such things. With an original investment of $28,000, he put the nation literally on wheels. A mass production was brought into its own, and costs came down. Ford wanted to make only a small profit on each car, and this sold millions of them. Competitors had to offer good values, too.

Jobs and Payrolls

TIN LIZZIE and her imitators called for roads. Dozens of new industries came into being, in the building of roads. Our highways would circle the globe 41 times. Lizzie and the others had a thirst for gasoline. America's petroleum industry grew enormously. Filling stations had to quench that thirst. All these things made jobs. America became an industrial power, with this Ford-inspired motive power all the while adding to her efficiency and activity.

This new mass production created great industrial empires: mines for coal and iron, rubber plantations, timberlands and saw mills, hydro-electric works, chemicals, glass, textiles. The result was more and more jobs, bigger and bigger payrolls, more and more goods and products that people wanted. Then, with our cars we became a touring nation. All our states became neighbors. We came to know the face of America, the beautiful.

Plowed-Back Earnings

OUT OF that $28,000 and his idea, Ford developed a great industrial empire, with factories and assembly plants and branch offices. Yet, aside from the factories and the equipment that he owned, Henry Ford probably never owned more than 2 per cent of the wealth that he created. He was called a billionaire but he counted his resources in buildings and machinery, not in money.

Ford was free to plow back his earnings into an industrial empire that created jobs and produced wealth, mostly for other people. There were no personal income taxes to penalize individual effort. In fact, corporation taxes did not begin until Ford's industry was five years old, and then the tax was only 1 per cent. It did not exceed 13 per cent any year until 1932. Today, taxes are a multi-million dollar item on many a company's books.

Demands from the tax collector have made impossible a contribution like Ford's from any individual American in this generation. Present tax laws and mushrooming growth of a revenue-taking government, make it almost certain that there will not be another Henry Ford, or anyone like him. Are we thus penalizing the future of America? Who knows what need may arise for the genius of a Ford, in years to come?

Our nation must never lose its inventive genius. This genius can best thrive in a climate of complete economic freedom. The spirit of industrial venture that Ford typified must be kept alive, for the good of America. Ford's contribution brought untold blessings to all of us. We should not make it impossible through heavy taxation burdens, for any future Henry Fords to develop in America.

CHICAGO — Only 20.2 per cent of all present players of musical instruments received all or part of their instrumental training in school, according to a recent nationwide survey of the public's interest in music, which was conducted for the American Music Conference. This chart shows the field for expansion of instrumental school music instruction which the American public has indicated it wants. According to the survey, 85 per cent of the people believe such training is the part of every school music system. Increasing every school music instruction will increase the need for private teachers, since half of all who take lessons in school also seek instruction from private teachers.

"Husband" Is A Woman

OAKLAND, CALIF.—(Soundphoto)—Oakland police unwound a case of impersonation so perfect that they had to inform a 17-year old "wife" that she had been married for two years to a woman. Police Inspector Clarence Covill is shown (left) as he made this disclosure to Roberta Lawson Nelson. Strange tale was uncovered as police sought Robert Stewart Nelson (right), 25, part-time bookkeeper at a wholesale grocery, believed to have absconded with $900 of company funds. Police say FBI records showed Nelson had posed as a man and husband since "her" marriage in 1946. Records also showed Nelson had been arrested in 1944 as a draft evader, but was released after examination showed she was a woman. Search for Nelson now is centered in the Los Angeles area.

To discuss plans for a formation of a Nisei Bowler's Club, a special meeting of all team captains and league officials of the Nisei Commercial League and City Merchants Leagues will be held from 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 19, in Main Bowl.

If the group decides to hold a dance, such places as Spanish Castle, Palladium, Farout's, Olympic Hotel, Casa Italiana or the Seattle Chamber of Commerce Hall will be considered.

Takagi stated that Main Bowl will schedule the Classic so that the matches will all be completed by 6:30 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 30.

Defeat Chinese

OAKLAND, Calif., Oct. 16—Showing need for considerable more polish in offense and defense, the Royal A.C. cridders were nevertheless too strong for the Oakland Chinese eleven and won their first game of the season, 7 to 0, on the local Tech high field Sunday morning.

The tilt's only score came in the third quarter when Sak Horita recovered a fumble on the three-yard line of the Chinese and Socks Yoshida went through left tackle for the touchdown. Dick Ogawa converted for the extra point.

Miss Numoto of C.I.E. Hits 581, Including Season High 249 Game

Martha's Beauty Shop continued its merry way towards the SNGBO championship but Jean Numoto, teen-age star of China Import & Export, was the lassie who stole the show in the SNGBO matches last Thursday night in Main Bowl.

As anchor woman for C.I.E. which drubbed Tokuda Drug, 3-1, Miss Numoto found her strike area to knock out the season's high 249 singles game and the season's high 581 series, busting Mitzi Sanico's high-ten 237 and high-thirty 556.

Over The Top Beverage, led by smooth-tossing Yo Kitayama, tripped Takano Studio 3-1. Takano's Kiki Yamamoto put on a stellar performance, rolling 188, 181 and 168 games for a 537 series.

