

Jackson Council Notes 3rd Year

Mrs. Manca, Executive Secretary, Cites Group's Accomplishments

The activities and accomplishments of the Jackson Street Community Council, a Red Feather agency of the Community Chest, during the third year of its existence which ended last Thursday evening at the annual meeting were outlined by Mrs. Ruth Manca, executive secretary.

Reading from a report prepared a year ago in which a forecast of objectives for the '48-'49 year had been made, Mrs. Manca reported to the neighborhood on progress to date. These included the establishment of a service to assist aliens in filling out first papers for naturalization which has already served over 30 prospective citizens; a total of 3,378 Chest X-Rays given to residents of the neighborhood in two campaigns; sponsorship of both softball and a basketball tournament for teams and individuals who would not otherwise have a chance to play; assistance, with other groups, in securing passage of the State law on fair employment practices; and the organizing of a Welfare committee which will work on matters affecting children and family life.

Little progress has been made as yet toward improving housing conditions in the area, according to Mrs. Manca, but the Council is still interested in the problem and will continue to work on it. Likewise, no alternative solution has been found to replace the proposed viaduct over Jackson Street at 8th Avenue, but efforts in that direction are also being continued.

"Many people have asked us when the new street lights will be installed and what about traffic lights on Jackson Street," Mrs. Manca said. "We have been assured by both the Traffic Engineer and through the newspapers that signals at Sixth avenue and at Maynard avenue will be installed during 1949. The street light project, covering the area from Fifth to Eighth and from Main to Dearborn, has been approved by the City Council and the Mayor, and the contract should be let about the middle of May or the first of June. Completion of the installation is scheduled for late summer or early fall."

Future goals for the Council were well stated by panel members who discussed a long-term plan for the neighborhood in a panel on "The Shape of Things to Come." The Board of Trustees expects to use the suggestions offered in the near future to draw up a tentative program for the coming year, as well as to outline longer term objectives.

Japanese P. W. Gives $200

Alice Franklin Bryant, who was held prisoner in a Japanese internment camp for two years during World War II in the Philippines, was one of the first contributors to Floyd Schmo's "House for Hiroshima" project, it was announced today by Schmo.

Mrs. Bryant, who described her plight in her book, "The Sun Was Darkened," is an active member of the local unit of the UNESCO. She contributed an article on the work of UNESCO in the last New Year's edition of the Northwest Times.

Mrs. Bryant's contribution to the "House for Hiroshima" plan was $200. Schmo's goal is $4,000.

Schmo will leave for Japan on the General Meigs of the American President Lines on June 24 from San Francisco. He will spend the summer in Hiroshima working on the "House for Hiroshima" which will be a typical Japanese style home and which will be given to a family to be selected by an impartial committee set up by Mayor Shinzo Hamai of Hiroshima City.

Headed by Schmo, other members of the coast-wise committee to build this home in Hiroshima are Robert Dann, professor of sociology at Oregon State College; Vern James, professor of mathematics at San Jose State; Margaret Simkin, retired missionary in Los Angeles; Ed Sanders, editor of Pacific Coast Bulletin, a Quaker publication in Pasadena, Calif.; and Elita Vogel, American Friends Service Committee worker. Treasurer is Benjamin Darling of 11724 Exeter N. E., Seattle 55. Darling also is clerk of Pacific Yearly Meeting.

Schmo Plans 'House for Hiroshima' In Protest against Use of A-Bomb

(Editor's note: Following is the open letter which Floyd Schmo, former professor in forestry and biology at the University of Washington, wrote to raise $3,000 which this summer will be used to build a home to a family which lost its home in the atom-bombing of Hiroshima on Aug. 6, 1945. The construction of the house, according to Schmo who is a prominent member of the American Friends Service Committee, is in symbolic protest against mass destruction of life and property by the atom bomb.)

When news came of the Hiroshima bomb I felt a shock to my sense of morality which I have still not outgrown. I could see in my imagination something of the mass destruction of lives and property and feel something of the terror, the hurt, and the resentment which the survivors must feel. Later I walked through the dust and rubble that was Hiroshima and talked with survivors. I saw naked orphans stealing food and living in the streets. I saw hundreds of families living on the bare ground with only a few pieces of rusty roofing as shelter. . . . this after three years. And I talked with a teacher of the Hiroshima Girls School — one of three teachers who survived. They saw 350 of their students die. I will never forget the experience.

