

House Passes Judd's ENI Measure

The local chapter of the Japanese American Citizens' league last night (Tuesday) received a wire from Seattle Congressman Hugh B. Mitchell in Washington, D. C., that H. R. 199, Rep. Walter Judd's legislation for equality in naturalization and immigration, was passed by the House of Representatives yesterday (Tuesday).

H. R. 199 now goes to the Senate for approval.

Today's Editorial

Yes, spring is here, and springtime is Red Cross time.

Wherever you are, your Red Cross stands ready to render service in time of trouble. During emergencies caused by disaster — floods, explosions, hurricanes — the Red Cross is always on hand, ready to offer relief and assistance to the unfortunate victims.

Every day you read in your newspaper of some new catastrophe which calls for your sympathy and assistance. Your money contribution helps — yes — but of immeasurable value is your contribution of time as well. Give new life and new hope to those in need — as a Gray Lady, as a blood donor, as a Red Cross motor service driver, as a financial contributor.

Give now — give generously.

Give through your Red Cross — where you work, or through the representative in your community who will call upon you.

Help swell the 1949 Red Cross fund.

A Few More Queries, Replies on Evacuation Claims Law

(Ed. note: This is the nineteenth of a series of questions and answers on the evacuation claims law prepared by Edward J. Ennis, JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee special counsel, and filed by the Washington Office of the JACL ADC as a public service. This series is based on actual questions asked of this office.)

Any reader who has general questions relating to the law itself or to procedural matters is invited to address a letter with a stamped, self-addressed return envelope to the Washington Office, JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee, Evacuation Claims Section, 300 Fifth Street Northwest, Washington 2, D. C. Questions of general interest may be produced in this series without personal identification.

(No questions involving the legality or value of specific claims can be answered.)

1. Q. Several articles have appeared in various newspapers reporting that the Department of Justice has no appropriations with which to process evacuation claims and does not intend to ask for such appropriations this year. Is this correct? If it is true, what has been happening to the claims already filed? If no appropriation is to be requested, why should we file claims at all? Why not just pass off the evacuation claims law as a goodwill gesture on the part of the Government that will not pay off in actual dollars and cents?

A. While it is true that Congress did not make a specific appropriation when it passed the Evacuation Claims Law last year, the Department of Justice has assigned some of its personnel to handle these claims. In fact, all claims filed thus far are being studied in order to determine the type and amount of claims that the evacuees have. Moreover, we are confident that the Department of Justice will seek appropriations from this session of Congress in order to more expeditiously and efficiently process all claims and to pay those under $2500. The procedure being followed is the usual one when Congress authorizes the payment of general claims against the Government. The law is first passed which includes an authorization for the necessary appropriations. Usually, a subsequent session appropriates the funds with which to process and pay claims. We believe that both Congress and the Department of Justice sincerely desire to implement the Evacuation Claims Law as a measure of justice and good conscience to the evacuees.

2. Q. Before the war, I had a savings account in the Yokohama Specie Bank and another in the Sumitomo Bank. One was a dollar account and the other was in yen. Can I claim for the amount of these deposits?

A. No. The law specifically restricts claims to those which are not the direct and reasonable consequence of the evacuation. Moreover, losses suffered as a result of the action of the Office of Alien Property are also specifically barred under the Evacuation Claims Law. The Office of Alien Property received claims for the recovery of such deposits up until August 8, 1948. At the present time, the JACL

ADC is seeking legislation to extend this deadline for another two years. If the JACL ADC is not successful with this legislation, those who did not file their claims before the August 8, 1948 deadline will have no recourse to the Government for their deposits. Certainly, they cannot be claimed under the Evacuation Claims Law.

3. Q. When the contraband articles regulations were made public, instead of turning my radio and cameras to the police, I left them with a friend. At the time of evacuation, I gave them away, because I could not take them with me. Can I claim the loss under the Evacuation Claims Law?

A. Probably not. The passage of S. 29 should take care of this situation too, although it might be argued that the loss occurred as a result of evacuation and not of the Attorney General's regulations.

4. Q. Immediately after the outbreak of the war, I turned in my shortwave radio, camera, and hunting rifle to the local sheriff. After evacuation I returned to my old home and I found that the old sheriff had been replaced and that there were no records of my things. Can I claim for them?

