HARLIN LAUDS MRS. POWELL'S COUNCIL WORK

Dismissal of Mrs. F. F. Powell, well-known Seattle councilwoman, as "idealistic" by the State and King County leaders of the Republican women's organization in its candidates' report brought open resentment from forces behind Mrs. Powell who is seeking the GOP nomination in the local congressional race.

Among those who publicly supported Mrs. Powell was City Council President Robert H. Harlin who pointed to Mrs. Powell's "common sense" legislative record in the City Council.

Harlin said: "I have a high regard for Pro-America and was surprised when informed that the organization had dismissed Mrs. Powell as 'idealistic'."

(Editor's note: Pro-America recently endorsed Walt Woodward, Bainbridge Island publisher, for First District congressman.)

"While she has very high ideals and believes in applying Christian principles to government, Mrs. Powell also is practical."

"Having worked with her since her advent to the City Council 15 years ago, I feel her common sense approach to the most perplexing problems has been very outstanding."

"In fact, her realistic attitude in the council probably is the main reason why she is one of its most effective members and enjoys the overwhelming confidence of the voters."

"It would seem to me that her practical legislative background well qualifies her for effective service in Congress."

Four Bills OK'd

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 30 (APC)—The House has approved one Senate bill land four House bills for the admission of Japanese fiancées of American servicemen.

The JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee said the Senate bill now goes to the President for his signature. It will admit Hisako Okamoto, fiancée of Frank Koshak, a veteran.

The other bills are for: Fukuko Endo, fiancée of Minoru Tsuchimochi, an ex-serviceman now in Japan as a civilian with the army of occupation; Hideko Kasahara, fiancée of Donald W. Kasahara, a GI on duty in the United States; Kimie Kuroki, fiancée of Ben T. Yoshikawa, a veteran; and Hifumi Kato and her minor son, fiancée and child of John B. Howenstein, a veteran.

Next issue of THE NORTHWEST TIMES will be the "back-to-school" edition datelined Wednesday, Sept. 6.

Hawaii's Contribution to Korean Battle Praised by California's Sen. Knowland

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 30 (APC)—Answering senatorial critics of Hawaiian and Alaskan statehood who have been carrying on a sporadic sniping campaign against the two territories, Sen. William F. Knowland (R., Calif.) has commended highly Hawaii's contribution to the Korean fighting, according to the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee.

In a brief floor discussion, Sen. Knowland said the "proportion of troops from Hawaii in the armed forces in Korea is unusually high."

"The Twenty-fourth Division, which was one of the first units in action, is known as the Hawaiian Division. This unit has within its ranks many young men from Hawaii who were in the army of occupation in Japan."

"The Fifth Regimental Combat Team was trained and equipped in Hawaii, and is made up in large part of recruits from the territory. The unit has already distinguished itself in combat."

"The armed forces have drawn heavily on Hawaii for Americans of Korean ancestry whose knowledge of the language and customs of the Korean people is particularly valuable."

"Americans of Japanese ancestry have likewise been exceptionally useful because of their knowledge of the Japanese language. The language is also spoken by many Koreans."

"Casualty lists and the news of the action of Hawaiian troops reveal that the men have been drawn from virtually every one of the diverse racial strains of the Territory of Hawaii."

"The first casualty was an American of Japanese ancestry, Jack C. Arakawa, a veteran of the 442nd Central Postal Directory of World War II. His wife was an Italian war bride."

Sen. Knowland inserted in the Congressional Record a series of news stories detailing the action and bravery of Hawaiians in Korea.

In a discussion with Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D., N.M.), another strong supporter of statehood, Sen. Knowland added:

"Hawaii has a great contribution it can make to the serious situation in the Pacific. I think the Hawaiian people can help us understand the far eastern situation and, in turn, can help to interpret to the people of the Far East the aspirations and hopes and desires of America for free institutions. I think the admission of Hawaii as one of our states would be one of the greatest contributions we could make to the peace of the world and the understanding between the people of this country and the Far East."

Giving Dictatorial Powers Dangerous, Is Rep. Yates' Warning to Congress

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 30 (APC)—Rep. Sidney R. Yates (D., Ill.) has warned Congress against the dangers of investing dictatorial powers in individuals through legislation dealing with subversive aliens, according to the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee.

