Naturalization Rights for Parents Of All War Vets Urged by Legion

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 30—The American Legion reached a "historic decision" when the national convention urged naturalization privileges be granted all parents, regardless of race, of veterans killed in combat or honorably discharged.

This was the observation of Mike M. Masaoka, national legislative director of the Japanese American Citizens League Anti-Discrimination committee, following his return this week from the convention at Miami, Fla.

The resolution urging naturalization privileges for "these parents marks the first time in its history that the Legion has approved naturalization of Orientals other than veterans," Masaoka said.

The resolution was adopted unanimously. It was introduced by the Americanization committee of the Colorado department of the legion.

In adopting the Colorado resolution, however, the American Legion rejected resolutions offered by California, Hawaii and New Mexico departments which urged that naturalization be extended to all aliens legally entitled to residence in the United States. Legion officials said they could not act upon this resolution "because it affects more than just veterans and we must restrict ourselves to policies affecting veterans and their families."

The resolution adopted by the American Legion, however, marks a sharp change from its official policy of even last year when it opposed the Judd bill at congressional hearings.

A committee fight to achieve some expression on naturalization was led largely by Harry Yanaga of Las Cruces, N. M., an official delegate from New Mexico, and Masaoka, who attended as a Legionnaire from the John A. Stoker post, No. 775, Loomis, Calif.

As finally achieved, the legion resolution went much further than

HR. 3555, the basis of the original Colorado resolution, which passed the house unanimously in 1947, but failed in the Senate. This bill would have restricted naturalization privileges to parents of Purple Heart holders or men who died while in service.

ADC Asks Data On Work Bias

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 30—The Washington office of the Japanese American Citizens League Anti-Discrimination Committee is seeking information from Nisei government employees, who may have been denied credit for pre- evacuation federal service.

One case, applying to a Japanese American postal employee, has come to the attention of the national office. The worker, fired during the evacuation, has been reemployed by the post office but has not received credit for pre- evacuation work.

All such cases of discrimination should be reported to the Washington office, and an effort will be made by the JACL-ADC to obtain a ruling on this action from the Civil Service Commission.

Basketball Tilts Set for Sunday

Cathay Post 186 will face a Portland all-star team, consisting of Chinese and Japanese Americans, in an exhibition basketball game this Sunday, Oct. 31, in the Seattle Buddhist auditorium.

The opener will find Tokuda Drug, Northwest Nisei championship outfit, playing against an opponent yet to be chosen.

The first game will start at 1 p.m.

ADC APPOINTS GORDON TO BE P. R. DIRECTOR

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 30—Appointment of Herb Gordon as public relations director of the Japanese American Citizens League Anti-Discrimination Committee in Washington, was announced today by Mike M. Masaoka, national legislative director.

Gordon succeeds Tosuke Yamasaki, who left recently to accept a civilian position with the Army of Occupation in Japan.

A former newspaper and radio man, Gordon spent a year in Tokyo as a public relations officer on Gen. MacArthur's staff. Prior to three years in the armed forces, he was news editor of Inter-Mountain Network, and was sponsored as a news commentator.

He also worked as a rewrite man and assistant night city editor on The Salt Lake Tribune for four years. He began his newspaper career as sports editor on the Idaho Falls Post-Register.

A free-lance writer, Gordon has written for such publications as The New York Times magazine section, Newsweek, and other newspapers and magazines.

After separation from the Army late in 1947, Gordon worked as a free-lance writer in Salt Lake City until joining the staff of the JACL-ADC.

He is a member of the Salt Lake chapter of the JACL.

