

ALLEN NAMED CHAIRMAN OF NEW CRUSADE

Benjamin H. Kizer, state chairman for the "Crusade for Freedom", announced today that Dr. Raymond B. Allen, president of the University of Washington, has accepted the appointment as vice chairman for Western Washington.

The "Crusade for Freedom" is a campaign to halt Communism by broadcasting the voice of millions of free Americans to those imprisoned behind the Iron Curtain.

General Lucius D. Clay, American Military Governor in Germany during the Berlin airlift, and national chairman of the Crusade, summarized its purpose in the following words:

"The Communist are trying hard to make the world think we started the Korean war and that we are a nation of imperialist warmongers out to conquer the world.

"It is vitally important that we step up our campaign of truth to blast this false propaganda—to demonstrate before the world our true aims of freedom and friendship for all peoples.

"This is the purpose of the 'Crusade for Freedom' in which all American citizens are earnestly invited to take part during the month of September."

Western Washington headquarters for the campaign have been set up in 4140 Arcade Building, Seattle 1. The telephone number is SEneca 4885.

House Version of Soldier Brides Act Is Sent to President for Signature

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 19 (ADC) — The Senate has concurred in the House version of a new Soldier Brides bill granting Asiatic spouses and minor children of GIs and veterans the right of nonquota immigration for six months, the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee said today.

The bill now goes to the President. It becomes effective when signed. It applies to all existing marriages as well as those taking place up to six months after the bill becomes law.

An ADC-sponsored measure, it was introduced by Sen. Pat McCarran, (D., Nev.).

Mike Masaoka, national JACL ADC legislative director, said he was "happy that Congress has approved the bill. I know it will mean a great deal to many GIs and veterans stationed in Japan who are seeking the same opportunities for happiness soldiers stationed anywhere else in the world have."

Immediately affected by the bill will be some 700 Japanese wives and minor children of American citizens, still in Japan.

Walter M. Besterman, clerk of the House Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization, said the bill covers existing marriages and those which may take place up to six months after the President signs the measure. He said it does not cover fiancées, proxy marriages or step children.

The Soldier Brides Bill marks the second time since the end of the war Asiatic spouses have been permitted to enter the U. S. without special private laws. The original Soldier Brides Act, which Congress passed towards the end of World War II was amended in 1947, through the efforts of the JACL ADC, to admit Asiatic spouses only of GIs or veterans if the marriages occurred prior to Aug. 22, 1947.

Since the expiration of that law, approximately 120 private laws have been passed to admit Japanese fiancées, spouses and unmarried minor children of GIs or veterans.

When the President signs the McCarran Soldier Brides bill it will eliminate the necessity for private bills except in such special cases as fiancées. Mr. Masaoka said the measure should "open the way for many long-delayed marriages between GIs in Japan and Japanese nationals."

"With troops now stationed in Korea, and apt to be there for some time, it also will eliminate the need for special bills to admit Korean spouses if the marriages are entered into within six months," he said.

The JACL ADC not only requested the introduction of the new Soldier Brides bill, but subsequently requested the House to extend the provisions from 90 days, as set by the Senate, to a minimum of six months in view of the situation in the Far East.

The bill passed the Senate unanimously. The unanimity was repeated again when the House approved the measure without a dissenting vote. The Senate concurrence today of the House version also was approved without dissent.

JAPAN EXTENDS FARMING LAND DISPOSAL DATE

As previously published in the newspapers, the Japanese government had decided to "extend until November 20 of this year the deadline for the cancellation of governmental purchase and resale of land owned by Japanese residents abroad and by those of dual citizenship whose citizenship status were not clear-cut."

However, a memorandum was issued by the Supreme Commander for the Allied Forces, dated July 25, authorizing the Japanese government to dispose of lands in cases where the owner is registered in Japan as a Japanese national and has failed to submit adequate proof that he does not possess Japanese nationality.

Thus the Japanese government has decided to purchase and resell land of those failing to submit proper requests along with proof regarding their citizenship status by November 20.

No further extensions will be granted after November 20, and proofs submitted after that date will not be recognized. It is thereby urged that requests for restraining the government from purchase and resale of their lands be submitted without fail to the Minister of Agriculture and Forestry by November 20.