Discussing the Hobbs bill which would grant the Attorney General the right to jail subversive and undesirable aliens who cannot be deported, Rep. Yates declared: "There is a great possibility of the abuse of the tremendous power granted the Attorney General by the Hobbs bill in its exercise against nonsubversive aliens and citizens."

He pointed out the measure grants the Attorney General "the right of indefinite internment of criminal and subversive aliens. Within his whim or discretion... lies the liberty of any such alien without the possibility, under the terms of the bill, of any review by the courts, even by the writ of habeas corpus."

He urged the House to accept an amendment to the Hobbs bill offered by the Senate Judiciary Committee which would, in effect, make such aliens subject to the penalties of the criminal code. In this respect

"courts have always had the power to determine whether criminals shall be locked up or released on parole. The amendment... would give the protection of judicial supervision to those who may be improperly accused."

Warning against the abuse of powers inherent in the House version of the measure, the young representative from Chicago added:

"Still fresh in our minds are the wrongs committed during the last war against the Japanese of this country when thousands of loyal men and women were uprooted and placed in concentration camps by administrative act because it was believed that Japanese were disloyal to our country—a fact later disproved."

"While it is true that we must punish the guilty, we must nevertheless be ever vigilant to protect the rights of the innocent and unjustly accused."

Mike Masacka, national JACL ADC legislative director, said that Rep. Yates has been a "long and consistent friend" of persons of Japanese ancestry in the United States.

"He has done much work in Congress in behalf of legislation which would give persons of Japanese ancestry full equality in and under the law," he added.

'Miss Tokyo' and Other Beauties Visit Wounded Americans in Army Hospital

Corporal Isadore LaMantia of Chicago, Ill., who was wounded in Korea, chats with Miss Tokyo 1950 — Yoshiko Tamura — at the Tokyo Army Hospital Annex after receiving flowers from her.

By SHIG FUJITA

TOKYO, Japan, Aug. 30 (Special to Northwest Times) — Fragrant colorful flowers were presented to wounded veterans of the Korean fighting at the Tokyo Army Hospital Annex here in Tokyo last Tuesday afternoon by Miss Tokyo of 1950—Yoshiko Tamura — and eight tall shapely dancers from the Florida Dance Hall. The flowers were donated by the Nippon Flower and Bulb Export Promotion Association, which wanted to show its appreciation for the wonderful work done by these young Americans in the cause of peace and, indirectly, for Japan itself.

In the recreation room on the third floor of the hospital, which was formerly a Japanese navy hospital, a roomful of not-so-badly wounded soldiers listened to the exotically Hawaiian music of the Flower Sisters, an all-girl Hawaiian band of seven beauties. "Shina no Yoru" (China Night) got the most applause. All the wounded appeared almost pathetically young, and they were happy to have visitors, especially such pretty ones. As MGM News of the Day men began grinding away, they turned smiling faces toward the camera, asking eagerly if the newsreel would be shown in the States and saying, "I hope my Dad and Mom see this."

Many of them had close-cropped hair. None of them showed the effect in their eyes of the hell they must have gone through on the Korean battlefield where they fought so bravely against numerically superior Communist forces. They were different from the battle-scarred and battle-hardened and sometimes embittered veterans of the Pacific war, being more talkative and easily moved emotionally.

Some of the soldiers, especially the younger ones, were shy about accepting flowers presented to them by Miss Tamura, who will be going to the States next month or October with Miss Nippon and Miss Sendai, and by the eight dancers. Once, they had got over their initial embarrassment, they posed like veterans for the camera.

In the hospital wards, where other more serious casualties were in bed, the scene was repeated as the girls again presented flowers and were photographed with the soldiers.

While flowers were being presented and flash bulbs popped, I had a short talk with Raymond Wilson, one of the worst hit. He is an 18-year-old volunteer from a town 45 miles from Dayton, Ohio. He was so happy to see us and said, "These flowers sure make the place seem brighter and they really smell nice too."

