

Looking Ahead

By GEORGE S. BENSON

"SOMETHING FOR NOTHING"

THE TROUBLE with compulsory health insurance programs lies chiefly in the fact that such fancy government plans have so little in common with our American way of life. Most all of us will agree that health is a desirable thing to have. But even an utter simpleton knows that you cannot get "health" by compulsory action. The catch is that health is politically desirable. As a goal of the government for its citizens it means "votes." Just like most any handout the government can think up.

Sure, I'm in favor of health, and I'm opposed to sickness. I want to be healthy. It's definitely a good thing. So is clothing. I'm all for the idea of having enough to wear. Such things are necessary. Another thing that comes in handy is food. Most people like to eat, and I believe, find it rather important. The American people therefore, require groceries. Like any politician, I'm definitely for all these things.

Bedrock Principle

BUT I'M definitely not for a huge bureaucratic machine that would feed, clothe, and "doctor" the American people. I would not like for these things (nor the host of other things always being suggested to Congress) to be done for me by a paternalistic, bureaucratic, federal government that always seems to be a threat for more taxes to expend so as to hire more government workers. I am not interested in having other people pay for things to be supplied to me for "free."

In all fairness, I would say that the idea of forcing me to chip in for John Doe's groceries, or clothing, or doctor bills — to be supplied to him by the government — is certainly not the kind of political policy that has made America a great and prosperous land. This thing is bedrock. It is principle.

False Security

SHOULD THE government tax people to see that everyone is supplied with food? Obviously, no. Neither should it tax to provide medical care. I am opposed to compulsory health insurance, therefore, because it has little in common with the American way of doing things.

If you are a worker, it will take money out of your paycheck that you might want for other things. If you are an employer, you will be required to match the amount taken from each worker's paycheck. (This cost you will have to pass on to the customer, thus increasing the cost of living for us all.) If you are self-employed, you'll pay the full three per cent or whatever it is raised to later.

