

ADC RELEASES MORE QUERIES, REPLIES IN REGARD TO YOUR EVACUATION CLAIMS MEASURE

(Ed. note: This is the twentieth of a series of questions and answers on the evacuation claims law prepared by Edward J. Ennis, JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee special counsel, and released by the Washington Office of the JACL ADC as a public service. This series is based on actual questions asked of this office.)

(Any reader who has general questions relating to the law itself or to procedural matters is invited to address a letter with a stamped, self-addressed return envelope to the Washington Office, JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee, Evacuation Claims Section, 300 Fifth Street Northwest, Washington 2, D. C. Questions of general interest may be produced in this series without personal identification.)

(No questions involving the legality or value of specific claims can be answered.)

1. Q. We stored our personal effects, household belongings, and business equipment in a garage-penthouse behind our home during our absence and rented the home. After returning we were unable to occupy the home immediately because the tenants were unable to locate a place to which they could move. During this time, the garage-penthouse burned to the ground together with the aforementioned property under circumstances which indicated arson. Can we claim for the property or building or both under "reasonable consequence" clause of the act inasmuch as the articles would not have been placed in this building if we were not forced to evacuate?

A. You should file a claim for the property which you stored in the garage-penthouse because of the evacuation. This property would not have been stored there except for the evacuation and its loss by fire seems to be a reasonable and natural consequence of the evacuation. You should also file a claim for the value of the garage on the same theory. Evidence of arson would also be evidence that the loss was due to the evacuation and even if there is merely a suspicion of arson, without tangible evidence, it may be argued that if you had continued to live in your home under normal circumstances this fire would not have occurred or could have been completely prevented or extinguished before damage had occurred.

2. Q. I purchased a car in 1940 for $1,000 and in 1941 was forced to sell it for $600. Upon returning to the coast it was necessary to purchase another car of the same type but the price was $1,300. Assuming depreciation of this $1,000 car after six or eight months' use to be around $200, thus making the actual value of the car in 1941 at $800, could I claim the difference of $800 from $1,300 or $500 actual loss as a result of the evacuation?

A. You have a good claim at least for the difference between the value of your car in 1940 and the amount you received for it at the time of the evacuation and a reasonable claim for the difference between the 1941 and replacement value. I would suggest claiming the larger amount.

3. Q. I was one of the early evacuees to relocate from camp consequently I just missed out on the Travel Grant by one week. I do not have the receipts on railroad ticket, etc. purchased at the time. Can I file this as a claim? How about personal expenses incurred during the time I spent looking for a job?

A. It is doubtful that the Government will treat these expenses as a loss of property caused by the evacuation. But, of course, the only way you can get a final determination on the matter from the Department of Justice is to file the claim.

First Piano Quartet Concert 'Sold Out' So Ducats on Sale for Second One

Tickets are now on sale for a second demand concert to be given by the famous First Piano Quartet in Meany Hall on the University of Washington campus at 8:30 p.m. on Friday, April 1, under the auspices of the Associated Women Students, sponsors of the successful "Music at Meany" concert series. The original performance, scheduled for March 31, "sold out" so early that an additional concert was arranged by the students to meet the demands of their patrons.

Because indications are that this second appearance of the First Piano Quartet will also be a "sell-out", the AWS urges its patrons to avoid disappointment by mailing the orders immediately to 304 Clark Hall, University of Washington.

The First Piano Quartet was organized a few years ago by Edwin Fadiman who pooled the talents of four great concert pianists — Adam Gerner, Vladimir Padwa, Frank Mittler, and Edward Edson. Today, they are nationally known for their coast-to-coast broadcasts over NBC and for concerts given in more than 200 cities. This, however, is the first western tour of the quartet.

Reserved seats are $3 and $2.50 and tickets may also be secured at the University Bookstore and Sherman and Clay. For additional information call Melrose 0630, extension 1224.

Amendment Seeks To Rid Vote Bias

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 16—W. T. Strath, provincial minister of education, has introduced in the legislature an amendment which will wipe out another of British Columbia's racial discrimination. It was reported in Vancouver newspapers last March 3.

The amendment revokes a former ban against Chinese, Japanese and Indians voting at school meetings in the rural districts.

