

Canadian Japanese Unit Submits Eight-Point Proposal Calling for More Funds for Wartime Evacuees

TORONTO, Ont., Canada, Oct. 7 (New Canadian Dispatch) — An eight-point consideration of further compensation to Japanese Canadian evacuees was submitted in a brief presented to the federal government last week by the National JCCA.

The brief, detailing the evacuation and the disposal of evacuee properties, pointing out the limiting terms of reference and the difficulties of obtaining legal proofs of value when submitting claims to the Royal Commission, and proposing that the government allow added awards above those recommended by the Commissioner and subsequently approved by the government, was sent to Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent and other members of his cabinet.

In an accompanying letter addressed to the Prime Minister, the National JCCA representing the Canadian citizens of Japanese ancestry, while expressing gratitude for the granting of awards to the claimants, brought to the attention of the Government that "there still remains many injustices and hardships against Japanese Canadians arising from their forcible removal from British Columbia in 1942."

The brief outlines the background of the mass wartime removal pointing out that in carrying out the task as quickly as possible that the protection of real property and personal chattels was not properly effected and that under notice to evacuate, improvident sales, which were more in the nature of forced liquidation and "not free sales in a normal market," were made.

"Exploitation was rampant and the Government by various Orders-in-Councils recognized the need for protective action," the submission followed.

Once evacuation was completed, property of evacuees were vested in the Custodian, and eventually all this property was disposed of through liquidation sales.

The brief goes on to tell of the setting up of a Commission in 1947 by the government to enquire into the losses suffered as a result of these sales and to recommend just and equitable awards.

EIGHT-POINT PROPOSAL

- (1) A percentage of Sale Price allowance on all real properties sold to rental regulations. (2) A percentage of Sale Price allowance on all real properties to cover depreciation. (3) A percentage of Sale Price allowance for goodwill on all businesses subject to sale. (4) Percentage of all uncollected accounts receivable. (5) Establishment of an adjustment agency to adjust losses on forced sales on claims filed within 12 months with an appeal to the Attorney General for Canada. (6) A grant to each adult evacuee to compensate for general losses. (7) Interest on all awards from date of sale. (8) Adjustments on real property not sold to Veteran Lands Administration.

With respect to the findings and the awards recommended by the Commissioner, it states, "we believe the vast majority of the persons of Japanese ancestry in Canada regard these awards as a measure of rough justice within the limited terms of reference."

"However (it) will fall far short of providing 'reasonable and just compensation' to evacuees if that compensation is limited to the results of the enquiry."

It points out the difficulty caused by the limited scope of terms of reference by which many justifiable claims were excluded. Property sold directly by the evacuee owner, goodwill on business, and loss on accounts receivable were among those not within the terms.

The brief continued that there was difficulty in determining the strict legal proof of value caused by such factors as the lapse of time and inadequate records.