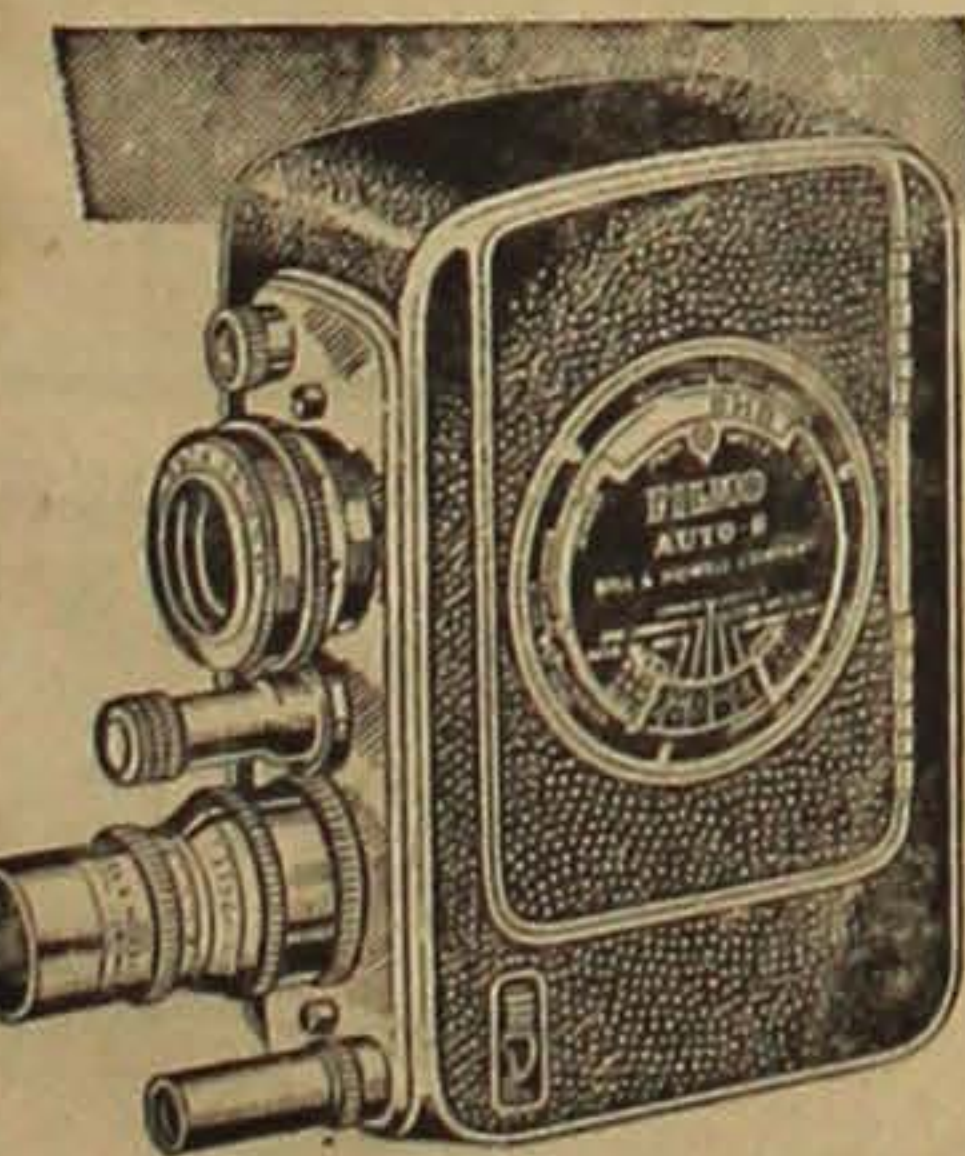

I am against this socialized medicine plan because it fosters the false idea that it's possible to get something for nothing, just by letting the government take charge of things. It is another example of state supported "security" that makes nobody secure and does nothing except put the whole American system in real danger. It promises to cost so much within a few years — in payroll and other taxes — that not even its backers dare estimate how much. Yet, it is offered all "for free."

CANADIAN CITIZENS PROTEST COURT'S UPHOLDING RULING ON RESTRICTIVE COVENANT

TORONTO Ontario, Canada, June 22 (New Canadian Dispatch)—The 3rd Annual Conference of the Ontario JCCA which was held in Toronto June 11-12 protested the judgment of the court which recently upheld the right of resort owners in a section of the Lake Huron district to bar Negroes, Jews, Asiatics and other designated racial groups from purchasing or occupying property there.

The conference went on record that "upholding the validity of the covenant restricting the sale of property on racial grounds is setting a dangerous precedent of encouraging other similar restrictive measures which could undermine the entire structure of Canadian ideals of freedom and equality and that it is a violation of the United Nations charter of human rights of which Canada is a signatory nation."

The need of legislation voiding such discriminatory covenants was stressed by the conference.

Dr. Hugo Wolter, in addressing the delegates, said that the world had to learn how to get along together and that a means to this end was individual action. He also explained the work of the Civil Liberties Association. He regretted that, unlike the United States, Canada has no constitution or bill of rights. An authority on U. S. Japanese-American evacuation, Dr. Wolter expressed that it was a "misreading of the American way of life" and that it violated the rights of these citizens as guaranteed to them by the Constitution.

Need for JCCA

In delving into the work of the JCCA, George Tanaka, national executive secretary, said that despite the lifting of all federal restrictions and much of the provincial limitations on Japanese-Canadians, there still was a great need for the continuance of the JCCA organization. Among other things he noted evacuation losses claims, return of stranded in Japan, working with other ethnic groups in combatting race discrimination and the general welfare of the Japanese-Canadians, as still requiring a functioning national body such as the JCCA.

Kumey Yoshida President. For the next term London assumed the headquarters of the Ontario JCCA, succeeding Toronto, and Kumey Yoshida was elected as its president. The officers of the Ontario JCCA (formerly the Ontario District Council and changed by this conference) will consist of the president, secretary, treasurer, and one representative from each chapter. Hamilton was chosen as the site of the 1950 conclave.

Tammy Marubashi, John Kumagai, and Fred Kayahara were chosen to represent the Ontario JCCA at the national conference.

Other Resolutions

The conference endorsed the resolution made by the National Council of Jewish Women of Canada, that the Ontario government make an enquiry into the existence of unfair employment practices of employers in the Province. It recommended that the Ontario JCCA inquire into the matter of how local chapters can join with other minority groups in combatting race discrimination.

It recommended to the national executive committee for the creation of an official JCCA lapel pin and membership card as well as a uniform letterhead for all chapters.

The two-day conference brought together delegates from the JCCA.