They will have the right to vote if otherwise qualified, and cannot be prevented from doing so on racial grounds, the New Canadian stated.

CARE Gifts Go to Needy Japanese; Former Bataan POW Also Give

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 16—Six thousand CARE packages reached Japanese families and institutions during the month of December, as Christmas gifts from friends in America.

These parcels, the largest number delivered in a single month since the opening of CARE's service to Japan last summer, brought 174,000 pounds of food to the recipients.

CARE, a non-profit agency approved by the United States government, provides its 29-pound food parcels, its woolen fabric parcels and knitting wool parcels at a total cost of $10 each, including delivery in Japan. The CARE blanket package, containing two all-wool blankets and sewing accessories, has just been reduced in price to $7.75, while CARE's stockpiles of these parcels last in Japan, there are now 850 woolen blanket packages available for delivery this winter.

The need for increased food, and the particular need for textiles in Japan, is illustrated by the table of legal rations, just received from CARE's Mission in Tokyo. The table follows:

Staple Foods: (monthly)
Rice, 828.39 grams; sweet potatoes, 2899.1 grams; Flour, 828.3 grams; vegetables, 280 momme; fish, 70 momme; processed marine products, 21 momme; canned goods, 0.019 lb.; miso, 28 momme; shoyu, 0.46 go; oil or fat, 6.7 grams; sake, 0.046 go; salt, 46.2 grams.
Calories per day — 1,355.
Textile Ration per person per year for 1949
Material (mostly rayon), 2 yds. 36" width; thread, 10 momme; socks or tabi, 1 pair; towel, 1.
CARE parcels, designed to relieve acute shortages, may be ordered for Japan through CARE, New York, or CARE, Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., March 16 (Rafu Shimpo Dispatch)—As far as Solly Manasse, a Palm Springs motel operator, is concerned, he is no longer bitter about his past experiences in a Japanese prison camp.

"I think we need a few more gestures of international friendship to help out the peace in the world," he commented last week after walking into a Los Angeles CARE office.

Handing the official $100 bill, Manasse said, "Use this for CARE packages to Japan."

He was asked what he was doing during the war.
"Oh, I spent 44 months of it in a Japanese camp. I was on the Bataan Death March!" he exclaimed.

NVC ELECTIONS

Nisei Vets — don't forget that the annual NVC elections will be held this Friday evening at the Buddhist Church, at which time the men who will direct NVC affairs for the coming year will be selected. Be sure to attend and cast your vote for the candidates of your choice. Additional nominations for any office will be accepted from the floor. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Incidentally, membership dues for the new fiscal year are now due and acceptable. Pay now and get your money's worth!

HERE AND THERE

Koichi Yagi and Miss Anna Nagai were united in marriage last Saturday. A stag party for the groom was held the preceding evening. Another coming wedding is that of Hiroshi Nakashima and Miss Tak Yokoyama, scheduled for an April date. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Uno are happy over the birth of a girl last week, which balances up the family inasmuch as their first child was a son. Reports have it that the Nisei Vets will enter a team in the City Baseball League this year. We'll review their prospects in the near future. The bigger they are, the harder they fall: Kentucky, No. 1 college basketball team in the nation, loses to Loyola in the opening game of the National Invitation tournament. Which only goes to prove your correspondent's contention that there's no such thing as an "unbeatable team". Incidentally, we won a buck due to the Kentucky upset. If you like good basketball, lots of pep and drive, all mixed with plenty of school spirit and thrills in generous proportions, why not take in the state basketball tournament this weekend? It's the entertainment value of the week for sports fans.

MAIN STREET

A . . . murmur of voices joined as the old, graying Issei fathers and mothers nodded to each other in the Buddhist auditorium the other night.

Two Nisei—a girl and a boy, of course—had just walked into the hall to find their seats.

Our interpretation of the Japanese conversation is not too sharp, but the general gist was like this:

"Say, isn't that so and so?"

"Who is he with?"

"Oh, she must be the daughter of so and so."

"They ought to make a good couple."

"I hear they've been going around together for some time. They may marry soon."

"Married?" (asks one who is slightly hard of hearing).

"No, silly. They're not married yet."

