Chi Challenges L. A. Chapters

CHICAGO, Ill., April 20 — By popular vote the Chicago JACL chapter challenged the Los Angeles Area chapters for the largest membership of 1949. Although the Chicago chapter has set 700 as its goal for the current drive, the group expects to surpass this number to top the efforts of West Coast's four chapters of the Los Angeles area.

Mike Hagiwara, membership drive chairman, has divided the city into several districts in an effort to secure membership from every Nisei. It will mark the greatest drive since the ADC drive and Video benefit.

For City Flower Show — Japanese Entries Sought

"International cultural relations bring countries together not only for trade but on the higher plane of mind and spirit. Cultural art is the only way to bring complete understanding and friendship to a united world. The worlds needs conscious effort toward promoting international relations in the higher realms of human interest where differences no longer conflict, but become complementary, where differences no longer divide but join.

"Let's make an effort to raise the level of social intercourse between all nations to the high plane of intellectual and cultural enlightenment."

— Count Ayake Kabayama.

A representative exhibit of Ikebana, the Japanese art of flower arrangement, is being sought by the Flower Show committee which will sponsor the "City of Flowers Week" showing from May 1 to 4 inclusively in the Civic Auditorium.

Anyone wishing to place an Ikebana in the show will be allotted space. A nice, high background will be built especially for the Japanese section, according to Mrs. Albert Johnson, chairman of that unit, who added, "Our aim is to have all Seattle and vicinity residents unite to help put Seattle on the map as 'The City of Flowers' in much the same manner as Portland is known as the 'Rose City'."

Twenty-four hostesses, two each for morning, afternoon and evening of each day also are desired.

Reservations for space in the Japanese Ikebana section may be made with Mrs. Albert Johnson. Her phone number is EA 5517, and her mailing address is 2514 East Lynn St.

Mother is a Freshman

CHICAGO, ILL. — European history, rather than care of infants, is object of scholarly attentions of Mrs. Dorothy Opitz, 25, of Chicago. She is pictured here in class at Navy Pier branch of the University of Illinois, where she is a freshman. Trying to pore through her text book is her son, Russell, 2 1/2 years old, whose pre-school status doesn't keep him from being absorbed. Her late husband, a Navy veteran, once was stationed here.

SUPPORT THE ANTI-DISCRIMINATION COMMITTEE!

The Evacuation Claims Bill was successfully passed by Congress last year and recently the Judd Bill for Equality in Naturalization and Immigration passed the House unanimously. Locally the Fair Employment Act against job discrimination became law in the State of Washington in the last session of the Legislature.

But much work remains to be done in processing the Claims which are being filed for evacuation losses. Also the Judd Bill must be pushed through the Senate and signed by the President.

The Anti-Discrimination Committee and its staff are working hard on these activities. Communities other than Seattle have given outstanding support to this program.

The local committee is planning a financial campaign in Seattle between April 20 and April 27, 1949. Our goal is $5,000.00.

PLEASE SUPPORT THIS DRIVE.

'MAN OF YEAR' TO BE NAMED BY COUNCIL

Announcement of Jackson Street area's "Man of the Year" will be made at the annual meeting of the Community Council tomorrow night (Thursday, April 21) at Neighborhood House, 18th and Main Street, when the chairman's award for outstanding community service will be presented to some member of this community.

The award, which was established last year as a gift from the Council's first chairman, Mrs. Lela Hall, is presented annually to a neighborhood person who has made an outstanding contribution toward promoting health, welfare, civic improvement or human relations. Anyone who lives or works in the Jackson Street area may receive the award regardless of whether or not he is active in the Council. Members of the community make nominations any time during the year up to February 1, and the final selection is made from these names by a committee.

Last year the award was given to the late Lew G. Kay, prominent Chinese business man and civic leader, for his years of untiring work in behalf of the people of this district. Trophies will also be awarded to the Knights Club, champions of the Jackson street basketball league.

The feature of the program will be a panel on "The Shape of Things to Come" a discussion of hopes and future plans for neighborhood improvement. Mayor William F. Devin will act as moderator for the speakers who will include William Y. Mimbue, Mrs. Melvina Squires, Wing Luke, Jose Dulay, and J. R. Adams.

Reservations for the "International Smorgasbord" dinner were closed on Monday, but people who do not have dinner tickets may come for the program which will begin at approximately 8 o'clock.

Names of Solicitors Listed; Goal Is to Raise $5,000

More than one hundred solicitors for the local Anti-Discrimination Committee gathered for the kickoff luncheon today (Wednesday) in Gyokko Ken Cafe to receive final instructions on the ADC's fund-raising drive.

Immediately after the luncheon, the solicitors were well on their way to canvass the city to collect $5,000, the set goal.

