

Jackson St. Picks Fujii Man of Year

Matsuoka Re-Elected to Presidency Of Group at Annual Gathering

Yoshito Fujii was named "Man of the Year" by the Jackson Street Community Council at its annual dinner-meeting Thursday night in the Neighborhood House. Graduated as a sociology major by the University of Washington in 1928, Fujii is very much prominent in civic affairs in this area. He is the captain of the current city-wide JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee fund drive, and a member of the University of Washington Japanese Alumni Association and the Seattle Chamber of Commerce. His other positions include membership in the Buddhist Kaikan, Jackson Street Community Council and Japanese Students Club (U.W.) boards. He is also chairman of the Seattle Japanese Hotel & Apartment Association and vice president of the Seattle Buddhist temple. The successful nearly-$10,000 campaign by the Nisei War Memorial Committee to erect a memorial in honor of Nisei war dead of World War II, was under his chairmanship.

Officers Named

All officers of the Jackson Street Community Council were re-elected at the group's annual dinner-meeting last Thursday night in Neighborhood House. James Matsuoka was re-elected president; Alexander Bishop, vice president; and George Cox, secretary-treasurer. The board of trustees will consist of Mrs. Ruth Chinn, Mrs. Joel Boutte, V. A. Velasco, Toru Sakahara, T. A. Allasina and John Castillo. The chairmen for the various standing committees are Chin Han, civic; Dr. James E. Jackson, health; Taz Tsubota, junior council; Mrs. Elizabeth Burse, recreation; and Dr.

Terrance Toda, welfare. Featured at the gathering which attracted more than 200 persons in the community, were the "International Smorgasbord" dinner and the panel on "The Shape of Things to Come" with Mayor William F. Devin as moderator.

Foreign Language Course Offered

Because of the unusual success of the French-Spanish speaking house established for the summer quarter last year by the University of Washington's Romance Languages Department, a second season is planned for this year. Any person who has sufficient knowledge of either language may live in the house, whether he is registered for summer school or not, but he must agree in advance to speak only French or Spanish while in residence. Registration will open tomorrow for either or both of the two summer terms, June 20 to July 20, and July 21 to August 19. Costs will be $85 for each.

The two directors will be Mme. Jean David and Senora Ernest B. Nelson. They will conduct community singing and concerts of French and Spanish music, direct performances of plays, give courses in applied phonetics and diction, take parties on excursions, cruises and to foreign restaurants. Weekly programs will include movies, folk dancing, games and lectures to make living in the house the easiest and most pleasurable way of gaining facility in another tongue. Full information may be had from the Secretary of the Romance Languages Department, University of Washington.

CANCER PLEAS HEEDED

Money is pouring in to the Washington Division of the American Cancer Society in its annual April fund-raising campaign, and Asa Gudjohnson, campaign queen, is helping with the counting. The campaign is being conducted for the society by the State Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Cancer Field Army. Contributions may be made by dropping them into Cancer Cans or by sending them addressed, "Cancer" in care of your local postmaster.

Race Relations Institute to Sift New FEPC Measure April 29 and 30

The new Fair Employment Practice Act enacted by the Washington Legislature last month will be the subject of the second annual Race Relations Institute to be held on the University of Washington campus April 29 and 30 under the auspices of the Civic Unity Committee and the University's Adult Education Department.

Because there are so many differences of opinion about how the new law can best be made to work, a battery of experts has been asked to speak in a town meeting type session on Saturday morning, April 30, in the auditorium of the new medical center with Bernard Reiter, Seattle attorney and former president of the Urban League, as moderator, the panel will speak on "The FEPC in Washington State". Speakers will be: John Rupp, president of the Seattle Municipal League; Charles Stokes, past president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; Willard Rowe, president of the Spokane Council on Race Relations, and Malcolm McLaren, secretary of the Washington Metal Trades Council. They will summarize the status of the Washington law, in addition to covering labor and community attitudes toward it. For this session Mayor William Devin will be chairman. All Seattle employers and labor union heads have been invited to this session and to take part in the audience discussion which will follow the talks. The entire Institute is open without charge to interested persons.