EXCALIBUR Notes

VETS DOWN ITALIANS

Well, they finally did it! After ten unsuccessful starts, the Nisei Vets at long last came through with a City League victory as they outlasted the Italian Club, 9-8, in last Sunday's game at Rainier.

Ahead 8-1 at one stage of the proceedings, the Vets came awfully close to blowing the game, the Italians scoring three times in the fifth inning and four more in the first half of the eighth to tie the score, with two round-trippers featuring their big inning.

The Vets weren't quite through, however, as they took their final raps in their half of the eighth, which was scheduled as the last inning due to a time limit. Chub Hori got a life on an error by the Italian third-sacker, and went to third on Heat Heyamoto's sharp single to right field. With two down, Ray Saito connected for his fourth hit of the day, a Texas Leaguer to center, sending Hori and all the Nipponese fans homeward with unbelieving but contented expressions.

Joker Shimizu, who pitched all the way for the Vets, allowed 13 hits but had the game well in hand until the terrific eighth inning, when a walk, a homer, a single, and another homer almost upset the applecart.

The Vets, who also gathered 13 bingles, made most of them count for runs. Saito singled two runs over in the first frame, the only hit of the inning. In the third, Kinoshita singled and was sacrificed to second by Hori. Heyamoto sent Kinoshita over with a single, and went to third himself on Saito's ground-rule double. T. Matsushita reached first on a fielder's choice as Heyamoto beat the first-sacker's throw to the plate, then Saito and Matsushita scored on Yamaguchi's triple to right center.

The Vets made two more runs in the fourth inning, which they eventually needed as things turned out, on four straight singles by Sakai, Kinoshita, Hori, and Heyamoto, the last two hits driving in a run apiece.

The keystone combination of Saito and Heyamoto supplied most of the batting punch in the Vets' initial win, Saito collecting four hits out of five trips, while Heyamoto got three for four. Kinoshita made himself useful, scoring three runs and gathering two singles out of four official trips to the plate.

With the victory famine ended, the Vets will try to make it two straight against the Seattle Elks next Sunday, the game being set for 2 PM at Broadway.

BEER PARTY OFF

Wind Doesn't Faze Kashiwagi, 'A' Tee Victor

Despite a stiff 30-mile-an-hour wind which at times played strange tricks with his shots, Mits Kashiwagi carded a 77 on the par 70 Jefferson golf course Sunday, giving him a net score of 63 for an easy first place in the "A" flight playoff necessitated by the three-way tie the previous Sunday.

Second-place award went to Z. Shimoishimaru of Tacoma with third place going to George Shimizu. Both posted identical net scores of 70, but the Tacoma sharpshooter won the "sudden death" 19th hole by sinking a 5-foot putt for a par 4 while Shimizu missed a 7-footer.

In winning the beautiful lamp for the first place, Mits Kashiwagi started out with a wobbly 6 on the first hole, but he played steadily the rest of the way. He was out in 39, including birdies on the 3rd, 6th and 9th holes, and was in in 38, including a birdie on the 459-yard 17th which he was on in two.

Shimoishimaru lost all hopes that he may have had for the Komon title when he dropped his tee shot on the 13th into the pond for a huge 7. Shimizu played his usual steady game, but his putter failed him at critical moments.

Kashiwagi had 77-14-63, Shimoishimaru had 84-14-70, while Shimizu had 82-12-70.

Veterans Trim Italians, 9-8, For 1st Win

Fresh from their first win of the season, the Seattle Nisei Veterans will meet Seattle Elks from 2 p.m. this coming Sunday, June 26, at Broadway in the second round of the City league. In their previous meeting, the Elks nosed out the Nisei outfit, 9-8.

The Vets' first win came as a result of a last-inning rally, dropping the Italian Club, 9-8, last Sunday at Rainier. With the score knotted at 8-8 in the last scheduled inning, Chub Hori gained a life on the third sacker's error. Heater Heyamoto lined one into right field to send Hori to third, while he was nailed on second, trying to stretch his bingle. Ray Saito followed with a low liner into center field to score the winning tally.

George Shimizu pitched one of his best games of the season, wiggling out of several bad innings. The Italians' eighth-inning rally, which almost sent Shimizu to the showers, was marked by homers by Willis and Hentz to tie up the ball game at 8-all.