A. No. The contraband articles regulations were issued by the Attorney General several months before the evacuation orders were issued. Thus, loss of such goods cannot be said to be a reasonable and natural consequence of evacuation. The JACL ADC is seeking special legislation to authorize payment for such losses. It is bill S. 29, and has already passed the Senate and is now before the House Judiciary Committee. Favorable action is anticipated soon.

Renton High Nisei Named to Naval Academy in Annapolis

Takeshi Yoshihara, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Buichi Yoshihara of Renton, has been appointed to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, it was reported yesterday (Tuesday) by the Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

The appointment, the report added, was made by Rep. Thor C. Tolpeltson as the result of civil service competitive examinations conducted in Renton last October.

Last fall, the Nisei earned a $25 U. S. Savings Bond by placing eighth in the American History Awards Contest, sponsored by the Post-Intelligencer.

A senior honor student at Renton high school, the Nisei, who was born in Selleck, has lived in Renton four years since his family's return from a relocation center in Bent, Idaho. Young Yoshihara plans to make the navy his career. He will enter the Naval Academy on July 1, following his graduation from high school.

The Renton Nisei is believed to be the first Japanese American to win a congressional appointment to the Naval Academy.

Persons of Japanese ancestry were barred from the Navy during World War II, although many Nisei served in the Merchant Marine. Naval service was opened to them in Oct., 1945, after representations from the national JACL.

Dr. James H. Tanaka, first Nisei to serve as an officer in the U. S. Navy, was commissioned a lieutenant, junior grade, on Aug. 7, 1946.

Dr. Tanaka, a University of Michigan graduate, was stationed at the Naval Air Training Center, Corpus Christi, Texas, and his last station was the Mare Island shipyards at Vallejo, Calif.

B. C. JAPANESE COUNT DAYS AS MARCH 31, 1949, NEARS; FEDERAL CURBS END THEN

The thirty-first of March, 1949, will be a momentous day for Japanese Canadians, (especially those who are living in British Columbia. For on that day the last vestige of federal restrictions placed on them during the war will disappear.

The next day, April 1, they will be free to pack up and go back to the coast to live. They may even try getting back into fishing.

But there has been comparatively little excitement on the coast over the expected return of the wartime evacuees. For one thing the people seemed to know that the number of returnees will be small compared to the number before the war. For another the population of coastal cities have grown tremendously in the seven years since evacuation and many of them are newcomers who do not know about the Japanese except by hearsay.

But here and there, voices have been raised in protest to the return. As might be expected they belonged to the people who fear direct competition from the returnees.

"We flatly do not want the Japs back in our coastal region" announced the Native Brotherhood (Indian) organization which held a meeting, Feb. 4, at Kitwanga (Skeena district).

If the Japanese return, they said there will be "a dog fight and troubles".

B. C. Indian fishermen had been having pretty prosperous times since Japanese competition was eliminated.

In the Fraser Valley, the Maple Ridge Board of Trade reflected the alarm of local farmers who disliked the thought of the Japanese coming back to the berry-growing industry.

The board passed a resolution declaring that "adequate safeguards be imposed by the government to prevent a return to the undesirable state of affairs in Japanese-infested districts pre-war".

They thought the Japanese should be told that their return "could only be a revival of intense racial feeling."

But with no newspaper to back it up, the voice of protest did not appear very impressive.

Meanwhile, the Civil Liberties Union, University of B. C., branch, had embarked on a campaign to seek acceptance of the returnees.

They expressed in the resolution their "strong disapproval of the disabilities imposed upon Canadians of Japanese origin at present by virtue of provincial legislation".

The provincial government appeared to be leaning to this latter view and was expected to give provincial franchise to the Japanese while the Vancouver City Council had shown the way by its decision to give them civic votes.

EXISTING LAWS RULE OUT POSSIBILITY OF JAPANESE STUDENTS ENTERING CANADA

TORONTO, Ont., Canada, March 2—Under the existing immigration regulations, there is no possibility of Japanese students entering Canada, the Department of Immigration in Ottawa informed the National JCCA recently. The JCCA had inquired if it would be permissible for Japanese students and professors to secure temporary admission into Canada in order to pursue their studies here.

The department further added that no such facilities would be made available at the present time.