For the opening session Friday evening, Dr. Dan W. Dodson, executive director of New York City Mayor's Committee on Unity from 1944-49, will come here to give the main address. Dr. Erna Gunther, chairman of the faculty committee which planned the Institute, will be chairman. Dr. Dodson, who at present is in charge of training groups of people in human relations for New York University, will speak on "FEPC Legislation in Action". He will tell how the bill similar to Washington's new one has been made to work in New York. Drawing on exceptionally broad experience in the field of race relations, Dr. Dodson will also answer audience questions. His talk is scheduled for Guggenheim Hall at 8 p.m., Friday, April 29. Full information about the Institute may be had from the Civic Unity Committee, Minor 2727.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Seattle Nisei Veterans Committee wishes to acknowledge donations from the following: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Toyosuke Onodera, Mr. and Mrs. Naonobu Mizukami, Mrs. Suyeko Inamoto and Mr. and Mrs. Seiichi Hara.

Judd Asks Rider On ENI Bill

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 23—The Senate late last week passed a bill extending the time within which claims may be filed for the return of property vested by the United States government on or after December 18, 1941, the Washington Office of the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee was advised today. Designated S. 729, the bill amends the Trading with the Enemy Act in cases where persons have claims to recover their own property which has been vested by the Office of Alien Property. The time for filing claims, under the bill, is extended from April 30, 1949 to April 30, 1950.

The legislation is now before the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce. S. 729 is not to be confused with S. 1017, the JACL ADC sponsored bill which would permit internees to file claims for the return of their debt claims and would extend the period for filing claims to all for the return of such items as yet deposited in the Yokohama and Sumitomo banks. Introduced by Senator Warren G. Magnuson, Democrat, Washington, last month, this bill is now pending in the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Masaoka to Talk On Civil Rights

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 23—Mike Masaoka, national JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee legislative director, will be the principal speaker on civil rights at the 56th annual meeting of the Minnesota Welfare Conference, May 2 to 5. He also is listed as consultant for a forum on "Civil Rights Practices in Minnesota" which will be held May 2.

The meeting will be in Hotel Nicolet, Minneapolis. While in the Minneapolis-St. Paul area, Masaoka will speak to the Twin Cities JACL chapter, according to Tomo Kosobayashi, chapter president.

Masaoka, Kasabayashi added, also will be a special guest at a dinner sponsored by Mayor Edward K. Delaney, St. Paul, and the St. Paul Council on Human Relations. After the dinner, the national JACL-ADC director will discuss "The 81st Congress and the National Scene" at a meeting sponsored by the St. Paul Council on Human Relations in the YWCA.

Gov. Luther W. Youngdahl, Minnesota, and Mayor Delaney also will speak. During his visit, Masaoka is expected to participate in a panel discussion on "The Challenge of Human Rights" over Station KSTP. The program is sponsored by the Governor's Interracial Commission. Other panel members will be Edward L. Rogers, county attorney of Cass county; Clifford E. Rucker, informational representative, and Father Francis J. Gilligan, chairman of the Governor's Interracial Commission.

Extend Deadline

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 23—Cong. Walter H. Judd (R. Minn.), author of HR 199, the bill for equality in naturalization and immigration, said today he hoped the Senate would amend the bill to permit wives, husbands and unmarried minor children of American citizens from all nations to enter the United States quota free.

At the same time he supported another contested section of the bill which would restrict immigrants from colonies to 100 per colony, rather than unrestricted participation in a mother country quota.

As passed by the House, the bill provides that the immediate family members may enter the United States quota free only if immigrating from a country with an annual quota of 200 or more.

This would affect all Oriental nations, which would be given quotas under 200 in the Judd bill, and would remove Chinese wives, and wives, husbands and unmarried minor children from the quota-free immigration privilege they now enjoy in the Philippines, and some 40 other nations, including Australia and New Zealand.

The bill would not affect the quota-free immigration status of wives, husbands and unmarried minor children of virtually all European nations.