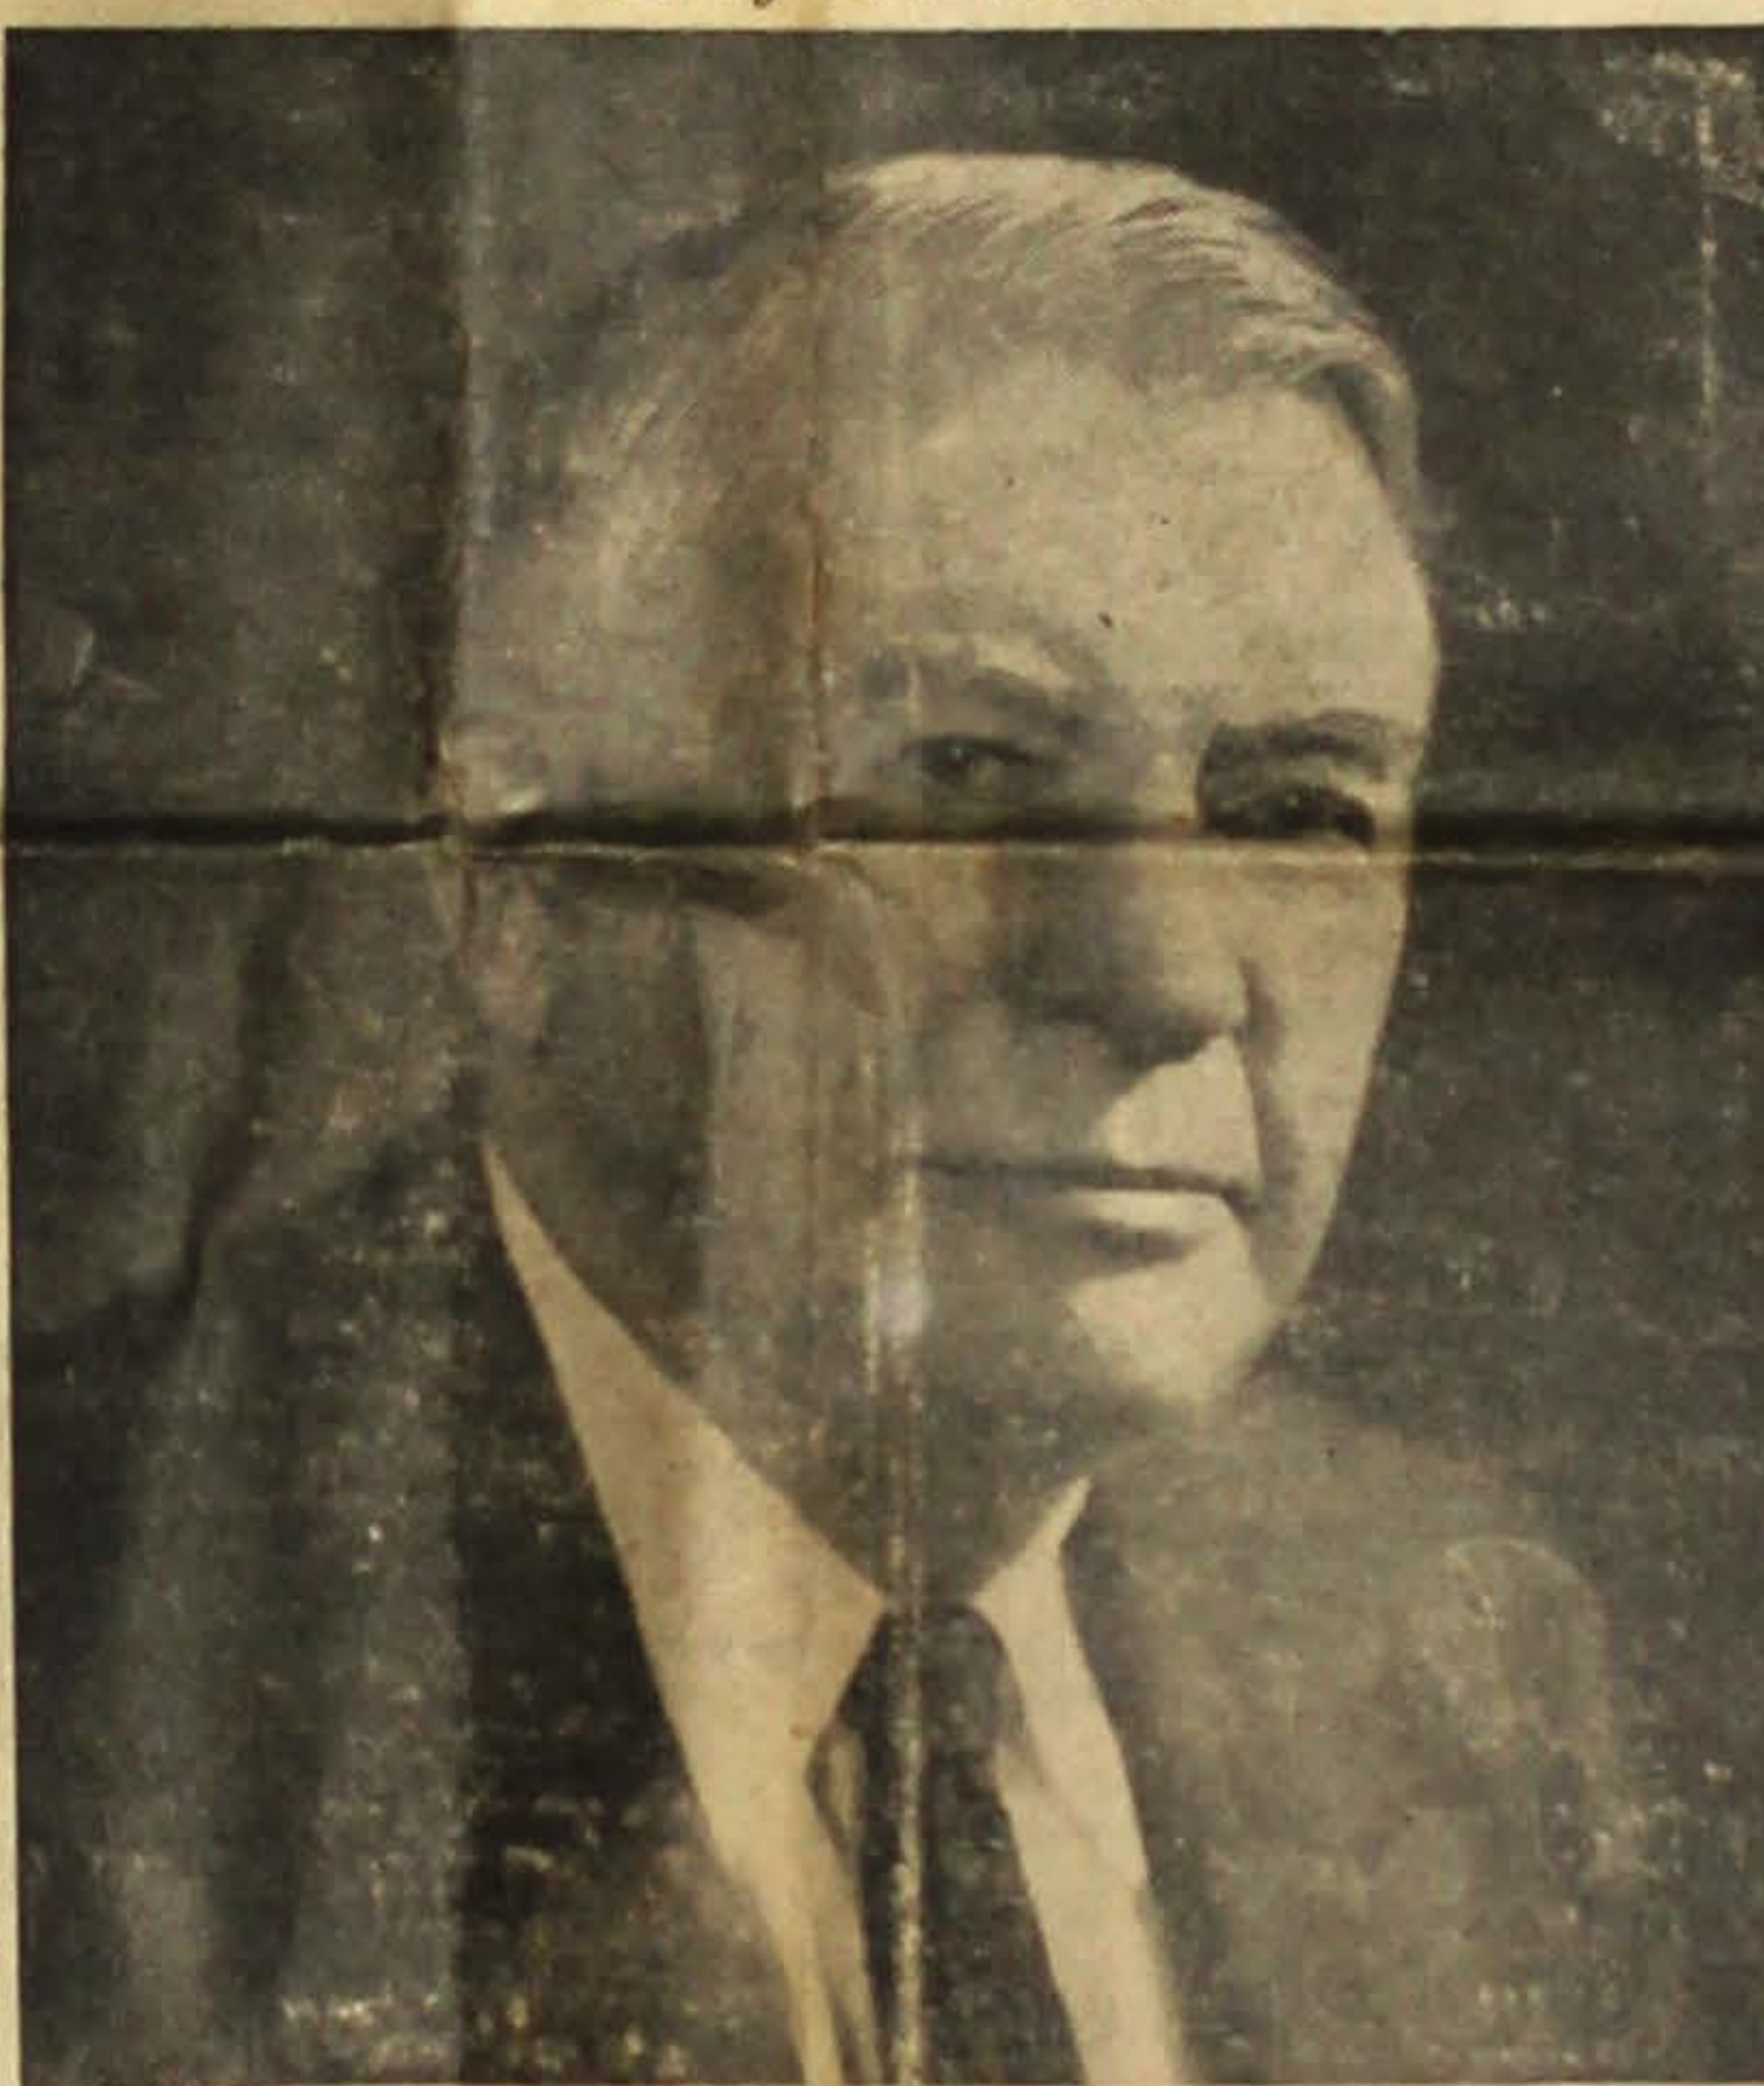

Masaoka said Gordon's duties will include keeping the Japanese American press informed of all activities of the JACL-ADC and, in addition, working closer with national press services than has been done in the past.

He also will be charged with encouraging an increasingly active public relations program on the chapter and regional levels in the JACL, Masaoka added.

Here Are Our Election Candidates

Harry S. Truman

Alben W. Barkley

Today's Editorial:

We'll String along with Mr. Truman

Everybody says Thomas E. Dewey is "in" as the next president of the United States. In fact, he is already making home in the White House.

The newspapers say so; the columnists say so; the polls say so; and the gamblers say so.

Our coming out for Mr. Dewey would be the best bet of the year. For on the strength of these people's say-so, how could Mr. Dewey lose?