RED BULL UNIT PLANS REUNION IN DES MOINES

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 19 (ADC) — Mike Masaoka, national JACL ADC legislative director and a trustee of the 34th Infantry Division Association, today announced the "Red Bulls" of the division will hold their third annual reunion Sept. 15-17 in the Hotel Savery, Des Moines, Iowa.

At one time in Italy, the 442nd Regimental Combat Team fought as part of the famed Red Bull division. The 100th Battalion was with the division before the formation of the 442nd.

Masaoka said a number of Nisei veterans are expected to attend the reunion. He urged all veterans of the 100th Battalion and the 442nd to participate in the annual gathering.

Senator Lucas Requests Opportunity To Study Naturalization Measure

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 19 (ADC) — A technical parliamentary maneuver is temporarily preventing the Walter Resolution from going to the President for his signature.

Although the resolution as reported out of a joint House-Senate conference committee was passed by both Houses last Tuesday, a subsequent motion by Senate Majority Leader Lucas is blocking the measure from leaving the Senate, according to Mike Masaoka, national JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee legislative director.

This is what has happened to the measure which would eliminate race in naturalization and, for the first time in history, make all legal immigrants eligible for naturalization.

The conference committee Tuesday completed action on a compromise report on differing versions of the measure as passed by both Houses. The report the committee issued restored the original provisions of the resolution, namely granting all legal immigrants, regardless of race or when they entered the United States, the right to apply for naturalization.

In addition, the committee report contained four major security provisions dealing with aliens by redefining the position of subversives, especially Communists, seeking naturalization. It also requires the Attorney General to issue new subversive lists at least once each year.

Sen. Pat McCarran, (D., Nev.), asked unanimous consent in the Senate for consideration of the report. The Senate promptly approved it. Shortly afterwards, Rep. Francis E. Walter, (D., Penn.), author of the original resolution, brought up the report in the House where it also received unanimous approval.

Towards the close of the day, Sen. Lucas, who had been absent from the Senate chambers earlier, moved "that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the Senate earlier today agreed to the conference report."

He said he "was not present when the conference report was submitted, and I wish to have an opportunity to examine it."

In Senatorial parlance, the motion was "entered" but not acted upon.

This means in effect simply:

While the Senate has passed the resolution there still is before it a motion to reconsider that action. Until this motion is either withdrawn or voted upon, no further action can be taken. Thus, the naturalization measure is neither fish nor fowl. It is a bill approved by Congress but cannot go to the President until the Senate disposes of Senator Lucas' motion to reconsider.

Sen. Lucas told the Senate last Tuesday he was not necessarily going to object to the conference report "but I should like to have an opportunity to study it because the report is contrary to the measure I introduced." (This latter phrase probably was in reference to the fact Sen. Lucas first asked the Senate to take action on the Walter Resolution after the measure originally passed the House last year.)

"In the report," Sen. Lucas continued, "apparently three or four pages of additional language have been added, making the form of the joint resolution entirely different from what it was when it was passed by the Senate."

Shrine Circus Books 'Greatest Yet Presented' Show For September 6 to 12, in Seattle's Civic Auditorium

Seattle's Civic Auditorium will be the site of the ninth annual Nisei Shrine Polack Bros. Circus, starting Wednesday night, Sept. 6, and continuing twice daily through Tuesday, Sept. 12.

This year's edition is declared by James H. Fletcher, potentate of Nisei Temple, and Lawrence D. Wicklund, circus chairman, to be the greatest yet presented by the Shrine and Polack Bros.

Magnificent horses and world's champion bareback riders make up the impressive equestrian extravaganza of the Gustin Loyal-Repenisky Family. Astonishing feats of aerial acrobatics are executed by Lalage, the Sikorska Duo, Rose Gould Trio and Seven Ward-Bell Flyers.

Other top features are Melitta and Wicon, Swedish high perch artists; the Shyrettes, ace cyclists; Hubert Castle, wizard of the wire; the Seven Brannocks, whirlwind acrobats; Linon, European pantomimist, and Alfredo Landoni, jumbling midgets from the Alps.

