Missionaries Board of the Northern Baptist Convention.

made by calling Mrs. Nakamura, evenings, at FR. 0862. The banquet will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Rev. John W. Thomas

Denver Preacher To Talk Here

The Rev. Tsutomu Fukuyama of Denver, Colo., will be a special speaker at 11 a.m. Sunday, May 22, in the Japanese Methodist church. Born on Bainbridge Island and reared in Seattle, Rev. Fukuyama finished a course on theology at the Baptist Divinity School in Berkeley, Calif.

He was a leader of the Nisei division at the W.R.A. camp in Southern Idaho. After the war, he relocated to Denver and undertook a settlement project there.

Methodist Service Guild will join the Baptist Guild club at 7 p.m. this Sunday, May 22, in the local Japanese Baptist church to hear Dr. Jitsuo Morikawa of Chicago. Dr. Morikawa will speak at the Baptist church's fiftieth anniversary celebration.

Vets Contacted For Parade

With Memorial Day just around the corner, NVC parade co-chairmen, Shiro Kashino and Elmer Ogawa, have already contacted more than 500 Nisei veterans in Seattle and vicinity to march and respond from the vets indicate that the 500 quota, which the NVC has committed, will be met.

Ogawa announced that Capt. Harold Wright of the Spanish-American War Veterans informed him that the parade will start promptly at 10 a.m. on Memorial Day, May 30, from 2nd Avenue and Virginia St. The assembly area for the Nisei veterans will be assigned late this week and the NVC will, in turn, notify the Nisei paraders by mail.

Capt. Wright urged all Nisei veterans to march in full uniform, if possible. However, the NVC is stressing the fact that it will be a far better showing if the Nisei came out in civies than to stay away due to the lack of uniforms.

Youths to Join 'Play Fair'

Children who participate in the Park Department's creative drama classes at five housing centers and at Henry Art Gallery will join with groups sponsored by the University of Washington school of drama in presenting a creative drama festival at Volunteer Park on Sunday, May 22.

Thirty-eight groups in all will be presented in the "Play Fair" which will begin at 2 p.m. and continue throughout the afternoon. Ten outdoor stages will be utilized in the demonstration.

The Park Department groups will come from Holly Park, Rainier Vista, Yesler Terrace, Duwamish Bend and Delridge housing centers and from Henry Art Gallery where classes have been training for a year.

Children in the housing project groups will be taken to the festival by chartered buses which will call at the project community centers. The parents of all children in this activity, and all other interested persons, are invited to attend the "Play Fair".

Persons in charge of preparation for this event have announced that three mechanical phonographs will be needed for the festival as no electrical outlets are available in the park for ordinary sound equipment. The phonographs are needed for music and sound effect in the dramatized stories the children will present.

Any person having such a phonograph and willing to lend it for the children's use should call the Park Department, Main 6000. Arrangements will be made for the department to pick up and return the machine.

Council Election

James Mar, Rev. P. J. Daba and Walter Rutley will serve as members of the Board of Trustees of the Jackson Street Community Council during 1949 and 50 as the result of an election held at the May meeting of the board last week. Don Chinn and Herbert Yoshida were also chosen to fill the unexpired terms of Alexander Bishop and George Cox who were elected vice-president and secretary-treasurer at the Council's recent Annual Meeting.

Daba and Rutley each served a one year term in '48-'49, and Don Chinn has been secretary-treasurer for the past 12 months. Mar and Yoshida are new members of the Board. Father John Swift, N. P. Dotson and Tad Yamaguchi are the retiring members whose places were filled by the recent elections.

Last week's action completes the roster of men and women who will be responsible for the work of this Red Feather agency during the next 12 month period. According to the Council's by-laws, six Board members are elected by the general membership at the annual meeting, with three additional selected by the Board at its next meeting, plus the filling of vacancies whenever they occur.

Mrs. Ruth Chinn, Mrs. Joel Boutte, Toru Sakahara, T. A. Allasina, John Castillo and V. A. Velasco were elected for two year terms at the annual meeting. The June meeting of the board, which will be held on June 14, will be given over to planning next year's Council program.

ans who served in the South Pacific Area will not receive Japanese Campaign Pay. The reason for not granting the additional Japanese Campaign pay to the Japanese Canadians who were on loan to the British forces in the Pacific is that they received the 12½% supplement over their regular pay in accordance with the regulations governing the pay of Canadian soldiers who served under the Southeast Asia Command.