THE NORTHWEST TIMES, however, takes the long-shot candidate—Mr. Harry S. Truman—for reelection with Senator Alben W. Barkley as his running mate on the Democratic ticket.

Yes, as the Republicans gleefully point their accusing finger, Mr. Truman has made some errors. But what about the Republican-controlled 80th Congress?

Mr. Truman, who filled the post vacated by the death of the great Franklin D. Roosevelt, has performed his duties quite well, considering the fact that the American people were prone to compare him with Roosevelt who also erred in judgment several times during his long, colorful career.

Americans of Japanese ancestry surely cannot ignore Mr. Truman's fearless, sincere stand for the minority groups when they go to the polls next Tuesday, Nov. 2.

Mr. Truman announced, as early as February of this year, his intention to carry out a nationwide civil rights program—and this at the risk of losing this coming election as the Southern bolt showed. He also pushed for a speedy settlement of the unfinished business of evacuation, and he has also advocated enactment of laws permitting Japanese or other ineligible "alien" residents of this country to become U.S. citizens.

The moves for a civil rights program, an evacuation claims settlement, and elimination of discrimination in our naturalization laws, are sufficient reasons to warrant our approval of Mr. Truman for reelection to the nation's highest office.

Our Dewey-Warren supporters declare that it is better to climb aboard a sure-fire bandwagon to gain our civil rights, evacuation and naturalization causes. But, brothers and sisters, neither Mr. Dewey nor Mr. Warren has publicly disclosed any sincere effort toward these matters.

Mr. Dewey's record shows that his New York state was one of the first to come out with Fair Employment Practice Committee law, but Mr. Warren's record, if we may put it in our rough manner, is not so hot.

