JACL LEADERS TELL CLAIMS FORMS PLANS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20—On their return early today from a hurried west coast tour, Edward J. Ennis, JACL ADC legal counsel on evacuation claims, and Mike Masaoka, national legislative director, announced plans regarding JACL distribution of evacuation claims forms. These plans are based on discussions between the two men and JACL national staff members, District Council delegates, and Issei leaders, which took place in key west coast cities and Chicago during the past week.

As the initial step resulting from these discussions, the Washington JACL ADC will begin preparation of background material, such as copies of the law itself, an information sheet to assist in the filing of claims, and a statement of the various types of claims which may be filed. Ennis is preparing the latter two. Japanese translations of all three, as well as of the claims form itself, will be prepared by the Washington Office and made available together with other material to all chapters and regional offices.

In order to distribute such material at the same time as the claims forms, so as to insure maximum clarity in the understanding of the procedure and interpretation of questions asked in the forms, Masaoka reported that JACL Chapters throughout the country have generally decided to wait until all material is ready before distributing the claims forms. This should be in about two or three weeks.

It is hoped this delay will serve the double purpose of giving the various chapters time to set up their own system of assistance to those who desire it, and to encourage serious study of individual claims before filing. It would appear that the January 2, 1950 deadline for the filing of all claims obviates the necessity of any needless rush.

Meanwhile, official evacuation claims forms printed and released by the Department of Justice are available directly from the Justice Department in Washington, D. C., or through offices of local U.S. Attorneys in the principal city of each state.

On this last trip, Ennis and Masaoka met with delegates to the Pacific Southwest District Council in Los Angeles, delegates to the Northern California-Western Nevada and Pacific Northwest District Councils in Monterey. Issei leaders at a meeting of the Kikaku Kisei Domei of Northern California in San Francisco, and Midwest District Council delegates in Chicago. The pair met with Issei leaders in all cities and with JACL national staff members in Los Angeles.

Senators Magnuson and Cain agree: "The annual fund-raising campaign of the Community Chest is the outstanding example of united effort on the part of the whole community for the common welfare."

Wainwright Picks Nisei DAV Aide

HONOLULU, T. H., Oct. 20—Appointment of a Nisei as Disabled American Veterans National Service Officer in the Pacific Ocean Area was announced recently by Gen. Jonathan Wainwright, national DAV commander.

The Nisei is Albert Y. Oki, of Kamuela, Hawaii, who is a veteran of the 100th Battalion. He returned from Washington, D. C., to carry forward the national policy of the DAV—that of service to the members and their families and the dependents of the war dead.

Oki will be stationed at the DAV regional headquarters in Honolulu. He received six months' training for his job at the American University in Washington, D. C., and served 18 months in the central office of the Veterans Administration in Washington and in the DAV administrative headquarters in Cincinnati.

Tokyo Rose Denied Release on Bail

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Oct. 20—Mrs. Iva Toguri D'Aquino's plea for release on bail was absolutely denied by Federal Judge Louis E. Goodman last Thursday, although the judge ruled that the government must find a better place for her to stay and that unless suitable quarters are found it would be a violation of "due process of law."

Wayne Collins, attorney for the woman charged with being Tokyo Rose, told the court that her present quarters at the San Francisco county jail no. 2 are not adequate for his interview with his client.

In his unsuccessful plea for bail, Collins dipped into American history to find a precedent. He cited the release under bail of Jefferson Davis, once president of the ill-fated Confederate States of America, while awaiting trial for treason after the Civil War.

Meanwhile, it was disclosed that Major Wallace Ince, 36, now at the infantry school in Columbus, Ga., who taught microphone technique to Mrs. D'Aquino, reportedly supplied secret weather information to American fliers over Radio Tokyo. He will be a star witness against Mrs. D'Aquino, it was reported.

Some legal authorities hinted the opening hearing date may be delayed longer than is expected. At present, she is scheduled to appear before the Grand Jury early in November.

Homecoming Fete Is This Friday

The University of Washington Japanese Alumni Association's homecoming dinner-dance will be this Friday, Oct. 22, in the Sand Point Golf & Country Club, with the dinner slated to start at 7 p.m. and the dance at 9:30 p.m.