Ray Saito not only batted in the winning run, but led the Vets' attack with 3 singles and a double. Heater Heyamoto boosted his batting average with 3 singles in 4 times at bat.

Last Friday, the Vets travelled to Bellingham, only to lose another contest, 12-2.

The Vets broke into the scoring column in the third inning when Ted Matsushita's single and Chub Hori's double drove over the two runs.

Edo Sasaki, who had held Bellingham to a 4-2 count, ran into trouble in the eighth when he lost control and walked 4 batters, and was touched with 3 solid hits, to account for 8 runs.

The box scores of the two contests are as follows:

Giants Blasted By Rainier

RAINIER BEACH, Wash., June 22—Four runs in the first inning and six more in the second by Rainier Beach proved too much to overcome for the Western Giants who bowed 14 to 5 in a Puget Sound Baseball league game last Sunday at Rainier Beach.

Always battling until the end, the Giants punched out four runs in the last inning on three singles and a home run by George Iwasaki. Until this four-run outbreak, the Nisei nine was limited to a single blow, a four-bagger by right fielder Toki Mizuki in the opening of the fifth frame.

SAVOYS PROVE 'CLASS TELLS' AS THEY SPANK LOTUS, 12-1, TO TAKE TIMES' BALL CUP

Kuni Sakaguchi's Savoys proved that "class tells".

The Savoys slaughtered Lotus, 12 to 1, last Sunday at Garfield No. 1 field to snatch the Northwest Times Baseball league championship for the current season.

All semblance of a title game was lost in the first two innings when the Savoys belted starting hurler Tinky Terada for nine runs on six hits which included a first-frame homer by Kenji Yoshinaka.

In the meantime, Dick Standen, the skinny seventeen-year-old Savoy mound star, had the defensive situation well in hand as he whiffed twelve Lotus batsmen. Standen struck out the side in the first, second, and fifth. Only one blow cheated him out of a no-no game, and that was a four-bagger by Isao Nishimura in the third.

To add injury to insult, the Savoys added another run in the fourth and two more in the fifth. The Savoys had two men out in the sixth and had scored six additional runs when the umpires decided there was no need to continue the one-sided affair and called an end to the slaughter. Standen himself walloped a homer in the sixth when the Savoys toed home plate six times.

Members of the championship Savoy squad are Bobby Kodama, Howard Inouye, Yelichi "Tiger" Asaba, Kenji Yoshinaka, Eugene Okamura, Johnny Katayama, Hank Shibuya, Jumbo Osawa, Doc Hoshiwara, Dick Standen, Fumio Shibata, Ray Otani and Mino Yoshino.

Slight Decline in Cost of Items For Public Aid Budget Noted

For the first time since before World War II the net cost of items provided in the basic budget for recipients of public assistance declined slightly. The change occurred between September 1948 and March 1949, according to Roderic Olzendain, Director, State Department of Social Security.

Food, clothing, fuel, household supplies, and restaurant meals declined while rents, electricity, and personal items increased. The cost of water showed no change. The lowering of costs will amount to approximately 1 percent of the assistance costs. The greatest drop was in food, approximately 4.5 percent. Clothing was down approximately 2.7 percent.

Not all persons will be affected in the same manner, the Director explained. Grants are determined on an individual basis according to age, sex, living arrangement and the amount of resources or income the recipient has to meet his own needs. The $60 floor in Old Age Assistance and Aid to Blind programs provided by Initiative 172 will prevent cuts in grants to persons without income in these categories whose budgeted requirements are under $60.00.

Changes are the result of pricing of all items of the budget within representative communities of each county. Current pricing was conducted during the last week of March. The previous pricing was done during the last week of September, 1948.

YWCA Schedules 'Night Watch'

A week's cruise aboard the 75-foot sailboat, "The Night Witch," will be sponsored by the YWCA as a part of its summer program. Fifteen girls and men will leave Anacortes on July 2 and sail up through the San Juan Islands, stopping at Victoria and other interesting places. As well as swimming, sailing and picnics, a clam bake will be one of the features of the trip.

Barbara Johnson, Adult Education Director at the YWCA and leader of this trip, said that the total cost of the trip would be $35 and that there are a few vacancies to be filled. Anyone interested ought to call EL 4800, Ext. 6, for reservations immediately.
