

ADC RELEASES FULL TEXT OF GI BRIDE BILL

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 6 (ADC)—Because of widespread interest in the new Soldier Brides Bill, the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee today released the full text of the law recently signed by the President.

It says: "Public Law 717-81st Congress, Chapter 759-2d Session, S. 1858, An Act To permit the admission of alien spouses and minor children of citizens members of the United States armed forces.

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That notwithstanding the provisions of section 13 (c) of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended (8 U.S.C., 213 (c)), alien spouses or unmarried minor children of United States citizens serving in, or having an honorable discharge certificate from the armed forces of the United States during World War II shall, if otherwise admissible under the immigration laws, be eligible to enter the United States with nonquota immigration visas issued under the provisions of section 4 (a) of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended (8 U.S.C. 204 (a)); PROVIDED, That in the cases of such alien spouses of United States citizens serving in, or having an honorable discharge certificate from the Armed Forces of the United States during World War II, the marriage shall have occurred before six months after enactment of this Act.

"Approved August 19, 1950."

ANTI-TB UNIT STUDIES MEANS TO EASE ISSUE

Steps which will probably be taken in its effort to tackle the Japanese tuberculosis problem, were discussed at a recent meeting of the Seattle Japanese Anti-TB committee.

The main speaker, Dr. John H. Fountain, chief of the tuberculosis division, Seattle and King County Department of Public Health, congratulated Dr. Paul S. Shigaya and his committee members on their approach to the problem and declared that tuberculosis is no more prevalent among the Japanese than among other racial groups.

The Anti-TB unit studied the following suggestions in the fight against tuberculosis:

1. Develop a continuous education program.
2. Invite the Anti-Tuberculosis League to provide the x-ray unit at a strategic spot in the Japanese community.
3. Provide volunteers to stay with the x-ray unit to help those who cannot speak English.
4. Develop a volunteer corps to take small groups of individuals (four to five) to the health department for chest x-ray when mobile unit is not available.
5. Consider other health problems among the Japanese.
6. Invite all available and interested Japanese groups to participate in this program in both the planning and the financial phases.

Presby Fair Slated This Saturday

"It's Fair time for all with the coming of fall and fair festivities will be in full swing at the Presbyterian County Fair, Saturday, Sept. 9, in the Japanese Presbyterian church gymnasium. Tempting and tasty Japanese and American delicacies and novel games are in store for everyone attending this gala festivity from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m.

General chairman Ben Hashimoto and his staff have completed final preparations to make this affair one of the finest. Extra attractions will be a flower arrangement display under the direction of Mrs. Otani in the main chapel and door prizes for lucky ticket holders.

The day-long festivities will close with an old-fashioned square dance from 8:30 p.m. to 11:30 p.m.

Continuation of 'Business-Like Conduct' Of County Affairs Pledged by Gibbs

(Paid Advertisement)

The first salvo in the campaign of James A. Gibbs to retain his post as Central District Commissioner of King County was fired this week at a meeting of the Young Men's Republican Club.

Gibbs denounced as "plunder-banders", rival candidates "whose only aim in seeking election to the county commission is to obtain privileges for a special few at the expense of the tax-paying citizen".

Pledging a continuation of "business-like conduct of your affairs in the county administration", Gibbs said that "while the political pirates or 'plunder-banders' who seek control of county affairs are small in stature, indeed, when compared with their big brothers who have raised the skull and crossbones over our nation's capital, they are nevertheless dangerous".

Declaring that "there can be no substitute for good government", Gibbs told the group, "it is the job of the Republican party to end this piracy of our government structure (by the Democratic party) . . . I call upon you as modern-day Minutemen to arm yourselves and meet this challenge to the decent instincts of us all".

Citing that efficient, dignified administration of county affairs should be the desire of every voter, Gibbs pledged "he will continue to endeavor to get the greatest value out of each tax dollar commensurate

Korean Situation Hampers ADC Efforts To Win Boost in Claims Plan Budget

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 6 (ADC)—Final Congressional approval of a $1,300,000 budget for the Evacuation Claims program during fiscal 1951 means the Justice Department will be unable to expand its activities in this direction for at least a year, Mike Masaoka, national JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee legislative director, said today.

However, the experience gained in the present fiscal year by the Department will have significant application next spring when the Justice Department seeks evacuation funds for fiscal 1952, he said.

He also expressed his "deepest regret" that Congress did not see fit this year to enlarge the evacuation claims budget. He pointed out the Korean situation is having a "marked effect upon all government budgets".