Jackie Souders' Palladium Ballroom orchestra will play at the dance which will be a semi-formal affair.

Patrons and patronesses for the dance will be Mr. and Mrs. Yoshito Fujii, Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. O'Brien, Dr. and Mrs. M. Paul Suzuki, Prof. and Mrs. Henry S. Tazumi, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hirabayashi, and Mr. Elmer Smith.

The cost of the dinner-dance will be ten dollars per person. The dinner by itself will cost seven dollars, and the dance, four dollars.

Reservations for the dinner must be made immediately with either Mrs. Billie Yoshioka, MAIN 8452, or Stanley Y. Karikomi, MAIN 5156.

Higher operating costs, a growing population and new services make a higher goal necessary this year for the Seattle-King County Community Chest campaign. Remember that a one successful campaign will make it possible for 40 health and welfare services to serve all our citizens for all of 1949.

UNCLE SAM'S NEW LOOK

It's gone with the horse and buggy... the notion that Uncle Sam can live alone and like it. Two world wars have given him a new outlook. Today for his own security, Uncle Sam is concerned with the welfare of people everywhere. At home, he's making sure that all Americans... native and foreign born, Protestant, Catholic and Jewish, white and colored... enjoy their rights to equal opportunity, to equal justice, to the equal exercise of citizenship without discrimination. Abroad, Uncle Sam is backing the same basic rights, working with the United Nations for an International Bill of Rights that will protect citizens of every land and block the moves of dictators and would be conquerors. Yes... Uncle Sam looks to the U. N. as the great protector of human rights and peace. That's why he wants to make the U. N. a tower of strength. In this United Nations Week, Americans are proud of Uncle Sam's new look...

IT'S STYLED FOR PEACE!

JACKSON STREET AREA TEAMS BUCKLE DOWN IN ALL-OUT TRY TO WIND UP '49 CHEST PUSH

Teams in the Jackson Street area are making an all-out effort to call on the last prospect and ring the last doorbell in the district to wind up the 1949 Community Chest campaign by the end of this week, it was announced by R. A. Pomeroy, colonel for the section.

"Although we reached our quota during the first week, we do not plan to stop until every person in our area has been called on," Pomeroy said.

A total of $3,909.78 had been collected by Friday, October 15, and it is expected that the final report will exceed $4,000—$1,500 over the $2,500 quota.

"This is a wonderful example of what a neighborhood can do when it starts working together," said J. R. Adams, lieutenant-general for the district.

"I understand that two years ago contributions in this area came to only a little over $600. It is an honor and a privilege to be associated with a community that has accepted its responsibility so completely, and it has been a real pleasure to work with the colonels and captains and solicitors who have done the real job."

Highlights of the campaign last week included a benefit dance last Friday given by the Filipino Community of Seattle and vicinity. Most members of the organization have already made individual contributions, but the dance was held in an effort to raise additional funds.

Children of the Seattle Buddhist Sunday School gave their candy money in pennies, nickels and dimes to add $6 to the Chest fund. This idea was initiated by the children themselves and Sunday School officials, and brings out the truth of the statement that everyone gives so that everyone may benefit.

Amounts collected up to Monday, Oct. 18, include: Chong Wa's team, $890; N. A. Bocalay's team, $222; Seichi Hara's team, $939; Charles Hadd's team, $888.34; Walter Rutledge's team, $203.92; and Mrs. David Luke's team, $401.52.

This allotment was included in the record-breaking foreign aid program of more than $8,000,000,000 which will be presented to the next Congress.

This Week in History

October 17 to 23
By the Editors of the World Book Encyclopedia

On October 17, 1781—167 years ago this week—General George Washington completed a master stroke of military strategy that ended the war between America and Great Britain. Washington, arranging his troops at New York as if to launch a heavy attack, suddenly wheeled his army to the west. He had almost reached Philadelphia before the British were aware of his real aim. By then it was too late. Washington's armies lay across all avenues of escape by land, and the French fleet, which had helped Washington in his battles, blocked escape by sea. It was then that General Charles Cornwallis surrendered the British armies, conceding to America the victory.