The drive, according to William Mimbue, president of the local ADC, is to raise sufficient funds to carry out the ADC program which is three-fold: (1) to aid the state fair employment practices bill, (2) to set up the proper machinery for the processing of evacuation claims, and (3) to push the passage of the ENI (Equality in Naturalization and Immigration) legislation now in Congress.

Friends Committee's Clothing Unit Books Benefit Program Thursday

"An evening with Friends and Music" describes this year's annual benefit program of the clothing committee of the American Friends Service Committee. The event, taking place at 8 p.m., Thursday, April 21, in the Wesley Foundation, E. 43rd and 15th N. E., will present a review of the Friend's Clothing Program in both Europe and Asia. Mrs. Thomas C. Hunt, who with her husband spent eighteen months in Europe with the Quaker service program, will explain films depicting the work.

Another feature of the program will be the University String Quartet comprised of Merle McKaig, Patricia Meyers, Anka Marie Moravcek and John Mortoratti, who will play Brahms Quartet, Op. 51, No. 2, in A Minor. An informal social hour with refreshments will follow the program.

"Clothing is still urgently needed," says Mrs. Arthur Barnett, chairman of the Seattle Clothing Committee, "and our annual benefit program provides an opportunity to tell of the ways in which the need is being met and how concerned individuals can help. In Tokyo, clothing goes to more than one hundred and ninety institutions, caring for eight thousand persons. Many other places in Japan receive clothing from shipments sent by the local warehouse of the American Friends Service Committee.

"Men's clothing is particularly needed and a recent call from France emphasized this item. Clothing shipments from Seattle also go to Freiburg, Germany, a city of 90,000 where forty per cent of the population was reported in serious need. In Vienna, American Friends Service Committee distribution is the second largest in the city, yet one shipment allowed only one man's suit per 40,000 population. All clothing is distributed solely on the basis of need without regard to race, religion, nationality or politics."

Committee members in charge of the program are Mrs. Barnett, Mrs. Elfrida Carroll, Velma Cochran, Mrs. Thomas C. Hunt, Mrs. G. Minara and Mrs. Wendell Woodward.

Assisting will be Ola Bell, Rachael Blogg, Nancy Field, Vera Frank, Jeanne Woodward and Carolyn Woodward.

Reader's Digest Lauds Masaoka

Mike Masaoka, national JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee legislative director, is cited as "one of the best lobbyists in business" in Washington, D. C., in the May issue of Reader's Digest. The article, condensed from The Sign, written by Alfred Steinberg, is entitled, "Washington's Most Successful Lobbyist".

The Digest noted that through the efforts of Masaoka and his Japanese American supporters, five public and twelve private bills were passed by Congress in the postwar legislative battles. The publication also lauds Masaoka as a young man who appeals to the conscience of America in fighting for his measures, the latest of which is most prized goal: to give his people (the Issei) the right to U. S. naturalization.

'Old Timers' Hop May 1

Seattle's older group of Japanese Americans is cordially invited to attend the Lotus Shoyukai's "Old Timers" dance scheduled for Sunday, May 1, in the Seattle Buddhist auditorium.

Frankie Roth and his orchestra, according to Haruo Fujino, will furnish the music. Dancing hours will be from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight, and the cost will be $3.50 per couple. Tickets may be purchased from any Shoyukai member.

Although the dance will be an orchestra affair, corsages are not necessary, and women may wear afternoon dresses instead of formal gowns, Fujino said.

Germany, Austria Cosami Topics

Germany and Austria will be subjects for the Cosami club program Thursday, April 21, at the YWCA, 5th and Seneca. The meeting will start at 7:45 p.m.

One of the speakers is Hans Ankele, 5703 18th Ave. N. E., who came from Germany recently to attend the University of Washington. Others on the program will be an ex-serviceman and a Red Cross worker, both of whom were in Germany following VE Day.

Evacuation Claims Queries, Replies

This is the twenty-third of a series of questions and answers on the evacuation claims law prepared by Edward J. Ennis, JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee special counsel, and released by the Washington Office of JACL ADC as a public service. This series is based on actual questions asked of this office.

Any reader who has general questions relating to the law itself or to procedural matters is invited to address a letter to the Washington Office, JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee, 300 Fifth Street Northeast, Washington 2, D. C. Questions of general interest may be reproduced in this series without personal identification.

Anonymous letters requesting that replies be printed in the newspapers will not be answered. No questions involving the legality or value of specific claims can be answered.