Mr. Warren, if you will recall the days of the historic evacuation, was all for deporting the Japanese, citizens and aliens alike, from our country. (Continued on Page 4) visit Japan for exceptional family reasons. Masaoka said that SCAP has not relaxed its stand with respect to such cases and it still is almost impossible to obtain permission to visit Japan except under the most extraordinary conditions. Exceedingly few such permits have been granted. Aliens who wish to visit Japan, other than repatriates and those going for business reasons, should first make application to: Military Permit Office, Civil Affairs Division, Department of Army, Washington 25, D. C.

War-time 'Exit Permit' Ruling Against Japanese Aliens Waived

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 30—The State Department has announced waiver of war-time "exit permit" regulations.

The action is effective now. The Japanese American Citizens League Anti-Discrimination Committee has been actively seeking revocation of exit permit regulations for more than a year.

As applying to Japanese aliens in the United States, the State Department action will have its greatest effect on traders, repatriates and commercial fishermen.

In the case of traders, such persons still must obtain both military clearance and reentry permits before visiting Japan for business reasons. Applications for military permits should be initiated with the Department of Commerce.

Repatriates henceforth will not be required to obtain any special papers before returning to Japan. Repatriates were advised by Mike M. Masaoka, national legislative director, however, it is advisable to contact their nearest immigration offices for other rulings which affect their departure, such as immunizations required and limits on money and personal belongings which may be taken.

Commercial fishermen, of course, simply are not required to obtain exit permits.

A few other persons also will be affected, the so-called "compassionate cases" in which aliens may

Go to the Polls on Tuesday

Next Tuesday, Nov. 2, is general election day in these United States. Once again our citizens will go to the polls throughout the nation to exercise their precious freedom—the right to vote according to their own convictions. This is the American Way, the Democracy that we speak of.

Seattle voters will have, in addition to the presidential choice, many important state initiatives, state constitutional amendments and local bond issues to decide, as well as making a wise choice of officials for the various county and state positions. The Municipal League has warned that this is the toughest election in years which offers a stiff challenge to the intelligence and judgment of Seattle and King County Voters.

The Northwest Times urges all its readers to study carefully the various local and state measures and candidates before going to the polls.

The final decision is up to you as voters. No matter how you vote, exercise your right to vote on Tuesday.

An American Dictatorship
By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Secaucy, Arkansas
Looking Ahead

JUST THE idea of dictatorship in America shocks us. Yet a learned European professor from the University of Zurich, Dr. Emil Brunner, told a group of scholars in Amsterdam that "all the Western nations" are headed directly toward totalitarianism. This may have come as a surprise to American citizens, who are part of this great Republic and cherish its democratic institutions.

That was what the professor said. He was thinking of our democratic ways, yet that is what he said. The professor knows that Western nations have their legal constitutions. He knows of their long standing convictions about freedoms. Nevertheless, he said these countries "are on the way toward totalitarianism, not because they like dictatorship, but because wherever a social evil is to be cured they appeal to the state for help." If the people keep calling on the state for help, the interference of government in the daily lives of people will certainly increase. This way of solving problems through the state is dangerous, as Dr. Brunner warned.

Power Over the People

THINKING perhaps of the dangers today confronting Great Britain, he spoke out: "Once the economy is nationalized, a totalitarian state is there whether one wants it or not." Our British friends may not be able to admit that their nation has gone totalitarian, but many earmarks of the dictator state are there. The government holds power over the people that cruel kings strove for and could not gain. Yet these powers were handed over to the government in legal parliamentary fashion. The government can tell individuals in England where they must work and what they may do for a living. Despots of the Dark Ages held powers no more despotic.

The Congressman for our district, Representative Mills, came home recently. Not up for election this year, our Congressman did not have to buckle down to a barrage of questions and give political answers. Instead of promises he gave our people some straight-in-the-face, factual talks.

To Save Ourselves

HE TOLD US that if we want lower taxes, we'll just have to stop asking for more and more government. You must keep on begging the government for this and that.

LET'S TALK BASKETBALL

Although it's still football season, it won't hurt to look ahead and talk a little basketball for a change. In this neck of the woods, the biggest sports event of the season is a basketball affair—the National All-Oriental Tournament, to be held in Seattle during the Christmas holidays. This tournament, which last year in its initial debut surprised even its sponsor—the NVC and the Cathay Post—with the way it "caught on" with the public, is even now in the planning stage for the second annual revival. As everyone should know by this time, a big sports event of this type doesn't "just happen"—somebody has to put a lot of planning and promotion into making the affair a success.