"About the only ones receiving any increases are those dealing with military affairs or foreign aid. Virtually all other departments have received cuts.

"In this respect the Evacuation Claims program is fortunate in that the House-Senate conference on the national budget did not cut the claims budget below the limits proposed by the two Houses," he said.

In setting for a $1,300,000 budget, which is $100,000 larger than the budget for fiscal 1950, Congress compromised on differing House and Senate versions of what funds should be spent between now and June, 1951.

The original House budget allocated $3,750,000 for claims payments, and $250,000 for administering the program during the fiscal year of 1951. The Senate budget allotted $300,000 for administrative expenses, and $1,000,000 for claims payments.

The compromise reached on the budget by House-Senate conferees set aside $250,000 for administrative expenses, and $1,050,000 for claims payments.

Masaoka said he had hoped the compromise bill would retain the Senate figure of $300,000 for administering the act during the present fiscal year.

"Yet," he added, "those of us interested in speeding the claims program should keep in mind certain things. The present fiscal year will be the first full year of operations by the Justice Department of the program since the deadline for filing claims was reached in January, 1950.

"Backed by this experience, the Justice Department should have, in solid black and white, the answers to many questions which, a few months ago, were mere speculation.

"I am convinced the Congress will be willing, even anxious, to speed up the program once it has proof of how and why it is moving so slowly under the limited funds which so far have been made available."

Masaoka said the claims program could drag out for 25 to 50 years if Congress were to repeat annually the same limited budget it has allotted for the fiscal year of 1951.

He urged the Justice Department to "work as well with the limited budget as it possibly can".

"The spirit in which the department handles claims will markedly affect the speed of the program. The department cannot be exceedingly technical and hair splitting. It must undertake its task in a spirit of assistance to claimants to prevent the entire program from bogging down in a welter of technicalities.

"Even within its limited budget, the Department should be able to accomplish more than it is now doing," he added.

Get a Copy of New Voters' Handbook

All voters, particularly at election time, will want to own a copy of the new Washington Voters' Handbook, which is being distributed by the League of Women Voters of Seattle to all voters interested in this information. The booklet has been compiled by the University of Washington Bureau of Governmental Research and Service, and has been designed especially to acquaint the layman with the various qualifications and requirements for voting in the state of Washington. It is on sale at all bookstores for 50 cents a copy, plus 2 cents state tax. Individual copies may be secured from Mrs. M. F. Cook, 4732 22nd N. E., Seattle 5.

"Citizens will be able to find the answers to confusing questions about voting and state government in the Washington Voters' Handbook," Governor Arthur B. Langlie said. "It is particularly vital that every voter have this easy to read booklet at his fingertips for constant reference."

The book was compiled as a result of a heavy demand for a simplified but complete set of state voting rules and qualifications for election officials, political machinery, and electoral processes through which voters make their will effective. It contains easy to read information on registration, political parties, types of elections, sample ballots, voting procedure, and legislative and congressional districts in Washington.

The handbook was prepared by Dr. Ernest H. Campbell, assistant director of the bureau, and George D. Smith, research associate, under the direction of Dr. Donald H. Webster, bureau head.

WALTER BILL OK BY TRUMAN EXPECTED SOON

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 6—President Truman is expected to sign the Walter Resolution in a few days. The resolution, one of the President's civil rights goals, will make all legal immigrants to the United States eligible to apply for naturalization.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 6 (ADC)—Senate Majority Leader Lucas (D., Ill.), today advised the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee he would urge the President to sign the Walter Resolution removing race as a requisite in naturalization.

He said this after he had acted to withdraw his motion for the Senate to reconsider its earlier vote of approval for the naturalization measure, thus automatically sending the bill to the White House.

The JACL ADC sponsored measure, one of President Truman's civil rights goals, will for the first time in history make all legal immigrants to the United States eligible to apply for naturalization.

The only peoples still barred because of race are Asiatics, with the exception of Chinese, Indians and Filipinos who won the right of naturalization during and after World War II.

Immediately affected will be some 85,000 Japanese, approximately 3,000 Koreans and several hundred other Asians and Pacific Island peoples in the United States, Hawaii and Alaska.

Senator Lucas withdrew his motion to "reconsider" which had blocked the measure in the Senate for the last two weeks, after an appeal by two JACL ADC representatives — Dick Akagi, Chicago, and Mrs. Mike Masaoka, Washington. They urged him to take this action before Congress adjourns.