1. Q. We understand that the House of Representatives approved an appropriation of a little more than a million dollars for the coming fiscal year for the processing and payment of evacuation claims. Will the Senate approve the bill?
- A. We believe the Senate will. There is no indication of any opposition to this appropriation.
2. Q. When can we expect payment on our claims?
- A. Assuming that the Senate approves the House appropriations before the end of July, it is hoped that some awards of $2500 or less will be paid before the end of the year.
3. Q. Does this appropriation have anything to do with claims of over $2500?
- A. Part of this appropriation is earmarked for administrative purposes to process all claims, large or small. Under the law, however, awards of over $2500 must be considered by Congress before payment is authorized.
4. Q. A million two hundred thousand dollars seems to be a very small amount. Is this all that Congress will appropriate for the processing and payment of evacuation claims?
- A. If more money is needed for either processing or paying claims

ADC TO ASK AMENDMENT TO HR 199

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 20 — The JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee said today it would urge an amendment to HR 199, the Judd bill, to provide that wives, children or husbands of American citizens be permitted to immigrate to the United States quota-free.

Such a policy is in effect only for European countries, Chinese wives and Filipino wives and children. In its present form, the Judd bill provides that husbands, wives and unmarried children may enter the United States quota free only if coming from countries having an annual quota greater than 200.

This provision would eliminate Chinese wives and Filipino wives and children from the quota-free status they now have, a provision opposed by Chinese and Filipino Americans on the west coast.

Mike Masaoka, national JACL ADC legislative director, said the objective of the amendment is to apply the same principles to Asiatic immigration as applied to European immigration.

He said proposed change is "more realistic than merely seeking an amendment to the bill to retain the quota-free provisions for China and the Philippines, yet not granting equal rights to other Asiatic or Pacific island countries."

In support of the proposed JACL ADC amendment, Masaoka said one of the basic tenets of America is to keep families united.

If the amendment is adopted, it would eliminate the need for special legislation to permit soldier brides to enter the United States.

Meantime, the JACL ADC is pressing for early consideration of the measure by the Senate Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization, which must act on the House-approved bill before the act can go further in the Senate.

DINNER FOR VETS
The big event of the week for Seattle's Nisei Vets will be the NVC Inaugural Banquet, in honor of the organization's newly-elected officers. The dinner, open to all Seattle Nisei Vets and surrounding territory, will be "on the house" and will feature food in the Chinese style, with beer and soft drinks as well.

Along with formal introduction of club officers, plans for Memorial Day will also be discussed at the dinner.

ADC Will Back FEPC Measure

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 20 — When the House Subcommittee on Labor and Education meets about May 3 to open hearings on Fair Employment Practices legislation, the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee will testify for such a measure.

FEPC will be discussed by JACL ADC from the standpoint and experiences of Nisei.

Meantime, the ADC is seeking data on specific cases of discrimination against Nisei because of either their race or religion.

Particularly, example of discrimination in the aircraft industry, municipal, county and state governments, and in labor unions are wanted.

Nisei who have met with job discrimination in any field, however, are urged to send detailed reports on their personal experiences to the JACL ADC Washington office, 300 5th St., N. E., Washington 2, D. C. Such examples will be used to support the testimony of the Anti-Discrimination Committee before the House Subcommittee.

JACL ADC officials pointed out that nationally job discrimination because of race or religion probably is at or near an all time low, but an employment recession could revive the same bitter discriminatory practices against minorities which were all too common during the depression-ridden thirties.

In the sectional playoffs on Wednesday

Green Lake Fieldhouse defeated Yesler Terrace three straight matches to claim the North Section championship. High Point found things a little more rough in the South Section where they had to meet Collins, Colman and Delridge in a round robin and then play off with Collins before they could claim the South title.

High Point and Green Lake met at Collins on Friday afternoon to compete for the all-city playground volleyball championship. Green Lake added another to its long string of championships by downing High Point in three hard-fought games, one of which went to a score of 19-17 in an overtime.

Members of the championship Green Lake team are Joyce Hilton, Elaine Carman, Anita Mainwaring, Marilyn Witham, Marie Hoidel, Donna Mallory, Marilyn Gropper and Colleen Hammill.

Gibson's Send Vets to Cleaners, 10-1; Errors Costly to Giants Losing, 13-12

Western Giants were nosed out, 13 to 12, by Sand Point last Sunday in a Puget Sound Baseball league opener at Sand Point.

The Giants suffered from a mild case of jitters after opposing hurler Finch had smacked a screaming homer with the bases bulging in the seventh. The Nisei infield committed 3 errors in the following (eighth) frame to throw the ball game away.

Composed mainly of last season's Mercury squad, the Giants were doing fine, leading 12 to 5 until the seventh when the Sand Point naval men went on the war path to push six runs across the plate.

The losers jumped into the lead in the first frame by tallying eight runs on four hits, five bases on balls and one dead ball. One of the hits was by Kay Saito who tagged a sharp blow to left and circled the sacks when the hard-struck pill took a nasty hop over left fielder Alexander.

The Giants will face Seattle Police at 12 noon next Sunday, April 24, at Rainier playfield.