The 1948 All-Oriental Tournament will again find eight teams fighting it out for the coveted cup signifying first place in the tourney, which last year was won by the fast and smooth St. Mary's Saints of San Francisco. In contrast to last year, however, it is planned to have the field equally divided between Chinese and Nisei teams, instead of having three Chinese and five Nisei outfits as in 1947, a division which was made only because of circumstances which found the Chinese unable to field four teams.

The St. Mary's Saints will, of course, be back to defend their championship laurels, but leaving the Chinese entries out of the discussion for the time being, let's see how the Nisei half of the field stacks up. First and foremost will be the Hawaii All-Stars, who were good enough last year to reach the championship round and give the Saints a terrific rattle before succumbing. George Ishihara, manager of the Hawaiians, has already signified that his boys will be back, stronger even than last year's team and ready to include a large part of the States in a barnstorming tour which will cover several weeks. The Chicago Huskies, consolation winners last year, are not, at this writing absolutely certain of being able to return, but are fairly sure of being able to do so if all goes well. Their main trouble seems to arise from the fact that most of their key players are going to different schools, and find it difficult to get together. By the time basketball season arrives, however, the word is that they should be able to round up a team built around last year's squad as a nucleus, with several new players added to give additional punch to their already potent offense.

The third Nisei entry will hail from California and will be the winner of the Drake Tournament, which will be held in San Francisco during late November. The Drake tourney, a highly representative affair, will have the top California teams as participants, angling all for a bid to Seattle, and the tournament champion will undoubtedly be a worthy contender in the All-Oriental meet, California basketball being of high caliber as Northwest teams will testify. Incidentally, last year's California representative was the Berkeley Niseis.

The fourth and remaining Nisei team will be a team of Seattle All-Stars, to be entered under the banner of the NVC. Last year's group of locals surprised everybody by taking fourth place in the tournament. That's not likely to happen again this year, as the other Nisei teams and at least two Chinese teams look to have a clear edge in the pre-tournament ratings. As we see it, the Hawaii All-Stars team on their record during and after last year's tournament, with the Cali-ornia entry and the Chicago Huskies rating about equal, assuming that the latter team is able to add extra strength to its roster. If not, our nod goes to the Cal team, sight unseen, on the theory that the winner of the Drake Tournament will be a top-notch team, out to vindicate the quality of California basketball against national competition.

Of course, our ratings leave the NVC All-Stars in the position of, shall we say, "decided underdogs", but perhaps that's all for the best. With the luck of the draw and few baskets at the right time, the local prizes might again surprise and finish in the first division—a circumstance which would not, of course, sadden the countenance of this correspondent at all. In the words of Shakespeare, "tis a consummation devoutly to be wished!"