Animal acts of varied appeal are Pallenberg's educated bears. Woolford's unique troupe of performing dachshunds, Whitebeck's famous movie-trained elephants, and Dockey's basketball-playing Boxer dogs. Clowns, headed by the famous Otto Griebing, plentifully spice the program with their wacky whimsies.

All seven night performances will start at 8:15. After opening night, daily matinees will be given at 3:45 on school days and at 2:15 on Saturday and Sunday.

President Vetoes Private Legislation Involving One-Half Japanese Alien

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 19 (ADC) — President Truman has vetoed a private bill for the admission of an alien of one-half Japanese blood on the grounds the case "does not present any compelling reasons for granting an exception to the provisions of the general (immigration) laws," according to the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee.

The alien, a 61-year-old widow of Swedish-Japanese ancestry, was born in Japan. For the past year she has been visiting two of her children in this country. She has three other children, three brothers and a sister still in Japan.

In vetoing the bill to give the widow permanent residence, the President wrote:

"While I favor the elimination of racial restrictions upon immigration, the alien's case is similar to that of many other aliens who desire to enter this country for permanent residence but are unable to do so because of the restrictions imposed under the general immigration laws. Her case does not present any compelling reasons for granting an exception to the provisions of the general laws."

Two weeks ago, the President signed a private bill admitting a Japanese widow to permanent residence. In her case, however, all of her children are American citizens and reside in the United States. She herself lived in this country more than 25 years before returning to Japan shortly before the war.

Mike Masaoka, national JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee legislative director, pointed out the President's action in vetoing the bill "indicates that even though a private bill may receive the unanimous approval of Congress this is no assurance it will automatically become law."

Technical Move Temporarily Prevents Walter Bill From Going to Truman

"Therefore, I should like to examine the conference report before it is finally adopted."

Today, Sen. Lucas reaffirmed his position, and added he did not know when he could ask the Senate to action on his motion. He is in Illinois now, and will not return until late this week or next Monday.

However, Masaoka said there seems little doubt but what some type of action probably will be taken in the Senate early next week.

Another light was thrown upon Senator Lucas' motion when it was revealed today the White House has expressed some concern over the security provisions which the House-Senate conference committee tacked onto the naturalization resolution.

It is not believed the White House is necessarily opposed to the security provisions, but, like Senator Lucas, the Chief Executive's office also wants to give some study to them. The provisions which drew Sen. Lucas' objections cover four major points and, technically, are described as amendments to section 305 of the Nationality Act of 1940.

The proposed amendments specify, in effect, that:

1. Naturalization is specifically prohibited to anyone who within 10 years preceding naturalization has belonged to the Communist or other totalitarian parties of this or any other country;

2. The Attorney General is required to publish in the Federal Register at least once in every calendar year a list containing the name of all Communist, Fascist, totalitarian or other parties subversive to the national security;

3. An alien who belongs to any such organization on the date it is first reported by the Attorney General shall have three months to withdraw from such organization without being considered subversive to the national security;

4. Any person who within five years after naturalization becomes a member of any subversive organization, or affiliated with one in any way, shall be presumed to have obtained naturalization by fraud or by illegal procurement.

Masaoka called particular attention to the "three month" provision of the security regulations.

"What this does, in effect, is to prevent aliens from being innocently branded as subversive. In other words, it gives aliens ample opportunity to find out whether or not they are innocent members of subversive organizations, and drop their membership in such groups without being permanently barred from naturalization in the United States," he said.

He pointed out the security provisions are primarily aimed at Communists and communist sympathizers among aliens.

"The security provisions apply to all aliens," he pointed out. "The ADC is not necessarily opposed to them because the suspected number of either Communists or Communist sympathizers among Asiatic aliens here is so insignificant."

"In view of the increasing tension between the non-Communist and Communist world as highlighted by the action in Korea, it is only natural that Congress, as well as all loyal Americans, should become increasingly concerned over the danger of Communism within our borders," he said.

"Thus, the security provisions which the conference report added to the Walter Resolution were more or less expected from the time the ADC learned some such safeguards might be added to the report," Masaoka added.