Lack of batting power and effective pitching spelled defeat for Coach Joe Kesamaru's Seattle Nisei Veterans in the City League opener against Gibson's Carpet Cleaners last Sunday at Lower Woodland field. The Nisei nine lost 10-1 in a time-limit 8 inning affair.

The Vets opened their half of the first inning with Chuck Kinoshita, lead-off man, connecting one for a home run into left center-field. Thereafter, the Vets were held scoreless with only five scattered hits, including Ray Saito's double in the sixth.

Vet hurlers were touched for 12 solid hits by the Cleaners. Starter Edo Sasaki gave up 6 hits for 6 runs in the first four innings, while relief pitchers, George Shimizu and Mas Nakamichi were both hit hard for 2 runs apiece.

Kesamaru will put his charges through intensive batting and pitching sessions during the week before meeting Italian Club from 2 p.m. next Sunday, April 24, at Rainier field.

UNUSUAL BACKGROUND

More than 16,000 students are now enrolled at the University of Washington. Among the student-body one frequently runs across people with unusual background, or attending school under unusual circumstances. I would like to tell you about three of such persons.

Let's call the first one Virginia. She was one of my students last quarter; an "A" student, around 21, married with one child. For quite some time the only thing I knew about her was the fact that she contributed very capably in class discussions, and also that she was the only married woman in the class.

Then, she was absent for a couple of days. Ordinarily, absence is a matter for student concern, not mine; so as long as she could pick up someone else's notes and catch up there was no reason for her to apologize to me. But Virginia was concerned and came to see me in my office.

It turned out that Virginia's child had the measles, and in the course of the conversation, I discovered that her husband is also a full-time student. Now, I was perplexed; how did she manage to attend college full-time, her husband also and still manage to take care of a little child. On top of that they were doing this on their G. I. allotment plus a little reserve.

Virginia's explanation went something like this: "My husband takes an 8 and a 9 o'clock classes; I take a 10, 11 and your noon sociology classes. Since we live just off the campus at Union Bay Village, I generally put my child in a buggy about 9:45 and start towards the campus. My husband usually meets us about half way up the viaduct on 45th; he takes the child and I go on to school. Right after your class, I dash out to meet my husband coming back up the viaduct with the buggy and we switch again so that he can attend his afternoon classes. Simple, isn't it?"

Yes, it sounded pretty "simple." I didn't have much to say then, but when she had applied for one of the University's scholarship awards, I did not make any reservation in my recommendation. (Incidentally, Nisei who are financially having a tough grind, should investigate the University scholarship awards, which amounts to one year's tuition grant. The basis for the scholarship is character, need, and academic standards, with the emphasis on the first two — one doesn't need to be a Phi Beta to apply.)

The second student is Dorothy, who is in my class this quarter. She is 42 years old, member of the Washington Athletic Club, married and has three children. At present she is a sophomore in General Studies, although she had graduated from high school in 1924. With her children (ages 8, 10, 12) and the responsibilities of a homemaker, one wonders how she manages and why she wants to continue school after such a long lay-off. "I've always wanted to go to college, and I think the courses I've taken so far have given me a much broader perspective. Consequently, I feel I am a better mother and wife." She takes just one course each quarter until some time in the future, Dorothy hopes to be able to put in a full year and finish up.

The third one is Carol, who is a neighbor in Yesler Terrace. She also is married, and a mother of one child. As this goes to press, she is expecting "any minute" to give birth to her second child. She is not attending school this quarter, but is taking a correspondence course in all things, "The Family". Her husband is a G. I. student, majoring in B. A. Why is she continuing school at such inconvenience?

"I first started to become a nurse, but after marriage and motherhood, I decided to major in sociology. Unless I graduate, I shall feel for the rest of my life that I had left something undone. I plan to finish this correspondence course while recuperating at the hospital; that will leave me just one quarter to go. My husband and I are arranging our schedule so both of us can attend summer school and still manage the kids. Then, I will finally graduate!" And I thought I was having a tough row to hoe.

Cong. Will Have Scroll Exhibit

With aid from the Oriental Art Association, the Japanese Congressional church will have a scroll exhibition from 1 to 5 p.m. this Sunday, April 24, in the upper room of the church, 305 17th Ave. S.

George Kerr, visiting lecturer in the Far Eastern department of the University of Washington, has contributed twenty-three Japanese silk scroll paintings to the church for a special relief project to Japan. Kerr, who has lived in Japan, Formosa and China for eight years, bought the scroll paintings on his trip there two years ago.

The public is invited to attend this scroll exhibition.

Methodist Guild Will Assemble

Methodist Service Guild will hold a workshop meeting on Friday evening, April 22, in the church in preparation for the Mother's Day tea to be given for all the women of the church on Sunday, May 8.

The Women's Society of Christian Service will have a family potluck dinner on Sunday, April 24, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Yoro.