Dorothy Kodama, food chairman, who will be assisted by Amy Yamada, reports that the bill of fare will consist of maki-zushi, barazushi, chicken noodles, rice curry, ohagi, hot dogs, pies, caramelized apples, popcorn balls and ice cream. The Congregational and the Buddhist women will help the students' mothers in the culinary department, Miss Kodama adds.

SUPPORT THE ANTI-DISCRIMINATION COMMITTEE!

The Evacuation Claims Bill was successfully passed by Congress last year and recently the Judd Bill for Equality in Naturalization and Immigration passed the House unanimously. Locally the Fair Employment Act against job discrimination became law in the State of Washington in the last session of the Legislature.

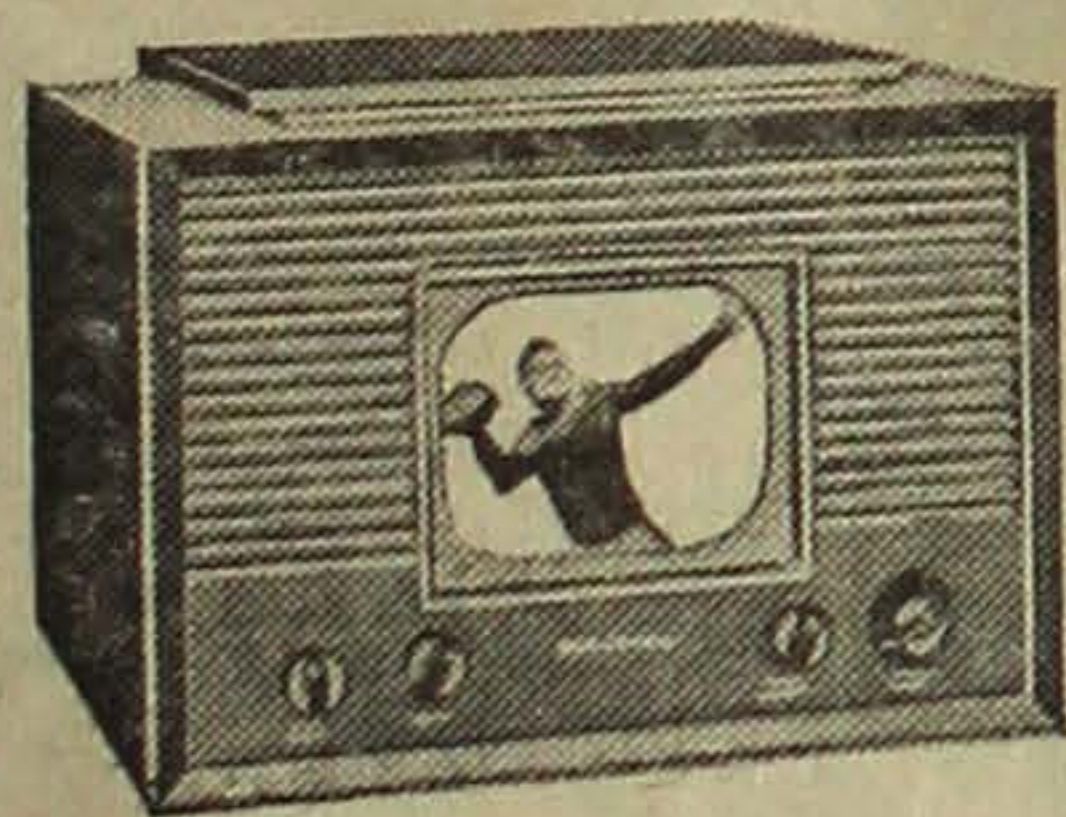

But much work remains to be done in processing the Claims which are being filed for evacuation losses. Also the Judd Bill must be pushed through the Senate and signed by the President.

The Anti-Discrimination Committee and its staff are working hard on these activities. Communities other than Seattle have given outstanding support to this program.

The local committee is planning a financial campaign in Seattle between April 20 and April 27, 1949. Our goal is $5,000.00.

News Briefs from Methodist Church

Mrs. George Yamamoto opened her home to a group of junior high school girls who colored eggs for the junior choir party held last Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Mich Shimomura.

