DEFEAT BERKELEY NISSES, 49-45, IN FINALS OF ALL-ORIENTAL AMERICAN CAGE TOURNAMENT; NISEI VETS DROP CATHAY POST IN CONSOLATION

By J. U. Special Writer

Well, the second annual Oriental American Basketball Tournament became history Monday. In the first game played on San Francisco Chinese district covering the second straight time. The defensive efforts by the Chinese defeated the Portland Nisei All-Stars, 19-14, in the final game of the four-game series to take the championship from the Portland Nisei All-Stars, 19-14.

Adding the-plugin (Note: This was the second game played against the Portland All-Stars at the University of Washington). The game was essentially over at the end of the first half.

Official timekeepers for the game were George P. M. Chen and Charles I. Chen. The loss ended the season for Wong, who sat out the game on the sidelines.

E. K. N. PUTS ON TYPEWRITER WITH A SHARP WRITING STROKE TO BANG OUT LOCAL GOLF DATA

By E. K. N.

About three times a year, a special member of the golfing world marks the score of nine holes with steady rhythm of the typewriter and with precise records of the golf score. This is a busy time for the local golfers, as the season opens. The work of the E. K. N. is of special importance to the golfers, as the organization keeps records of the scores of all the players in the respective flights.

BEAUTY OF YAKIMA VALLEY CHAMRS WAPATO RETURNS

By KARE KONDO

It was a Sunday day in September when we came home to visit. The weather was dry, and the light, and the air was fresh and clean. We drove through the valley, past the farms and orchards, and up into the mountains. The beauty of the landscape was breathtaking. The trees were in full color, and the mountains were covered with snow. It was a perfect day for a picnic. We stopped at the Wapato Resort, where we had a delicious lunch. The views from the mountain top were amazing. It was a perfect day to spend with family and friends. (Continued on Page 4)

WRITER RECORDS BACKGROUND OF TACOMA JAPANESE PEOPLE

So Kuni Fujimoto

Takoto, a suburb of Tokyo, Japan, is a city of great importance. It is the capital of the prefecture of Kanagawa, and is situated on the coast of the Seto Inland Sea. The city is divided into several districts, each with its own unique character. The district of Takato is particularly noted for its beautiful scenery, and is a popular tourist destination. The city is home to a large Japanese community, and has a rich history. (Continued on Page 6)

Evacuees Like Three Key Cities of Northwest

The Northwest has seen an increase in the number of evacuees from the West Coast. The three key cities that have seen the most evacuees are Seattle, Portland, and Tacoma. These cities have been welcoming the evacuees with open arms, providing them with resources and support. The evacuees are grateful for the support they have received, and are eager to contribute to the community. (Continued on Page 4)