Over in Korea, where he had been hit bad in his right side—what I could see of his wounds in his right arm and right leg were bad enough—he had had 5,000 cc. of blood transfusions, but he was not bitter about it. Korea, he said, was a very tough place, and he never wanted to go there again. This was his first trip to Japan and he expressed the desire of seeing the country after he has recovered from his heavy wounds.

Colonel Hall, commander of the Hospital Annex, said all the wounded coming in from Korea are young, between 18 and 25 years of age. "The young ones are the ones who always get it in any war," he said, shaking his head at the futility and appalling waste caused by any and all wars. He was not sure, but he thinks there were several Nisei wounded who passed through the hospital.

This was the first public demonstration of the feeling the majority of the Japanese people have toward the sacrifices being made by the Americans in the hard struggle against the forces of communist totalitarianism, and it may well prove to be the forerunner of numerous other manifestations of Japanese gratitude.

SGT. FURUKAWA EARNS ARMY'S SILVER STAR

Sgt. Isaac Furukawa of Seattle, the first Nisei war dead from the Pacific Northwest, this week was posthumously awarded the Silver Star for heroic action in Korea. The Nisei and a fellow GI volunteered to take a jeep through enemy lines to get ammunition when their battalion was surrounded. He was with the First Cavalry Division.

Only last week, his brother, Sgt. Fred Y. Furukawa, was recipient of the Bronze Star for leading a machine-gun crew to safety from an enemy trap near Pyongyang on July 6.

H. R. GI Is Second N. W. Nisei Dead

Pfc. Ken K. Kondo, nephew of Mrs. Ishino Inuki, Route 2, Box 161, Hood River, Oreg., became the second Japanese American GI to be killed in Korean action, according to the casualty list released Sunday by the U. S. Department of Defense in Washington, D. C.

Pfc. Kondo died of wounds suffered while fighting in Korea.

Two other Nisei, First Lieutenant Sam O. Takahara of New York and Sergeant First Class Akira Tamura of West Los Angeles, were listed as "missing in action." First Lt. Takahara is the brother of Ruth Y. Takahara, 507 W. 140th St., New York, and Sgt. 1/c Tamura is the son of Chomatsu Tamura, 2807 Sawtelle Boulevard, West Los Angeles.

Airborne Units Ask Volunteers

Washington Military District Headquarters announced today that members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps, United States Army Reserve who formerly served with the 11th or 82nd Airborne divisions, may now volunteer for extended active duty with the unit with which they saw service. Reservists will be recalled to extended active duty in the grade they presently hold in the United States Army Reserve.

Interested persons are asked to contact Washington Military District, headquarters at Fort Lawton, Washington.

Optimistic, Huh

TOKYO, Japan, Aug. 30—The Korean war may be won by Thanksgiving Day, is the optimistic prediction voiced by officials at Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Tokyo headquarters, according to Howard Handleman, Far Eastern Director of International News Service, this week.

Many Nisei in Action on Korean Front, Seattleite Says

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Aug. 30 (Nichel Times Dispatch)—At least 100 Nisei are now serving with the U. S.-United Nations forces in South Korea, according to Takashi Matsui of Seattle who recently returned from Japan.

Matsui, one-time instructor at Camp Savage, Snelling and Monterey Presidio army language schools, served as warrant officer and civilian worker in Japan for the last four years.

Many Nisei enlisted men and commissioned officers in interrogation and translation sections attached to MacArthur's headquarters plus those attached to divisions sent to the front early in June, are now in Korea, he said.

A number of civilian workers attached to the Fifth Air Force are also in the battle zone, according to reports in Tokyo, Matsui added.

Quite a few Nisei now in Korea had called their families to Japan as most of them are top-ranking non-coms or officers entitled to this privilege.

"When the war started, naturally everyone was scared but the morale is quite good even among the wives left back in Japan," he said. Nearly all of them, he continued, plan to remain in Japan and await the return of their husbands.

Matsui's wife is the former Mitsue Kono of San Francisco. They are now visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michio Kono, 1433 O'Farrell St.

Need to Learn Home Nursing Cited

Especially designed for homemakers, streamlined Red Cross home nursing courses for September in care of the sick, and mother and baby care, are scheduled to start Monday, Sept. 11, according to Mrs. E.E. Sedille, nursing service director for the Seattle-King County chapter.