Then, a well-rounded discussion on the possibility of matching the pair is aired over hot tea and food.

Shucks, isn't it thoughtful of the Issei to be so gravely concerned over the Nisei's social welfare?

PERSONAL PIFFLES: . . . probable signing of the FEPC bill by our governor doesn't necessarily mean job guarantees, but it is a step toward elimination of deliberate, obvious discrimination on the part of employers. . . . Seattle may brag about having the most people, but Spokane and Portland have the best-edited metropolitan newspapers in the Pacific Northwest. . . . the largest mass movement of Japanese since evacuation days took place the other week-end when approximately ninety-five Seattleites attended the N.W. Young Buddhist league convention in Spokane. . . . Ex-GI Joe says a national Nisei veterans convention in San Francisco would suit him just fine. . . . silent anticipation: the full reactivation of the Northwest Young People's Christian Conference. . . . if the international "mardi gras" proposed by the Jackson St. Community materializes—and we hope it does, remember that the "big wheel" behind it is Mrs. Ruth Manca, hard-working council executive secretary, who has done more than anyone we know to improve this area. . . . Louella Parson's recent bit on Sessue Hayakawa strikes us strangely when one recalls her stinging yet juvenile remarks on all Japanese during evacuation days. . . .

ONE . . . of the few promising young leaders in our community is Johnny Kusakabe, president of the Lotus YBA and president also of the Northwest Young Buddhist league. Kusakabe, through his actions in the ever-growing YBA, has distinguished himself as a leader and has gained the respect of his group's membership. Like "Lefty" Ichihara, current general of the NVC, Kusakabe is blessed with ability and personality and is sincere in his attitude towards his fellow men. The young Bussei leader doesn't know it, perhaps, but he is being groomed as a very likely prospect for chairmanship of the Nisei Veterans Committee and the presidency of the Seattle JACL chapter.

What Happened to Our Seattle Keglers?

That's a tough question to ask a fellow who was haunched behind an old typewriter several hundred miles away from the national Nisei bowling tournament in Salt Lake City, Utah.

We weren't there, Charley, but we'd guess the boys were "off" and they couldn't get started. And we'd also venture to guess the strange alleys and the strange crowds were no help.

And as for the distance, well, the map says: Seattle to Salt Lake City, 921 miles; Los Angeles to Salt Lake City, 738 miles; Chicago to Salt Lake City, 1454 miles.

But, perhaps, Kaz Yamasaki, who undoubtedly is one of the top Nisei bowlers in Seattle, had the best answer to our boys' disappointing showing: "I guess we lack the experience and we just don't know how to play our alleys yet".

Faced with the same difficulties, the more experienced Los Angeles men solved the problem quite handily as the final results showed.

Sideline Topics

Tommy Sakai and Anky Arai, two N.A.C. stars of yesterday, will coach a Nisei entry in the Puget Sound Baseball league this season, the story goes . . . who will make up the scoring punch when Tokuda Drug takes its trek to the Intermountain Nisei Basketball Tournament in Salt Lake City? Sei Adachi, Heat Heyamoto, Al Mar and Isao Nishimura aren't Utah-bound . . . yes, A. B. (Albert Benjamin) "Happy" Chandler, baseball commissioner, is the former governor and senator of Kain-tucky, and also is the same fellow who, as chairman of the Senate military affairs sub-committee investigating WRA centers in 1943, charged that 60 per cent of the Japanese in a certain relocation center have given their allegiance to the Empire of Japan — Chandler based his accusation "on a vote taken at a camp which he declined to name", the Associated Press reported . . . if the local Puget Sound Golf members had their way, they would lobby in the state legislature to ban inclement weather each Sunday . . . the American Bowling Congress has voted to continue its membership ruling of "white males only"; in other words, only the "whites" are to rule as kingpins of the bowling alleys . . . a new one on us: girl basketball players are called "eagerettes" by the Rafu Shimpo of Los Angeles; oh well, these newspapermen have a knack for coining words, and eagerette happens to be another one . . . Kiyo Kanda of championship Methodist was the most outstanding paddler in the girls' division of the second annual table tennis tournament sponsored by the Rissho YBA; she whacked out five victories, no loss . . .