Campaign Pay is above the regular Canadian Japanese Army Pay and was authorized for members of the Canadian Pacific Force in order to bring their pay scale into closer relation with that of the American scale of pay for personnel serving in the Pacific Area. Later, this pay was also granted to Hongkong veterans.

Fred Nogami, Canadian Nisei Veteran, who saw service in the South Pacific, and who has undertaken the work in collaboration with the JCCA to secure the Pacific Campaign Pay for the Nisei, told The New Canadian that he was entirely dissatisfied with this reply.

"As far as I know," he said, "Every other Canadian soldier who served in the Pacific got it. And those fellows in the Pacific Division who only got as far as the training bases in the United States got it. And even the British soldiers received theirs."

"Even with the 12½ supplement, it does not bring our rate of pay anywhere near the Pacific Campaign scale. It's unfair that we should not get it."

Nogami told The New Canadian that he has not planned any definite action as he has not yet contacted the other Nisei who served in the Pacific.

VOICE OF SMALL MINORITIES, INCLUDING THAT OF NISEI, PLEADS FOR FEPC MEASURE

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 18—The voice of the small minorities, Americans such as those of Japanese, Hispanic, Korean, Chinese or Indian ancestry, was heard by the House Judiciary subcommittee holding hearings on Fair Employment legislation last Thursday.

The speaker was Mike Masaoka, national JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee legislative director, whose testimony for federal FEPC laws was not only a plea by the JACL, but carried overtones of the same plea by all small minorities whose views and opinions rarely are heard in Congress.

As Masaoka told the Committee, headed by Rep. Adam Clayton

ADC Head Leaves For Islands

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 18—Mike Masaoka, national JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee legislative director, left by plane last Friday for a week's speaking tour in Hawaii.

Masaoka will discuss the current situation in Congress with respect to the Judd bill and other legislation of importance to Japanese Americans.

This will mark the first time in almost two years that Hawaiian Nisei and Issei have received a firsthand story of the activities and functions of the JACL ADC in Washington.

He is expected to return about next Monday, May 23.

Seattle to be Center of Activities During World Trade Week May 21

Saturday, May 21, World Trade Week will be celebrated all over the United States! Washington's program will be held in the seaport of Seattle.

Every port and inland empire city of Washington is expected to send its citizens to help make this year's World Trade Week even more of a success than last year's pageants. Local community organizations, newspapers and businesses are urged to take an active part in the Seattle celebration from May 21 through May 28. Local information may be secured at your chamber of commerce.

Starting with a colossal Tugboat Race on Saturday, May 21, visitors to Seattle will be entertained with a never-ending program of events. School and College stunts, exhibits of imported merchandise in store windows and The World Merchants.

Powell, (D., N. Y.), "I speak not only from the standpoint of the Japanese American Citizens League, but I am sure from the viewpoint of many tiny minority groups, Hispano Americans or Indians, or others of Asiatic ancestry, who feel as we do.

"We are for FEPC legislation. It is good legislation. It is needed legislation," he said.

Rep. Powell listened intently and nodded frequently in agreement as Masaoka explained in detail the viewpoint of the JACL towards an FEPC law, a view contained in a previously-prepared statement.

At one point during his testimony, Rep. Richard Nixon, (R., Calif.), asked Masaoka if he did not feel that "conditions in California have improved, as far as the Japanese Americans are concerned, since the war."

"Yes," he replied. "I do. Very much. But they are far from perfect. They could be much better. FEPC legislation would certainly continue to improve the situation."

Rep. Nixon nodded.

Masaoka declared that it was "no longer germane to say that FEPC might work. We know it does work. We have seen it work in states like New York, and saw it function nationally during the war."

Lauding the War Relocation Authority for its "fine job" of obtaining work for both Nisei and Issei during the war, "and housing, too", Masaoka declared flatly that this was convincing proof the government could function wisely in handling the problem of minorities in employment.

He emphasized that FEPC would benefit business by providing employers with good arguments for upgrade all employees on the basis of talent, and not having to ignore superior workers simply because they might have a dark skin or different religion from the majority of workers.

"We do not feel that FEPC would be a panacea, a cure-all," he said. "We do feel it would be a major step forward, and be a great example of a working democracy."