Senator Lucas had sponsored the resolution in the Senate after it had first passed the House last year.

Mike Masaoka, national JACL ADC legislative director, said Congressional approval of the Walter Resolution "is a great day in the history of this country, as well as for persons of Japanese ancestry."

"Today, Congress has declared to the world that no immigrant ever again will be denied the right to naturalization because of his race. We have abolished discrimination in our naturalization laws."

He, too, sent a personal appeal to President Truman to sign the Resolution.

Final Congressional action on the Resolution marked the end of a rocky career for the naturalization measure on "The Hill".

Introduced by Rep. Francis E. Walter, (D., Penn.) on May, 1949, the measure passed the House with ease, and by unanimous action from committee to the floor.

• LEST WE FORGET

A proclamation has been issued by Mayor Devin of Seattle, setting aside Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 7th, 8th and 9th for the dates of the Annual Forget-Me-Not Drive of the Disabled American Veterans, Seattle Chapter No. 2. Blue Forget-Me-Nots, flowers of Remembrance, will be sold on the streets of Seattle on these dates.

The Disabled American Veterans, an organization composed of disabled veterans with the aid of their auxiliary, has never forgotten their buddies in hospitals all these years. There isn't a week goes by, but their hospital chairmen visits each hospital in Seattle, bringing cheer and treats to their buddies.

Will you help us fulfill our obligation to our hospitalized veterans and identify yourself as a friend of the disabled veteran, by purchasing and wearing a blue Forget-Me-Not on these days.

We feel certain we can count on you to help us in our efforts to assist the disabled veterans of this community — and their families.

Funds realized from Forget-Me-Not sales help the local Disabled American Veteran chapters to maintain service officers who "free of charge" help all veterans in their fight for adequate pension and compensation. They assist the veteran or their family, in proper presentation of claims for government benefits, as well as employment and hospitalization.

Buy blue Forget-Me-Nots and wear them with a smile.

• A THREAT TO THE STATE AND THE NATION

The danger of our nation is not so much in increasing power of government as in the lack of expression of all shades of opinion at the polls — which expression seems to be unusually lacking at the time of the primaries.

The precinct and district captains well know the value and importance of primaries; it is the time when most of their energies are devoted to getting out the vote. These politicians are organized to influence you. Have you tried to influence the politicians?

Democracy has its roots in you. The primary is an instrument for letting the politicians know what your hopes and aspirations are for life in your community, your state and your nation.

If the voice of the people is audible and unmistakable, the office seeker and the office holder must heed that voice. So long as you have a voice and exercise it, so long shall we be a free people.

It has been asserted and proved inconclusively that under certain circumstances an active, militant voting five per cent can nominate its candidate in a primary election.

The choice of the officials to be elected to public office has already been made for you prior to the general election — if you do not participate in the primaries.

Yes, the real threat is in the citizen who has the privilege to vote and fails to use it. Your type of government is truly representative of all the people, only if you exercise your vote.

Primary Day is September 12th. If you want a voice in the affairs of your government cast your important vote on Primary Day!

The American Federation of Astrologers' national convention in Los Angeles last week reported that a third world war is indicated by trends of the planetary cycles, but not before 1953. Apparently, the star gazers must think that the North and South Koreans, the Americans and the United Nations forces are having a picnic in the mountains of Korea.

Senate Approves 21 Legislations

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 6 (ADC)—The Senate has passed and sent to the President 21 private bills for the admission of brides, fiancées and minor children of American servicemen and veterans, the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee said today.

The bills for brides were introduced before passage of the Soldier Brides Bill, it was pointed out, and probably were passed by the Senate merely as a procedural matter. It still requires private legislation to bring fiancées into the United States.

The private bills will admit: Kiyoko S. and Harue Barr; Mrs. Miyako Horikoshi and Mabel Miya Spaulding; Stella Matutina Kazuko Yamazaki; Mrs. Yukiko Yoshii French; Mrs. Yuki Sugimoto and David Murphy; Mrs. Michiko Kohga Brooks; Kimiko Iso; Chiyoko Akashi; Kimiko Tomita; Kimiko Yamaguchi; Mrs. Tokio Sato, Terry and Betty Keating; Mrs. Yumiko Kawai and Maria Mari Misanin.

Mrs. Nobuko Yonashiro and Gerald Philip Martin; Mrs. Tokiko Ross; Mrs. Yoshiko Ogiso Peterson; Mrs. Eiko Yoshizawa and Charles Lendrum; Tokuko Murayama; Yaeko Nakajima; Mrs. Jaye Kurusu Maddox; Mrs. Claude Morita, and Chieko Murata.