This is in apparent contrast to the U. S. regulations governing temporary entry. There, bona fide Japanese students are permitted to enter the country for the purpose of continuing their studies. It will be recalled that Robert Nishiyama, former Kamikaze pilot, entered Lafayette College as the recipient of an insurance left by an American soldier killed in the Pacific.

To enable them to enter the U. S., these students must be at least 16 years of age, have a good knowledge of English, and they must possess the funds to pay for their transportation, living and tuition costs or this must be guaranteed by someone in the U. S. While in the United States, these students must not be employed or be engaged in any trade or commerce.

According to a report, many Japanese in the United States have made applications to have some relative or friend to enter the U. S. In the Los Angeles area alone nearly a hundred such applications have been placed. Although they have not crossed the Pacific, nor is it known their applications to enter the U. S. have been granted, it is reported that thirty persons in Japan have been accepted for enrollment at various schools in this district.

CHI COUNCIL HAILED MOST 'OUTSTANDING'

CHICAGO, Ill., March 2—Perhaps the most outstanding citizens group in the field of human relations is the Chicago Council Against Racial and Religious Discrimination, according to the Midwest regional office.

Under the courageous and effective leadership of Dr. Homer A. Jack, this organization of organizations has attained a position of recognition second to none in the entire country. Organized in 1943, the CCARRD, in militant pursuit of its purpose of defending human rights and upholding the dignity of all men, has accomplished much in reducing racial tensions in Chicago. Effectively cooperating with the official Commission on Human Relations, it has been credited with having prevented a major race riot in Chicago.

The more than 100 affiliated organizations representing a cross-section of Chicago's many segments, includes civic, labor, religious, ethnic and veterans groups.

With the resignation of Dr. Jack, who has been assigned to the pulpit of the Unitarian Church in Evanston, Illinois, the new executive director of the Council will be Dr. Waitstill H. Sharp, another Unitarian minister from Boston, Massachusetts.

Dr. Sharp, a graduate of Boston University, received his master's degree from Harvard and has held churches in Meadville, Pennsylvania and Wellesley Hills, Massachusetts. In recent years, he has attained a distinguished record of service, having served as field director of Unitarian-Quaker relief in Europe and with the displaced persons division of UNRRA in Cairo. He has received decorations from the governments of Portugal and Czechoslovakia as well as the University of Prague.

Among the many affiliates of the CCARRD are the JACL and the Chicago Resettlers Committee. Mrs. Setsuko M. Nishi is a present serving as organizational secretary, while Tats Kushiida, Midwest regional representative of the JACL, serves on the executive board. It is now conducting a fund drive to meet its operating budget for 1949 of $18,000 and supporters are requested to send contributions to its offices at 123 West Madison Street in Chicago.

NOT IMPORTANT, BUT—

We received a "chain letter" the other day. We assume that a lot of our readers have also been on the receiving end of such letters, because we saw some familiar names on our letter, and know that, in the very nature of things, the "chain" spreads out like the branches of a tree. It starts small but ends up big—that is, if it doesn't meet up with too many people like your correspondent, who personally happens to be extremely uncooperative toward the whole idea.

Our chain letter contained the usual instructions to cross out the first name on the list, to add our name at the bottom, and send out additional letters to keep up the chain. The usual warnings against breaking the chain were also given, with the promise of good fortune if we faithfully followed instructions. This particular chain letter must have been just "for fun", however; no directions were given to send even so much as a dime to the name which headed the list.

In line with our life-long policy of trying to act as much as possible like a human being with some measure of intelligence, we took our chain letter and tossed it into the nearest wastebasket. That was our good deed for the day; twelve innocent people did NOT get chain letters from us.

Simple mathematics will show why the idea of "chains" is fantastically illogical and unworkable. Take, for example, the 12-party chain letter we happened to receive. The person starting the chain sends out 12 letters which is simple enough. Each recipient, however, is supposed to write 12 additional people. At the second stage, therefore, 144 letters will be written. At the third stage, the number grows to 1,728; at the fourth, 20,736; at the fifth, 248,832; at the sixth, 2,985,934, and at the seventh, 35,831,808. There, for all practical purposes, the chain would run out of material, since at the eighth stage, the staggering total of 429,981,696 letters would have to be sent—approximately three times the population of the United States. A ninth stage would be impossible, since there aren't that many people in the whole world.