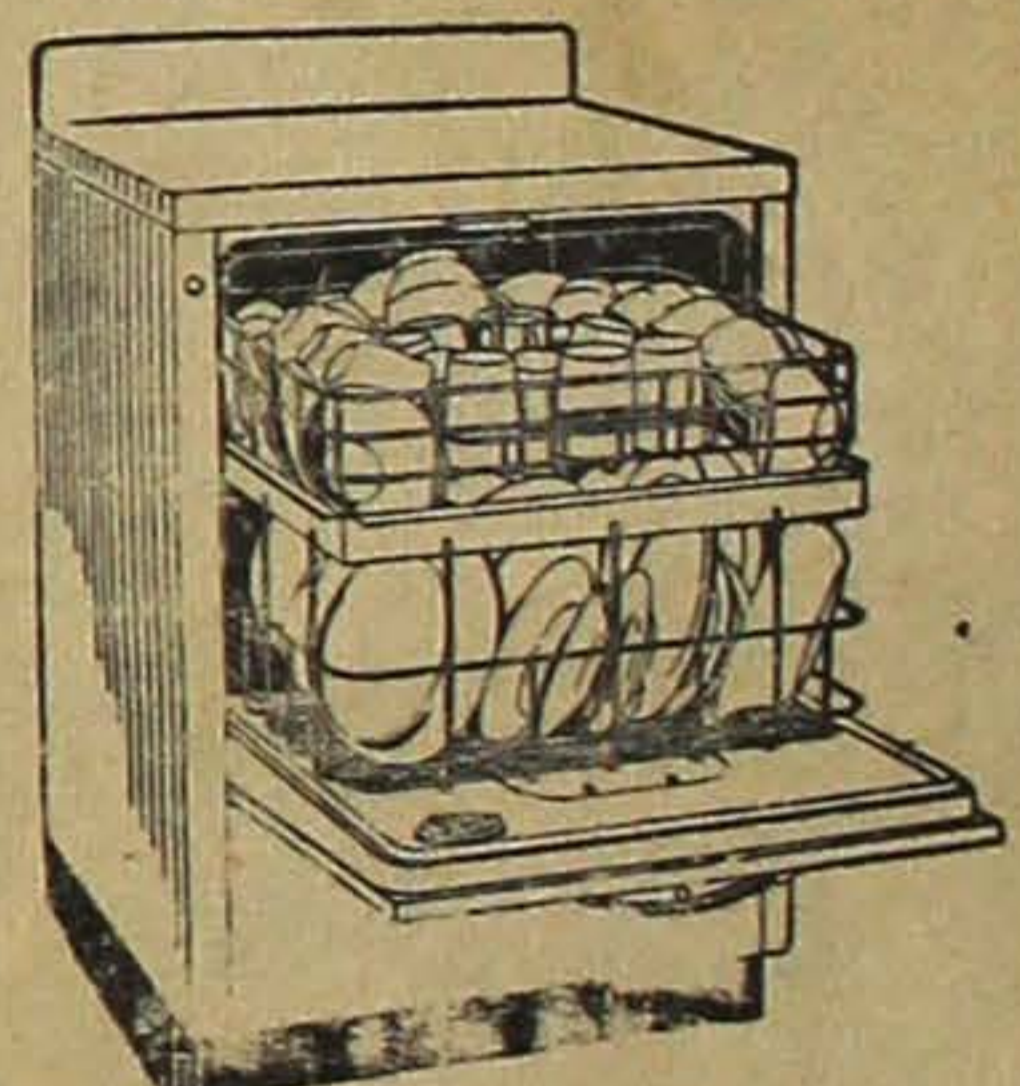

Keep America strong...enlist today in the United States Army.

C.I.E. SPANKS ALE SQUAD, 3-1; NUMOTO STARS

China Import & Export is making a sparkling effort to reach the top rung of the SNGBO (Seattle Nisei Girls' Bowling Organization) ladder.

The C.I.E. girls last Thursday night triumphed over the Top Beverage, 3-1, to move to three games of a first-place tie with Martha's Beauty Shop. Jean Numoto, the flashy "Big Ten" leader and C.I.E.'s best bet for an all-star position, sent the pins sprawling into the pinboy's pit for a rugged 534 series. Her second game was a 209. Rosemary Beppu, Miss Numoto's teammate, presented a high 228 game in the third for a 501.

Gyokko Ken held Martha's to a 2-2 tie in a slow-moving battle. In other contests, Tokuda Drug and Takano Studio struggled to a 2-2 draw and Stop 'n Shop defeated New Chinatown Cafe, 3-1.

NIGHT'S STARS
Singles—Bill Tanaka, Over the Top Beverage, 233.
Series—Pruney Tsuji, Shanty Inn, 637.

It was Puget Sound Vegetable Growers' Association's turn to assume leadership in the Nisei Commercial league Tuesday night in Main Bowl. PSVGA reached first on a 2-1 triumph over Cathay Post 186 while Tacoma's Puget Sound Laundry finished its series against International Realty, two games behind with the third contest a questionable outcome.

Two old-time kegling artists, Morrie Yamaguchi (544) and Willie Maebori (541), pulled PSVGA to victory. Wally Poy of Cathay was high for his squad with a 543 series.

International Realty reeled off two 900-plus games to knock over Puget Sound Laundry. The disputed third match, according to league secretary Bill Inashi, will be hashed out at a meeting shortly. "Browlie" Nomura of International missed a 600 series by seven pins. The bell ringing when his foot had not crossed the foul line, cost him the chance of gaining entrance into the charmed "600" circle and left the third game hanging in midair as "no decision".

Fred Takagi, also of Realty, registered 559 on his score card. Herb Furuta and George Kimura, number four and five respectively were the booming pin-smashers for Main Drug, which toppled Over the Top Beverage, 2-1. Furuta came up with 562 and Kimura, 558. Kimura lashed out with a 200 and a 225 in his series. For Over the Top, Bill Tanaka swept the woods for a 601 and Tommy Namba checked in with 562.

Nobi Takahashi of the druggists had the most unusual series, three consecutive 172 games for 516.
Lucky Northwest Times' luck changed, and its men dropped a 2-1 decision to Sakahara Insurance. Kaz Yamasaki (547) of the Times performed well but Sakahara's Shioichi Suyama (587), Rick Tanagi (532) and Roy Fujiwara (509) were too much for the newcomers to match.