Taught by registered nurses and complete in six two-hour sessions, the classes will be open to the adult public without charge and will meet at Red Cross headquarters, 905 Second Avenue building.

"In view of the increasing need for doctors and nurses by the military," Mrs. Sedille said, "it is becoming more and more important that every homemaker be a trained home nurse."

Registrants for the care of the sick course may choose from classes meeting Monday and Wednesday from 10 to 12 noon and from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Offered on the same days will be the care of mother and baby with classes scheduled from 1 to 3 p.m. and 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. In response to continuing demand, the evening class in mother and baby care will be open to both men and women. All classes will be limited in size in order to assure each registrant personal instruction and an opportunity to practice the techniques demonstrated.

Registration or additional information may be obtained by calling EL 2800.

High adventure indeed are the breath-taking feats of the aerial gravity-defiers with the new 1950 Nile Shrine-Polack Bros. Circus, which opens in the Seattle Civic Auditorium on Wednesday night, Sept. 8, and continues twice daily through Tuesday, Sept. 12.

The equestrian pageantry of the Giustino Loyal-Repensky Family, the novel and appealing animal acts, the variety of acrobatic and equestrian achievements, and the gay clown numbers all contribute to the kaleidoscopic whole of the circus.

But particularly notable this year are the aerial features, which often are lacking in present-day circuses.

Pre-eminent in their respective fields are Lalage, who climaxes her performance with 60 to 80 one-arm giant swings; the Sikorska Duo in startling exploits of aerial teeth suspension; the Rose Gould Trio of aerial adagio artists whose glamorous Viennese star swings on a trapeze by her bare heels, and the Seven Ward-Bell Flyers displaying unrivaled somersaulting feats in mid-air.

There will be seven night performances at 8:15 and six matinees starting at 3:45 on school days and at 2:15 on Saturday and Sunday.

Shimoishi Maintains Giant-Killing Pace, Upsets Natori to Enter PSGC Finals

By JAXON SONODA
Z. Shimoishi, veteran Tacoma linksman for whom there wouldn't have been any backer at 50 to 1 two weeks ago, and Min Yamaguchi, youngest and most promising of the golfing Yamaguchi clan, stroked their way to the finals of the Puget Sound Golf Club 1950 open championship at Jefferson last Sunday.

The Tacoman, whose triumph over Kuni Nakamura in the opening round had been considered a major upset, continued his giant-killing pace by overwhelming Ed Natori, 5 and 4. Yamaguchi bowled over Yone Nakao, 4 and 3.

Slices Out Tee Shot
Shimoishi took the first hole with a par when Natori sliced his tee shot out of bound. The count was evened on the second which Natori won with a par.

They halved the next three, but Shimoishi captured the 6th and 7th, the latter with a birdie 4. Natori won the 8th but Shimoishi took the 9th to maintain a 2-up advantage at the turn.

After they both bogeyed the par-3 10th, Shimoishi widened his lead by winning the 11th and 12th on pars. They both bogeyed the 13th and Shimoishi closed the match on the 14th with a birdie 3, giving him a lopsided 5 and 4 win.

5-Up Lead at Turn

Min Yamaguchi had a comparatively easy time as he forged into a 5-up lead over Nakao on the outgoing nine. Nakao took the 10th and 11th, but Yamaguchi won the 12th. Nakao earned the 13th, but Yamaguchi won the 14th and the match ended as they halved the 15th with bogeys.

Indians Scalp Vets, 3 to 1

Coach George Funai's Nisei Veterans dropped their final game of the City league season by a score of 3-1 to Nick's Indians last Monday evening at Lower Woodland field.

Trailing 1-0 in the fifth, the Vets tied the count when George Aoyama singled to left and advanced to second on Edo Sasaki's sacrifice. Paul Kurose then powered a single into left to score Aoyama.

The Indians came back in the last half of the fifth to break the deadlock, scoring two runs on a couple of singles.

Leading the Nisei attack at the plate was George Aoyama with two singles in three trips, while second

SPOKANE SETS N. W. NISEI TEE JOUST SEPT. 3

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 30—Every little detail has been carefully checked by the Spokane Golf Club to make the coming 1950 Northwest Nisei tournament, to be held at the Indian Canyon course on September 3, the best ever held, according to Fleasy Okazaki, publicity chairman.