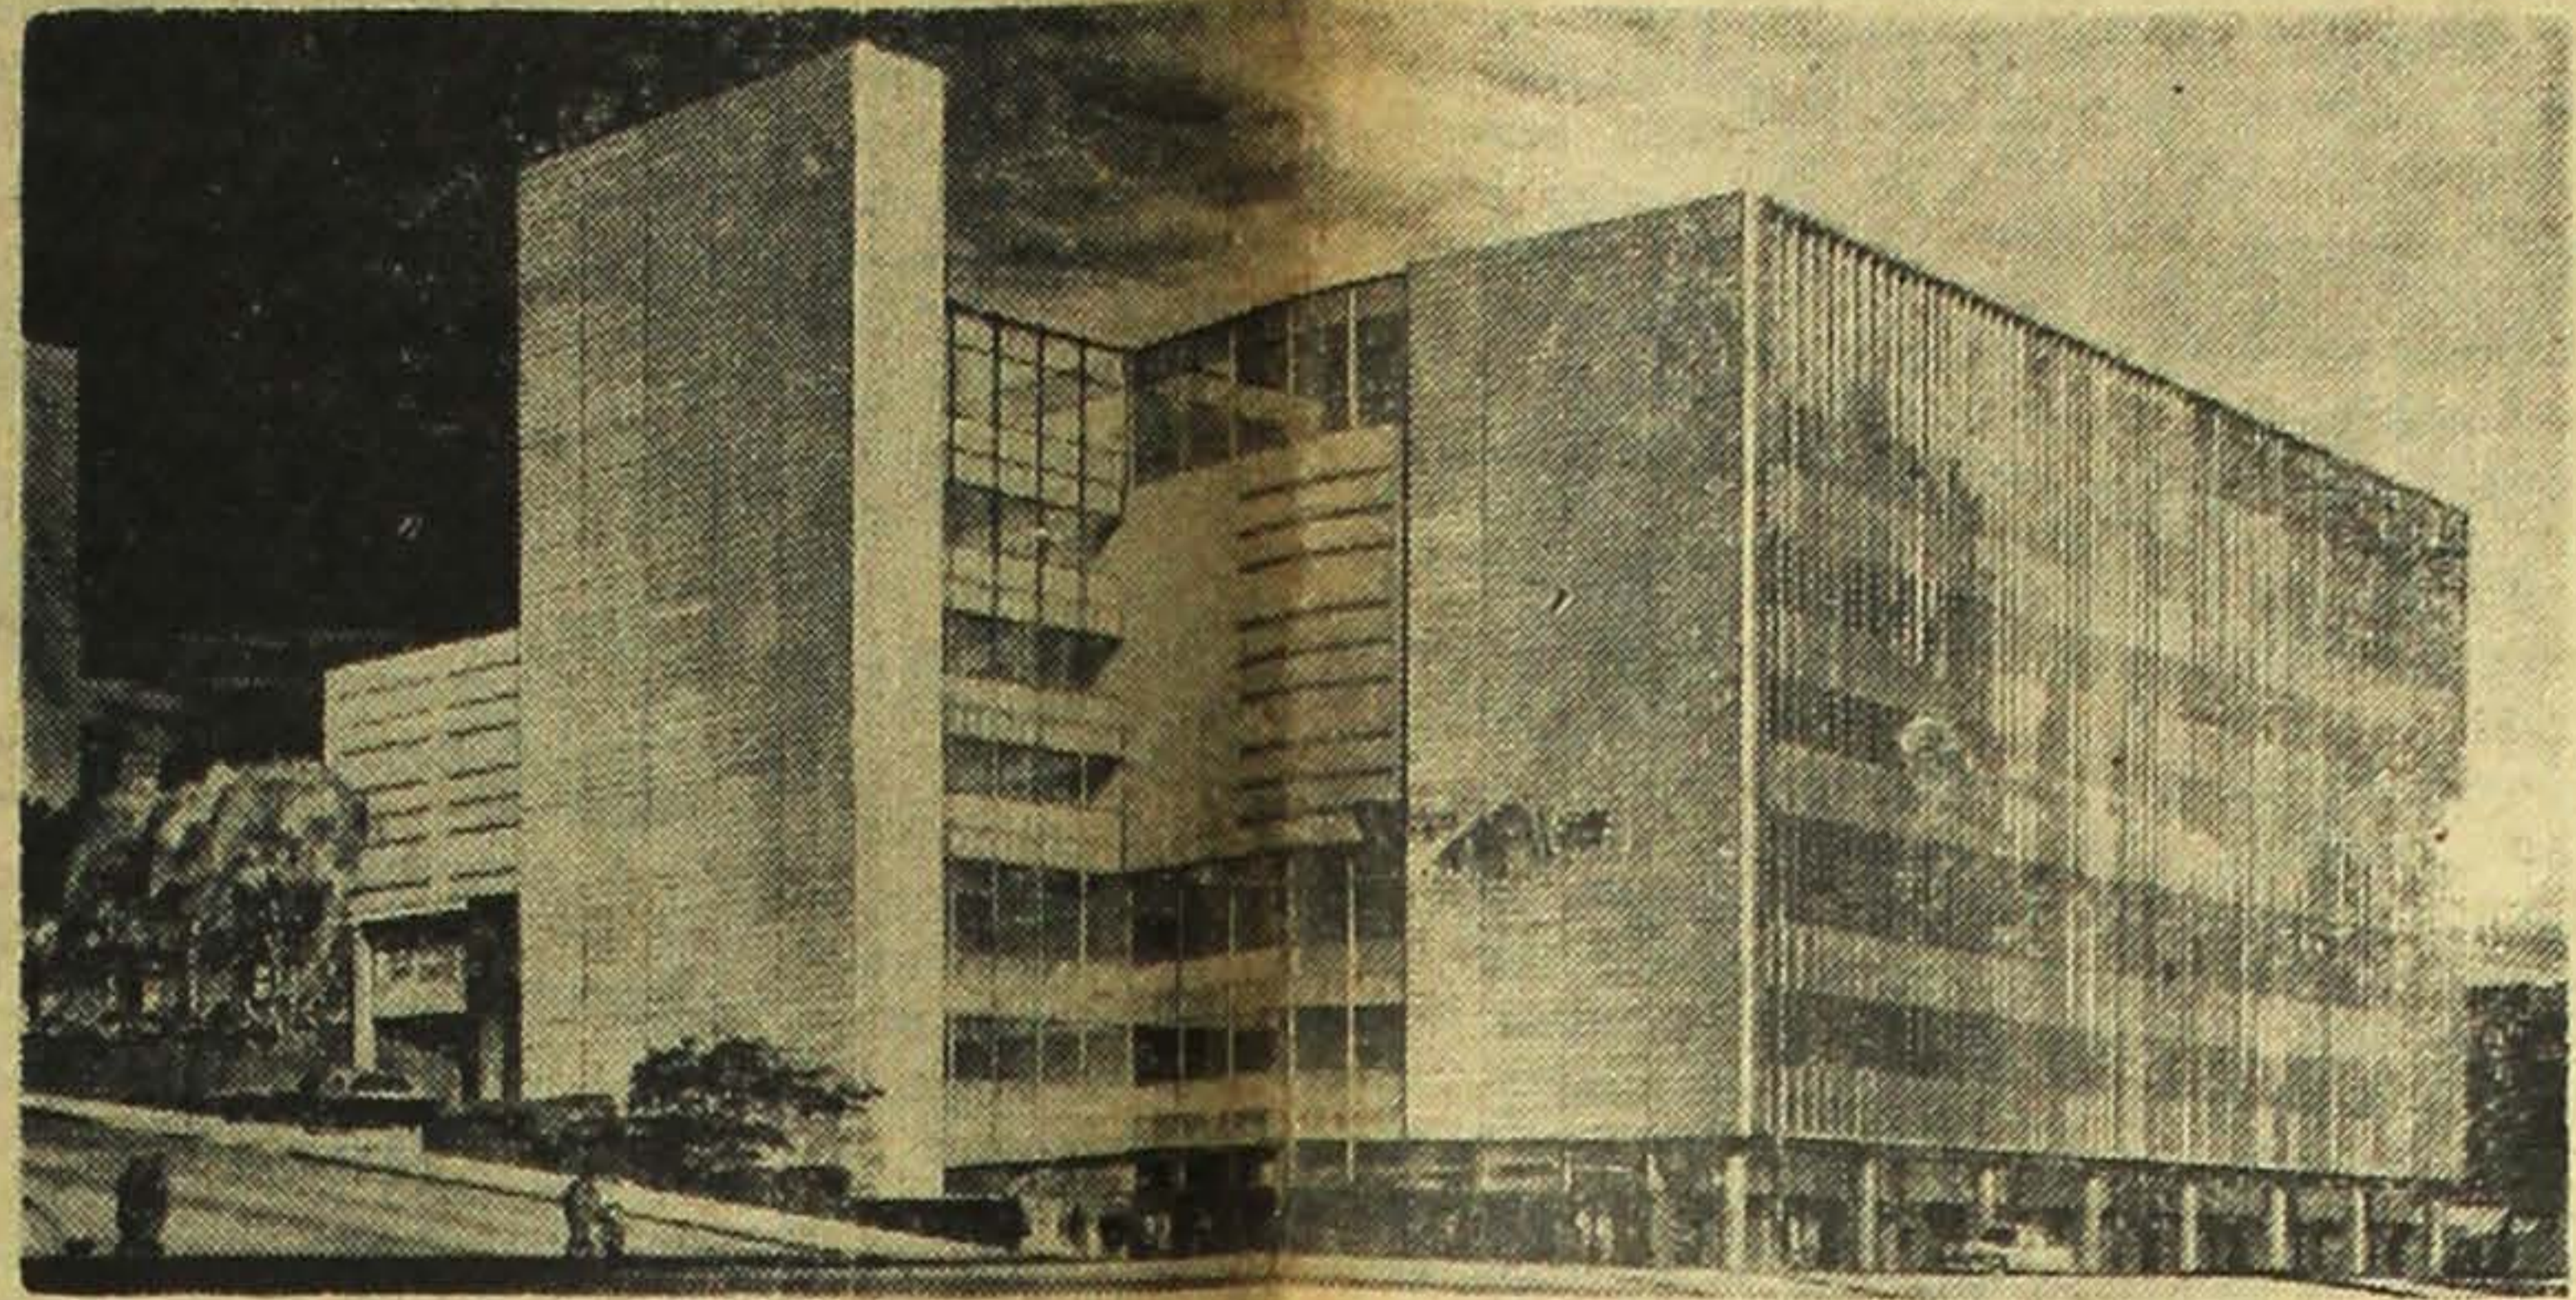

In view of the numerous inadequacies of awards, the National JCCA brief puts forward eight points on which the government is requested to make further compensation to the Japanese Canadian evacuees.

The brief was signed by Harold A. Hirose, National JCCA president, and George Tanaka, executive secretary.

... And What's Behind the China Curtain?

By GEORGE S. BENSON

(Editor's note: Opinions expressed by the writer are his own and not necessarily those of the Northwest Times.)

With world attention centered on the Orient, and especially on China and its behavior under Communist masters, it is well for us to know what's going on behind the scenes in this area so important to the future of Asia and, indeed, the whole world. I've just had as my guest a Chinese businessman who has spent his lifetime in China, who has had personal contact with the Chinese Communists and has observed at first hand the turn of events since they occupied the country. He is a university graduate, a highly intelligent, unusually well-informed person; in fact, he was with American Intelligence in China during World War II.

Any war today involving the United States against world Communism would find the masses of the Chinese people "ready and anxious to revolt" against their Communist masters, he says. "But if the Communists are given 10 years in China," he says, "they will have indoctrinated our young people so thoroughly and enslaved the others so completely that any spirit of revolt remaining alive will have been rendered impotent." This is a significant opinion in view of the theory, long projected by some of our foreign policy leaders, that China "is too big for the Communists to swallow."