STOP 'N SHOP whipped Gyokko Ken Cafe, 3-1, in the only other contest of the night. Up and coming Fumi Yoshida of Stop 'N Shop contributed 507 pins to set the pace for her teammates.

NIGHT'S INDIVIDUAL STAR Singles—Ray Kiyohara 240 Series—Ray Kiyohara 604.

Puget Sound Vegetable Growers Association of Sumner thumped Puget Sound Laundry of Tacoma, 2 to 1, to retain its grip on first-place in the Nisei Commercial league last Tuesday night in Main Bowl.

Chunky Ray Kiyohara, knocking out 240, 187, and 177 games for the night's high 604 series, and lanky George Ota with a rousing 553 series led the PSVGA men. The laundrymen were paced by the easy-going Frank Hidaka (588) and Kaz Yamane (580). Hidaka's series consisted of 171, 202 and 215 games.

Mediocre Northwest Times once again rose to great heights, this time topping powerful Shanty Inn, 2 to 1. Yukio Kuniyuki (579), Hero Nishimoto (561) and Kaz Yamasaki (500) were the newspaper aggregation's top stars in victory. Shanty Inn put up strong resistance with Pruney Tsuji (598), Shig Urakawa (559) and Jim Kuranishi (540).

Passport To Winter

Buttons march bravely up the front of this coat designed for the young in heart. Rothmoor has chosen Forstmann's Newcastle Marvona to enhance the soft graceful lines of the full swinging back. Triple stitching trims the collar, cuffs, and pockets. A velvet tie loops jauntily under the chin.

Tokyo Through Nisei Eyes

Even the traditional Japanese "geta" is going modern. Latest wooden clogs on the Tokyo streets have incorporated some of the best features of the Philippine "Bakia"—a clever high-heeled, felt-toe footwear popular along the Escolta.

Others are modified Chinese clogs which are seen all the way down the China coast, from Shanghai to Hongkong and as far south as Singapore.

As far as we can perceive, the modernized getas have laced cloth or leather upper on wooden clogs streamlined with a Cuban heel.

Some say the shoe shortage in Japan is responsible for the new footwear but others say that the style has been brought back from the Japanese visits to the Asiatic capitals.

Many of the geta stores in Tokyo sell these modern clogs, together with the more prosaic Chinese clogs which consist of a felt, leather or rubber band over a plain wooden sole.

They are cheaper and sell almost as well as the traditional geta which always has and will be the most popular Japanese footwear.

As long as there are Japanese clothes, shoes will never replace the geta. Nothing is as incongruous as kimono and shoes.

Fat men are pretty scarce—except for movie stars Akira Kishida and Roppa Furukawa and the sumo wrestlers who don't seem to be as big as they used to be at that.

The scarcity of fat men in the country has done away with reducing courses; a man trying to make a living by selling same would starve to death.

Because most people are trying to gain weight—not lose it—you never see ads in Japanese papers or magazines these days saying that you too can gain a sylph-like figure in 60 days.

The saying that "Nobody loves a fat man" doesn't go in Japan. The Japanese reason that if a man is fat, it means that he is a prosperous and eating extremely well and they secretly envy him.

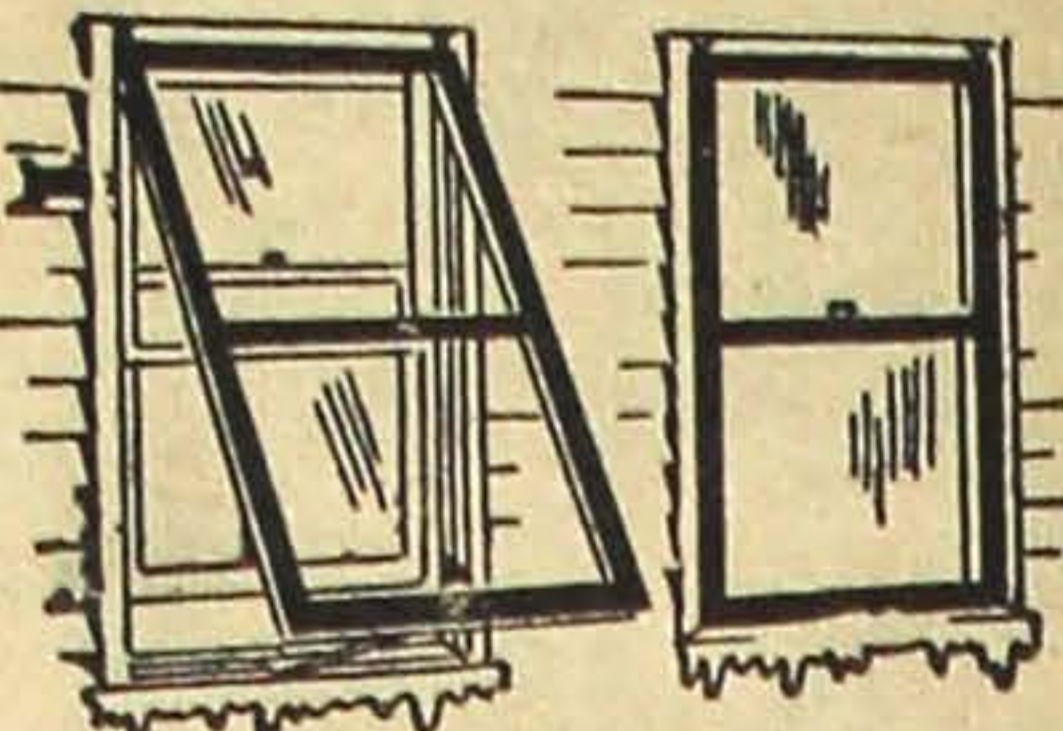

Ya got yours yet? The Asahi reports that the latest thing among Japanese young men is permanent waves.