Canada Will Send All-Star Outfit

TORONTO, Ont., Canada, March 16—Canada will floor an all-star team when the Chicago Nisei Athletic Association of Chicago, Ill., sponsors its third annual invitational basketball tournament on Saturday and Sunday, April 9 and 10, it was reported today by the New Canadian. The meet was originally set for April 3 and 4.

The Canadians list Shige Ashikawa, Ken and Mossy Mitsui, Sockeye Tsukamoto, Idy Idenouye, three Miyasaki brothers, Mucka Makimoto, Yuki Kameoka, Toki Toyama, Mush Fukumoto, Hidy Ioi and Paul Hirano. Joe Akiyama will be the non-playing coach.

Canadian Japanese sports experts say that "this is the strongest team yet produced in the history of Canadian Nisei basketball and will be the tops for years to come. It is even better than anything produced in the hey-days of Vancouver".

Nisei Grappler Receives Cup

SAN DIEGO, Calif., March 16—David Kikuchi, Far Western AAU wrestling titleholder, led San Diego high school wrestlers to victory in the SCIF qualifying meet last weekend.

The Nisei not only won first in the 127-pound division but also received the Paul Walker trophy for all-around performance and sportsmanship.

SCIF finals will be held this Saturday, March 19, in Calexico.

KNIGHTS TOP METHODISTS; TAKE TITLE

The undefeated Knights Club, of Neighborhood House, walked away from a scrappy Japanese Methodist team to win the championship of the Jackson Street league by a 67-32 score, and set a record of seven straight wins in league play last Wednesday in St. Peter's gym.

The Methodists were handicapped during the first quarter by the absence of Mich Shimomura, strong guard and point getter. The Knights pulled away quickly during this period and were able to hold the long end of the score from then on.

The Knights, who were sparked by the league-leading scorer, Joe Chiput, played a smooth game and maintained a tight zone defense. The Methodists also gave away several inches in height to each of the Neighborhood House boys who gave them a bad break under the basket.

Chiput again took scoring honors with 26 counters. Roy Tanagi, Methodist sharp shooter, was second with 20, and Sol Candiotti, Knights, found the basket for 13 points and third honors.

The league, sponsored by the Junior Council Committee of the Jackson Street Community Council to give inexperienced players a chance at tournament competition, saw several good players develop during the six or seven weeks of play. In addition to Chiput and Jerry Israel, who played on the championship team and who consistently turned in high scoring performances, Roy Tanagi, Methodist guard, Sandy Swancy, Bulldog Hi-Y, and Fuzzy Fujiyama, Japanese Presbyterian, were named by observers as outstanding players.

Trophies for the league will be awarded at the Jackson Street Council's annual meeting on April 21. Six teams participated during the season: Knights, Methodist, Bulldog Hi-Y, Collins, Japanese Presbyterians, and Kings Club.

Try a Spanish Sandwich

For a bright change of pace in your meal planning, try a main dish sandwich with a Spanish air. This one is piqued with chili sauce, green pepper and onion rings, mellowed with lots of melted cheese. This Spanish sandwich is a meal in itself with perhaps a tossed salad on the side, a dessert and beverage. What's more, it's full of the elements that make for good health. The cheese is a bargain, nutritionally, for cheese is an excellent protein food. A half pound of cheddar cheese supplies as much protein as a whole pound of average beef, and cheese is listed as a best food buy by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Make Spanish sandwiches for dinner tonight. Keep the recipe at hand for guest-night fare, for teenage parties, and for the Lenten dinners you'll be planning.

Spanish Sandwich

6 slices bread (crusts trimmed) 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
Mayonnaise 2 tablespoons butter or
Onion rings margarine
1/2 cup chili sauce 1/2 lb. American Pasteurized
Process Cheese

Toast the bread on one side and spread the untoasted side of each slice with mayonnaise. Top with onion rings.

Mix the chili sauce with the green pepper which has been sauteed in the butter or margarine. Spread two tablespoons of this mixture over each sandwich.

Cover with a slice of the cheese cut lengthwise of the loaf. Place in a moderate oven, 350°, or under low broiler heat until the cheese melts.