He said that throughout Asia, where Communists are vying for the support of a great share of the world's people, Asians are acutely aware of every action taken in the United States to "practice the precepts we preach elsewhere."

disseminate, open house on the waterfront, shipboard receptions, sight-seeing trips around the docks and harbor and a huge children's pageant at Volunteer Park are a few of the things that are scheduled for World Trade Week.

Wheat farmers, loggers, merchants, everyone benefits from World Trade. A good example of this is the American hot dog which contains ingredients from 36 different countries. Each of these 36 countries has directly or indirectly purchased something from the United States in return.

The purpose behind this year's World Trade Week celebration in Seattle is to secure more foreign trade and the resulting profits and prosperity for the State of Washington. Another primary objective of the week is to increase public understanding of U. S. foreign relationships.

Plans Education On Resources

OLYMPIA, Wash., May 18—Continuation of the plan to educate the Washington State children and adults on the important resources of their own state was assured today with the announcement by Secretary of State Earl Coe that he had undertaken the sponsorship of the State Resources Education Program.

The plan as outlined by Coe will have two phases — one, a statewide letter writing contest requiring the contestant to write to someone outside the state stressing the fine opportunities here and the unsurpassed scenic beauty of the state;
the other a state-wide oratorical contest, such as was held so successfully last year, with the subject matter dealing with the state's basic resources, their conservation and orderly development.

NVC MINUTES

Important details of the coming Memorial Day parade were discussed and decided upon at last Friday's NVC meeting, which was held at Maryknoll Mission.

Besides the announcement that Colonel James M. Hanley (formerly commander of the 2nd Battalion, 442nd Infantry) would participate in the parade, it was also announced that an official invitation had been sent to Earl Pinch, Hattiesburg, Mississippi business man and "patron saint" of the Nisei Combat Team.

After extended discussion on the question on uniforms for the parade, NVC members voted to parade in a body, regardless of the manner in which individuals might be dressed. However, it was anticipated that the majority of veterans would be able to march in proper uniform.

Gold Star parents and disabled veterans, it was understood, would ride in cars and participate in the parade.

The following officers were elected during the meeting since the officers were not filled at the recent election meeting: Dance Chairman,
Mack Shoji; Recreational Chairman,
Kai Matsushita; Basketball Chairman, George Hori; and Baseball Chairman, Roy Fujiwara. In addition, the resignation of Hiro Nishimura from the Advisory Council was accepted due to business reasons, and Kaun Onodera was elected in his place.

Nisei veterans were urged to join the Army's Organized Reserve by Captain Green, an officer in one of Seattle's active reserve units. Advantages cited included: enlistment

in the rank held at time of discharge, with chances for rapid promotion; one day's pay in grade for each meeting attended (there being two meetings per month, each for two hours); no compulsory activities; choice of branch of service;
longevity credit, whether active or not.

With the conclusion of the formal meeting, members enjoyed a showing of the 442nd Combat Team film,
"Go for Broke", and refreshments
in the form of beer and cokes.

• VETS STILL WINLESS
Still seeking their first win of the current season, the Nisei Vets baseball team engages last year's City League champions, Rainier District,
next Sunday at Rainier Playfield.
Game time is set for 2 P.M.

Rainier District, which has had about as much luck at winning games this season as the Nisei Vets, finally annexed its first win of the year by trimming Bellingham last Sunday, 8-4.

Meanwhile, it was the same old story for the Vets as they dropped a 10-6 decision to Fort Lawton, the soldiers doing most of their damage in the third and sixth innings, scoring four runs in each of those frames.

Vet starter Edo Sasaki, who was lifted in the sixth inning, was charged with the defeat, George Shimizu finishing up on the mound. The Vets actually outhit Fort Lawton, seven blows to six, but the soldiers commenced theirs more effectively, taking full advantage of crucial errors and free transportation to first base.

Ray Saito again looked good at the plate for the Vets, gathering a single and double in four trips, while Ted Matsushita got a triple. Pitcher Edo Sasaki, however, had the best average, with two doubles in two official times at bat.

STANDARD HOTEL OUTCLASSES FIVE OTHERS IN MAIN BOWL; QUALIFIES FOR P. I. TOURNEY

Standard Hotel, Cosmopolitan Classic league championship team in Main Bowl, is the twelfth team to qualify for entry in The Post-Intelligencer Champion of Champions Tournament in the area-wide bowling final which will start at 7 p.m. this Saturday, May 21, in Seattle Rec.