I wanted to do something to ease the hurt — something that would also ease my sense of guilt and shame. I was building a house for myself at the time and I thought that I would like to build a house in Hiroshima. . . . a house for Hiroshima. It would replace one of the thousands burned by the bomb and be a token of my regret for what happened to millions of people in Japan and Europe, most of whom were no more responsible for the war than I was. So the idea of a "House for Hiroshima" was born. With the easing of the food shortage, shelter becomes Japan's greatest need. Millions are still homeless. I could not by myself finance a trip to Japan and the cost of a house so I planned to ask others, who might feel the same way, to help. I took this concern first to Pacific Yearly Meeting of Friends and had their approval of it. We then took the matter to Japanese Friends and got the official blessing of Japan Yearly Meeting. The plan now is to go to Hiroshima this summer and build the house. The group will be of several races and religions but of like purpose. We will join with students of Japan in this international, interfaith, gesture of understanding and goodwill. The house will be given with no strings attached to one of the families that lost a house (with members of the household) in the blast of August 6, 1945.

But the house will be only the visible expression of our mission. It is to be a house to live in because it is at that level — the level of the individual hearthside, that the deepest suffering and loss came; but it will also be a house for Hiroshima — a house for Japan. It will be our job to live with, and work with, the people of the community for a summer and to show them if possible by our living that we, and the other Americans whom we represent, do regret this violation of brotherhood which resulted so disastrously.

Japanese Back Hiroshima Plan

Following are excerpts from letters, expressing approval from Japan in regard to Floyd Schmo's "House for Hiroshima" project this summer:

Tsunel Kusunose, governor, Hiroshima prefecture, and Shinzo Hamai, mayor, Hiroshima city — "May we express our deepest appreciation, on behalf of everyone concerned, for your most humanitarian consideration. . . . We are looking forward to your coming with open arms. . . . In order that your social work plans may be realized to the best advantage, we shall make all arrangements required on our side and shall keep you posted as to developments. We will appreciate, and give immediate and enthusiastic response to any instructions from you."

Madam Tomiko Khoru, House of Councillors, the Diet — "I was deputy mayor of Kure, near Hiroshima, and even now have close contacts in Hiroshima for it is one of my strongest constituencies. I know how eager the leaders are to contribute whatever they have left, like houses, land, or personnel, for the course of promoting peace and real friendship. Please let me know what are your projects and what kind of assistance you can accept. As a member of the Upper House (of the Japanese Diet), I shall be glad to make every possible service to prepare for your coming."

The Rev. Kiyoshi Taninmoto, hero of John Hersey's book, "Hiroshima" — "In Hiroshima, many of my members are eager to cooperate with you. I want especially to recommend. . . . In regard to your project, I would like to express my hearty thanks. . . . I am sure that my people will give you any kind of service on their side."

Tetsuo Kano, principal, Hiroshima Girls' School (where 350 girls died under the bomb) — "I never forget your good will. You will please write me if anything I can help."

Hallam Shorrock, secretary, youth section, Japan Council of Christian Education — "Having been in Hiroshima myself and talked with many of the people, climbed over the ruins and tried to imagine the horror of August 6th, I know that such a project will mean more than words can express to the people there."

150 VETERANS OK MARCH ON MAY 30 HERE

By HIDEO HOSHIDE
Associate Editor

More than 150 Nisei veterans gave sweeping support to the Nisei Veterans Committee's plan to participate in this year's city Memorial Day parade (May 30) at an inaugural dinner of the NVC held last Friday in the Seattle Buddhist auditorium.

Memorial Day will be an eventful one for the Japanese community this year. For, on that day the stately granite monument, made possible by contributions from the community and dedicated to the 55 Nisei war dead of Seattle and vicinity, will be unveiled at Lake View Cemetery as part of the annual community Memorial Day services.

To Nisei veterans, the day will have three-fold meaning. First, it will be a day to again pay tribute to those war buddies who did not come back. Secondly, participation in the parade by the Nisei veterans will be a fitting occasion in the dedication of this monument and the showing of appreciation to the Japanese community. Lastly, by marching side-by-side with the various other veterans' organizations of Seattle in the parade, the public will be reminded, once again, that the Nisei also served in the recent war and that the dedication of a new monument for the Nisei war dead from the community will take place following the parade.

The unanimous support of the parade plan suggested by Richard Setsuda and his newly-elected NVC cabinet was voiced in a vote taken on the matter by those present at the dinner.

The vote was significant in that each individual was asked to consider very carefully whether he is willing to participate and to vote "no" unless he was actually going to march in the parade.