The choir party was preceded by a practice session of the numbers the group sang at the Easter Morning worship service.

Part of the proceeds from the skating party held on April 14 will be donated to the church building fund.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship dyed eggs for the children's party and had its own party with Julia Hikida serving as chairman. Assisting her were Carl Nagai, refreshments, and Tomi Yoshioka, games.

The traditional Easter egg hunt and party was held for the nursery, kindergarten and primary students on Saturday, April 16.

Teachers in charge of the party were Mrs. Art Howell, Marian Uno-sawa and John Ikeda.

Ushers from the Japanese Methodist Church at the sunrise service on Sunday, April 17, at Volunteer Park were George Yamamoto, Sox Okamoto, Calvin Machida, Ray Hikida, Art Yoshioka, Ted Yasuda and Shig Tada.

Twenty young people attended the Easter breakfast and program in the church after the services. Sunday School pupils and parents saw colored slides depicting the first Easter and sang Easter hymns.

Unusual Eviction

LOS ANGELES, Calif., (Sound-photo) — Mrs. Elsie Phillips, 65, shown as she sits on porch of small home she once owned. She lost residence through legal action that started over failure to pay $8.90 radio repair bill in 1940. A. M. Pearson, head of a radio company, acquired deed to the property through a Superior Court action, that started over the unpaid radio repair bill. The small house is valued at $4,000.

JAPAN PLANS TUNEFUL EXPORTS — Plans for the export of 20,000 roller canary birds to the United States within the year are under way in Tokyo following immediate success of first shipments of the birds — by air cargo, of course. American importers indicated up to 1,000,000 a year of the canaries could be marketed in the U. S.

JAPAN PRODUCTS AID AMERICAN HOT STUFF — Six Japanese firms making thermos bottles have now reached production schedules of 60,000 bottles a month — but export orders already total 110,000 a month. Most of the bottles are scheduled for India, with some joining other products sent to the United States by Northwest Airlines fast air cargo.

"PARALYSIS"
By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

ON MARCH 14, at the direction of one man, our nation's coal production was choked off. More than 400,000 coal miners were asked to leave their jobs for two weeks to be followed by 67,000 railway employees whose jobs depended upon transporting coal.

The cause for this paralysis to a large section of our economy was not any grievance about working conditions, pay, pensions, or vacations. It appears, however, to result from personal dislike of one man for another. In response to president's appointment of Dr. James Boyd as director of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, John L. Lewis ordered his United Mine Workers on a two-weeks layoff.

Excessive Power?
WITHIN his field, John L. Lewis possesses the nearest approach to dictatorial powers of anyone to appear on the American scene. He has defied presidents and congresses, crippled production in the face of economic crises, and flouted the war effort by strikes in wartime. By directly controlling the output of a basic industry, he holds power to strangle our entire economy with a prolonged strike.

With this "spite" strike Lewis has encroached upon two basic fundamentals of our democratic progress: (1) The right of government to make appointments free from pressure, and (2) Freedom to work. This action presents a real danger signal to the American public. It shows what can happen when irresponsible leadership of a great body of influence — American labor — goes on a rampage. The implications are alarming. If any one individual were powerful enough to dictate governmental appointments with threats of strikes, a new era of demagogues would indeed be at hand. Such power would be potentially disastrous.

Protect Workers
THE WEAPON of indiscriminate strikes is one which labor leaders alone control. Neither government nor management possess such a power. The rank and file of labor, too because of their organization, are subject to the orders of those leaders. Many labor leaders recognize this situation and act in a far-sighted manner. However, the selfish actions of any one leader casts unfavorable reflections on the whole movement.

No more loyal group of American citizens exist than the miners themselves. It is sad irony these people should suffer the brunt of the strike. According to the Associated Press, they will lose about $68 million in wages during the two weeks layoff. This means $68 million in food, clothing, and other essentials must be forfeited to the whims of one leader who was elected by workers to safeguard their interests.

This points up sharply the need for adequate labor legislation. Without violating the rights of labor, we must draw clearly the line where those rights end and national responsibility begins. The average worker has everything to gain in such legislation. Labor must be accorded complete protection from irresponsibility — found within its own leadership, or elsewhere.