Opportunity Closed

"Nine-tenths of all the people of China are against Communism now," he says. "They would revolt if they had a chance. They have discovered by personal experience that Communism permits only a bare existence, at best, if they order their lives in the Communist mold there is absolutely no hope or promise of rising above the existence level. Though there have been severe obstacles through the centuries, my people have always been conscious of the opportunity, however difficult, for anyone to rise above the station of peasantry. The opportunity now is closed."

The communists turn a benign face to the Chinese people, he says. "But their unspoken threats loom terrible behind their politeness. To oppose or even to question their 'suggestions' means imprisonment or death, or both. All Chinese people have become aware of this fact—by observation in their communities."

No Land Reforms

The Chinese people, he says, "have found, too, that the promised Communist land reforms will not materialize. It is true that the crushing high rentals which many landlords had imposed for generations have ceased going to the landlords, but it is not true that Chinese peasants have been 'given' land. The Communist 'State' in every case has retained ownership. The peasant on his parcel of land merely has changed landlords."

"He is permitted to keep from his rice harvest only a small portion above his diet requirements and with this he must meet all of the living expenses. The remainder is taken away by the Communist government. With his allotment he must earmark a quantity to exchange for the everyday family and home necessities and conserve the rest as the chief item of the family diet. The allotment represents his whole income."