These figures make us tired even to contemplate them. The simple solution was to give the chain letter the old "heave-ho", which we did on mucho gusto.

THIS 'N' THAT

Next stag party coming up will probably be in honor of Harry Katakaka, whose engagement to Miss Rose Osawa was announced last week. The announcement, of course, was no great surprise to Harry's friends. Joe Higuchi, former Seattle resident now working for the government in Japan, was due to return to the Orient on Wednesday after a visit to the States, his first since his discharge from the service in 1945. Joe is married to the former Mary Okabe, who was also a Seattle resident in pre-war days. The fine showing of the popular Collins Fieldhouse team was the big feature of the recent AAU basketball tournament, even though the methodical Alpine Dairymen gain proved themselves to be the top outfit in this section. The Collins five had the crowd with them from start to finish. Have you been reading the Winston Churchill articles appearing in Life magazine? Apart from the momentous events which are the subject of his pen, Churchill's powerful prose is an example of how the English language should be used. And on this thought, we leave you until next week.

The flowering of civilization is of social power—the gentleman.

THE Sporting Thing

Across the Mountains to Salt Lake City

All bowling fans will have their eyes and ears glued on Salt Lake City, Utah, this week-end. The national JACL bowling tournament begins Friday.

Pacific Northwest will send three crack outfits, two from Seattle and one from Ontario, Oreg. The Ontario squad, as one may well guess, will be the Northwest Classic championship Jackel & Rogers (remember Yulene Takai and Shig Hironaka?).

The Seattle outfits will be Over the Top Beverage and Main Bowl.

The advanced publicity copy has it that Over the Top has the highest team average—a cool 916. Its lineup has Bill Tanaka, Pruney Tsuji, Tuk Tada, Tommy Namba and Tak Shibuya. This is the team which is expected to bring home a Seattle victory.

The other half of the Queen City task force, Main Bowl, may turn out to be a surprise. Its men are George Tanagi, Merrie Yamaguchi, Jimmy Kuranishi, Kenny Arita and Kaz Yamasaki.

Seattle and Ontario will carry a lot of striking power into the tournament, so don't be shocked if the Pacific Northwesterners finish high in the money.

Sideline Topics

... we'd venture to wager that the Lotus Sanghas of Seattle will cap the basketball tournament championship at the N. W. Young Buddhist convention this week-end in Spokane. ... a fine tribute was paid by Al Brightman to Willie Wong of the San Francisco Saints at the Northwest Times' tournament dance; Brightman, himself a brilliant basketball player, stamped the Chinese star as one of the best cagers in the country today.

... it seems as if Tak Akamatsu, one of the bowling old-timers, is back in the groove again; he's number one in the Oregon Nisei Bowling league's "Big Ten" at this writing. ... don't forget the NVC hoop league's presentation sports dance this Friday, March 4, in the Buddhist auditorium.

Yulene Takai of Ontario reports that Dan Mio, a teen-ager, is the talk of the Ontario bowling clique with his pin-shattering skill; Dan missed the head-pin but once in a terrific 574 scratch three-game series recently. ... Mercury's casaba squad will not be weakened when it adds Johnny Kusakabe, Fleasie Okazaki and Hiro Nishimura on its roster for its trip to Sacramento in about two weeks.

... due to business reasons, Nobi Takahashi of Main Drug and Shig Urakawa of Shanty Inn, two of the top Nisei keggers in this area, will not make the jaunt to Salt Lake City for the national pin meet.

... Gene Boyd's Collins fieldhouse champions bowed to Alpine Dairy in the Northwest AAU finals last Saturday in Edmondson Pavilion, but not until captain Al Mar of Collins, tallying 18 points, had given the dairymen a mild case of jitters for three periods.

14 OUTFITS ENTERED IN GIRLS' MEET

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 2.—More than 14 teams will vie for honors in the national Nisei women's bowling tournament on March 4, 5 and 6, in this city, it was announced today by chairman Lylienne Kuriaki.

Entries have been received from Los Angeles, San Francisco, Denver, Oden, and Salt Lake City. Salt Lake City will enter eight squads: Dawn Noodle, Main Applance, Glamour Studio, Okada Insurance, Pagoda, New Sunrise, Temple Noodle and Aoki Produce.