THE Sporting Thing by bf

It Can't Be as Bad as All That

So you think the situation in China is bad. Well, it is.

But you also think that prospects of Nisei baseball teams finishing respectably in the local semi-pro circuits, are dim. Well, it ain't (pardon, isn't) so.

Sure, the Nisei Vets absorbed a 10-1 shellacking from Gibson's Carpet Cleaners in the City league.

And, sure enough, the Western Giants boot'd to bow 13-12 to Sand Point in the Puget Sound loop.

But our operators, perhaps with rose-colored glasses, relayed to us the report that the two Nisei nines did better than what the scores actually seemed to indicate.

The Vets' pitching staff has not warmed up to its task and their batting muscles are far below form. But keep your eye on them; they'll surely spring some surprises before the curtain drops on the City league scene.

The Giants are youthful but inexperienced. We wouldn't say that they'll win very many contests this year, but we would say that they'll be hard to push around after a few campaigns under their belts.

Life — baseball life, too — is short so encourage our boys to do their best. After all, they are serving unofficially as our community's ambassadors of good will.

Salute the Seattle Nisei Bowling Champions!

The last of the tenpins has fallen in the Nisei bowling leagues in Main Bowl.

Pre-season favorite Over the Top Beverage pulled out in front in the last month of play to snare the Nisei Commercial league diadem. The robust manner in which Jack Nitta and Biff Ihashi finished during the final push, was a distinctive contribution to the beverage triumph. Of course, the other powerhouses — Bill Tanaka, Tommy Namba and Tak Shibuya — definitely were the men who packed the wallop to keep the squad in the upper bracket. Main Drug, another well-packed, dynamited team, slipped up somewhere in the long campaign, and Northwest Times, in third spot, had the misfortune of running smack into a nine-game losing streak to fall by the wayside.

Seventh Ave. Service, rallying around Toki Mizuki, kayoed Tad's Gardening in the playoff to ride in with the City Merchants flag. Mizuki's boys didn't start the season with the best foot forward, but their furious home stretch spurt earned them the honors. Tad's Gardening, Jackson Grocery and Hattori Realty bogged down on the final night.

China Import & Export wasn't supposed to take the SNGBO (Seattle Nisei Girls' Bowling Organization) championship. But its girls, anchored by Jean Numoto, the best girl bowler since Kazzie Yakoyama of pre-war fame, literally trampled over the other squads to snatch the pennant by a mile-wide margin.

Sideline Topics

The new boathouse near Mount Baker beach on Lake Washington shore is rapidly taking shape — and in time for the swimming and boating season, we hope. . . . Ed Tsutakawa of Spokane says golf is taking a firmer hold on the Nisei in his town than ever before; if that be the case, Spokane should send stiff competitors to the Pacific Northwest meet scheduled this year in Portland. . . . the dinner K. K. Kawaguchi, the expert fisherman, gave his Cosmo Classic bowling championship Standard Hotel was the finest we've enjoyed in quite a long time. . . . elongated Tak Hiyama and sharp-shooting Johnny Okamoto were the ex-Seattlites who led the Chicago Huskies to their third successive title in the recent Windy City cage tourney; incidentally, Hiyama averaged 19.6 points for three games. . . . the first column on fishing for our community's rabid Izaak Waltons, is due any week in this newspaper.

NIGHT'S HIGH

Singles — Pruney Tsuji, Shanty Inn, 275.
Series — Fred Takagi, International Realty, 610.

At Seattle Rec. it was big, husky Pete Gattani of Cook's U-Drive who was smashing down the wood Tuesday night. Gattani, the major leaguer with the sweeping ball, rolled an 801 series, the highest ever hit in local bowling history.

At Main Bowl the same night, it was Pruney Tsuji of Shanty Inn who raised a minor quake to clobber the '48-'49 season of the Nisei Commercial league. Tsuji's 275 game helped his teammates post a season high team game of 1075 and also salvaged a single victory in their three-game series against 12th Ave. Service. Tak Asaba, who has a delightful habit of becoming exceedingly hot occasionally for Shig Urakawa's Shanty Inn, assisted with a 586 series which included a final 205 game.