Communist "Democracy"

"The seizing of land and other wealth goes down to the lowest level of ownership. The landlord owning five acres is approached, for instance, and told he needs only one acre. Ownership of four acres is taken from him. And the Communist officials say, 'Oh, by the way, the rental you've charged during the past has been rather high. We think you should have charged only half as much. You will please return 50 percent of the rentals you've collected during the past three years.' To whom? To the Communist government—not the tenant! If the owner hasn't the money and can't, in desperation, raise it, he goes to prison. He is not even permitted to make installment payments with the income from the one-acre left to him."

My guest is not a "follower" of Gen. Chiang Kai-shek, the National leader. However, he says the "graft and corruption" attributed to the Chiang regime has been "inflated out of all proportions" by Communist propagandists, their allies and unwitting dupes. He doubts it would even be "out of scale" with the political graft and corruption in some American cities. He says also that before Communists occupied Central and South China, land reform laws had been passed by the Chiang government which would ultimately have ended the worst features of Chinese landlordism.

Young Women Influenced Creation Of Newest Silverware Design

ATTRACTIVE table setting for an informal luncheon is obtained through use of 1847 Rogers Bros. new "Daffodil" pattern and china that also carries out the Daffodil flower theme.

Two years ago young women of this and other communities began expressing new ideas about silverware patterns.

They wanted something different. Many said, for example, they wanted to get away from the tradition of adopting the same pattern as that of their mother . . . which often was the favorite also of their grandmothers.

"Give us a youthful pattern," they said. "A design that expresses the freshness of youth."

The challenge for a pattern that was different . . . and youthful . . . was accepted by 1847 Rogers Bros. To learn in detail just what the young women desired the organization conducted design pre-tests for more than a year. They asked girls in colleges, high schools, and in business just what they wanted most in a new pattern.

The wishes now have become a reality. A new pattern that is something new . . . and different . . . in flatware design is being introduced this month in the nation's jewelry and department stores. Called "Daffodil," the pattern exemplifies the spirit and freshness of youth.

In the new pattern a Daffodil reaches up and along the edge of the silver shaft to burst into full-blown beauty at its peak. The spirit of youth is further emphasized by the speed of line and the graceful flow of the ornament. A sweeping line moving upward opens into a finely-proportioned panel on which the flower rests; thus completing the asymmetrical design.

The wishes of young women are further carried out by the designing of a complete line of holloware, including tea set and serving dishes that match the flatware design.

NVC Benefit Smoker Set Friday, Oct. 13

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1950

THE Sporting Thing
by bf

● FISTS . . . will be flying next Friday night, Oct. 13, in the Seattle Buddhist Auditorium but they will be friendly fists, fellows.

The Nisei Veterans Committee has set a benefit smoker for that day with two "name" pro fighters, Harry "Kid" Matthews, highly-touted Northwest lightweight, and Tommy Umeda, flashy Hawaiian Nisei featherweight, headlining the card.

Proceeds from the smoker will go towards a worthy cause. The money raised will help outfit the NVC-sponsored football team which is scrimmaging three times a week under coach Bob Nelson.

It is indeed a fine gesture on the part of the pros to appear on the NVC card without any compensation. They will be tossing their dukes before Japanese sports fans, realizing with satisfaction that their ring skill will pay off in the purchase of needed equipment for the Nisei grid squad.

Shiro Kashino, the promoter of the show, promises six exciting bouts, all of which, of course, will prevail under "heavy glove" condition to prevent unnecessary injuries to the participants.

Promoter "Mike Jacobs" Kashino and Umeda, who is lining up the pugilists, are to be congratulated for assembling the men. 'Tis another project of the NVC which today is the leading Nisei sports organization in Seattle.

So, if you have the money, Remember—the card's a honey.

● SIDELINE . . .

Presbyterians are pushing the idea of a church basketball team in the "Northwest Times League" this season; correction—the Nisei Veterans Committee supplies the "blood, sweat and tears" to operate the local basketball machines, and the Northwest Times merely reports the court proceedings.

social note of importance: Henry Aihara, the UCLA track star, and Karie Shindo, the songstress of "Tokyo Joe" fame, were recently engaged in Los Angeles . . . the Korean situation being as it is, one can be sure we won't be seeing the brand of basketball played by the pre-war Midgets and Hi-Stars yet; even before-Pearl Harbor quintets such as Lotus Troys (Tak Goto, Tosh Nishimura and war dead Matt Tanaka) and the Vandals (Tom Okazaki, Toyze Katsuyama) played more expertly than the fellows we've seen around here in the last few seasons . . . besides Ez Charles, the most underrated athletes were Pat Hagiwara and Konk Takeuchi, both excellent catchers. Takeuchi was overshadowed by such luminaries as Dyke Itami and Ben Yoshida on the powerful Fife quintet in the late thirties . . . the Midgets will raise funds for their basketball team by sponsoring a roller-skating party on Thursday, Oct. 19, at Rollerland rink; be there to give the boys a boost . . .

It's true that the season is still young, but it's also true that every early-wins will count in the close flag race . . . Hostak, Pinkman Will Referee Bouts; Proceeds to Go to Football Team

The greatest ring show ever to be brought to the Japanese American community will be the Nisei Veterans Committee's all-star football benefit smoker to be held from 8:30 p.m. next Friday, Oct. 13, in the Buddhist gymnasium.