Another thing that is not clearly understood by many is that the bowel habits are not the same in all individuals. Normal people may have one or more movements daily. Others may normally have them every second or third day.

Whenever an individual complains of constipation it is first of importance to determine that the condition is simple constipation and not the results of a more serious disorder. If no serious condition exists, it is useful to learn something about the individual's habits and to determine why the habit of constipation has developed. People frequently can figure this out for themselves if they stop and analyze their habits carefully.

Ask yourself, do you work under constant nerve tension and stress, do you take time out to answer the call when it arrives or do you ignore it because you are too busy, or the toilet facilities are not adequate or inconvenient?

Do you drink an adequate amount of fluid, at least the equivalent of about two quarts daily? Are your meal habits regular and your meals about equal in size?

In other words, do you give yourself a reasonable opportunity to avoid constipation or do you encourage it through your own failure to do the simple things necessary to avoid it? A proper diet is useful. It should include an adequate amount of essential foods such as milk, eggs, meat, whole grain cereal, vegetables, fruits and butter. Bulky foods aid some individuals and tend to distress others. Fruits are very useful for some and may distress others. Foods that cause discomfort and disagree with individuals are best not continued.

Frequently individuals ask a physician "what is a good physic" or possibly "what is worse for me, a physic or an enema"? Physicians who have studied the problem of the intestinal tract carefully are inclined to answer that "there is no good physic" and that the use of either a physic or an enema is unnatural and abnormal. Actually, however, they may be used if necessary.

But they would not be needed if individuals lived under less nervous strain, drank sufficient water, ate regularly, developed regular bowel habits and worried less.

CONSTIPATION
Constipation is not a disease. It is a by-product of faulty habits of living.

It does not cause diseases, even though there is a wide spread belief that there is an absorption of toxins from the unemptied large intestine. It does not cause headaches, bad taste, and many other supposed symptoms. Actually these are erroneous ideas passed on from one individual to another and frequently stimulated by the reading of patent medicine advertisements.

Certainly, people may complain of headaches, general discomfort and constipation but these are the physical expressions of nervous tension and nervous fatigue. The stress and strain of living is actually the basis of these complaints.

Another thing that is not clearly understood by many is that the bowel habits are not the same in all individuals. Normal people may have one or more movements daily. Others may normally have them every second or third day.

Truman Gets Bill

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 6 (ADC)—The President has received from the Senate a private bill to permit Mrs. Shikaju Nakashima to return to the United States, the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee was informed today.

Mrs. Nakashima lived in the United States from 1907 until 1935 when she returned to Japan. Her citizen daughter and almost her sole support, Mrs. Sumiko Nakashima, lives in Milpitas, Calif.

The private bill for Mrs. Nakashima is the second one approved by Congress since the end of World War II to permit a former resident of the United States to return from Japan to her American children.

Umeda Scores Easy Technical Knockout Over Regan in Special Spokane Bout

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 6 (Special to Northwest Times) — Clever Tommy Umeda, Hawaiian Nisei who has adopted Seattle as his "home town", proved too tough for Larry Regan of Spokane last week when the two fought in a special six-round bout at Ferris field.

More than 3,000 fans saw Umeda score a technical knockout midway in the second round.

Boxing beautifully and hitting sharply, Umeda displayed plenty of class in setting up Regan for hard rights and lefts to the face and the body in the first round.

The second round was but a minute old when the Nisei opened up a well-planned, two-listed attack. Catching Regan off balance numerous times and throwing in punishing blows, Umeda had his opponent on "queer street" when the referee decided to call off the bout and raise the Nisei's hand in token of a victory.

The triumph was Umeda's fourteenth in fifteen contests. His only loss was an eight-round decision to Stan Almond in Tacoma which he reversed in a later bout, a ten-rounder, in Vancouver, B. C.

"Go for Broke" was lettered on Umeda's colorful robe, much to the pleasure of the fans. Umeda was a member of the fighting 442nd Combat Infantry, serving in Italy, France and Germany.

The Joe Kahut-Rusty Payne main event was tossed out in the third round as "no contest".

Featherweight Tommy Umeda today is seeking a berth on the Sept. 18 card in Seattle. John L. Davis and Bernard Docusen will headline this show.

ENGAGEMENT DISCLOSED

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 6—A "surprise" birthday party attended by some sixty persons recently was the setting for the engagement announcement of Miss Violette Kosaka, formerly of Seattle, to Mr. Gene Takahashi of Cleveland. Miss Kosaka is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fukusaburo Kosaka, now of Chicago.