Young blades reportedly sit side by side with women patrons to get their hair done at half price. Before the war, there was a vogue among young men to create, by shaving their head, an artificial receding hairline—the Charles Boyer influence, no doubt.

Artificially-created curly locks for men may still be tolerable but we draw the line against dyed hair—that, we think, would be going a wee bit too far—From The Nippon Times.

YOUR HOME

By Francis Ainsworth

Did you know that from 15% to 35% of all the heat from your furnace escapes out the windows? Well, when I recently learned that fact I was amazed—and resolved right then and there to find a solution to that heat leak before winter set in.

I found the answer in Winter Windows! My friend Mudge had purchased Winter Windows last year for her home, and told me that the added comfort and warmth from this proper insulation was really surprising. She explained that Winter Windows are actually second windows which fit over the regular ones with a dead air space between. And... because this dead air space has been proved one of the best heat insulators there is, these windows form a complete insulation.

One thing Mudge cautioned me about—making sure that my Winter Windows were glazed with good glass. She advised "Pennvernon" because it is extremely clear and free from distortion. And... of course, clear vision and good looks are important as well as the proper insulation.

Well, I've ordered Winter Windows for every window at our house, too—and we're looking forward to a big saving in fuel costs this year. We feel sure, too, that the children will have fewer colds this winter, with those dangerous draughts eliminated. And they will certainly make our rooms more comfortable on those cold, zero winter days. On warmer days—or for sleeping at night—these windows may be easily adjusted to let in the amount of fresh air you want.

My husband and I are looking forward to a big saving on our fuel bill this year... which is good news in these days of high prices, isn't it?

Low Cost, High Protein Dish

Keeping the family's nutritional requirements up to par is easy and economical when low cost, high protein foods are combined in flavorful main dishes such as Kidney Bean Rabbit. In this attractive, appetizing dish, there is some protein in the cheese—plus the milk minerals and milk vitamins and food energy in cheese.

You can count on a half pound of cheddar cheese to give you about as much protein as a whole pound of meat with a moderate amount of bone and fat, according to the United States Department of Agriculture, Office for Food and Feed Conservation. And a half pound of cheese provides the suggested 2 ounces of protein for a main dish when feeding four.

You'll find Kidney Bean Rabbit one of your easiest main dishes—you just make a rabbit of the ingredients, and serve hot on crisp toast. Try it today.

Kidney Bean Rabbit

- 2 tablespoon chopped onion
- 1 green pepper, chopped
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 2 cups cooked kidney beans
- 2 tablespoons catsup
- 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- Salt, pepper, cayenne
- 1 lb. American Pasteurized Process cheese, sliced

Saute the chopped onion and green pepper in the butter or margarine in the top of a double boiler. Place over hot water. Add the well drained beans, catsup, Worcestershire sauce, seasonings and cheese. Cook slowly until the cheese melts. Serve hot on crisp toast.

Canada Nisei Cops Top Money In Montana Bronc Riding Test

BOZEMAN, Mont., Oct. 16—Canadian-born Ivan Sugai of Raymond, Alberta, recently won top money in the saddle bronc riding event here before 6,000 fans.

The only Japanese cowboy in the world competing in the rodeo game today, Sugai won the championship trophy and a silver belt buckle mounted with gold and valued at $75.

The Canadian Nisei also earned top money in the bareback riding at the fall roundup in Malta, Mont.

The twenty-two-year-old Nisei says he has dreamed of riding since he first started riding in the rodeo eight years ago.

Bronc busting is a tough racket. Sugai will bear witness. He had a bad spill this year when he was riding a wild brahma bull which stood on its head and threw Sugai to the ground. The Nisei was unconscious for three hours.

This year, Sugai has competed in most of the rodeos in Alberta and British Columbia, as well as Montana and Arizona.

His parents and family, except for three sisters living in Raymond and Welling, returned to Japan two years ago.

MISS TOBACCO CONTEST TO SPUR SMOKE SALES

DANCE TO RAISE FUNDS

ONTARIO, Ore., Oct. 16—A benefit dance was held yesterday (Friday, Oct. 15) in the Gayway dance hall by the Snake River JACL chapter to raise funds for the Payette swimming pool. George Shurtliff and his seven-piece band played for the first dance of the fall season.

Mrs. Masako Sugai and Jim Watanabe were in charge of the affair.