Featured in the twin main attraction spots are Harry "Kid" Matthews of Seattle, who is now the fourth ranking lightweight title contender, and little Tommy Umeda, hard-hitting Hawaiian Nisei featherweight, who is rapidly climbing the boxing ladder since making his pro start after his service with the 442nd combat team.

Matthews will meet Billy Carter of Vancouver, B. C., who brings with him the heavyweight championship of Western Canada, and Umeda will trade punches with Tony Alvarez of Los Angeles, winner of the 1950 Northwest Golden Gloves crown in the flyweight division.

Tickets for this benefit smoker are now being sold by the Nisei football team members at $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children. There will be no reserved seats and everyone will have a chance to get ringside seats. The doors will open at 7:30 p.m. sharp.

Other bouts lined up by Shiro Kashino, fight promoter, are:

- Joe Quinlon of Seattle vs. Joe Thomas of Pittsburgh, heavyweights.
- Frankie Jamison of Chicago vs. Crawford Mullin of Seattle, welterweights.
- Sonny Grizette of Seattle vs. Johnny "Pago Pago" Scott of Seattle, welterweights.
- Tommy Maize of Seattle vs. Curley DeRoine of Tacoma, heavyweights.
- Tommy MacNamara of Seattle vs. Bobby Lee Davis of Seattle, welterweights.
- Freddie Steele of Seattle vs. Robert E. Lee of Seattle, lightweight.

Ernie Davis of Seattle vs. Tommy Burrell of Seattle, lightweight.

Two topnotch fighters of past years will referee the matches. They are Al Hostak, former world's middleweight champion, and Eddie Pinkman, ex-lightweight titlist of the Pacific coast.

A word of appreciation goes to Bob Wark who has been assisting Kashino in booking the boxers and securing the referees for this benefit smoker. The Nisei Veterans Committee also wishes to thank Ray Chinen who has been giving his time in training the fighters.

Kashino urged the Nisei public to come out and watch these professionals put on a fast exhibition of boxing. Since the boxers are fighting gratis to back up the Nisei football team raise funds for its equipment, the Nisei community can show its appreciation by attending the show, Kashino added.

Umeda to Appear On Oct. 10 Card

Tommy Umeda, fast-punching featherweight from Hawaii, will face Bob Wong's 511. Iwata's 500-plus men were Benny Nakata 542, Pancho Nakashima 510, Floyd Yamamoto 515, and Budd Fukel 542.

Harry "Kid" Matthews, leading lightweight title contender, will be a main event attraction. The first bout will start at 8:30 p.m.

Series —
Osa Edamura, Red Front, 614.
Team Game — Royal Amusement, 968.
Team Series — Royal Amusement, 2718.

The Nisei Commercial league pennant chase leveled off somewhat as Royal Amusement crashed through to the top by punching out a 2718 scratch series to dump Coast Wide Supply, 3 to 0, last Tuesday night in Main Bowl.

As the standings appear now, three teams — Coast Wide Supply, Tad's Gardeners and Iwata Insurance—are merely two games off the pace.

In the Royal defeat of Coast Wide Jim Kuranishi, the Nisei with the "Pete Gattani" curve, was the leading wood toppler, posting a 601 series on 187, 214 and 200 games. Not far behind teammate Kuranishi was George Iwata with 572. Other Royals shooting well were Shoichi Suyama (547) and Sab Yamashita (519).

Coast Wide, on the other hand, was way "off" its game. Yukio Kunityuki's 200 game in the third and Kaz Yamasaki's 500-on-the-nose series were the only bright spots in the Coast Wide attack.

Young Osa Edamura of Red Front Tavern provided the night's most exciting moments when he lined up eight consecutive strikes after a first-frame spare for a 268 game. The tavern corner wound up with a 614 series as his outfit took the odd game from Sakahara Insurance for a 2-1 victory. Tommie Hamasaki backed Edamura with a 564 which included a 230.

On the other hand, Sakahara's were doing fairly well themselves as Roy Fujiwara hit 219 in 541. Roy Tanagi a 535, Tom Hidaka a 223 in 526, and Tuk Tada a 204 second game.

Iwata Insurance remained in the contender's position by shutting out Twentieth Century, 3 to 0, despite Johnny Chinn's 206 and 583 and Bob Wong's 511. Iwata's 500-plus men were Benny Nakata 542, Pancho Nakashima 510, Floyd Yamamoto 515, and Budd Fukel 542.

Nagamine-Bepu Chevrolet, the championship squad from last season's play, inched forward by tripping Tad's Gardeners, 2 to 1. Tommy Namba (514) and Bill Tanaka (507) paced the champions. Tad's luminaries were Nobu Takahashi (540) and Mas Shibuya (523).

Puget Sound Vegetable Growers' Association of Sumner, flooring a well-balanced aggregation, turned back 12th Ave. Service, 2-1. An unusual carbon copy series was posted by Tak Akamatsu of PSVGA who hit three 15's. PSVGA's offensive had this appearance: Dave Botting (539), Willie Maeboori (536), Johnny Asahara (528) and D. Lorenzen (515). Jack Shiota (517) and Toki Mizuki (499) were 12th Ave. Service's aces.