The local league will treat the out-of-town girls to a dinner at 5 p.m. Saturday, March 5, in Pagoda. Mitzie Iwasaki will be the mistress of ceremonies.

Main Bowl-ers Flash Power

If practice means anything, Main Bowl's "Red" and "White" squads will furnish stiff competition to all comers in the national Nisei bowling tournament this week-end in Salt Lake City.

The Utah-bound outfits played a match game last Saturday night in Main Bowl to keep themselves fit.

The Reds smashed the Whites, 2766 to 2735.

Two six-hundred series were rolled. The Reds' steady Tak Shibuya ripped the one-three pocket for a 620 series, and the Whites' flashy Kenny Arita found the strike range for a 619 series.

Besides Shibuya, other "Reds" were Bill Tanaka, Pruney Tsuji, Tuk Tada and Tommy Namba.

The "Whites", in addition to Arita, comprised of George Tanagi, Morrie Yamaguchi, Jim Kuranishi and Kaz Yamasaki.

Mar Selected All-Tourney

Al Mar, brilliant-scoring Chinese American forward for Gene Boyd's Collins fieldhouse basketball champions, was named first-string Northwest AAU tournament all-star this week.

Besides cavorting for Collins, Mar also was a regular member of the Tokuda Drug squad which recently captured the third and final leg of the three-year perpetual trophy put up by THE NORTHWEST TIMES in its third annual Northwest Nisei Invitational Basketball Tournament here.