'Paul Higaki Day' Set at Palomar

Wednesday, Aug. 23, will be "Paul Higaki Day" at the Palomar theatre where the Nisei trombonist is playing in Lionel Hampton's famous jazz band.

Higaki, according to John Hopkins, Hampton's public relations aide, is a topnotch Nisei trombonist, and is the only known Nisei musician playing on a "name band" in the country.

Japanese American jazz music lovers will pay tribute to him on Wednesday, Aug. 23, at which time THE NORTHWEST TIMES will present him with a plaque for his contribution towards better inter-racial relationship work.

Hampton's band will begin its appearance on the local Palomar stage on Monday, Aug. 21, and continue its engagement on Sunday, Aug. 27.

MAGIC VERSUS SCIENCE

It would be possible to write a history of the human mind in terms of its curious ideas in regard to disease. Early man in his tribal days was a follower of the "medicine man's magic" and this influence still seems to exert itself upon some of us.

Some Americans even in this century still seem to retain certain of the ancient tribal attitudes towards disease and its treatment in spite of the dramatic progress that has been made in scientific medicine.

There is no question but that people who believe in the occult may often be sincere, but their sincerity is no cloak for the fact that this type of thinking dethrones reason and intelligence. It seeks solutions by offering soothing answers.

Modern scientific medicine has gradually unravelled the causes, prevention and cure of many diseases. It is gradually opening the door to greater knowledge in regard to many of the still unsolved problems of disease. The life expectancy of a new born child at birth today is twenty years longer than at the turn of the century. There has been greater progress in this regard during the fifty years of this century than had been achieved in the entire period from 1690, when the first mortality tables were recorded, to the beginning of the twentieth century.

The great advances in medical knowledge have resulted from the efforts of scientists who were unwilling ing to be satisfied with, or lulled to sleep by, superstition or magic and who demanded to know the truth.

Many people are looking for magic answers to disease. Many fortunes have been made in this country through the use of fear on the part of unscrupulous concocters of patent medicines and the promotion of unproven forms of treatment administered by charlatans. Society has numbered of individuals who make their livelihood as a result of the credulity of some of their fellow human beings. Some patent medicine makers have been among the worst offenders.

Scientific medicine, on the other hand, is frank, free from fraud or charlatanism. Each year more diseases are yielding to the work of scientists in biology, physics, chemistry and medicine. In their efforts to promote human welfare in the reduction of disease and suffering, they are helping to improve health and human happiness through careful research.

NISEI SPONSOR PIN TEAMS IN VALLEY LOOPS

Frank Natsuhara of Auburn and George Nose of Seattle, two enterprising Nisei businessmen, this week became the first Japanese American bowling team sponsors to enter teams in a Caucasian league in this area since the American Bowling Congress last summer unanimously dropped its "white only" clause.

Natsuhara's team roster will include, besides himself, such stellar keggers as Willie Maebori and George Ota. Maebori is one of the topnotch Nisei bowlers in the Pacific Northwest, and is highly regarded in valley circles.

Nose's outfit, which will carry the Nisei Grill banner, will be captained by alley-wise Kenny Arita, veteran star from Salt Lake City. Arita has Kaz Yamasaki and Budd Fukui from last season's Northwest Times as two other Nisei members of the squad. Yamasaki finished the '49-'50 season in the Nisei Commercial loop with a fat 181 average. In addition to the three Nisei, the team will add Joe Cacho and Gene Augustin, crack Filipino pin-busters.

The Natsuhara five will roll in the Thurs. circuit in Auburn, and Nisei Grill will take its turn on Mondays in a major loop in Renton.

We sell all kinds of beer, champagne and mixers.

Eleven Teams Await NCL Opening; Three-Round Play Will Start on Sept. 5

Eleven teams are set for the opening of the Nisei Commercial league '50-'51 season in Main Bowl, it was learned at the league representatives' meeting held last Tuesday night.

The outfits are Puget Sound Vegetable Growers Association, Tad's Gardening, 12th Ave. Service, Nagamine's, Royal Amusement, Sakahara Insurance, Chinese, Coast-Wide Janitors' Supply, Red Front Tavern, Superior Used Cars and Tom Iwata Insurance.