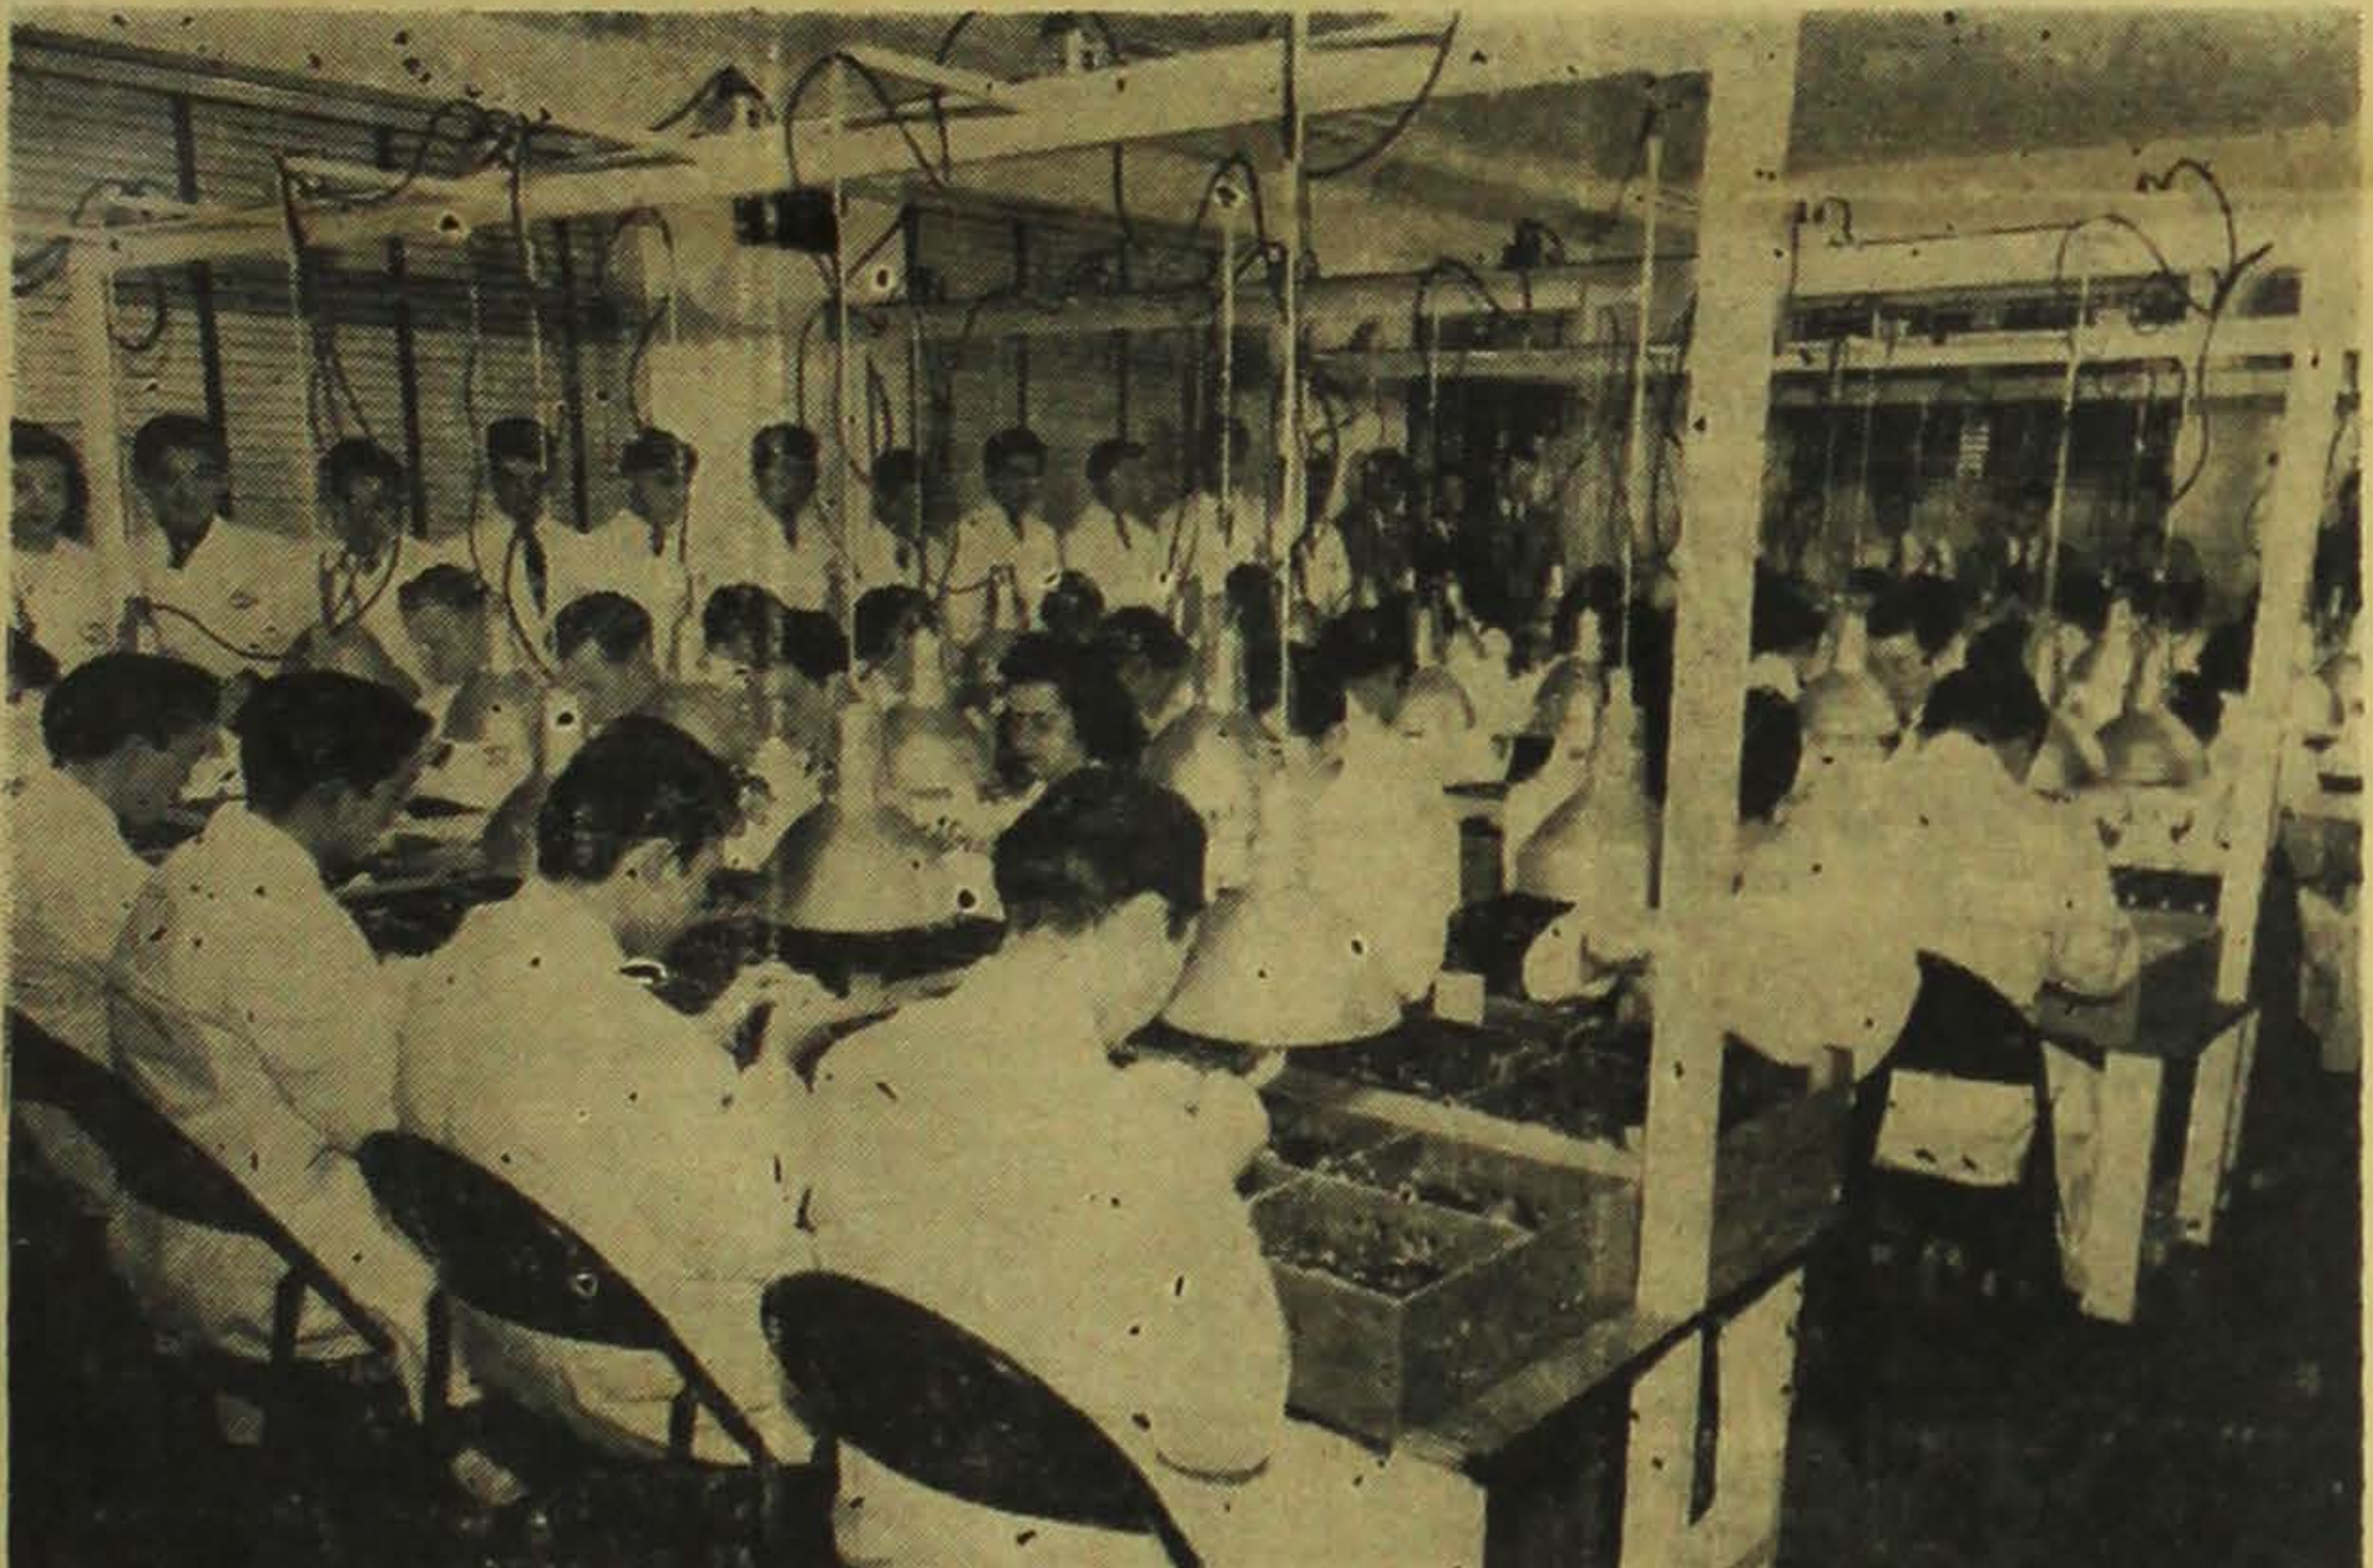

West Coast drubbed Jackson Grocery, 3-0, in the only other match. The W. C.'s displayed steady trundlers: Fred Takagi 536, Brownie Nomura 528, Hiro Sasaki 518 and Frank Yokoyama 517. Kenny Arita was okay for Jackson Grocery with 538, and the sponsor, Roy Maekawa, hit 204 but just missed the charmed 500.

WEDDING BELLS

In the presence of immediate family members and relatives, Miss Fumi Yoshida, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Yoshida of Fife, became the bride of Mr. Robert Lee last Sept. 9 in a simple home ceremony. The Rev. Emery Andrews performed the service before a fireplace at 7 o'clock.

The mantelpiece was centered with multi-colored asters and lighted tapers, and baskets of gladioli decorated the room.

The bride chose a gown of ice blue satin and a fingertip veil which was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Miyo Yoshida was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a light green satin gown fashioned similarly to that of the bride's, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and gladioli.

Serving as best man was Mr. Harold Kusulos.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the home.

On their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Lee traveled through Oregon and Idaho.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Lee (Fumi Yoshida) was honored at a surprise miscellaneous bridal shower which was also for her sister, Miss Miyo Yoshida, who will be married to Capt. Sam Uchiyama early in November. Hostesses for the shower, held in the home of Mrs. Tom Iwata, were Mrs. Iwata and Mrs. Art Yamada.