Even in defeat, Shanty Inn's scores took the spotlight away from all other good efforts — Fred Takagi (610), Art Segimoto (596), George Kimura (596), Shoichi Suyama (581), Tommy Namba (579), and Bill Tanaka (570).

The results follow:

Judd Seeks Amendment to ENI Bill; Asks Same Rights for All Nations

tee, Rep. Judd said: "Questions have been raised about provisions in this bill which permit alien wives, unmarried minor children and husbands of American citizens to be admitted on a non-quota basis from only those countries which have an annual quota of more than 200.

"...the Committee in charge placed the provision in the bill before it would report it favorably, which it did on June 3, 1948.

"To remove racial discrimination, the Committee devised (this) formula which is based not on race but on the size of the country's immigration quota. It brings many peoples such as Siamese, Burmese, Malaysians, Koreans, Japanese and Polynesians who are now wholly excluded, to the level of racial equality by making them eligible for immigration, and brings the Filipinos and Chinese to the same level of equality by removing the special privilege previously granted them.

"As soon as the bill passed the House, I arranged to testify before the Senate Committee on the Judiciary as soon as it takes up the bill, and state again as I had in the House debate that I hoped to get the Senate to accept the bill as originally introduced (without the so-called wives and children provision) rather than as passed by the House of Representatives.

"If that should prove not possible in this session, I am sure that representations from (the countries affected) will be so great that the bill will soon be amended to permit not only alien wives but unmarried minor children and husbands of American citizens to come in from all countries on a non-quota basis."

Discussing the colonial provision, Rep. Judd said: "Heretofore, all persons born in and of races indigenous to colonies or dependent areas in the so-called Barred Zone, (the far east) have been completely excluded from immigration to the United States. Caucasian, Negroes and American Indians born in colonies outside the Barred Zone have had practically unlimited immigration privileges because they could use the quotas of the mother countries which usually were not filled.

"(The Judiciary) Committee ... felt it should put all colonies on a basis of equality, giving each the minimum quota of 100, which is the regular practice.

"The provision will remove certain special privileges the Caucasian, Negro or American Indian natives of the colonies outside the Barred Zone have enjoyed ... if some colonies are to be on one basis, the Committee felt the only way to get equality is to have all colonies on the same basis. Its objective was to get equality.

"As a matter of fact, the colonies in the western hemisphere would still have a much more favorable position than others... Each of these colonies, whether officially it is ruled there are 13 or 28, will have the minimum quota of 100 a year. In contrast, all of the Dutch East Indies, for example, will have only 100 a year."

• Attractive Salad Mold

Molded salads have a crisp, cool look that makes you eager to taste. And when you make the mold with flavorful cream cheese and salad dressing, fruit nectar, crushed pineapple and celery, you have a salad supreme in flavor, color and good eating.

Serve with dainty bread and butter sandwiches and a beverage.

Apricot Ring Mold

2 tablespoons gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
2 cups apricot nectar
Dash of salt
3 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup crushed pineapple
1/2 cup salad dressing

2 3-ounce packages cream cheese
1 cup chopped celery
1/2 cup chopped pecans
2 teaspoons gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
Apricot halves
Pineapple Slice halves

Soften the 2 tablespoons of gelatin in the 1/2 cup cold water. Dissolve over hot water, and add to the apricot nectar blended with the salt and lemon juice. Chill. When the aspic begins to thicken add the crushed pineapple. Pour half of this mixture into an 8 1/2-inch ring mold which has been brushed with salad oil. Chill until firm.

Blend the salad dressing into the cream cheese. Add celery and pecans. Soften 2 teaspoons of gelatin in the 1/4 cup water. Dissolve over hot water and add to the cheese mixture. Spread this mixture over the firm apricot aspic. Chill.

Pour the remaining apricot aspic over the cream cheese layer and chill again.

When firm, unmold on crisp lettuce. Fill the center with small lettuce leaves and salad dressing. Surround the mold with the apricot and pineapple halves.