Hair beauty secrets... by Toni

End Curlers

Pin Curls

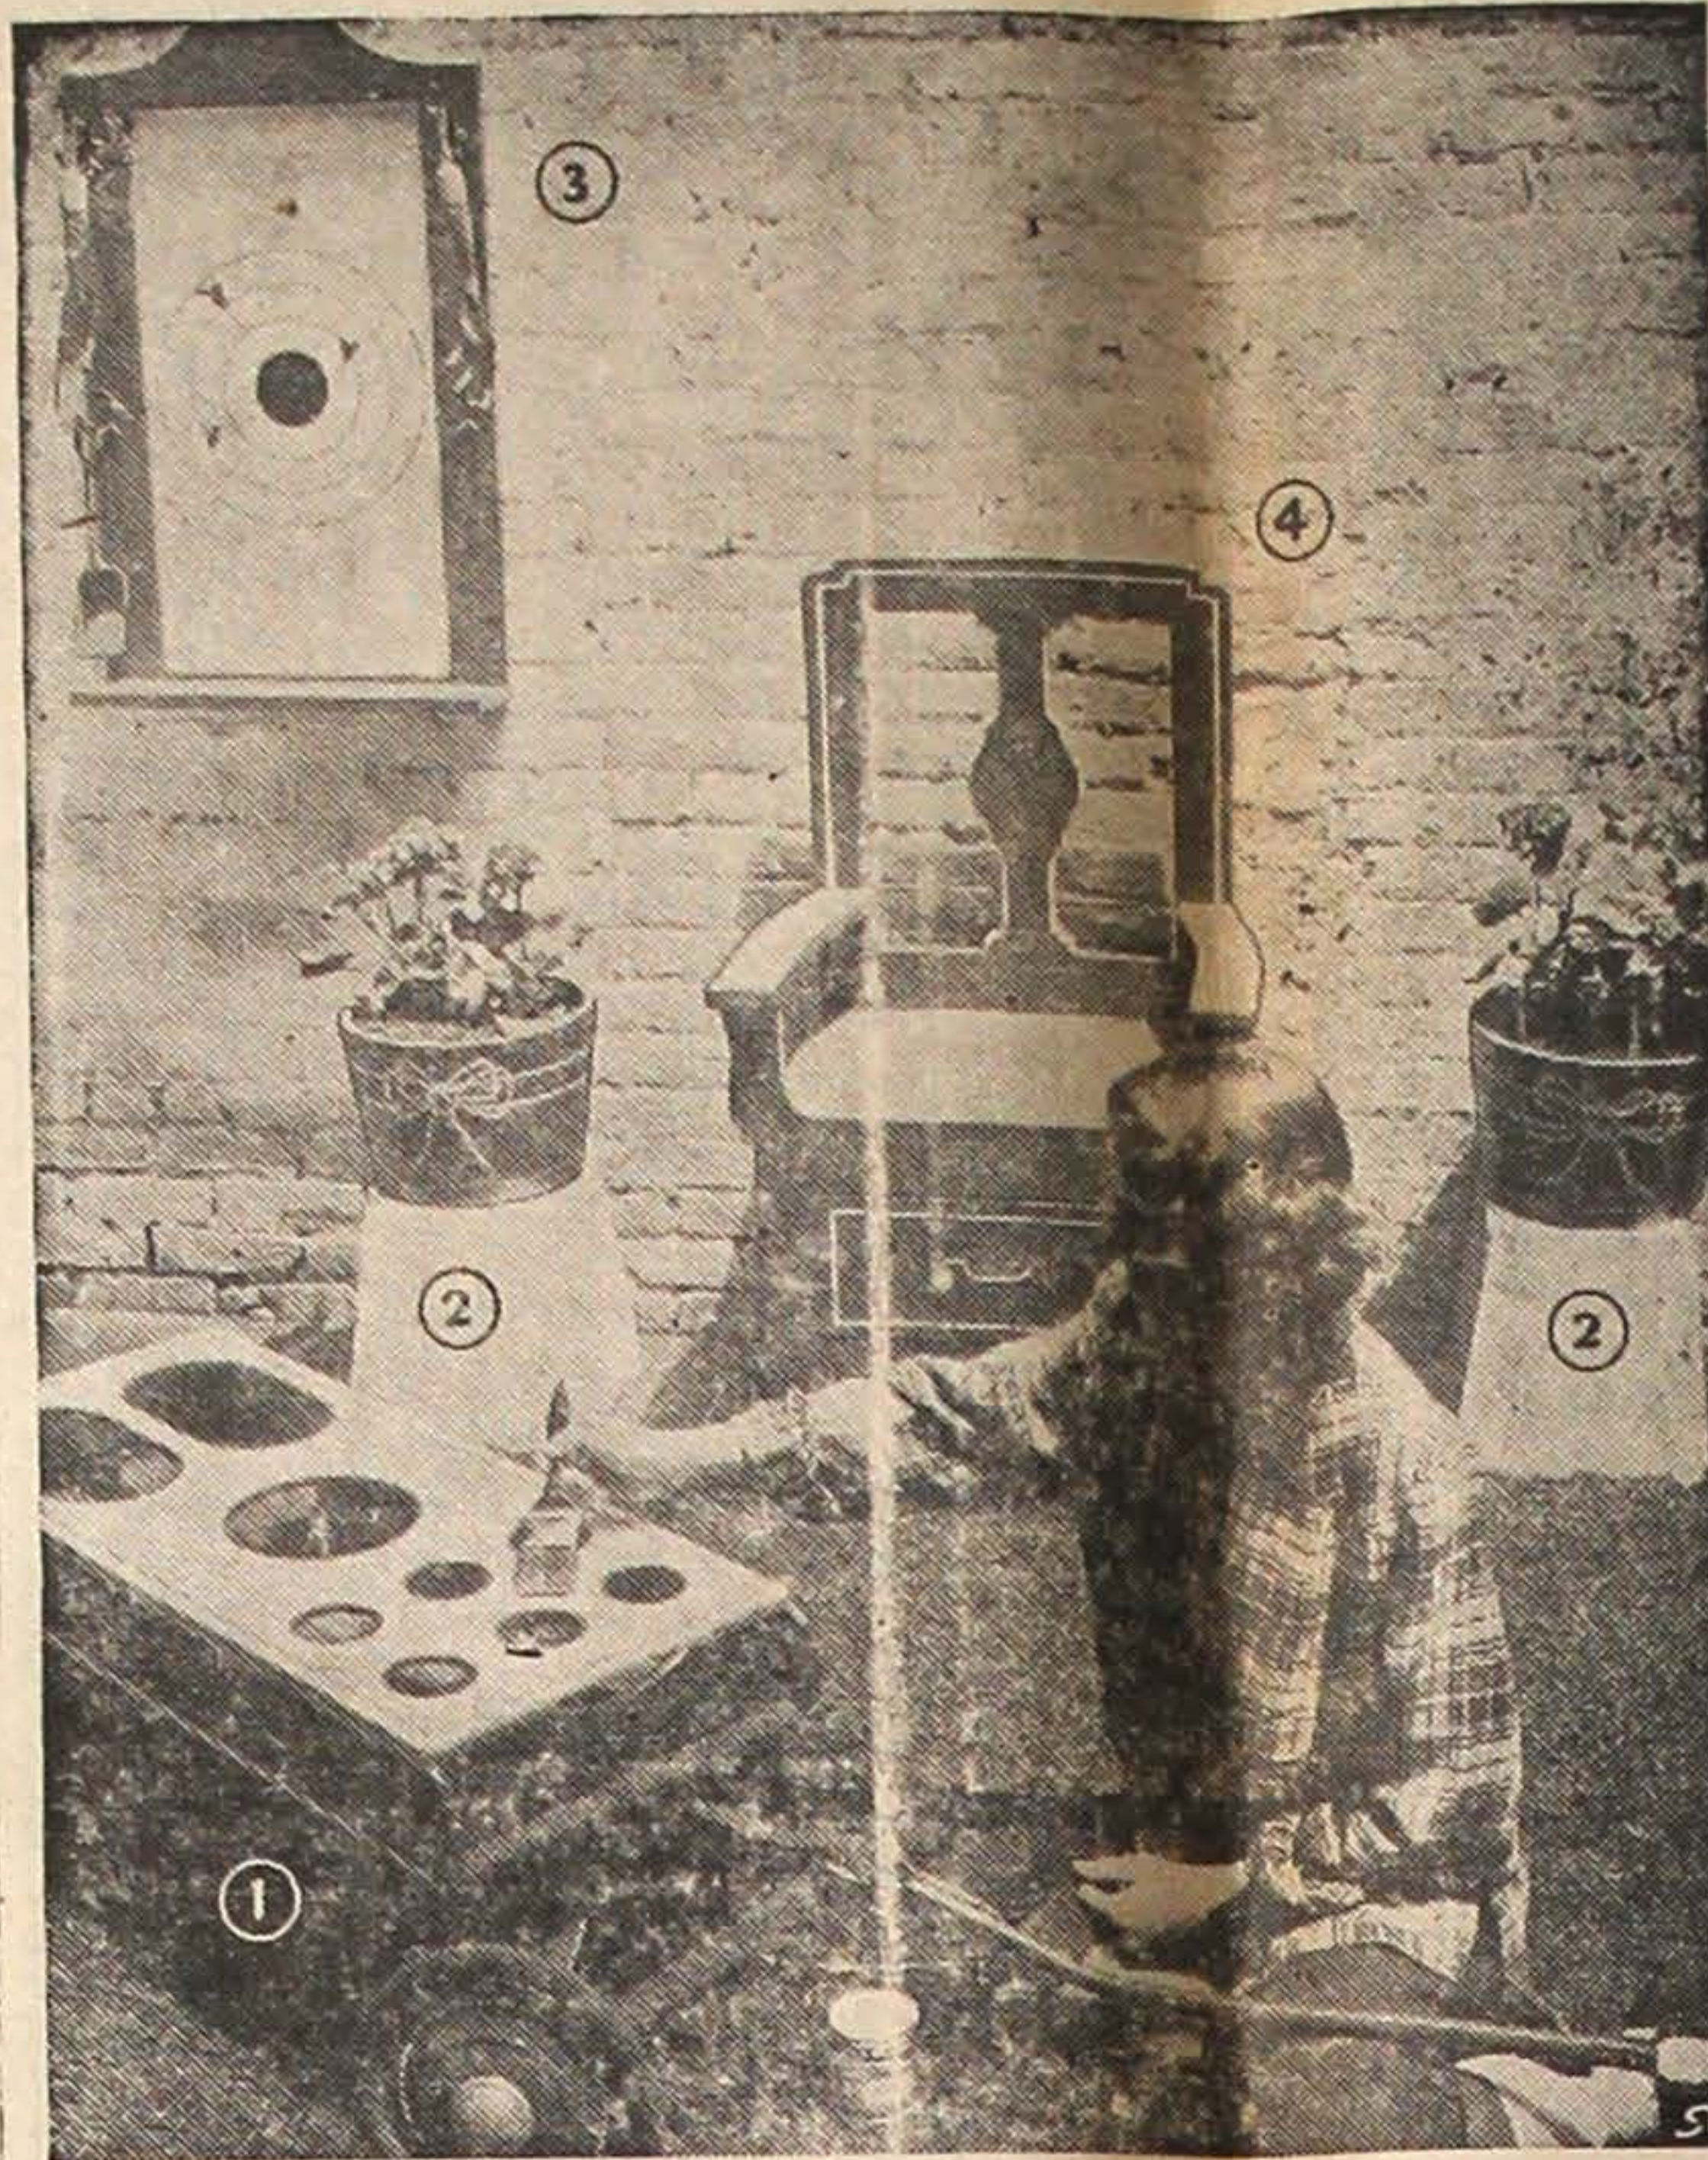

The "teen dream queen" is the girl who is clever enough to wear her hair in a mass of curls at the back of her neck! The basis is a soft, natural looking home permanent wave, which gives body to the longish bob and keeps the curls crisp and springy. The hair is drawn back off the face; it can be set either with end curlers as shown at the top, or in pin curls (bottom). Add a ribbon for added charm!

Party Scheduled For Y Delegates

A send-off party for Tomi Fujino, who will be a delegate at the national YWCA conference in San Francisco March 7 to 14, will be held from 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 5. Given by the Belle Amis, the party will be held in the home of Constance Handa, adviser.

Your Army and Your Air Force need young men with an instinct for leadership... Don't delay... see your recruiting representative today.

Reclaim It With Paint

Don't throw away those seemingly useless attic pieces acquired over the past years. Look them over with an imaginative eye, add a little handiwork, put on a coat of paint and come up with something useful and attractive like this terrace outfit. Ray Hookway, color consultant for Sherwin-Williams, produced this setting by (1) remodeling Junior's old express wagon into a server for ice-bucket, pitcher and glasses; by (2) converting two old pickle barrels into attractive flower pots; by (3) turning an old discarded