Shiro Kashino and Elmer Ogawa, co-chairmen of the parade committee, today announced that all Nisei veterans in this vicinity will be contacted and given full particulars from time to time on the parade and the dedication ceremonies.

Bazaar, Dance Slated Sunday

Two social events of area-wide interest are booked for this Sunday, May 1, in Seattle.

The annual Japanese Students club's benefit bazaar will be held at Washington hall, 14th Ave. and Fir, between 12 noon and 8 p.m. The usual food, games and fun will mark this affair. Food will be served from 12 noon to 7 p.m.

The second event, Lotus Shoyukai's "Old-Timers" dance, will be in the Seattle Buddhist auditorium. Dancing hours will be from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight, and musicians will be Frankie Roth and his orchestra.

Attention, World War II veterans! There's an opening for you now in the Army's enlisted reserve!

If you are honorably discharged from any branch of the armed forces, you can join the Army reserve. New units are being formed now, and promotions are wide open.

A final report meeting of the local ADC (Anti-Discrimination Committee) fund drive will be held at 7:30 p.m. (tonight, Wednesday, April 27) in the Seattle Buddhist temple.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Nisei War Memorial Committee wishes to acknowledge a twenty-five dollar donation from Mr. Fuji-taro Kubota and his family in memory of Mrs. K. Kubota.

First To Play All Records Automatically

Jackie Van, recording songstress with Al Trace's orchestra, finds it hard to believe that this new Admiral table model radio-phonograph will automatically play with one tone arm all six of the types and sizes of phonograph records she is holding. Called the "Triple-Play", the new changer is the first in the industry capable of automatically playing every disc, both the new long-playing and the old standard, at all the turntable speeds—78, 45 and 33 1/3 rpm—allowing up to four hours of uninterrupted recorded music from Beethoven to boogie-woogie, and even the old Caruso and John McCormack recordings of yesteryear. The new record changer is expected to bring standardization to the phonograph industry and eliminate the confusion existing today.

This project has the interest and the blessing of a large number of concerned individuals and organizations both here and in Japan. We want it to represent all who feel as we do. In Japan we expect to work with civil authorities. Buddhists, Catholics and Protestants. It is our plan to sail for Japan in late June and to return in the Autumn. We will take food from America for the entire party. We will buy materials for building in Japan. We will build a Japanese style house. An impartial committee set up by the Mayor of Hiroshima will select the family for whom it will be built. We would like for you to help us with this work. Send any amount, large or small. We will keep you informed of progress.

Cordially yours,

• VETS BOW TO ITALIANS
The Nisei Vets dropped their second straight decision in as many starts in the City Baseball League last Sunday, taking it on the chin at the hands of the Italian Club 6-2.

Edo Sasaki, who pitched seven innings for the Vets, spaced five hits fairly effectively except for a three-run outburst in the second inning, which iced the game for the Italians as things turned out.

The Vets' next game will be against the Elks at Rainier, the contest starting at 2 p.m. After having played two of the strongest teams in the league, maybe the Vets will be able to annex their first victory of the season in this encounter.

• NVC INAUGURAL
Around 150 Nisei veterans gathered at the Buddhist Church last Friday evening for the NVC Inaugural Dinner, to enjoy a chinamishi "on the house".

Prior to the meal, newly-elected officers of the NVC were introduced to the assemblage, with short addresses of appreciation being given by Chairman Richard H. Settsuda and Vice-Chairman Elmer Ogawa.

A vote was taken on the question of whether the NVC should sponsor a parade of Nisei veterans on Memorial Day. Following extended discussion, a motion to hold a parade was carried overwhelmingly.

• HERE AND THERE
NVC officers didn't expect the rush for membership cards which developed at the dinner. Before the evening was over, 80 members paid their $3.00 dues and obtained their cards. The dinner afforded many veterans a fine opportunity to talk over old times and to meet other vets whom they hadn't seen for quite some time — in some cases, not since Army days. . . . Newlywed Hiroshi (Shadow) Nakashima, who was married last Sunday evening, is spending his honeymoon in California. . . . Dave Hirahara expects to be driving a new Chevrolet very shortly. . . . Why don't they? Televising a bowling match sometime? A hot match between "Major Leaguers", such as the recent one between the Seattle and Tacoma All-Stars, would be really something to watch over television. This would be one way to get around the limited seating facilities at bowling emporiums, and probably would help make the game even better known and popular than it now is. . . . Kenny (Bongo) Oyama weds Miss Mieko Hirano next Sunday, May 1st. . . . And that's about all for this time.