The night's high series was pounded out by Pruney Tsuji of Shanty Inn which shut out City Produce, 3-0. Tsuji, in maintaining a tremendous 195 average, had games of 211, 198 and 228. Teammates Kenny Arita (572) and Jim Kuranishi (554) were okay, too.
Higashi's Mobile Service was led by Ted Higashi, the sponsor, who hit 518 to give his outfit a 2-1 margin over 12th Ave. Service. Higashi's leadoff man, Tomio Hamasaki, did his share with a 506. Tak Nagasawa (514) and Taiji Takayoshi (508) were 12th Ave. Service's best.

Reports coming in from the various teams entered in the Nisei Veterans Committee-sponsored basketball leagues, indicate that Seattle basketball fans may expect a great season which is tentatively slated to open Friday, Dec. 3.

In the Class AA circuit, Tokuda Drug, is favored to win the title. Wah Mee, a Chinese American squad, is expected to give Tokuda's the hardest fight for the championship in the '48-'49 campaign.

Cathay Post 186, another Chinese American team, looms as a Class A pennant winner although the Baptist Comets and the Natco Mercury are considered by many to be the "teams to beat" in this circuit. No outstanding team appears in the Class B loop as yet.

The girls' league finds the WWG's Anna Kay's and the U. W. Coeds as the standout sextets. The WWG's, last season's runner-up, should finish on top without too much trouble.

Meeting dates for representatives of teams entered in the Nisei Veterans Committee-sponsored basketball leagues in Seattle, once again were announced by director Henry Yorozu today:

CLASS B AND GIRLS — 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 3, in Seattle Buddhist temple.

CLASS A—7:30 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 10, in Seattle Buddhist temple.

CLASS AA—7:30 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 17, in Seattle Buddhist temple.

The final player list must be turned in at these gatherings, Yorozu warned. The by-laws and the schedule are other matters which will be released to the representatives.

Editorial

At that time an attorney general, he, the Dewey-Warren button wearers meekly claim, was only playing politics. Only playing politics? Nay, we should like to remind our readers that he also was ONLY playing with the lives of thousands of Americans with Japanese faces and their parents who had no part whatsoever with the infamous Pearl Harbor attack. Mr. Warren, to refresh our memory, wanted all the Japanese "kept behind barbed wires".

But even with the slim hope that Mr. Warren has a sudden change of heart—and we hope he was changed—we cannot support him who, as vice president to Mr. Dewey, the possible president, might once again play politics and play with another group of Americans in time of crisis to win his personal objectives.

No, we'll string along with Mr. Truman and Mr. Barkley.

OREGON GROUP NAMES DAIRY GOAT 'ROSE'

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 30—"Portland Rose" will mean a dairy goat to the boys and girls in an orphanage at Yoril, Japan, since one of the three goats allotted to that institution from a shipment of 191 sent to Japan by the Oregon Helpers for Relief will bear that moniker.

Mrs. Amedee M. Smith, Portland YWCA president, is a vice chairman of the executive committee of Helpers for Relief for the state of Oregon, which has added the "goat branch" to its activities. Oregon is among 42 states sending 2,000 dairy goats abroad this year chiefly to Japan.

"There is no doubt in my mind," Mrs. Smith says, "as to the appreciation felt by those who receive these goats from the United States. Thousands upon thousands are needed desperately in Japan, for milk is scarcely known by children there. The 2,000 goats being sent in 1948 are a grand beginning—but only a beginning, if we realize the worth of this project."

Fifteen hundred of the 2,000 have been sent to date, explains J. J. Handsaker, executive secretary for Oregon office of Helpers for Relief.

What happened for Aiko at the Yoril orphanage 30 miles from Tokyo has been repeated more than once, it is reported. Famished and without any milk whatever, Aiko was not expected to live when taken to the orphanage. Aiko became a healthy baby surprisingly soon when goat milk became her main diet.

Approximately 150 goats have been purchased by Oregon contributors. The idea, started by the Church of the Brethren in Maryland, has spread to 42 states. The Rev. Kenneth Hendricks, working at the orphanage at Yoril is supported by Mallory Avenue Christian church in Portland. Many church groups and several individuals have become actively interested in the goats for Japan project.

Fifty dollars buys a goat, plus its feed on shipboard and feed for six weeks after it reaches its destination. The animals are delivered to San Francisco for transportation, which is handled by the U. S. army.