Guests learned of the engagement when "the cat was let out of the bag" and a cat attached to balloons floated out of a bag. Tied to the cat were two hearts bearing the names "Vi" and "Gene". A large rose-decorated cake also bore the names of the engaged pair.

Miss Kosaka was the associate director at the University of Washington YWCA for two years. A graduate of the University of Texas, she is now working on her master's degree in social work at Western Reserve University. Mr. Takahashi is a graduate of Western Reserve University and will begin work on his master's degree at the University of Illinois in the fall.

Among the guests were former Seattleites Shig Nezu, John Matsu-shima and Fred Ono.

BETROTHAL REVEALED

Betrothal of Miss Hiroko Sally Hirayama, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Hirayama, to Mr. Jaxon Kikuchi was announced at an informal get-together held in the home of Miss Hachi Mizuki last Aug. 25.

The engagement was revealed with the ring placed between two interlocking hearts which decorated the cake. Names of the newly-engaged couple were on the hearts and on cut-out miniature autumn leaves which were in each napkin.

Guests in attendance were the Misses Yone Kanda, Hachi Mizuki, Sumi Tanaka, Tomi Yoshioka, Grace Ozawa, Katherine Yamada, Rose Hilda and Mrs. Hisato Mizuki.

The Misses Alice Tsue, Toyo Kitayama and Carol Smith were unable to attend.

WALTER BILL OK BY TRUMAN EXPECTED SOON

culities in the Senate when Sen. Richard B. Russell, (D., Ga.), after objecting to it for several months, finally amended the measure to apply only to Japanese immigrants who came to this country or Hawaii before July 1, 1924, date of the Oriental Exclusion Act.

The House refused to accept the Senate version. The measure went to conference. It faced two months of delays—a curious state of affairs in which it was reported with almost monotonous regularity that first a conference report was approved, had not been approved, would be approved, or would not be approved.

The final conference report which did emerge restored the original provisions of the resolution—simply eliminating race in naturalization. At the same time the report added a rather lengthy section amending security regulations applicable to all aliens in the United States.

The security provisions aroused considerable speculation before they were made public. However, what they do in effect is simply this:

1. Prohibit naturalization to anyone who within 10 years preceding naturalization has belonged to the Communist or other totalitarian or fascist parties.
2. Require the Attorney General to publish annually a list of all organizations considered subversive to the national security.
3. Give an alien who is a member of a subversive organization three months to withdraw from it after such organization is first listed by the Attorney General without the alien's being considered personally suspect.
4. Declare that any person who within five years after naturalization becomes a member of any subversive organization shall be presumed to have obtained naturalization by fraud.

The conference report was accepted by both the House and Senate Aug. 14. But less than an hour after the Senate vote of approval, Senator Lucas voted a motion to "reconsider". This was a technical procedure which, in effect, blocked the bill from going to the White House.

Senator Lucas said he made this motion to obtain time to study the security provisions added to the Resolution in conference.

Not until that motion to reconsider was either withdrawn or acted upon could the resolution leave the Senate.

Senator Lucas withdrew his motion. The legislation now is in the hands of the President.

Seattle-Born Nisei Parlays Ambition, Industry, Ingenuity To Make Chick Sexing a Highly-Successful Business Venture

ORIGIN

The chick sexing was originally found in Japan in the year of 1925 by Professor Masui of the Imperial Japanese University of Tokyo. Different methods in chick sexing were introduced by Prof. Masui, Prof. Sakai, Prof. Sasakiyama, Prof. Kojima, and Prof. Suzuki.

WHEN AND HOW IT CAME TO THE UNITED STATES

In the early 1930's, the poultry industry, one of America's big industries, was also hit by depression and pressed for more economy and efficiency of its production. Poultrymen were losing money raising valueless cockerels (males). Something had to be done. A few poultrymen on the Pacific Coast heard of the chick sexing in Japan. They wanted to apply this to their industry.

Through the efforts of Professor E. A. Lloyd, head of the poultry department of the University of British Columbia and the Imperial Japanese University in Tokyo and the Japanese Department of Agriculture, the science of chick sexing was introduced to the United States in the year, 1934.

The first demonstration was held at certain hatcheries in Washington. Soon afterwards, they trained students who were under-trained, lacked experience, and received no secrets. The hatcherymen who employed them had experienced high mortality and poor work. From the unsatisfactory results, it developed a bad reputation throughout the country.