EX-SEATTLEITE QUITS CHICAGO FOR NEW POST

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 20 — Corky Kawasaki, former Seattle businessman, has resigned as director of the Chicago Resettlers Committee to assume a new post in Japan for the Licensed Agencies for the Relief of Asia (LARA).

Jack Yasutake, a Stanford University graduate and formerly with the Seattle Immigration Office, was appointed as director to replace Kawasaki. Yasutake has been acting director since Kawasaki joined LARA last May.

Presbyterians Set Hallowe'en Affair

A "get-acquainted" Hallowe'en party will start at 8 p.m. next Saturday, Oct. 30, in the gymnasium of the Japanese Presbyterian church.

Bob Handa, social chairman, has announced that the program will include an evening of fellowship with singing, games, entertainment and refreshments.

All members and church-goers are cordially invited to attend.

The Community Chest campaign for 1949 is the first to receive the approval of the Public Appeals Board.

Scientific Film Slated Saturday

"The Voice of the Deep", the latest scientific, technicolor movie directed and produced under the leadership of Dr. Moon of the Moody Bible Institute, will be presented by the Japanese Presbyterian church at 7:30 p.m. this Saturday, Oct. 23, in its hall.

The film, which is the third of nature pictures made by Moody will bring for the first time the hitherto unheard and unknown sounds from the depths of the seas, and scenes of the remarkable organic life hitherto unseen, according to the Presbyterian officials.

A free-will offering will be taken to cover the expenses for this showing.

'LIFE OF ZOLA' NOW SHOWN IN JAPAN

TOKYO, Oct. 20—An American motion picture, "The Life of Emile Zola," starring Paul Muni, which was banned before the war by Japanese militarists, is drawing great crowds in Tokyo.

The picture was never shown in Japanese theaters. Zola's accusation of corruption in the French army general staff in connection with the Dreyfuss case was too much for the Japanese militarists.

With despair on her bruised face, this Japanese mother sits with her sleeping child in their make-shift home after the earthquake which ravaged Japanese sea towns this summer.

Fifty of CARE's special Japanese food packages were distributed to earthquake sufferers in Fukui, but many more are needed.

CRACKER DERBY

Hope you've noticed the colorful posters advertising the big NVC Cracker Derby, to be held next Sunday, October 24. In case you haven't heard, the big list of prizes is headed by a five-horsepower Johnson outboard motor, a worthy reward for the fisherman who proves to be the most skillful (and lucky) at landing salmon that particular day.

Besides the outboard motor, however, there'll be at least 25 other prizes to be handed out. The derby, open to the public, has as its sole qualification requirement, the payment of an entry fee of one dollar. Needless to say, a goodly crowd of anglers is expected to participate in this piscatorial tournament.

HOME COMING

This is the annual "Homecoming" weekend for the alumni of the University of Washington, and the Nisei element will celebrate the occasion with a dinner-dance at Sand Point Golf & Country Club on Friday evening.

On Saturday afternoon, of course, all the alumni fortunate enough to possess tickets, will hie themselves out to the stadium for the annual game with the California Bears. After what happened last Saturday at Pullman, not even the most rabid hometown w o u l d have nerve enough to predict a Husky victory, even though all the elements of a big upset are present. This year's Bear edition, reminiscent of the 1937 Cal powerhouse which won the Coast title and went to the Rose Bowl, has caliber and class. After their lopsidedly convincing victories

Nursing Course Begins Nov. 1

The November series of the free, streamlined, twelve-hour Red Cross nursing courses offered each month as a public service by the Seattle-King County Red Cross chapter will be devoted entirely to instruction in mother and baby care, and will start Monday, Nov. 1, according to Mrs. S. H. Tashia, volunteer home nursing chairman for the local Red Cross chapter.

Taught by graduate nurses and with class hours and days staggered for the convenience of prospective registrants, practical, basic instruction will be given in the care of the expectant mother and the care and feeding of the new baby from birth through infancy. Classes will be limited in size so that each registrant will have an opportunity to practice the skills and techniques taught during the course.

