from Hiroshima, Rev. Tanimoto. Currently, he is travelling around United States under the auspices of the Methodists to promote the idea of rebuilding Hiroshima as the peace center of the world.

It seems rather incongruent that the scene of the world's most tragic destruction of the last war, where war Nisei extravaganza for the 200,000 people lost their lives as city the result of one single bomb, should Yet, Rev. Tanimoto enthusiastically speaks of peace and with Hiroshima as the symbol of what can happen if his mission fails.

He carries with him a petition of 100,000 names. These names kio area. constitute the list of survivors of the 1945 atom bomb. The message to which these names are attached is directed to President Truman, and it carries a potent plea to use his influence in cooperating with the United Nations to see that such deadly weapons are never again used by mankind.

Whirlaway caught Citation in the last stretch to capture the Derby league (mixed doubles) championship Thursday in Main Bowl. The two squads had been tied in a dead heat going into the final series. The victorious Whirlaway shut out Coaltown, 3-0, while Citation was winning, 2-1, from Stymie. The single loss, made expensive by Morrie Yamaguchi of Stymie who rocked the pins for the night's high 226 effort, cheated Citation out of a tie and a roll-off with Whirlaway