About this time, Nisei (American-Japanese) went to Japan to take up four to five months' training on chick sexing under Japanese instructors. They returned to the States and found employment within California. Many followed to take up chick sexing in Japan.

The first chick sexing school in the United States where students were trained and made ready for immediate commercial work was founded in 1937 by S. John Nitta, the president of the present American Chick Sexing Ass'n School of Lansdale, Pennsylvania.

FUTURE OUTLOOK

Chick sexing has now been adopted and accepted by the poultry industry. It is urged by the United States Department of Agriculture. The poultrymen who specialize in eggs want to raise pullets (females) only and do not want to be bothered with the cockerels (males). They might make a little money on them, but their pullets will do better with more room, and will give them a higher return. The poultrymen who specialize in broilers can get chicks cheaper by buying only the cockerels. Hatcherymen can make more money by selling sexed chicks. Thus, all branches of the poultry industry are benefited by chick sexing. Statistics indicate that there are more than 11,000 commercial chick hatcheries in the United States alone.

Nitta states that qualified chick sexors will always be in demand and that it is very important that applicants choose a dependable chick sexing school as his future entirely depends on it.

CHICK SEXING A WORLD-WIDE PROFESSION

Today, it is being successfully used in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Cuba, South America, Hawaii, Japan, Australia, England, Belgium, France, and Holland.

BACKGROUND

Shigeru John Nitta was born in Seattle, Washington, in the year of 1911. At the age of nine, John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Nitta, took him, his younger sisters, and brother to visit his grandmother and grandfather in Wabuka-mura, Nishimuro-gun, Wakayama-ken, Japan. While visiting, Nitta's father died unexpectedly. At the age of thirteen, Nitta by himself returned to Seattle, Washington. He lived with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. Ozaki, and attended school from there.

At the age of fourteen, Nitta's cousin took him to San Pedro, California. While attending school, he worked as clerk and bookkeeper in stores. Upon graduation from the San Pedro High School in the year of 1933, Nitta went to visit his mother in Japan and attended a chick-sexing school in Nagoya.

PIONEER IN THE FIELD

Nitta was one of the pioneer students who learned chick sexing in Japan. Upon graduation, Nitta worked at hatcheries and on poultry farms in Japan furthering his studies. When Nitta returned to the States, he continued with his experiments and worked at hatcheries in different parts of the country.

OPENING OF SCHOOL

In the year, 1937, Nitta founded the first commercial chick-sexing school in the United States, naming it the American Chick Sexing Ass'n School. It was established in California, and until 1941 classes were held there. Since 1942, classes were held in Lansdale, Pennsylvania. Ever since the starting of the American Chick Sexing Ass'n School, Nitta has handed down his secrets and experiences to his students. Nitta possesses a certificate proving that he can sex two hundred chicks in ten minutes and thirty seconds with 100% accuracy.

HOW THIS SCHOOL RANKS IN THE NATION

The American Chick Sexing Ass'n School is the first and the only school operating every year since 1937. It is a member of the International Baby Chick Association, the World's Poultry Science Association, supporter of Poultry and Egg National Board, member of various State Poultry Improvement Associations, approved by the Department of Public Instructions, and authorized for Veterans' training under the G. I. Bill of Rights.

THE AMERICAN CHICK SEXING ASS'N

Nitta's sole idea, when organizing the American Chick Sexing Ass'n, was to provide hatcherymen in America a complete protection to furnish expert and dependable sexors, to make immediate replacements of sexors in case of any emergencies, to cooperate in carrying on the sanitation programs, and to make possible for long distant shipments promptly.

It provides the Amchick graduates a higher income and a permanent employment.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT GRADUATES

Nitta is now responsible for his graduates successfully working in almost every state from coast to coast, Canada, Latin America, Hawaii, and Europe. Nitta has never failed to provide employment for his graduates. Demand for his graduates are far greater than can be supplied.

WHERE STUDENTS COME FROM

Nitta's students come from all parts of the country, from Canada, Mexico, Cuba, and Hawaii.

EARNINGS OF AMCHICK GRADS

The earnings of Nitta's graduates range from $4.00 to $12.00 an hour. The work is seasonal, except in areas where chicks are hatched the year around. Earnings during the season of three to four months range from $3500 to $6000.

CAN ANYONE BECOME A QUALIFIED SEXOR?

Yes, Everyone can become a qualified sexor if he is within the age limit acceptable at the American Chick Sexing Ass'n School.