Classes starting Nov. 1 will meet Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays for two weeks from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, 1 to 3 p.m. and 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Meeting at the same hours will be the Tuesday-Thursday classes, starting Tuesday, Nov. 2. In response to continued demands, all evening classes will again be open to both men and women.

Registration is now being taken in Red Cross headquarters, 905 Second Avenue Building, where the courses will be given, and additional information or registration may be obtained by calling EL. 2800.

Health Meetings Planned in YW

Health Education dinner meetings have been scheduled again in the Central YWCA.

The first of the series will be held Wednesday, Oct. 27, in the YWCA with Barbara Kahn of the city health department speaking on the topic, "Why X-ray?" The dinner will start at 6 p.m. in Room 13.

Similar meetings will be held every fourth Wednesday of the month.

Reservations for the first dinner may be made through Oct. 25 by calling ELliot 4800, Extension 6.

The program begins at 7 p.m. Shizue Muramoto of 1820 Jackson St. is one of the members of the YWCA Health Education council which is sponsoring the series of meetings. Other council members are Pat Holland, Mrs. R. W. Fliske, Vera Craft, Lois Capps and Helen Ann Snyder.

Replies on Evacuation Claims Bill

(Editor's note: This is the third of a series of questions and answers on the evacuation claims law prepared by Edward J. Ennis, JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee special counsel, and released by the Washington Office of the JACL ADC as a public service.)

Any reader who has general questions relating to the law itself or to procedural matters is invited to address a letter with a stamped, self-addressed return envelope to the Washington Office, JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee, Evacuation Claims Section, 300 Fifth Street Northwest, Washington 2, D. C.

(No questions involving the legality or value of specific claims can be answered.)

1. Question: If a claimant was, or is, a member of a partnership, how should his claim be filed?

Answer: The claimant should file his own claim, stating the name and address of the partnership which owns or owned the lost or damaged property, the claimant's per cent of ownership in the partnership, the names and present addresses of all other partners (if he knows them) and whether they are persons of Japanese ancestry, and the amount of the losses suffered by the partnership as well as by the claimant himself. If possible, for the convenience of the Department of Justice, all partners should file their claims together or at the same time, noting in their respective claims that they are so doing.

2. Q. May a corporation file a claim?

A. The law states that claims may be filed only by persons of Japanese ancestry. No decision has yet been made as to whether a corporation in which all or part of the stockholders are persons of Japanese ancestry may file in the name of the corporation. At the present time, the better course seems to be for the stockholder of Japanese ancestry to file a claim stating the name and address of the corporation which owns or owned the property, the claimant's interest in the corporation (how many shares of stock, the kind of stock, etc.), the names and addresses of the other stockholders to the extent the claimant knows them, and the amount of the loss to the corporation and to the stockholder-claimant. If possible, for the convenience of the Department of Justice, the claims of the other stockholders of Japanese ancestry should be filed at the same time.

Chick Expert Off On World Tour

S. John Nitta, president of the American Chick Sexing Association in Lansdale, Pa., is presently on the last lap of a "once-in-a-lifetime" journey—a trip by air around the world.

On his business jaunt, Nitta, who is now in Japan, made his first stop at Copenhagen, Denmark, which was the scene of the eighth World's Poultry Congress. While in Europe, Nitta further expanded his association's field of operations. To date, sexors wearing the familiar white smock of American Chick have been serving hatcheries in Belgium and the Benelux region.

During his month's stay in Japan, Nitta plans to further his study on the techniques and methods in chick sexing advanced during the last few years. His itinerary includes a visit to Nagoya where the art of determining the sex of chicks based upon scientific research had its beginning.

COSMOPOLITAN TO MARK U. N. WEEK AT BANQUET

Professor Frank Williston of the University of Washington will be guest speaker when the Cosmopolitan club gives a banquet in observance of United Nations week this Saturday, Oct. 23 in the Central YWCA. The banquet will be at 6 p.m., and the dance, open to the public, will be at 8:30 p.m.