Those attending were the Mesdames Bob Mizukami, John Fujita, George Kawasaki, Toru Kuramoto, Tak Akamatsu, Amy Hashimoto, Tom Osaka, Daiichi Yoshioka, Yosh Fujita, Tad Sasaki, John Sasaki and Nobu Yoshida; the Misses Haruko Yaguchi, Amy Mukai, Edith Sasaki, Myrtle Komaki and Fudge Sasaki.

Mrs. Pete Sasaki was unable to attend but sent a gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee were hosts at an informal get-together for their friends last Sept. 23 in the home of Mrs. Lee's parents.

Close to eighty friends were present.

MORE ... sideline topics: ... friend Nachi Hayashi, who is here on a visit from Tokyo, informs us that Victor Starrfin, the Russian pitcher who received a major league offer when he and the Tokyo Giants barnstormed in the U. S. before World War II, is playing ball yet but he has lost much of his speed and stuff ... the Jackson St. Junior Council's soap box derby will be a far cry from the Indianapolis speedways classic, but it should provide some thrills and chills for the proud parents who will be watching their sons in miniature cars racing down Lane St. from 20th Ave. to Rainier next Saturday, Oct. 14 ... it is certainly nice to learn that Harry "Kid" Matthews, outstanding lightweight who will appear on the NVC benefit smoker on Friday, Oct. 13, in the Buddhist Auditorium, is now a hard puncher; before the war when we saw him train at the old Crystal Pool gym, he was just another fighter who was strong on defense and weak on offense ... the Pacific Northwest wasn't disgraced at all in the National Nisei Amateur Golf Tournament in Chicago last week; Seattle's Frank Hattori was among the prize winners and also was voted vice president of the newly-formed Nisei amateur tee association ... all Nisei baseball fans are pulling for Wally Yonamine, the Hawaiian athlete, to make the grade on Lefty O'Doul's San Francisco Seals next spring; a Yonamine on the Seal lineup would attract quite a number of Oriental spectators, we bet ... fishermen all, keep this in mind: the International Sportsmen's club's fishing derby will be on Sunday, Oct. 22, in Elliott Bay, and first prize will be a 16-horsepower Johnson motor, a valuable and handy thing for anyone who likes to fish

MORE ... coming into her own on the alleys is YoYo Konishi of Takano Studio who is rocking the pins at a 158 average ... steadiest spare-picker in the SNGBO — you know it — is Mrs. Tak Nakashima of North Coast Importing, so that is why she is the anchor woman for her team ... Fudge Sakanashi is batting a neat 150 for Tall's Fifth Ave.; she may stay in the "Big Ten" this year ... bowling is a scientific game, is the way Jean Terao, one of the topnotchers, approaches the sport ... a little practice and some instructions from the experts should give tiny YoYo Ishii of Frank's Jewelry the confidence to become a competent keglerette ... left-handers in any sports look good, and Madge Ono of Tom's Grocery is no exception as she has a smooth style of delivering ... like her hubby, Mrs. Mickey Oyama throws a beautiful strike ball ...