The play will be for medal score, over 36 holes, with the player turning in the lowest gross score becoming the open champion regardless of the flight in which he may be playing.

Three Flights Planned

The plan at present is to have three flights, with the players going out in threesomes, though the host club may make it foursomes, depending on the number of entries.

Prizes will be given for best low gross scores as well as low net scores in each flight. Jack Koyama, prize chairman, has arranged for a number of splendid trophies for the low scorers.

The awards banquet will be held at the Spokane Hotel. George Numata, the banquet chairman, has asked that players bringing their wives and children should contact him immediately upon their arrival in Spokane so that proper banquet reservations could be made.

Headquarters Announced

The Globe Hotel will serve as the tournament headquarters, with George Heyamoto who will be there ready to answer any queries visiting players may have.

Curley Hueston, pro at the host club, has pledged his support to make the tourney a successful one, and Louie Schmidt, groundskeeper, has promised to have the course in tip-top shape, with the greens to be cut a few hours before tee time.

Entry fee, not including the green fees, will be five dollars, payable to George Heyamoto, N. 204 Division St., Spokane. Entries will be accepted till Aug. 31.

sacker Tak Yagi came up with a play of the game when he caught a blooper in short right field and doubled off Nokes at first base.

NML Bowlers Plan Aug. 31 Session

Teams interested in entering the Nisei Merchants league this coming bowling season are urged to send their representatives to a meeting which will be called by president Shig Sumioka at 8 p.m., this Thursday, Aug. 31, in Main Bowl.

Pertinent matters such as the number of teams and the rules for league play will be discussed, Sumioka said.

Kobo Grabs $100 In Pin Tourney

(Special to N. W. Times)

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Aug. 30 (Rafu Shimpo Dispatch) — Rolling with third and final squad, George Kobo blistered the lanes with a 708 scratch series for the first three games to run up a big lead and coasted in for the big $100 guaranteed first prize with a 1262 (64)—1326 for the six-game stretch in the Nisei Week bowling tournament held last Sunday in Vogue Bowl.

Second-place Yosh Natsuhara was not even close with a 1136 (120)—1256. Don Kwong and Ich Kaminaka shared third place with 1234's, and Rich Hahn was fifth, one pin behind with a 1233.

Kobo in compiling his total had 227, 279 and 202 for his first three games before tapering off to a 199, a 160 and a 195.

Squad prize winners were: John DeLucia, 1229; Kaz Meifu, 1213; Shorty Tanaka, 1227; Dick Ung, 1225; Art Shimidzu, 1229; Hy Sechl, 1205.

Only 22 regiers turned out in the women's section of the meet which was won by Eiko Watanabe with a bang-up 703 (8)—711 for four games. Miss Watanabe rolled games of 172, 160, 176 and 195 for her winning mark.

Revenge Is Sweet

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Aug. 30 (Rafu Shimpo Dispatch) — Sweet was the revenge that the Harbor Skippers gained on the San Fernando Aces last Sunday at Evergreen Playground to annex the championship of the second annual Nisei Week baseball series.

Last year, the Aces rudely eliminated the Skippers from the tourney, 5 to 4, in the first round of play. This year, only the two nines competed.

Judo Victors Told

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Aug. 30 (Rafu Shimpo Dispatch) — H. Yamano of San Fernando in the yonen division, T. Komori of Long Beach in the shonen group, and A. Kano, a Caucasian, in the seinen classification were winners of their respective classes in the big Nisei Week judo tournament held last Sunday in the Maryknoll hall. One hundred and fifty judoists from seven dojos participated.

COM'L KEGLERS EYE 1ST NIGHT IN MAIN BOWL

Nisei Commercial leaguers are beginning to hit their stride in Main Bowl.

And well they might, for their 1950 to 1951 season is but a week away. The NCLers will open their pin-smashing year at 9 p.m., Tuesday, Sept. 5.

Eleven teams, to date, are set for action on the alleys. The defending championship squad is Beppu-Nagamine which boasts captain Tom Namba, Bill Tanaka, Tak Shibuya, Jack Nitta and Pruney Tsuji. Tsuji and Namba, 180 men, are the big Berthas.