Besides Standard Hotel, the other squads already qualified in the P.I. playoffs are Cook's U-Drive, Manhart's, Ideal Recreation, Detloff's Florists, Kane's Cafe, Sky Room Grill, Viewland's Fuel, McPherson Realty, Soames Paper, Bellevue Hair Styling and Gene's Cafe (Kirkland).

Comprised of two Filipinos (Joe Cacho and Gene Augustine) and three Nisei (Kaz Yamasaki, Shig Urakawa and Budd Fukui), the Cosmo champions who will represent Main Bowl outclassed five other championship teams in the house roll-off Monday night in the local alley. The winners posted 2753 pins. Yamasaki, Standard Hotel's lead-off man, scattered the pins for the night's high 629 series. He was followed closely by teammate Augustine who hit 552.

Closest competitor was Over the Top Beverage, Nisei Commercial league title winner, which finished its series with a 2628 count. Tommy Namba (580) and Bill Tanaka (541) performed capably for Over the Top.

The scores of the two top teams follow:

STANDARD HOTEL (2753) — Yamasaki 629, Fukui 535, Cacho 528, Augustine 552, Urakawa 509.

Vets Bow, 10-6

Two bad innings — the third and the sixth — spelled defeat for the victory-hungry Seattle Nisei Veterans in the City league game last Sunday at Fort Lawton. The Nisei nine dropped the tilt, 10 to 6, to the soldier boys to stretch its losing streak to five.

Although outhitting the Fort Lawton stars, 7 to 6 hits, the inability of the Nisei batsmen to come through in the clutch, left the runners stranded on the bases. Four double-killings also aided in the GI victory.

The Vets' first tally came in the fourth when, with the bases loaded, Edo Sasaki worked the GI right-hander for a walk, forcing in Jimmy Yamaguchi from third.

In the fifth, Ray Saito drove a hard double into left field, followed by Ted Matsushita's triple into right center and a single by Chub Hori to add two more to the Vet total. The Vets added another in the next inning when Sasaki tallied on an infielder's bobbie.

The Nisei Vets' bid to stay in the ball game in the ninth ended after two runs were scored by Saito and Matsushita.

Leading the Nisei outfit at the plate were Edo Sasaki and Ray Saito with two hits apiece. Sasaki collected two doubles and a walk for a perfect day at the plate, while Saito hit a double and a single in four trips.

Hair beauty secrets... by Toni

The secret of beautiful hair is a simple trick of remembering to wash and condition after your shampoo. It leads a fascinating life. Softness to hair, makes it far easier to manage, and helps eliminate scalp odors. If your hair is inclined to be dry or is baby fine, you'll discover that a creme rinse will give it body and new life! A teaspoonful added to a cup of water is all that is needed. Pour it over your head—wait a half minute—then rinse.

The time of year doesn't have as much to do with your decision to acquire new slip covers, as the way your living room looks. If it looks shabby, you want gay, new slip covers. Turn home decorator, save money and have fun in the bargain by making them yourself, at your sewing machine.

Your first concern in making your own is to see that your sewing machine is in good order. If you don't own one, now is the time to take a look at the many models available at your Singer Sewing Center. You'll find that you can make everything from draperies to rugs, as well as your slip covers, with your sewing machine and its attachments.

If you have any qualms about tackling a slipcover project, try a few lessons at your local sewing center where sewing experts can show you the latest tricks and shortcuts.

If you want to change your covers with the seasons, you may select materials like the novelty rayons, cretonne, semi-glazed or unglazed chintz, poplin or percale. If you want coverings of year-round nature choose heavier type fabrics like denim, tapestry or upholsterers' sateen. Be sure that your fabric and trimmings are pre-shrunk and sun-fast.

There are commercial slipcover patterns available for different types of chairs and sofas. Do a careful, pin-fitting job with the pattern. You may want to make your own muslin pattern to help insure a glove-like fit and cut down the possibility of wasting fabric.

The better your pin-fitting job, the more successful the finished results. Cut your pattern so that the up and down lines of your material will follow the up and down lines of the piece you're covering. In placing the seams, follow the original lines of the chair or the original cover of the upholstery.