A spot is still open to round out a twelve-team circuit, president Hiro Nishimoto said.

The Nisei Commercial keggers will play three rounds, beginning Tuesday, Sept. 5, and will be under ABC (American Bowling Congress) regulations.

Nagamine's will be the defending champions.

Possibility that a Nisei or Main Bowl major league would be formed this coming season, was dealt a death blow when only two teams appeared definitely interested.

Fred Takagi, Main Bowl manager, added that such a league is out of the question due to lack of interest.

The Mesdames Johnny Nakata, Mo Nakata, George Aoyama, Tad Sakuma and the Misses Mary Chihara and Yo Kitayama were unable to attend but sent gifts.

Also present for the shower was Mrs. Jim K. Takahashi of Santa Monica, California.

MARYKNOLL MATRIMONY

A nuptial mass performed on Saturday, Aug. 5, united in marriage Miss Marian Miyahara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miyahara of Paia, Maui, Hawaii, and Mr. Raymond Takizaki of Spokane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tamotsu Takizaki of this city. Father Haggerty officiated at the ceremony held in the Maryknoll Church.

The bride wore a white eyelet afternoon dress and carried a bouquet of sweetpeas and daisies centered with a lavender orchid. Attending the couple were Mrs. George Miyake, matron of honor; and Mr. Jim Takizaki, the groom's brother, best man.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the Frye Hotel.

The couple will make their home in Spokane upon returning from a honeymoon trip along the coast.

'JAPAN DAY' AT PLAYLAND IS SHELVED

Plans to revive a Japan Day at Playland on Labor Day were shelved this week for another year after two community-wide organizations decided that there was not enough time left in which to prepare for the event.

Both Genji Mihara of the Japanese American Community Service and Harry I. Takagi of the Seattle JACL chapter expressed hopes that a Japan Day on a pre-war scale can be held next year.

Baptists to Hear Lay Preacher

With the Rev. Emery Andrews on vacation, lay pastor David Hungerford will be the guest speaker at the Japanese Baptist church this Sunday, Aug. 20. His sermon topic will be "Hidden in the Rock".

Hungerford, who is well-known to the Baptist young people, occupied the pulpit last summer while the Rev. Andrews was in Japan with the "House for Hiroshima" work group.

just among people

By GORDON HIRABAYASHI

It wasn't so long ago that people with leisure time on their hands were frowned upon. Play was something for little children only. Vacations were something that you read about involving the idle-rich.

This was understandable in view of the fact that survival depended upon every person doing his share in the pioneering days. Someone with time on his hands merely meant that he was sluffing. It was no wonder that leisure and recreation were considered to be "sinful" activities.

However, times have changed things a little. With the development of machinery and assembly-line production, we have seen the advent of specialization. Men spend their whole work periods sometimes just doing one-minute phase of a larger product.

With the development of unions, we have seen a gradual shortening of the work week to an average of 40 hours. And there is some talk that it will continue to go down, eventually ending with a work week of something in the neighborhood of 30 hours.

These later developments have put a new slant on the leisure and recreation business. No longer can people continue to regard them as sinful activities. Too many people have time on their hands. In fact, some of the most crucial issues involved in the labor-management strikes have been not merely wage increase, but such things as relief periods, industrial insurance, vacations, and vacations with pay.

The pattern of work is significantly different from the earlier days. No longer do people work leisurely for long hours; the emphasis is now on rapid work for a shorter period, then an entirely free period for recreation. And with this emphasis on rapid, specialized work, there is need for re-creating activities that challenge the unmet capacities and potentialities of the workers.

So now, even poor peoples can take vacations. We have about two weeks available. However, there isn't too much money; we are not in the vacation-with-pay class. Therefore, in order to make the most of what we have in time and money, we cold-bloodedly decided to exploit our friends and relatives.

One set of parents will go along with us to share traveling expenses. On the other set, we dumped our kids (we have rationalized that our kids were too young to appreciate a California trip). Then, all along the road to S. Calif., we have sent warning notes to friends and relatives that we will be dropping by around mealtimes or late in the evening about sleeping time.

Well, it looks like vacations are here to stay; and we will be taking our first one.