Red Cross Offers Nursing Courses

Both mother and baby care, and care of the sick will be offered in the May series of Red Cross nursing courses, which start at Red Cross headquarters Monday, May 9, according to Mrs. S. H. Tashian, volunteer home nursing chairman for the Seattle-King County Red Cross chapter.

Designed especially for homemakers and potential homemakers and taught by graduate nurses, the streamlined home nursing courses are complete in six-two hour sessions, and are offered as a community service by Red Cross chapter. Medically approved, basic nursing techniques as well as methods of improvising home nursing aids from inexpensive materials found in every home, are covered in the care of the sick course, and the care and feeding of the baby from birth through infancy is taught in the mother and baby care course.

Classes in both courses will meet at Red Cross headquarters, 905 Second Avenue Building, Mondays.

Italians Defeat Nisei Vets, 6-2

Joe Kesamaru's Nisei Veterans suffered their 2nd loss in as many starts in the City league by bowing to Italian Club, 6 to 2, last Sunday at Rainier field. Although the Nisei outfit outthit their opponents, 7-6 hits, the Italians scored early in the game to coast through the rest of the encounter.

Vets tied the game in the second inning, 1-1, when Yamaguchi tallied on Sasaki's infield hit. However, the Italian club came back in its half of the second by pushing over three runs, taking advantage of a couple of walks, an error and a sharp single into left field.

The second Nisei tally came in the eighth. Hori opened the inning with a single. Saito followed with a walk. After Yamaguchi had singled, Shinoda drove a hard-hit ball into center to drive in Hori.

In spite of the fact that the wet infield slowed up the game, only four errors were chalked up during the game — three by the Nisei Vets and one by the Italians.

Kesamaru announced that the addition of two more teams in the semipro league — Bellingham and Sedro Woolley — will mean that the Vets will be "on the road" quite a bit this season.

Next Sunday, the Nisei outfit will meet Seattle Elks from 2 p.m. at Rainier.

SUPPORT THE ANTI-DISCRIMINATION COMMITTEE!

The Evacuation Claims Bill was successfully passed by Congress last year and recently the Judd Bill for Equality in Naturalization and Immigration passed the House unanimously. Locally the Fair Employment Act against job discrimination became law in the State of Washington in the last session of the Legislature.

But much work remains to be done in processing the Claims which are being filed for evacuation losses. Also the Judd Bill must be pushed through the Senate and signed by the President.

The Anti-Discrimination Committee and its staff are working hard on these activities. Communities other than Seattle have given outstanding support to this program.

The local committee is planning a financial campaign in Seattle between April 20 and April 27, 1949. Our goal is $5,000.00.

PLEASE SUPPORT THIS DRIVE.

Monarchs, Lotus Win Openers

The fire which Washington Wood & Coal carried into its Northwest Times Baseball league opener last Sunday at Garfield, was extinguished in quick order by the Monarchs. The Monarchs, aided by Matsuoka, Kitano and Murakami's base hits, triumphed over the wood-coal men easily, 14 to 4.

In the only other N. W. Times league contest in Seattle, Lotus nosed out the Vets, 11 to 19, in eight innings at Georgetown. Leading batsmen were J. Nakamura and T. Watanabe for the winners and R. Michihira and Mikami for the losers. Robert Sameshima was credited with the victory, and Ted Nakanishi was charged with the defeat.

The Social Whirl

● WEDDING BELLS ... At an evening candle-light service in the Japanese Baptist Church, Miss Tak Yokoyama, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Yokoyama, was married to Mr. Hiroshi Nakashima, son of Mr. and Mrs. U. Nakashima, on Sunday, April 24. Standards, pale pink snapdragons and white stock decorated the church and the pew flowers were pink snapdragons and white stock. The Rev. Emery E. Andrews officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gown in white slipper satin with a sweetheart neckline filled in with nylon marquisette etched in seed pearls. Her tightly-fitted bodice extended into a gathered skirt with a medium train, and her fingertip length veil was held by a coronet of braided slipper satin scattered with seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was of green spray orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Kay Yokoyama, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and the Misses Minnie Nakashima, sister of the groom, and Pat Hidaka were the bridesmaids. They all wore identical gowns of pale green shantung with a boat neckline and cap sleeves, tightly-fitted bodice with a wide sash and a very full skirt. Their bouquets were of green spray orchids and stephanotis.

Best man was Mr. George Yano and the ushers were the Messrs. Hark Obata and Junior Tsukumo. Mr. Ira Jones rendered two solos, "I Love Thee Dear" and "Because", at the beginning of the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as the amen to the prayer. He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Mutsu Homma.