Leading contenders for the title this season appear to be, besides Beppu-Nagamine, the two insurance outfits, Tom Iwata and Hippo Sakahara's, and Royal Amusement.

The Iwata's consist of such sturdy keggers as Ben Nakata, Floyd Yamamoto, Pancho Nakashima, Shig Ura-kawa and Kenny Oyama. This group packs enough punch to nose out Beppu-Nagamine's.

The Sakahara's will be the usual steady-rolling gang. The Tanagi brothers, Rick and Roy, will join Tom Hidaka, Tuk Tada and Roy Fujiwara. Don't underestimate these boys.

Royal Amusement should finish in the upper division. Morrie Yamaguchi, Jimmy Kuranishi, George Iwasaki, Sholchi Suyama and newcomer Sab Yamashita will make a strong bid for the crown.

Up from the Nisei Merchants' loop are Tad's Gardeners. The team has been strengthened considerably with the addition of Herbie Furuta and Nobu Takahashi who take a back seat to no Nisei kegler. Furuta, Takahashi and the veteran Taka Asaba should hold up Tad's. Other fellows on the roster are Shig Sumioka, George Fujimoto, Tad Katayama and Mas Shibuya.

Red Front Tavern may be a surprise entry. It has four tried campaigners in Hero Nishimoto, Tomio Hamasaki, George Tanagi and Manabu Fujinori. Tanagi, it is reported, is fast hitting his '48-'49 form. Fujino and Hamasaki are expected to turn in their share of creditable scores.

Puget Sound Vegetable Growers' Association has Willie Maeboori, Dick Osaka, George Ota, Ray Kiyohara and Frank Shigeo back in its fold. Maeboori is the leader, and Osaka is the promising fair-haired trundler who may spill the woods hard this time out.

Coast-Wide Supply Co. will depend on experience. Yukio Kuniyuki, Kaz Yamasaki, Biff Thashi, Takeo Yoshijima and Ben Sugawara are on the roster. Yamasaki is the most dangerous, being one of the three 180 bowlers in Main Bowl.

The Chinese and 12th Ave. Service are the two other entries. John Chinn will set the pace for the Chinese, and the Koga brothers and Taiji Takayoshi form the nucleus of the service aggregation.

Another team to round out a 12-entry loop is sought before the season starts Tuesday, Sept. 5.

WEDDING BELLS

A beautiful bouquet of seven white purple-throated orchids was carried by Miss Kiki Yamamoto when she exchanged marriage vows with Mr. Thomas Tsutakawa on Sunday, Aug. 27, in the Japanese Methodist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kunisuke Yamamoto, and the groom, the son of Mrs. M. Tsutakawa. Rev. Paul Hagiya performed the ceremony at 4 o'clock.

The exquisite bridal gown was of French rosepoint lace fashioned with an illusion neckline and long sleeves, and the tight-fitting bodice was emphasized with a bouffant skirt of lace and stiffened illusion net. With it, the bride wore a fingertip veil of lace attached to a matching headpiece.

Miss Dorothy Kodama, maid of honor, and Mrs. Haruko Yamamoto, the bride's sister-in-law, and Mrs. Hide Yada, bridesmaids, wore identical gowns with a bodice of lace over satin and skirt of nylon net over satin. The maid of honor's pale yellow gown was worn over ivory satin and the bridesmaids' pale pink gown, over blush pink satin. They all carried colorful Colonial bouquets.

Flower girl, little Gail Yada, had on a pale yellow gown of lace over ivory satin and she had a tiny Colonial bouquet. Master Kuni Yamamoto, the bride's nephew, was ring-bearer.

Mr. Art Horiuchi served as best man and the Messrs. Shuso Kato, Art Yoroze and Jun Tomita were the ushers.

Vocal selections of "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were rendered by Miss Sachi Ueygaki, who was accompanied by Mrs. Mich Shimomura.

After the ceremony, the reception was held in Gyokko-Ken Cafe. Mrs. Nobu Kyono took care of the guest book and the Misses Susie Shimizu, Michi Ishii, YoYo Konishi and Mrs. Nobu Kyono cut the cake.

The couple will make their home in Seattle upon returning from a short honeymoon.