mirror into a gay dart board; and by (4) modernizing an old vestible chair into a gay seat and storage unit. Hookway says, "Combining good ideas with a bit of painting skill makes for good fun and good sense these budget-conscious days."

TORONTO U. DIRECTORY LISTS NISEI

TORONTO, Ont., Canada, March 2—Seventy-one Nisei students are listed in the recently published directory of the University of Toronto. Nine are graduates and undergraduates number sixty-two. Divided according to faculties, Arts leads with 21 undergrads, followed closely by Science with 20. Medicine has 14. Dentistry 4, Pharmacy 2 and Optometry 1, to complete the list.

These Nisei students nominally make up the Nisei Students' Club of the University of Toronto. This club as a campus organization is formed to encourage interest in general studies and activities on the campus. It also serves as a means of contact with other Nisei students.

Judiciary Body OK's S. 29

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2—Concurring with its subcommittee, the full judiciary committee unanimously and favorably reported out S. 29 for House consideration, the Washington Office of the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee was informed this week.

S. 29 is the bill passed by the Senate some two weeks ago which authorizes the payment of claims for loss of or damage to so-called contraband articles deposited with peace officers immediately following the outbreak of war by persons of Japanese ancestry throughout the United States.

The action of the full judiciary committee followed by two days the favorable recommendation of the special subcommittee headed by Congressman William T. Byrne, (D., N.Y.).

According to Mike Masaoka, national legislative director, this JACL ADC supported legislation will be placed on the Consent Calendar of the House of Representatives. Since Consent Calendars are called on the third Monday of each month, this means that March 21st may be the day when the House will vote on S. 29. A single objection to the bill means that its consideration will be put off at least one month.

It is expected that this bill will be approved unanimously, however, and become law within a few weeks.

Keep America strong...enlist today in the United States Army.

but don't forget the other guys!"

"There was a time when I thought I'd be a Case History for keeps. A time when a dry laugh caught in my throat at the thought that I'd ever hold a job again.

"That was the time when a smile, a friendly word from a Red Cross worker was worth more than all the money in the world. The Red Cross believed I'd come through O.K. They made me believe it, too.

"So I'd like to say—thanks, folks! I know it was you who made the work of the Red Cross possible.

"Now I'm doing fine. But plenty of guys haven't been so lucky... yet. Let them know, won't you, that you haven't forgotten them? They're still counting on the Red Cross. And the Red Cross is still counting on you!"