The reception was held immediately after the ceremony in the church hall. Mrs. Heat Heyamoto and Miss Katherine Matsuda were in charge of the cake cutting and Mrs. Mike Matsudaira and Mrs. Takeo Yagi, the pouring. Miss Yoko Horita handled the guest book.

For going away, the bride wore a dark green gabardine double breasted suit with grey and green accessories and a corsage of green spray orchids.

● ENGAGEMENT TOLD ... ANN ARBOR, Mich., April 27 — Of interest to Seattleites is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Jeanie K. Kanno, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. Kanno of Ann Arbor, to Mr. George M. Umemura, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Umemura of Salt Lake City.

The bride-elect, formerly of Seattle, is attending her senior year at Michigan State Normal College and Mr. Umemura is a member of the faculty at the University of Indiana.

No wedding date has been announced.

● BRIDAL SHOWER ... SUMNER, Wash., April 27—Mrs. George Ota was hostess last April 16 in her home at a very delightful bridal shower in honor of Miss Mary Shigoe, bride-elect of Mr. Shigoe Kousugi.

The wedding party miniatures in beautifully gowned dolls centered the festive table laden with many dainty sandwiches, salads, relishes and individual cakes iced with the initials "M. S." and "S. K." Each guest received as a favor a novel miniature colonial bouquet of gaily-colored gum drops on a lace dolly.

Those present besides the guest of honor and the hostess were the Mesdames Mike Arima, John Fujita, George Iida, Mas Kajioaka, Ray Kiyohara, Ted Matsumoto, J. Mitoma, Henry Miyoshi, Nobuo Omoto, Tom Shigoe and Morrie Yamaguchi and the Misses Doris Miyoshi, Yuki Nakamura, Betty Sato and Haruko Yaguchi.

Unable to attend but sent gifts were Mesdames Takako Hosogi, Bob Matsumoto and Dalichi Yoshioka and Miss Natsuko Yamashita.

Evacuation Claims Queries, Replies

This is the twenty-fourth of a series of questions and answers on the evacuation claims law prepared by Edward J. Ennis, JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee special counsel, and released by the Washington Office of JACL ADC as a public service. This series is based on actual questions asked of this office.

Any reader who has general questions relating to the law itself or to procedural matters is invited to address a letter to the Washington Office, JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee, 300 Fifth Street Northeast, Washington 2, D. C. Questions of general interest may be reproduced in this series without personal identification.

Anonymous letters requesting that replies be printed in the newspapers will not be answered. No questions involving the legality or value of specific claims can be answered.

1. Q. In the case of partnership or where others have some interest in the claim, can one person file for all the others? This would be important in the case of some of the parties in interest not knowing where the one with the book or the minor parties are now residing. The one filing may be in the position to file for all. If he does, he may be saving the claim for all. On the other hand, if everyone has to file his own claim, since one partner may not know what the damages are, he may not be in a position to file.

A. I think one partner might file on behalf of the partnership and sign the claim for the partnership. In this way the Government will be on notice of the various interests concerned. Later, if it proves necessary, we can get the other partners to come in and file claims for their shares. They will probably appear quickly enough if it appears that the partnership is going to be allowed a claim.

2. Q. Can a minor file for himself or will a guardian be necessary? Can the parents file as the natural guardian?

A. If the minor is old enough to understand what he is doing, I suggest that he sign it and have a parent sign it as his natural guardian. I would not take the trouble to have a legal guardian appointed for this purpose unless the Government insists upon it, and I doubt that the Government will.

3. Q. In many instances where the husband was interned, it seems to be more convenient to have the wife file since there will be no necessity of going into details of the internment from one place to another and also because the wife handled the business of disposing of the worldly belongings at the time of the evacuation. The safest way would be to file jointly, but to save time, will it be all right to have the spouse file?

A. I think it is perfectly all right to have one spouse file. If any question is raised later, during or after the hearing, we can have the other spouse sign the claim.

4. Q. Will an executor or administrator be necessary to file the claim where the husband or parents have died and the heirs desire to file the claim?

A. I believe that if an executor or administrator has not been appointed, an heir should file the claim on behalf of all the heirs. We can always have an administrator appointed later if the Government insists upon it.

5. Q. Can a son file for the mother where the mother is ill and cannot file herself?

A. In respect of the son filing for the mother, it is hard to understand how the mother could be so ill that she cannot sign her name or mark, if she is unable to write. If that is the situation, however, there is no reason why the son can not sign her name and his own, as her agent.
